To the HONOURABLE

Alexander Denton

Of Hilleſden in the County of Buckingham, Eſq;

One of His MAJESTY's Juſtices of the Court of Common-Pleas.

THE following Sheets being a Digeſt of many Years Collections, I beg leave to commit them to the Publick under the Patronage of Your Name: For, as they contain Extracts of Records, Old Wills, and other general Collections; to whom can

can they be ſo properly addreſſed as to Your Self; whoſe Knowledge in the Laws, and favourable Interpretations of my Performances in theſe Studies (how mean ſoever and undeſerving your Notice) muſt neceſſarily recommend the Author to Your Protection, in a difficult and invidious Undertaking; which, without Your Countenance, may expoſe him to Cenſure and Reflection.

As You have, Sir, already condeſcended, to inſpect and approve of the Method of this Attempt, ſo I doubt not but Your further Indulgence will influence others to judge candidly of it; who will have leſs Occaſion to envy my Preſumption herein, when they underſtand that my Situation in the Neighbourhood of Your antient Family, hath given me frequent Opportunities of Acceſs to You, and of receiving ſignal Proofs of Your Goodneſs and Friendſhip.

I AM not inſenſible under what Diſadvantages the Study of Antiquities labours, in the general Eſteem of the World; and that this Undertaking, in particular, muſt not only encounter thoſe common Prejudices, but alſo ſtand the Teſt of ſome Men's Paſſions, as well as the Reaſon of others; and that it will be urged againſt me, that I ought not to have brought Things and Perſons ſo long forgotten, on the Stage again: For my own Part, I hold every Man's Character and Memory ſacred, and would, on no Occaſion, attack them otherwiſe than purely for the ſake of Example and Admonition, which the Subject of this Eſſay unavoidably leads me into: That ſeeing how the Neglect of Reſidence and Repairs of Cathedrals, and the perverting to private and ſelfiſh Uſes the Benefactions appropriated to the Support of theſe venerable Edifices, without any Dread of Sacrilege, or Regard to thoſe Statutes moſt ſolemnly ſworn to: I ſay, that ſeeing how theſe Cauſes have produced the deplorable Effects of Ruin and Deſtruction of ſome of our Cathedrals; all preſent and future Church Dignitaries may be hereby awakened, and deterred from either doing, or omitting, what muſt neceſſarily be attended with the like Conſequences, and what they muſt juſtly condemn in their Predeceſſors: And if I ſeem warm towards ſome of the moſt flagrant Authors of thoſe Evils, and the Alienators of the Churches Patrimony; It will, I hope, be conſtrued only as the Tranſports of an honeſt Zeal; and that all impartial Perſons will excuſe it, ſince it is impoſſible for any Author to write without Diſobliging, there being no Sort of Learning but what has its Enemies; it being natural alſo more particularly for thoſe who have no Reliſh for Antiquities, to reflect on the Revival of every thing beyond their own Time.

As to Errors here committed, I may alſo be prepared to expect Animadverſions: But if I may be allowed to ſpeak for my ſelf, I would beg leave to remind ſuch nice Obſervers, of the great Variety of Things and Perſons, and the long Series of Succeſſions here treated of, The Want of Records, their Imperfections, The Difficulty and Expence of Acceſs to Offices; The Defect of Information from the Unskil-

Unskilfulneſs, and Incurioufneſs of ſome Correſpondents; Which Circumſtances duly weighed, certainly no candid Perſon needs be pre-admoniſhed to make favourable Allowances, eſpecially if they conſider that an Undertaking of this Kind would more properly have been the Province of an Eccleſiaſtick, than of a Layman, who chiefly attempts it for want of others engaging herein, without any private Ends or Intereſt, but only to repreſent Things impartially, according to the beſt of his Judgment and Information.

I SHALL only add, that it will be a Satisfaction to me, if by what is here exhibited, I become inſtrumental in provoking others to oblige the World with a further and more correct Account; and that I am proud of acknowledging and declaring publickly how much I am,

SIR,

Your moſt Obliged,

And Devoted Servant,

BROWNE WILLIS.

PREFACE.

IT having been already hinted in the Dedication what Diſadvantages attend Undertakings of this Sort, and ſome Excuſes made, pag. 807. and elſewhere, for Errors which will unavoidably happen, and the Methods taken to rectify them ſet forth; nothing more remains for the Subject of a Preface than to inform the Reader, how I came to be engaged in drawing up theſe Collections, the Motives that induced me to make them Publick, and to acknowledge the Obligations laid on me by Gentlemen, who aſſiſted me herein.

Soon after the Publication of Mr. Le'Neve's moſt uſeful Faſti Eccleſiæ Anglicanæ, or Hiſtory of the principal Dignitaries in our Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, deduced by him down to the Year 1716. (I being then Printing in Two Volumes, Series's of the Heads or Governors of our Religious Houſes) my Curioſity led me, as his Series's of the ſame Nature in Cathedrals was done to my Hand, to have his Book interleaved, that I might the better inſert what Additions and Corrections I could make to His Work; and in this Reſpect I found I had ſucceeded ſo well, that I had almoſt gleaned up enough for a ſmall Volume; and as I was not wanting in Communicating my Materials, ſo I uſed my beſt Endeavours to prevail on Him to oblige the World with what Improvements could be made in a new Edition or Supplement, little intending to draw on my ſelf any further Trouble; but He altogether declining the Task, and alledging that he could not meet with the leaſt Encouragement, I became at Length prevailed on, ſince I had in ſeparate Volumes ſet forth Hiſtories of the Four Welch Cathe-

Cathedrals, or antient Province of St. DAVID, to attempt ſomewhat in like Manner for the four Northern Cathedrals, or Province of YORK; and to that End I uſed my Endeavours to procure Liſts or Series's of the Prebendaries in every Stall in the Church of York, (thoſe of Durham and Cheſter having been tranſmitted to me ſoon after the Coming out of Mr. Le'Neve's Book) and as I found on Enquiry, that thoſe of York had been luckily extracted from Records by Mr. Torr to the Year 1693, I had by the Intereſt of my Friends little to do, except paying for Tranſcripts of what he had done, and to obtain a Continuation of them to the Year 1722. at which Period I deſigned to terminate this Work, when I firſt reſolved to undertake it, being ſenſible how impracticable and vain it was to attempt deducing it lower, on Account of many Alterations that would daily happen, and that ſhould I not thus fix the Limits, the Series of the Members of one Church, or Prebendal Stalls muſt differ from another; and therefore had I been determined otherwiſe, my ſeeking after Information would have been endleſs, and my Searches in Offices, and Troubling my Friends unreaſonably tireſome, both to my ſelf and them. But it ſo happening, that while I was purſuing this Work, I found my ſelf called upon to anſwer an unexpected Attack made on me in a moſt extraordinary Manner, as I have obſerved Pag. 500. by a Dignitary of the Church of Hereford; and my Friends deſiring, that for my own Vindication, I would give ſome Account of that Cathedral, I the rather ſubmitted to their Requeſt, foraſmuch as Hereford had been reputed antiently a Member of the Province of St. David.; and the ſame Reaſon determining me about Worceſter, I was on that Account obliged to ſubjoin Glouceſter and Briſtol, in regard that both thoſe Churches were till the Year 1541. ſubordinate to Worceſter; and though the beſt Part of Briſtol Dioceſe, viz. my native County of Dorſet, was taken from Salisbury, yet I thought it proper to make no Diſtinction, but give the Whole together entire; and as great Part of the new Dioceſe of Cheſter was at the ſame Time taken out of Lichfeild, as well as York, I could not, as the preſent worthy Dean had ſupplied me ſome Years ago with a very particular Account of it, in Gratitude, omit inſerting it.

Wherefore, having thus formed ſo extenſive a Deſign, I was not wanting, when my Affairs called me to London, and Health and Leiſure permitted, in extracting what I could meet with to my Purpoſe, in all the publick Offices, particularly the Rolls Chapel, Prerogative and Firſt-Fruits Offices, Cottonian and Lambeth Libraries; neither was I leſs remiſs, as Opportunities ſerved, in making Collections from the Bodleian, Aſhmolean and private Libraries, and in applying to ſeveral Friends, Friends, particularly Biſhop Kennet, Dr. Tanner, Mr. Baker, &c. to ſend me what Informations they could for my Purpoſe.

How difficult, tedious, and expenſive it was to me to make ſuch Collections I need not deſcribe, or expatiate how curſorily I was obliged to turn over Patents, Wills, Compoſitions for Firſt Fruits, &c. to retrieve the Names of Dignitaries; my Deſign in mentioning it being chiefly to point out to Gentlemen that engage in Works of this Kind, what they ought to undergo, and where to ſearch for Materials which cannot be gathered at once, but muſt by Degrees be pick'd up, and after all, great Allowances be made for Imperfections in ſuch Eſſays at firſt, as may ſufficiently be apprehended by any one, who will by examining this Account, even in the Churches of York, Lichfield and Hereford, diſcover that I have there added no leſs than 370 Precentors, Chancellors, Treaſurers and Archdeacons, which are moſtly diſtinguiſh'd by this Aſterisk Mark *, and are entirely omitted in Le Neve's Faſti; beſides about 400 Archdeacons and Prebendaries in the Churches of Durham, Cheſter, Worceſter and Glouceſter, that he has made no Mention of, not to inſiſt on what I have done in other Cathedrals, or my rectifying numerous Dates of Collations, &c. This I do not inſtance to derogate in the leaſt from his elaborate Performance, for I muſt acknowledge that I can my ſelf ſince their Publication, improve in a very great Degree, my own Welch Cathedrals, eſpecially St. David's and Landaff, having, with many curious Additions, carry'd them down with our other Cathedrals in general, to the Year 1722 at the ſame Time as I was copying over this Account; which having for the moſt Part compleated Anno 1723. I committed it the next Year to the Preſs; and that I had Anno 1724. made ſome Progreſs, and printed off ſome Sheets, is ſufficiently known to ſeveral Gentlemen, who alſo being appriſed of the Reaſons why it has been ſo long delayed coming out, I need not make them more publick here: For as no Subſcriptions were ever asked or received, and the Inconvenience wholly attending the Author and Bookſeller, it would be but impertinent to mention its falling into the Hands of a dilatory and careleſs Printer, who engaging in publiſhing other Books to carry on his Buſineſs, may be better excuſed than his Compoſitors Ignorance in Latin, and Miſtakes in pointing, and inverting Dates; but as theſe Errors are eaſily diſtinguiſhable, it is to be hoped that candid Readers will, as they are obvious, more readily correct, than cenſure, or lay them to the Charge of a diſtant Author, whoſe Pains and Expence in drawing up theſe Collections, and procuring the Draughts, 'tis to be hoped will attone for Errors, eſpecially if 'tis conſidered that the Account of the Churches and Chapels in each Dioceſe, is the firſt of its Kind attempted in this Manner, and that here are included near 1000 Churches and Chapels omitted in our former Valors and Accounts of our Biſhopricks; and that therefore ſuch Miſtakes as may happen in the Names of above 4000 Places and 7000 Perſons, may be reaſonably expected, and the Rectifying them preſumed a Work of Futurity, and ſo no Ways practicable to the Author at preſent, who can aſſure the Reader, that if he could have brought it to Perfection, he had formed a Deſign of having Maps engraven of every particular Dioceſe, and dividing them into their proper Archdeaconries and Deanaries, and would have therein ſpecifyed the reſpective Churches and Chapels, according to the Form of their Structures, with, or without, Spires, or Towers; as Pinnacled, Battlemented, Coped, &c. according to the Method of the Maps in Plott's Oxfordſhire and Staffordſhire, Dugdale's Warwickſhire, and as ſeveral are given in the 20 Mile Maps about the two Univerſities. And this would doubtleſs have been of great Satisfaction and Curioſity to Biſhops, Archdeacons, and other Ordinaries, who might in Time have rendered their Diſtricts compleat: But this I am at preſent under a Neceſſity of recommending to others, as indeed I do the whole Deſign; and it would be a Pleaſure to me to ſee what I have done rendered more defective than I have ſhown Le Neve's Faſti to be, by the numerous Additions I have made to them; and I do moſt heartily aſſure any Perſon that ſhall attempt it, that I will thank him for it, and readily contribute any Aſſiſtance in my Power on that Account: But this I need not repeat, ſo I come to acknowledge my Obligations to Gentlemen, from whom I received Information in the ſeveral Churches treated of in this Work, of which in their Order. To begin with

York. Beſides what I collected, wherein I have cited my Authorities, I muſt own that I had ſeveral valuable Materials tranſmitted me by Mr. Precentor Richardſon, and Dr. Brearey, both Canons of this Church, and that I lie under Obligations alſo to other Gentlemen for reviſing and correcting this Account, though it ſlipped their Obſervation, as it did alſo mine, that I had not fully accounted for the Archbiſhops Patronages, as I have for thoſe of the Biſhops of other Dioceſes; wherefore I beg Leave to obſerve here, that the Archbiſhop collates to all the Dignities in his Cathedral, except the Deanary, as alſo to the Prebends of Southwell and Rippon; and beſides of about 62 Livings in his Dioceſe here given, he is Patron of Owſton and Haxey Vicaridges, Co. Lincoln, and of a Lectureſhip at Cheſterfield, Co. Derby: The Chapter of York, beſides about 14 Livings in the Dioceſe, and thoſe I have mentioned Pag. 29. preſent to Allerton-mauleverer, Hunſingore and Ouſeborne magna, Vicaridges Co. York, now in Cheſter, though formerly in this Dioceſe. At

Dur-

DURHAM. The Liſt of the Prebendaries communicated to me by Dr. Elliſon (deceaſed Anno 1721.) has been improved, and ſeveral Additions made to it by the Reverend Mr. Rymer Maſter of the College School, to whom I am obliged for the Draught and Plan of the Cathedral, and his Peruſal of the whole Account, which ſome of the Prebendaries have likewiſe been pleaſed to examine and correct, as has alſo the preſent worthy Archdeacon of Northumberland, Mr. Sharp, who helped me to ſome Notices of the Burials of the Prebendaries, and to what Dedications he could of the Churches in his Diſtrict, exhibited p. 813 & 814. in the Appendix. At

CARLISLE. I am greatly indebted to Mr. Prebendary Dr. Todd, for the Plan of the Cathedral, and ſeveral valuable Informations; as I was alſo honoured with the preſent worthy Biſhop's, and the late Biſhop Nicholſon's Approbation of my Work. At

CHESTER. I was helped to what Biſhop Gaſtrel could favour me with, and had what could be imparted for my Purpoſe from Mr. Regiſtrar Roberts, and Mr. Prebendary Preſcot; my Couſin Thomas Willis, and Holland Egerton Eſquires; but above all, I muſt acknowledge the Friendſhip of the Reverend Mr. Stones, one of the minor Canons, to whom I much lament my not applying at firſt. At

MAN. I was infinitely obliged to the truly primitive Biſhop there, but as I had not the Honour to be known to his Lordſhip, and on that Account neglecting the ſending in Time; my Letters and his Anſwers were ſo long in circulating, that I could not receive a thorough Information to ſeveral of my Queries early enough; tho' as this is the firſt Deſcription given of this Church, I hope it may be accepted: His Lordſhip informing me that the Draught is exactly engraven, except that the Windows are too wide (which I was apprehenſive of at firſt, and ſo told the Engraver, tho' I could not perſuade him to alter them, after the Plate was once out of his Hands) and that the Plan is right, is alſo his Lordſhips Opinion, except that the Pulpit which is oppoſite to the Biſhop's Throne, is not ſpecified; it is very lately alſo, that I learnt from his Lordſhip, that no Part of the Body and Croſs Iſle is paved; and that all the Lords nine Impropriations mentioned p. 817. were leaſed about 1667, by the Lords of the Iſle to Biſhop Barrow, for the Benefit of the poor Clergy. At

LICHFIELD. Whatever I have of this Church about the Dignitaries, &c. I muſt confeſs to have received it almoſt entirely from the preſent generous Dean, whoſe Pains in making Extracts from the Biſhop's and Chapter Regiſters I can never ſufficiently acknowledge, his Aſſiſtance being beyond what I have received from any other Gentle- man: Some valuable Accounts hereof, were alſo ſent me by the Reverend Mr. Prebendary Carte, a moſt knowing Antiquary. At

HEREFORD. Though I took the whole Epitaph Account from the printed Book, (as I did at Worceſter) yet in drawing up the Series of the Dignitaries, I ſpared for no Pains, as to examining the Biſhops Regiſters, and making what Abſtracts I could from the Archives there; and here I met with extraordinary Favours from the moſt Reverend Biſhop Ottley, and Dr. Morgan, two of the Canons, Mr. Pyle Regiſtrar, Mr. Trahern Schoolmaſter, ſome of the Prebendaries, Mr. Brome, &c. who peruſed my Account, helped me to what Epitaphs they could, and examined ſeveral Pariſh Regiſters, I doing thoſe of Ledbury and Bromyard my ſelf; nor were other Gentlemen leſs ſollicitous in aſſiſting me, in Regard that I had met with an unexpected Adverſary here. At

WORCESTER. (In the Account of which, I ſhould have taken Notice that in this and the two following Cathedrals, the Gift of the Prebends is in the Crown) I was greatly aſſiſted by Mr. Archdeacon and Prebendary Dr. Worth, and the Reverend Mr. Thomas, who with indefatigable Labour, extracted many curious Things out of the Church Regiſters, enquired after Epitaphs, &c. for me in the Dioceſe, and inſpected my whole Account of this Church; as did the Reverend Mr. Furney Archdeacon of Surrey, what I have done of

GLOUCESTER; Who being a Native of that City, and a curious Searcher into the Antiquities thereof, as well as other Antiquities in general, very readily aſſiſted me: The ſame likewiſe did Mr. Precentor Gregory, one of the minor Canons, to whom I communicated what I had drawn up both before and after Printing, which I likewiſe ſhewed to Mr. Archdeacon Lye, one of the Prebendaries. At

BRISTOL. I am bound to acknowledge that the Draughts were kindly taken for me by the ingenious Mr. Ford Prebendary of Wells, and that I am much indebted to the Reverend Mr. Precentor Rogers, in helping me to take the Epitaphs; as alſo to Dr. Harcourt one of the Prebendaries, for Acceſs to the Chapter-Books, and his Examination of this Account, which his Lordſhip the preſent Biſhop, (from whom I have received many Favours,) condeſcended alſo to oblige me in.

Having now thus briefly gone through ſome Account of theſe Churches here treated of in general, it may be expected I ſhould ſay ſome-what about the Draughts: How well theſe are performed, muſt be left to others Judgments. The Plans of York, Carliſle, Durham and Cheſter, (committed near five Years ago to Mr. Burghers now deceaſed, who had been about fifty Years Engraver to the Univerſity of Oxford) being done with with more Exactneſs, after the Form of the Churches, than Nicety of Work, in my Opinion; when I had got clear of him, to make ſome Amends, I gave the Uprights of them to Mr. Harris of London, a more able Workman: And theſe I cannot ſay but he has well performed, according to my Judgment, as he has alſo Lichfield and Worceſter, (except the Arms in Lichfield) tho' I cannot ſo well approve of his Uprights of Hereford, Glouceſter and Briſtol, the firſt of theſe being but meanly engraven; and the Pinnacle-work in Glouceſter Tower, not ſufficiently expreſſive of the Beauty and Tenderneſs of the Original; and the laſt being not put in good Perſpective; however as there are Plans to explain all, the Architecture will be ſufficiently underſtood, and theſe Draughts being done in a more exact Manner than any of the common Prints, which they will be found in ſeveral reſpects to differ from, and to excel; I hope I may be allowed to have diſcharged my Part in making them ſo perfect as they appear; for had it been practicable for me to have attended Draughts-Men and Engravers, and to have governed them, I ſhould have endeavoured to adapt the Ichnography and Uprights to the ſame Scale, as is aimed at in Worceſter, Briſtol and Man.

I ſhall conclude all, before I diſmiſs this Subject, in giving ſome Account of the Method I took in collecting theſe Materials, and plead the Occaſion for my not oftner citing Authorities, by ſhewing from whence I collected for the moſt Part what I have not produced Vouchers for.

Where my Correſpondents did not throughly ſatisfy me in the Informations ſent from the reſpective Churches here deſcribed; of the Extent and Diviſion of the Dioceſe, of the Members of Cathedrals, the Series of the Incumbents in each Stall, Names of Churches and Chapels, of their Dedications, Patrons of Livings, &c. I laboured to ſupply their Defects elſewhere, eſpecially in the Liſts of Dignitaries, from the Firſt-Fruits Office and old Wills; and the Account of Builders of Cathedrals, Lives of Biſhops, &c. may be ſo entirely traced from printed Authors, as Godwin, Speed, Wood, Wharton, Heylin, Fuller, Strype, Collier, Newcourt, &c. that on due Examination, it will be found I have added little or nothing of my own: In compiling the Series of Deans, Precentors, Chancellors, Treaſurers, Archdeacons and Prebendaries, Recourſe has been had to the Biſhops and Chapter Regiſters, and where they have been defective, as I have before hinted, I have laboured to fill up the Succeſſions from the Patents, Compoſitions for Firſt Fruits, as I did their Deaths, &c. Burials, &c. from old Wills and Pariſh Regiſters, where ſeveral were beneficed: The Endowments of Biſhopricks, Anno 1534, was extracted from the Firſt-Fruits Office, and the Sales of their Lands in the Rebellion Years, from a MS.

in the Library of the late Thomas Rawlinſon, Eſq; And though it has been alledged to me that the Inſertion of Epitaphs was needleſs, and how much it would ſwell the Book, yet the Satisfaction I took in retrieving ſo many loſt Inſcriptions as I have (one Hundred at leaſt out of about ſix Hundred) here given, prevailed on me to collect all I could, and occaſioned my being more than ordinary inquiſitive after them, and ſeveral other minute Things; in enquiring after which, I am ſenſible, I have tired my Friends, who can in theſe Dioceſes teſtify my repeated Endeavours to make this Account as compleat as poſſible in all its Branches: And this may in ſome reſpect be judged from the Review at the End, where what has eſcaped their Obſervations and mine, I hope will be overlooked, as well as Errors in ſome of the Epitaphs, and Letters of the laſt Index, which I muſt own I left to others to tranſcribe and compile; and as to Miſtakes of Patrons, if there are ſome few, I muſt deſire Allowances, eſpecially by Reaſon of the Changes that may have been made in four Years Time ſince my Account was drawn up. However, as I do moſt earneſtly invite and entreat all Gentlemen, to tranſmit me what Improvements and Corrections they can, and hereby ſignify my Willingneſs in any future Publication, to rectify any wrong Account or Information, I doubt not but they will be as ready to overlook Errors, as I am to own them; who have no greater Ambition than to attempt Diſcoveries of forgotten Antiquities, and retrieve the Memory of old Monuments which have decayed, and are in a good Meaſure vaniſhed away.

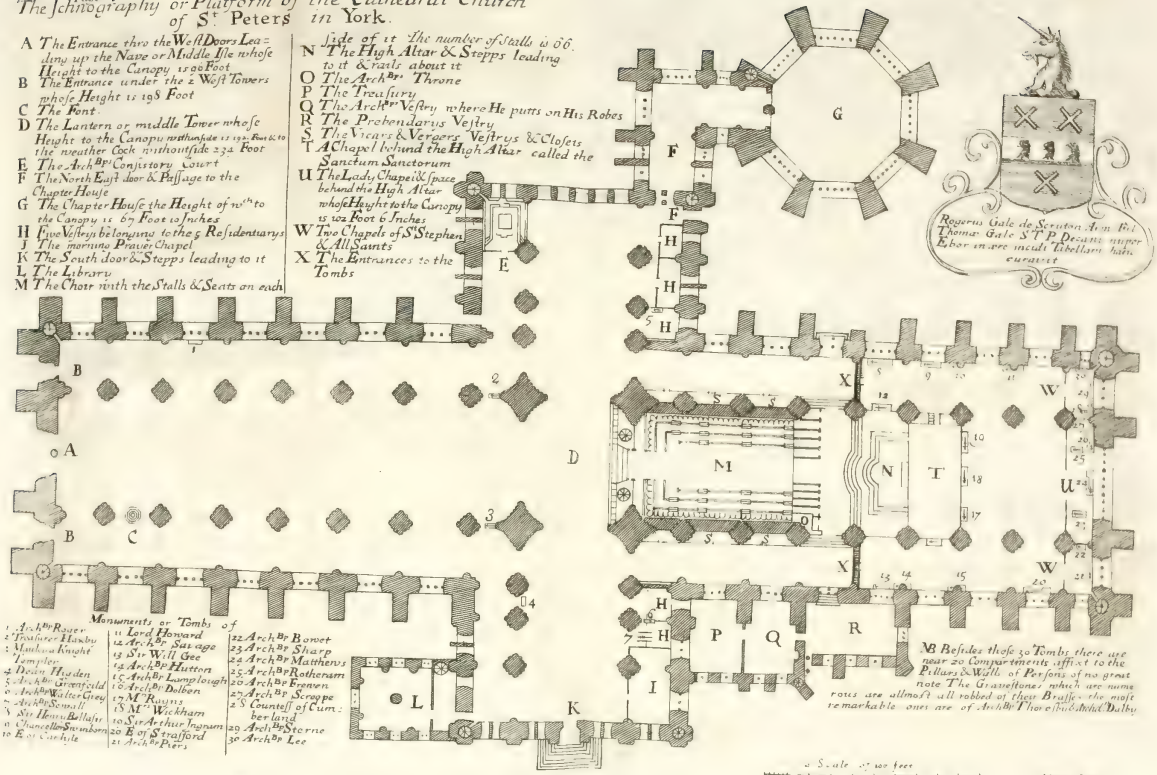
X The Entrances to the Tombs



DIOCESE OF YORK.

CONTAINS above three Parts in four of Yorkſhire, all Nottinghamſhire, and theſe Churches and Chapels Co. Northumberland, being Hexam Peculiar Juriſdiction, viz. Hexam cum Whitby Capella, St. John's-Lees, cum Bingfield & St. Oſwald Capellis, Allerdale cum Ninebanks Capella, & Tockerington. In this Diſtrict are reputed, as our Accounts tell us, 581 Pariſhes, of which 336 are Impropriations; though, including Chapels and Donatives, here are about 903. Theſe are all, except Hexam Peculiar, and Rippon, and Southwell Juriſdictions, which are under the Archbiſhop's immediate Juriſdiction, divided under theſe four Archdeaconries:

1. YORK, alias WEST-RIDING, which has theſe Deanaries, Ainſty cum York City, Doncaſter, Craven, Pontfract.

2. EAST-RIDING, which has theſe, Bucroſs, Dickering, Harthill (cum Beverley, and Howden Peculiars) and Holderneſs.

3. CLEVELAND, which has Bulmere, Cleveland (cum North-Allerton Peculiar) and Ridall.

(All the Pariſhes in theſe three Archdeaconries lie Co. York.)

4. NOTTINGHAM, which has theſe Deanaries, viz. Bingham, Nottingham, Newark, Retford, (Southwell,) Peculiar, all Co. Nottingham.

The Clergy's Tenths amount to 1113 l. 17 s. 9 d. in this great Diocese, which is the most ancient Metropolitical See in England, being, as some Authors tell us, made so in the Time of the Britains: And that it had greater Extent and Jurisdiction than Canterbury, till within less than an hundred Years before the Reformation, appears from our Histories: For though the Archbishop of Canterbury was styled Metropolitan of all England; yet, as the Archbishop of York was Metropolitan of all Scotland, and allowed in his Style to be called Metropolitan of England, he had certainly the largest Province before 1466, at which time Scotland was separated from his Jurisdiction, which is now contracted to contain only the Suffragan Sees of Durham, Carlisle, and Chester; having but three Bishopricks left it at present, besides the Bishoprick of the Isle of Man, of which Godwin takes no Notice, it being but of small Compass, containing only seventeen Parishes.

CATHEDRAL of YORK.

HAS a Dean, Precentor, Chancellor, Sub-dean, four Archdeacons, (viz. of York, East-Riding, Cleveland and Nottingham) twenty-eight Prebendaries, a Sub-chantor, five Vicars Choral in Priests Orders (one of which is styled Succentor of the Vicars) seven Lay Clerks or Singing Men, six Choristers, four Vergers, who take care of all the Offices of the Church, as Ringing the Bells, Sweeping of it, &c.

The Number of Residentiaries are four, besides the Dean; which four are elected out of the Dignitaries and Prebendaries, who, as they have leased out their Prebendal Houses, are all of them (except the Dean) obliged, when they are elected Residentiaries, to hire Houses to inhabit in, to perform their respective Residences.

In the Lord Hatton's Library is a most curious Manuscript, containing Draughts of all the Arms and Monuments in this Cathedral, remaining Anno 1641. A Copy of this, very neatly drawn, is in the Heralds-Office, or College of Arms, in London. And also among Mr. Dodsworth's Manuscripts, in the Bodleian Library at Oxford, are several Collections relating to this Cathedral; which for Magnificence of Structure, justly challenges the Pre-eminence of all in England. It has no Cloisters, as may be seen by the Ichnography here given, wherein as the Altitude of the Towers, Lantern, and other Parts of the Building being expressed, I need not repeat it here: Though I shall observe in general, that it is 497 Foot in Length from East to West, and 280 Foot from North to South; and that the Length of the Choir is 136 Foot, and Breadth of the Body and Side-Isles 102 Foot; the Height of the middle middle or Lantern-Tower is 234 Foot, and of thoſe at the Weſt-End 196 Foot; in the Southern one of which hangs a Peal of twelve Bells, the only one of that Number in England, except one very lately caſt by by Mr. Rudhall, at Glouceſter, Bell-Founder, put up in St. Bride's Church, London.

In the Monaſticon Anglicanum, Vol. III. Pag. 128, are Draughts of this Church by Hollar, given us by Sir William Dugdale, who has exhibited a curious Collection of its Charters, Statutes, and an Inventory of all the Ornaments and Jewels belonging to it. In the Decem Scriptores, printed at London Ann. 1652, and in Anglia Sacra, are Accounts of the Lives of ſeveral of the Archbiſhops: From whence, and other printed Books, as well as the aforeſaid Manuſcripts, may be had good Materials for an Hiſtory of this Church, which, 'tis to be hoped, the World will be obliged with, by my worthy Friend Mr. Samuel Gale, as is noted in the ſecond Volume of Abbies, where is publiſhed ſome Account of this Church, and the Tombs in it.

Beſides the above-mentioned Draughts in the Monaſticon, and what Daniel King has likewiſe given us, there are ſeveral other Draughts and Proſpects of it by different Hands; the moſt accurate of which is done by Mr. Francis Place: And indeed every thing of this Church is ſo very magnificent, that it deſerves a particular Repreſentation; for Words cannot expreſs the Beauty and Elegance of the Architecture of each Part.

In the aforeſaid quoted Manuſcripts are Draughts of 273 Coats of Arms; as there is alſo a Draught of the great Window on the South-ſide, and Delineations of theſe following Monuments, (as I noted) from thence repreſented to the Life, viz.

1. Archbiſhop Savage's Effigies, lying on an Altar-Tomb.
2. A Man in Armour; his Effigies in white Marble, on the South-ſide the Choir.
3. Effigies of a Canon ſeemingly, in Free-ſtone, on the South-ſide the Choir.
4. Tomb of Dr. Swinborn; the Effigies repreſented kneeling, and praying at a Desk. He died after 1620. See his Epitaph in Anth. Wood's Athenæ.
5. A Compartment fixed to the Wall, in Memory of Lionel Ingram.
6. A Compartment of Sir William Ingram, Kt. Obiit 1623.
7. A Tomb of Sir Henry Bellaſis, Knt. and Bar. and his Lady, both kneeling under Arches adorned with three Columns of Pillars.
8. Compartment of Annabella Wickham, fixed to the Wall, 1625.

9. A ſhort plain Altar-Tomb, in Memory of Archbiſhop ROTHERAM.

10. Archbiſhop MATTHEWS's Tomb; his Effigies lying thereon, his Head reſting on Pillows with a Cap on. There are four Columns below, and two above, embelliſh'd with Hour-Glaſſes, &c.

11. Tomb of his Wife kneeling at a Desk. Obiit 1629.

12. Compartment of Anne Bennet, containing her Buſt or Demi-Effigies. Obiit 1601.

13. Raiſed Tomb of Archbiſhop HUTTON; his Effigies lying thereon between two Columns, his Arms at top, and three Perſons kneeling at bottom.

14. A large Marble Grave-Stone of THO. DALBY, Archdeacon of Richmond; his Effigies in Braſs in the middle, with the Apoſtles and Saints round the Verge.

15. Tomb of Sir William Gee and his two Wives; their Effigies between four Columns, and Arms at top. He died 1611.

16. A plain Tomb of Jane Hudſon. Obiit 1636.

17. Compartment of Archbiſhop PIERS; his Arms at top, an Inſcription under the Arms between two Pillars.

18, 19. Two ſhort antient Grey-Marble raiſed Tombs; having neither Arms nor Inſcription, and only Croſſes flowry cut in the Stone at top.

20. Grave-Stone of Henry Cheeke, Eſq; having his Demi-Effigies of Braſs, with an Epitaph on a Braſs-Plate at the bottom of it. Obiit 1586.

21. A low Altar-Tomb of Dean WILLIAM DE LANCETONE; his Effigies in Braſs, fixed to a Grey-Marble Stone at top.

22. The Effigies of a Knight Templar; on his Shield three Eagles diſplayed on a Bend; in Memory of one of the Family of the MAULEY's.

23. A Compartment in Memory of Dean HIGDEN, affixed to a Pillar. Obiit 1539.

24. Tomb of Elizabeth, Widow of Thomas Eymes, Eſq; Obiit 1585.

25. A plain Altar-Tomb, for Thomas Eymes, Eſq; having his Effigies in Braſs at top of it. Obiit 1578.

26. Grave-Stone of WILLIAM, Biſhop of DROMORE, Canon of this Church, habited in his Mitre and Croſier, in Braſs on a Plate, an Inſcription at bottom.

27. Tomb of Robert Cotterel, Eſq; Obiit 1595.

28. Grave-Stone of Dean SHEFFIELD. Obiit 1496.

29. Altar-Tomb of Canon HAXBY; at top his Skeleton, and under it his Effigies.

30. Tomb of Archbiſhop WALTER GREY, lying between two Columns, under an arched Canopy.

The

The Scite of several of these Tombs may be seen in the Ichnography, as may also several other very fine Tombs, erected since the great Rebellion, in which, through the Care of the Lord Fairfax, this Church happened to be very well preserved, though several of the Brasses were pillaged, which I shall endeavour to recover as well as I can, by inserting here all the Epitaphs (except of the Dignitaries, which see in their proper Places) that I have been able to meet with before 1600.

On

On a Stone on the Ground near Archbiſhop Hutton's Monument.

Hic jacet Huttoni conjux pia, fida Beatrix,
Terra tegit terram, mens loca ſumma tenet;
Felix illa fuit dum vixit prole, viroque
Junctior, at Chriſto morte beata magis.
Obdormivit 5. die Maij, A. D. 1482.

Near Archbiſhop Matthews's Monument is this Inſcription.

The Body of Ranulph Hurlſton, Eſq; one of the Honourable Council of the North Parts, lyeth here in hope of joyful Reſurrection, who, adorned with great Gifts of Learning, Gravity, Wiſdom, joined with rare Godlyneſs, was always careful of advancing the ſincere Doctrine of Chriſt, and of that Equity which every where ought to be obſerved, never ceaſing his faithful Labours to profit the Church and Commonwealth, until it pleaſed our gratious God mercifully in a very ſhort Moment, without any or the leaſt Dolour of Death, to end all the Labour of his faithful Servant, and to tranſlate his Soul into his eternal Reſt, 13. April Anno Chriſti Incarnationis 1587.
All the Days of his Perigrination were 62 Years, for whoſe godly Life the anointed Saviour be bleſſed for ever, Amen.

Which Inſcriptions in Number above 100, beſides thoſe of Archbiſhops, Deans, Precentors, Chancellors, Treaſurers, Subdeans, Archdeacons and Prebendaries given in the following Hiſtory of them, are all I find before 1600. And the greateſt part of theſe are as appears now periſhed, as are abundance of other Stones robbed of their Braſſes, &c. even before this Account taken Anno 1641. Many of theſe defaced Stones were, as is ſuppoſed, laid over Chantry-Prieſts and Chaplains at Altars, which were very numerous in this Cathedral, as may be ſeen in Capt. Stevens's Monaſticon, Vol. II. Where is, from Mr. Dodſworth's MSS. a very good Account of the Chantries, &c. in this Cathedral, printed, and ſome Account of the Dioceſe, to which I beg leave to refer.

Having done with the Monumental Part, I come to give ſome Deſcription of this Church and the Time of its Building.

Archbiſhop Thomas began temp. Will. Rufi a new Foundation of this Church, which being decayed with Fire, Archbiſhop Roger built a new Choir, and made the Vaults, the Archbiſhop's Palace and St. Sepulchre's Chapel on the North-ſide. Archbiſhop John Romane temp. Edw. I. built built the North Croſs Tranſept. and a goodly Steeple in the middle; which Work he had in ſome meaſure begun while he was Chanter. Archbiſhop Melton temp. Edw. II. at the Expence of 700 Marks, finiſhed the Weſt-part of the Body of the Church. Archbiſhop Zouch temp. Edw. III. begun a new Chapel on the South-ſide of the Church. Archbiſhop Thornesby temp. Edw. III. on July 20. 1361. began to build anew the Choir, and beſtowed much Coſt in beautifying the Lady's Chapel with Images and Painting, in which he expended 1700 l. of his own Money, Robert De Percy gave the Stone, and Robert De Vavaſour gave the Timber towards finiſhing the Cathedral, as may be ſeen in their Charters printed in the Monaſticon. The South Tranſept. was the Work of Archbiſhop Geffry Plantagenet, and his Succeſſor Archbiſhop Walter Grey.

This Work was 151 Years in Building, the laſt Hand to it being put by Walter Skirlaw, Archdeacon of Eaſt-Riding and Prebendary of Fenton, before his Promotion to the Sees of Lichfield, Wells and Durham; who, thinking Archbiſhop Romane's Lantern, or middle Steeple, too low, pulled part of it down, and made a new one as it now continues. The Roof of this Lantern is adorned with Knots, gilt and carved, as is the Roof of the Nave of the Church, in imitation of arched Work: The whole Canopy being adorned with large Knots, carved and gilt.

Between the two Weſt Towers is a ſpacious Window of painted Glaſs, adorned with the Effigies of Biſhops, and other hiſtorical Narrations.

There are eight Arches in the Nave, and about every one are Coats of Arms cut in Stone, as well as painted in ſeveral of the Windows.

In the Nave and ſide Iſles, in ſome of the Knots in the Roof, are Carvings of the Salutation, Nativity and Epiphany, repreſenting the Wiſe-Men making their Offerings, with other Sculptures of our Saviour and his Apoſtles, the Angels adoring him, the Deſcent of the Holy Ghoſt and Aſſumption of the Bleſſed Virgin.

As the Peircys and Vavaſours gave the Timber and Stone, ſo the Builder of this Part, Archbiſhop William De Melton, ſet their Effigies in Stone on each ſide the Arch over the great Weſt-Door; where Vavaſour is repreſented holding a Stone, as Peircy is holding a Piece of Timber. Their Effigies are alſo at the Eaſt-end in Armour.

On each ſide the Choir are two moſt magnificent Windows, reaching almoſt the Height of the middle Iſle, being divided into 108 Partitions, each Partition repreſenting a ſacred Piece of Hiſtory.

But

But the moſt celebrate Piece of Building is the Chapter-Houſe, which ſtands on the North-ſide of the Church. 'Tis octangular, containing 21 Yards Diameter, raiſed by many Pillars, and finiſhed by an Arch or Concave on the top, having no Column at all to ſupport it in the middle: And indeed 'tis ſo curious a Piece of Architecture, that it juſtly deſerves the Character written on the Roof in golden Letters, Ut roſa flos florum ſic eſt domus iſta domorum. The Workmanſhip of the Windows throughout the whole Church is admirable, and the Panes of Glaſs exquiſitely well painted, eſpecially the great Eaſt-window, where is given the Hiſtory of the Bible. This was glaz'd Anno 1405. by the Dean and Chapter, who then contracted with John Thornton of Coventry, Glazier, who was to receive for his own Work 4 s. per Week, and obliged to finiſh it in leſs than three Years.

There are in divers Parts of the Church ſeveral Paintings and Carvings of Angels, Saints and Biſhops.

In the Inſide of the Chapter-Houſe ſtood the Image of our Saviour and his Twelve Apoſtles of Silver, as 'tis ſaid.

About the Sides of the Dome are Seats for the Dignitaries and Prebendaries arched over. Theſe Seats are ſupported by ſmall Marble-Pillars, to every Seat is a Walk, or Gallery, that goes round the Chapter-Houſe.

There is here a Tradition, which is univerſally credited, that, under pretence of this being an uſeleſs Building, a certain Perſon obtained it, in order to pull it down, in the Great Rebellion, and had provided to begin demoliſhing it, but was taken away ſuddenly by Death, a Week before he thought to begin executing his baſe Purpoſe. And that this Church eſcaped ſo well was, as is obſerved, owing to the Parliament-General, Sir Thomas Fairfax, who forbid the Soldiers to lay hands on any thing in the Church; though notwithſtanding this they defaced ſeveral Images, and ſtole the Braſſes from abundance of Grave-Stones.

In a Book, intitled The Antiquities of York-City, printed An. 1719. at York, is ſome Account of this Cathedral; as in a Book, intitled The Hiſtoriographer, printed at London An. 1720. there is an Account of Ulphus's Horn, which with other printed things I ſhall forbear to make mention of here: And ſo I come to give an Account of the Endowment of this See in like manner as other Cathedrals.

ENDOWMENT of the Biſhoprick Anno 1534. 26. Hen. VIII.

IN the Firſt-Fruits Office, though the Survey of the Lands of this See is wanting, I am enabled from a MS, collected by the late Moſt Reverend Archbiſhop Sharp, lent me by his moſt generous and learned Son John Sharp, Eſq; (a Gentleman who has conferred on me ſuch repeated and laſting Favours, as I ſhall ever be obliged to acknowledge with the utmoſt Gratitude and Thankfulneſs) to inform the World in general that theſe were,

Co. YORK, Beverly, Skidby, Biſhops-Burton, York and Biſhops-Thorp Palaces, Cawood, Wiſtow, Sherborn, Ottley, Rippon cum membris, Milford, Biſhops-Lathe, Kingſton on Hull, Patrington, Eloughton, Wiwang, Wilton, Toppcliff, Skipton, Darleton, Carleton.

Co. NOTTINGHAM, Southwell cum membris, Scroby cum membris.

Co. NORTHUMBERLAND, Hexam Juriſdiction and County.

Co. GLOUCESTER, Churchdown, Norton, Shurdington, Widcombe, Cerney, Compton, Oddington.

Co. MIDDLESEX, York-Palace.

Co. SURRY, Batterſea and Wandſworth.

All which were Anno 1534. aforeſaid valued for Firſt-Fruits at 2035 l. 3 s. 7 d. though by ſacrilegious Alienations they are now reduced to no more than 1610 l. So the Revenues are leſſened above 400 l. per Annum by theſe following Alienations tempore Hen. VIII.

The firſt of theſe was by Cardinal Wolſey about 1520. when he granted away Whitehall, the then Archiepiſcopal Palace in Weſtminſter.

The next was by Archbiſhop Edward Lee, who by Indenture, dated Nov. 12. 34. Hen. VIII. 1542. granted to the King the Manors of Beverly and Biſhops-Burton Co. York, and Southwell Co. Nottingham, and had in exchange for them the diſſolved Priory of Marton, and Manors of Kilborne aad Sutton under Whiſton-Cliff, with ſome Granges.

But this was nothing in compariſon of what his Succeſſor, Archbiſhop Robert Holgate, did, who within a Month after his Tranſlation from Landaff to this See, Feb. 6. 36. Hen. VIII. Anno 1545. granted away almoſt all the antient Eſtates of the Archbiſhoprick, namely,

Shirborne cum Leverton, Bonvill, Hadleſton, Fenton, Brotherton, Berkſton, Burton-Lownd, Grimſton, Wolleskelf, Clayflat, Peckfeld, Gilgrine, Milford, Biſhops-Lathes:

Alſo the Lordſhips and Manors of

Rippon, Sharrow, Stanley, Rippon-Holm, Colſtakes-hill, Penny-croft, Caſtledike, Caſtledike, Whitcliff, Thorp, Monkton, Thornton, Netherdale, Milford, Biſhop-Lathes, Kingſton on Hull, Patrington, Sharethorp, Fiſmake, Hakgarth, Eloughton, Wetwang, Wilton, Biſhops-wilton, Topcliff, Aſcaby, Griſtwayt, Dysford, Rempton, Newby, Skipton, Catton, Northby, Waplow, Mask, Uplethorne, Ayton, Dalton, Craikhall, Carleton.

All theſe fifty four Co. York were thus given away by Archbiſhop Holgate, who likewiſe parted with

Co. NOTTINGHAM, Scroby, Ravenskeld, Laneham, Askham, Sutton, Northſoke; and

Co. NORTHUMBERLAND, Hexam, Erington, Walley, Acome, Halliden, Kepwick, Ereveridge, Kenley, Eſtallvent, Kadden, Ninbank, Weſtallan, Newlands: And laſtly,

Co. GLOUCESTER, the Barony of Churchdown, with the Manors, &c. of Churchdown, Huckylcott, Norton, Shurdington, Wydcomb, Cerney, Compton, Odington.

In all ſixty ſeven Eſtates and Manors paſſed away by him, as may be ſeen in our Statute-Books, Anno 37. Hen. VIII. wherein is printed an Act to empower him to alienate Hexam and Hexamſhire.

However I find King Edw. VI. Anno Reg. 7. May 27. 1553. regranted back Scroby Manor to the See of York,, after the Deceaſe of the ſaid Robert Holgate, Archbiſhop of York, and Barbara his Wife.

In lieu of thoſe antient Demeſnes, which amount to 1200 l. per Ann. Holgate had thirty three impropriate Livings by way of Exchange from Hen. VIII. viz. Doncaſter, Ruiſton, Felkirk, Darington, Neither-popleton, Feliskirk, Sutton, Sherrif-hutton, Braferton Myton, Crawn, Thirkleby, Marton, Stainton, Ormesby, Lithe, Agnes-burton, Wiſtow, Eſington, Kayingham, Nafferton, Gisburgh, Whitly, Skelton, Kirklevington, Garum, Malton, Kilborne, Hutton on Derwent, Thirke, Marton in Galtres, all Co. York, and Haxey and Owſton Co. Lincoln.

This See being thus pillaged and garbled in Hen. VIII's Reign, King Edw. VI. had no room to plunder, nor was here any Alienation extorted in Queen Elizabeth's Reign; but what Injury was done the See in her Reign, was by ſome of the Archbiſhops themſelves, to provide for their Families.

For, beſides what Archbiſhop Thomas Young did, in demoliſhing the Palaces of York, we are informed by Dr. Thoroton, in his Hiſtory of Nottinghamſhire, pag. 479, 480. that Archbiſhop Sandys, demiſing his Palace and Manor of Scroby to his Son Sir Samuel Sandys, together with the Park and Northſoke with many Towns thereabouts, he or his Family cauſed the ſaid Palace to be pulled down.

In Mr. Torr's Collections, made about 1693. we are likewiſe informed, that in this Reign Achbiſhop Hutton leaſed away ſeveral Eſtates, which are yet in his Great-Grandſon's Hands.

What Archbiſhop Matthews did in King James the Firſt's Reign, which was by Act of Parliament, about parting with York-Place, we ſhall ſhew hereafter. It was in this Prince's Time that Biſhops were reſtrained from making any Alienations, elſe our Sees might have been reduced to as low a Value as parochial Livings.

In the Reign of Queen Mary, whoſe Memory has been much traduced by the Puritans and diſaffected Perſons to Biſhops, there were abundance of Manors reſtored back to this Church; inſomuch as it may be ſaid to have been endowed with all its beſt Eſtates by her: For ſhe gave Biſhop Heath Suffolk-Place in Southwark, which came to the Crown by the Attainder of the Duke of Suffolk, which, on account of its Remoteneſs, was exchanged for Norwich-Houſe in the Strand, afterwards called York-Houſe; which continued the Parliamentary Houſe of this Biſhoprick, till King James, to gratify the Duke of Buckingham, got it exchanged for ſome Lands in the North of England. She alſo (in conſideration, as the Patents expreſs it, that there was in the Crown 1200 l. per Annum Eſtate of this See) Anno Reg. 3. regranted Feb. 20. the Manors and Parks of Hexgrave and Norwood, Scroby Lordſhip and Manor, Laneham, Askham, Sutton, Northſoke and Southwell cum pertinenti; and alſo Rippon: Which Beneſactions, as Mr. Torr obſerves, amount to near half the preſent Income.

Beſides theſe Revenues beſtowed by Queen Mary, there remains very little of the antient Endowments of this See, except the ſmall Manor of Biſhops-Thorp, and ſome Demeſnes adjacent to it in York, worth about 40 l. per Annum; and the Manors of Ottly, Cawood, Wiſtow, and ſome Lands in Shirborne Co. York, and in Batterſea and Wandſworth Co. Surry.

All the other Eſtates have accrued by forced Exchanges, chiefly in the Reign of Henry VIII. who, on taking away the antient Demeſnes from Archbiſhop Holgate, gave him in lieu thereof thirty three Impropriations, the diſſolved Priory of Marten, with the Demeſnes of Kilbourne and Sutton, and Farms in Thorp, Wildon, Oſgodsby, Baſſew and Maderby, all Parcels of Biland diſſolved Abbey.

The Lands given by King James I. Anno 1622. in lieu of York-Place in the Strand, London, were the Manor of Beckham, which belonged to the Earl of Richmond, the Manor of Accomb, Parcel of the diſſolved Treaſurerſhip of York, with the Manors of Santon and Brighton.

What

What this See is now poſſeſſed of will be beſt ſeen by the following Account of the Sale of the Lands in the Great Rebellion; though I cannot but here obſerve that King Henry VIII. by granting theſe thirty three Impropriations, enlarged the Patronage of this See; for it had otherwiſe, beſides the Dignities in York, Southwell, Rippon and Beverly Collegiate Churches, only theſe Rectories, viz. Bolton-peircy, Wheldrake, Berwick in Elmet, Carleton in Lindrick: This Church left out Nun-burnholm, Trinity and St. Edward's in York City; and the Vicaridges of St. Faith's, Birſtall, Silkſton, Matterſey, Bradeſworth, Kinalton, Whenby, Skipſea, Kynalton, and St. Mary's Beverly: Whereas it has now by the Donation of King Henry VIII. about thirty other Livings in the Dioceſe; which ſee in the Account of it, and the Advowſons of the Vicaridges of Owſton and Haxby Co. Lincoln.

The Reaſon why this See was ſo ſtripped of its Patronages was, that the Archbiſhops had, on founding Prebends in the Churches of York, Southwell, Rippon, Beverly, &c. appropriated the Rectories of their own Churches to ſupport the ſeveral Prebends; by which means the Archbiſhops own Churches came to the Crown at the general Diſſolution of Monaſteries, and ſo ſome of them reverted back again to him.

Endowment

Endowment of the Chapter of YORK.

THE Value of the Lands belonging to the Canons of this Church, to ſupport their keeping Reſidence, were rated, 26. Hen. VIII. An. 1534. at 439 l. 2 s. 6 d. for which, according to Mr. Ecton, they pay for annual Tenths 43 l. 18 s. 3 d. They are now improved to about 110 l. per Annum more, beſides Fines.

By a Charter of King Richard II. the Lord Mayor and Citizens of York are excluded exerciſing any Juriſdiction within the Cloſe of York Minſter, the ſame being reſerved and granted to the Dean and Chapter, who have Power by their Steward to examine and try all Matters and Cauſes within that Liberty, as they have alſo all manner of Juriſdiction in their Demeſnes, which conſiſt of theſe following Eſtates, viz.

Co. YORK, Aldborough Impr. and Rect. Brotherton and Hornby Impropriations and Rectories, Bulwith Rect. Burton-Pidſey Rectory and Impropriation, Burton-Leonard, Biſhops-Burton and Brodſworth Rectories, Meſſuages and Lands in South-Cave and Cottom, Weverthorp Rectory, Dalton on Tees Town and Manor, Stillingfleet, Copmanthorpe, St. Laurence-Walmgate and St. Mary-Laythorpe Rectories, with Tythes in Poppleton, Holgate and Biſhops-Fields near York, and Lands in Langwath and Heworth.

Co. NOTTINGHAM, Drayton cum Askham, Lanham, Miſterton, Stourton, Stretton Rectories.

Co. LANCASTER, Kirkby-Irelith Rectory.

Co. LINCOLN, Lands in Worlaby near Lowth.

Co. MIDDLESEX, Two Tenements in Fleetſtreet, let at 5 l. 3 s. 4 d. one of which is Serjeants-Inn.

They have alſo ſome Penſions ariſing from Churches, and ſome ſmall Tythes in York City, and Rents of Houſes there.

They have alſo Juriſdiction over ſeveral of their own Prebendal Churches, beſides theſe thirteen above-mentioned Impropriations, as may be ſeen in the Account of the Dioceſe.

Endowment of the Vicars Choral of YORK.

THE Lands belonging to the College of Vicars Choral, founded about the Year 1252. by Archbiſhop Walter Grey, were valued, 26. Hen. VIII. Anno 1534. at 136*l.* 5*s.* 3*d.* for which they now pay for yearly Tenths 13*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.* ½ tho' they are now augmented to 254*l.* 10*s.* 8*d.* Theſe Eſtates ariſe from Rents of Houſes and Lands in York City, Penſions from the thirty five Prebends and Impropriations of Kirkby-Irelith and Pidſey-Burton Rectories, and other Stipends paid them by the Chapter: But beſides theſe, they enjoy in their own Right the impropriated Rectories and Advowſons of Ferry-Frieſton, and Huntington cum Fenſwick in York County and Dioceſe, and Nether-Wallop in Hampſhire in Wincheſter Dioceſe. But out of this theſe Vicars are obliged to pay about 60*l. per Annum* to the Singing-Men, and to take care of reading Prayers in the Cathedral at ſix a-clock in the Morning, though for this latter Service the Chapter and Prebendaries pay them about 20*l. per Annum.*

Before the Reformation here were beſides the Vicars Choral ſeveral Chantry-Prieſts, attending the Cathedral Service. Theſe Chantries were above forty: But an Account of them and their Endowment being already printed, in Stevens's Monaſticon, and of St. Sepulchre's Chapel, founded within the Precincts of this Church, I ſhall thither refer. The Revenues of this Chapel, which adjoined and opened into the Cathedral, were rated Anno 1534. at 139*l.* 19*s.* 2*d.* and conſiſted of the Impropriations of Calverly, Hoton, Harwood, Thorp, Colingham-Thorp Co. York, Claresburgh and Eaſt-Retford, all in this Dioceſe.

Endowment of the FABRICK.

THERE were Lands, as may be ſeen in the Valor Beneficiorum, belonging to the Fabrick of this Cathedral, rated Anno 1534. at 76*l.* 11*s.* 8*d.* which then paid 7*l.* 13*s.* 2*d.* for yearly Tenths. Theſe Lands, which lie at Topcliff, Widdington, Miſterton, are now, beſides Fines in Renewals, ſet for 92*l.* 7*s.* 3*d.* and are faithfully applied, together with St. Peter's Share or Part, as a Reſidentiary: The Chapter ſetting aſide an equal Dividend or Share out of their Rents, whatever they amount to, to be laid out on the Reparation of the Church, as they alſo do in like manner in St. Peter's Church at Exeter, where that that Saint is always reputed as one of their Canons; which leads me to obſerve, that if the like laudable Cuſtom had been practiſed at Landaff, ſince the Reformation, St. Peter's Cathedral there might have been kept up in as good Repair, as this or any other Church.

Beſides the Livings in the Patronage of the Chapter in this Dioceſe, they alſo preſent to Aldburgh V. Burton-Leonard V. Farnham V. Hornby V. Co. York in Cheſter Dioceſe, and Liſſington in Lincoln County and Dioceſe.

ARCHBISHOPS of YORK.

YORK is ſaid to have been made an Archbiſhop's See, on the firſt Admittance of the Goſpel, by King Lucius, but the Names of all the Archbiſhops, as Heylin ſays, are loſt except theſe four,

SAMPSON, eſtabliſhed by King Lucius Anno 180. Matthew of Weſtminſter mentions his flouriſhing in England, and being Archbiſhop here about the Year 507.

TAURINUS is the next mentioned, and after him

PIRANNUS, Capellanus Regis Arthuri, was, as Matthew of Weſtminſter informs us, pag. 187. of his Hiſtory, made Archbiſhop Anno 522. The fourth Archbiſhop in the Time of the Britains was, according to my aforeſaid Author, THADIACUS. He places his coming in Anno 586. but does not tell us any thing farther of him.

On the Converſion of the Saxons, St. Gregory the Great appointed London and York to be the two Metropolitical Sees of England, each to have twelve Biſhops under it, each to have a Pall and to be equal in Dignity; the firſt ordained or conſecrated to have Precedence: The Pall for London he actually granted. That for York he promiſed, when thoſe Parts ſhould be converted, and when Auguſtine ſhould, according to his Orders, ſend a Biſhop: But Auguſtine, being fixed at Canterbury, got the Metropolical Dignity eſtabliſhed there; and nothing was done at York till the Year 623. when Ethelburga, Siſter to Eanbald King of Kent, who was a Chriſtian Lady, being married to Edwin King of Northumberland, taking Paulinus to attend her, he the ſaid

PAULINUS became conſecrated by Juſtus, Archbiſhop of Canterbury, July 21. Anno 625. But about the Year 631. theſe Parts being full of Troubles, he left this Country, and, returning back to Kent, accepted of the Biſhoprick of Rocheſter, where he died Oct. 10. An. 644. and was buried there. After his Departure this See remained vacant above thirty Years, till ſuch time as

CEDDA

CEDDA accepted it An. 663. and held it three Years, though all that Time it was the Right of Wilfrid, who had been nominated to it, which he being admoniſhed of, by Archbiſhop Theodore of Canterbury, preſently forſook it; and became afterwards Biſhop of Lichfield, where he died March 2. An. 672. and was buried in that Cathedral, ſince dedicated to him.

WILFRID, who is placed the third Archbiſhop here in Godwin, and ſhould have come in before Cedda, became, as Godwin tells us, actually Archbiſhop here An. 666. He afterwards forſook this See on ſome Diſſenſion, and ſettled at Selſey Co. Suſſex, becoming firſt Biſhop there An. 680. and continued five Years abſent from theſe Parts. On his abſenting himſelf, Boſa was appointed by Archbiſhop Theodore An. 677. to take care of this See, who had diſobliged Wilfrid by dividing his Dioceſe into more Biſhopricks: Inſomuch that when he, viz. Wilfrid, returned back again, he was ſcarce able to get his Biſhoprick reſtored, and was forced to content himſelf with Hagulſtad or Hexam, and live up and down in Monaſteries, particularly at Rippon, where he departed this Life Oct. 12. An. 711. aged ſeventy ſix, and was buried with this Epitaph to his Memory.

Wilfridus hic magnus requieſcit corpore præſul,
Hanc domino qui aulam, ductus pietatis amore
Fecit, & eximio ſacravit nomine Petri,
Cui claves cœli Chriſtus dedit arbiter orbis;
Atque auro & tirio devotus veſtiit oſtro.
Quin etiam ſublime crucis radiante metallo
Hic poſuit trophæum; necnon quatuor auro
Scribi Evangelii præcipit in ordine libros,
Ac thecam e titulo his condignam condidit auro:
Paſchalis qui etiam ſolempnia tempora curſus
Catholice ad juſtum correxit dogma canonis,
Quem ſtatuêre patres, dubioque errore remoto,
Certa ſuæ genti oſtendit moderamina ritus,
Inque locis iſtis monachorum examina crebra
Colligit, ac meritis, cavit quæ regula patrum,
Sedulus inſtituit, multiſque, domique, foriſque,
Jactatus nimium per tempora longa periclis,
Quin decies ternos poſtquam egit Epiſcopus annos,
Tranſiit, & gaudens cœleſtia regna petivit,
Dona, Jeſu, grex ut paſtoris calle ſequatur.

However

However his Bones reſted not at Rippon, as Godwin tells, they being An. 940. removed by Odo, Archbiſhop of Canterbury, to his Church, on account of Rippon being fallen down. As to BOSA, all I ſhall here obſerve of him, is, that he is ſaid, according to Leland, to have governed this See ten Years, and to die poſſeſſed of it An. 687. and to lie buried in his own Church at York.

JOHN, called afterwards Saint John of Beverley, ſucceeded An. 687. on the Death of Boſa. He died May 7. An. 721. and was buried in the Porch at Beverley Church, where was a ſumptuous Collegiate Church built and dedicated to his Memory, and in honour of him endowed with many Privileges. Growing old and infirm, after having governed this See above thirty Years, he reſigned it with the Conſent of his Clergy about four Years before his Death, which happened at Beverley, the Place of his Nativity, to WILFRIDE, his Chaplain, who, as Iſaackſon ſays, came in An. 718. and died An. 731. Though other Accounts place his coming in An. 721. and Death An. 736.

EGBERT, Brother to King Eadbert, ſucceeded 731. or 736. as ſome Accounts ſay. He died Nov. 19. An. 766. and was buried in the Porch of his own Cathedral at York, near the King his Brother. Of his procuring the Reſtitution of the Archiepiſcopal Pall to his Church, which had been diſcontinued ever ſince Paulinus's Time, ſee what is ſaid in the Decem Scriptores, and other Authors; and alſo what Wharton and Sir James Ware mention of him, and Spelman in his Book of Councils and Synodical Conſtitutions.

ALBERT, alias CÆNA, ſucceeded him, being conſecrated April 24. 767. He received his Pall from Pope Adrian I. and ſate near fourteen Years, and died at Cheſter An. 871.

EANBALD I. ſucceeded him, being conſecrated Archbiſhop An. 780. as ſuppoſed before Cæna's Death, who took him for a Coadjutor, or reſigned to him. He died An. 796. in a Monaſtery, called Arlete, and was buried in his own Cathedral. His Succeſſor was

EANBALD II. conſecrated Nov. 19. 797. He is commended for a Man of great Learning by divers Authors; though when he died is not mentioned: However it is certain, that

WULSIUS ſucceeded him. Iſaackſon makes his coming in An. 812. and places his Death An. 831. When

WYMUNDUS ſucceeded An. 831. or 832. and died An. 854. and had for his Succeſſor

WILFHERE An. 854. He held this See about forty Years, but with little Comfort, being expelled An. 873. but in a Year or two he was recalled; called; and of ſo little Value was this Archbiſhoprick, by reaſon of the Havock the Danes made, that it was often in theſe Times augmented with the Commendam of Worceſter. He died An. 895. as in ſome Authors, or rather An. 900. as in others: And was ſucceeded by

ETHELBALD An. 900. or 895. whoſe Succeſſor was

LEODEWARD, as Stubbs calls him. He came in An. 921. and was ſucceeded by WULSTAN I. He obtained to this See Beverley, Rippon, Biſhops-Wilton, Ottley, Cawood and the Barony of Shirborne. He died Dec. 26. An. 955. and was buried at Oundle Co. Northamptou.

OSKITELL ſucceeded An. 955. and died 971. having procured to his See the Manor of Southwell. The next was

ATHELWOLD, conſecrated An. 971. who was quickly weary of it, and reſigned it the ſame Year to

OSWALD, Biſhop of Worceſter, who held both Sees, continuing Archbiſhop here twenty one Years, viz. from 971. to the Time of his Death, which happened Feb. 27. 992. at Worceſter. where he was buried in that Church which himſelf had built, and where many Miracles were reported to be done at his Tomb, in that fruitful Age of Saints. His Succeſſor in both Sees was

ADULF, Abbot of Peterborough, conſecrated 992. or 993. He died May 6. 1002. and was buried in Worceſter Cathedral; and ſucceeded likewiſe in both Sees by WULSTAN II. An. 1002. He died May 28. 1023. and was buried in Ely Abbey, where is yet a painted Picture of him, againſt the Wall in the North Tranſept. of the Choir, under the Lantern.

ALFRICUS PUTTOC ſucceeded in the See of York only, An. 1023. He died at Southwell, and was buried in Peterborough Abbey An. 1050. And was ſucceeded by KINSIUS, or KINSINE, An. 1051. He was a Man of great Auſterity, and would walk barefoot to viſit his Dioceſe. He died at York, Dec. 21. 1060. and was buried at Peterborough, where he had been originally a Monk.

ALDRED, Biſhop of Worceſter, was appointed to ſucceed in this See An. 1061. and obtained leave from King Edward the Confeſſor to hold Worceſter with it, as four of his Predeceſſors, viz. Wulfhere, Oſwald, Adulf, Wulſtan II. had done; but going to Rome for his Pall, the Pope not only refuſed to grant him York, but deprived him of Worceſter: Wherefore coming homewards much diſcontented, he and his Companions were robbed upon the Alpes, which neceſſitated them to return back to Rome, where, after much Importunity, he obtained Admiſſion miſſion to this See, on condition he quitted Worceſter: However, the Pope granted him this Privilege, as may be ſeen in the Monaſticon, that the Biſhop of Worceſter ſhould be reckoned as one of his Suffragans, and receive Conſecration from him, which Privilege King Edward alſo confirmed, and he accordingly conſecrated Wolſtan to that Biſhoprick; but ordered the Matter ſo, that he got twelve Manors from that Church to his own Uſe, which he and his Succeſſor for ſome time enjoyed. While he ſate Archbiſhop he made great Alteration in the Habit and Apparel of his Clergy, which before differed nothing from Laymen: And indeed the firſt regular Settlement of our Clergy was ſince the Conqueſt, and their Inſtitution to Parochial Cures commenced chiefly then; ſo that what ſome Authors plead of their Liberty to marry antiently is of very little Authority, if we conſider the State of the Church in its Infancy, which is excellently deſcribed in Biſhop Kennet's learned Hiſtory of Impropriations. As to Aldred, he died Sept. 11. 1069. and was, as our Writers ſay, buried in his own Church at York, though I rather conclude it at Glouceſter, where he built a ſumptuous Abbey, now converted into a Cathedral, where is yet to be ſeen a Monument erected to his Memory.

THOMAS ſucceeded An. 1070. Godwin ſays he was Son of a married Prieſt, meaning, I ſuppoſe, that his Father, who had in a Lay-State contracted Marriage, afterwards took Orders, which was common in thoſe Times, till the Church became better regulated: At his coming to the See, he found every thing in great Diſorder, ſo that he had his Dioceſe entirely to new modelize, as well as Church to rebuild, which he effected. And though at his coming he found only three Canons left, yet he redreſſed every thing, ſettled a regular College, divided the Eſtate of the Church into Prebends, appointing a Dean, Precentor, Chancellor, Treaſurer and Archdeacons, as it continues at this Day, ſaving that the Treaſurerſhip is diſſolved. Concerning his Controverſy about the Primacy with the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, ſee what is ſaid in the Decem Scriptores and other Authors. Beſides ſeveral Lands procured to his See, he obtained the Barony of Church-Down Co. Glouceſter, with ſeveral Manors in that County, which continued part of the Demeſnes of this Archbiſhoprick, till Archbiſhop Holgate's Time, temp. Hen. VIII. At length, having ſate Archbiſhop with great Honour the Space of thirty Years, he died Nov. 18. 1100. at Rippon, and was buried in his own Cathedral, with this Epitaph falſely aſcribed by ſome Writers to Archbiſhop Thomas II. who was his Nephew.

On his Death

GERARD, Biſhop of Hereford, was tranſlated to this See An. 1100. He died at Southwell, May 21. 1108. having been a great Benefactor to his Cathedral by giving the Churches of Laghton and Driffeild for Prebends, and Lilham, Pocklington and Pickering to the Deanary, which Churches he obtained of the King. He lies buried in his own Cathedral, behind the High-Altar, under a Grave-Stone with his Name on it, as Leland informs us.

THOMAS II. elect Biſhop of London, became conſecrated to this See June 27. 1109. He died Feb. 19. 1113. though ſome Authors make it Feb. 25. and was buried in his own Cathedral, in which he founded two Prebends, of which Wighton is ſuppoſed to be one.

THURSTAN ſucceeded, being elected at Wincheſter, Aug. 15. 1114. but not conſecrated till Oct. 19. 1119. which Favour he obtained from the Pope, it being deferred ſo long on account of the old Quarrel between the two Sees of Canterbury and York, which in ſome meaſure was compromiſed in his Time, as may be ſeen in a Bull in the Monaſticon. Growing very infirm he retired to Pontfract, and there, profeſſing himſelf a Monk, reſigned his Biſhoprick January 15. 1139. and dying there Feb. 5. following, (Mr. Torr makes it Feb. 11. 1140.) was buried there. See an Account of him in Newcourt's Repertorium of the Dioceſe of London, he having been a Canon of St. Paul's on his Reſignation.

HENRY DE SODLE was elected at the Inſtance of the Biſhop of Wincheſter; but, the Pope refuſing to conſecrate him, unleſs he would reſign his Abbacy of Caen in Normandy, he loſt it: And

WILLIAM, Treaſurer of this Church, afterwards known by the Name of St. William, a Kinſman of King Stephen's, was choſen Archbiſhop in June, 1141. and obtained the Temporalities; but, demanding

Anno

Anno 1147. the Pall of the Pope, five Years after, he deprived him. After which

HILLARY, Biſhop of Chicheſter, became elected by the greateſt Part of the Chapter; but the other Part choſe

HENRY DE MURDAC, who obtained Conſecration in Octabis Sancti Andreæ, 1147. He had been Abbot of Fountains, and, being reputed a ſevere Governour, he was at firſt refuſed Admittance into the City. He died at Shirbourne, Oct. 14. 1153. and was buried in the Choir of his own Church. On his Death

WILLIAM became reſtored An. 1153. and, dying June 8. 1154. was buried at the upper-end of the Nave in this Cathedral, under a long, narrow, Marble, ſpotted. He was, ſeventy two Years after his Death, canonized by Pope Honorius, being accounted a Saint by the good-natured Superſtition of the People of York, who had him in great Reverence; a Table of his Miracles, which were thirty nine in Number, and were ſaid to be done at his Sepulchre twenty three Years after his Death, hangs up, as the ſame were regiſtered, in a Table, which is ſtill to be ſeen, or was ſo not many Years ſince, in the Veſtry.

ROGER of Biſhops-Bridge, Archdeacon of Canterbury, Chaplain to King Hen. II. ſucceeded, being conſecrated Oct. 10. 1154. He new built the Quoir, and vaulted it underneath, as mentioned pag. 15. and founded St. Sepulchre's Chapel, which joined to the Minſter at the North-Weſt End thereof, where is yet remaining a Door on the Side of the North Iſle, that opened into it: He alſo rebuilt the Archiepiſcopal Palace here; and dying at Shirbone, after he had ſate Archbiſhop twenty ſeven Years, Nov. 22. 1181. was buried in the Cathedral, where is ſtill to be ſeen his Tomb, referred to in the Ichnography, ſtanding under the third Window, from the Entrance through the North-Weſt front Door. After his Death the See remained vacant eight Years, till it was filled with

GEFFRY PLANTAGENET, Baſtard-Son of King Hen. II. who had before held the Archdeaconry of Lincoln in a Lay-Capacity, as he did that Biſhoprick ſeveral Years without Conſecration; and, having reſigned Lincoln (probably on being made Chancellor of England) he was, by his Brother Richard I. on his Succeſſion to the Crown, nominated to this See, though he did not receive Conſecration till Aug. 18. 1191. In the third of the ſaid King Richard. Having great Conteſts with his Brother King John, about the Rights of the Clergy, and excommunicating all thoſe of his Juriſdiction that were of a different Opinion to him, he was forced to leave the Realm, and fly over into Normandy, where, having lived an Exile five Years, he died at Groſmunt in that Country Dec. 18. 1212. After his Death the See continued void four Years, when

SIMON DE LANGTON, Brother to Stephen de Langton, Archbiſhop of Canterbury, became elected to it by the Chapter of York: But King John, being lately reconciled to the Pope, found Means to ſet him aſide, and procured

WALTER GREY, who had been his own Chaplain, and Chancellor of England, and firſt Biſhop of Lichfield, and afterwards of Worceſter, to be tranſlated to this See, Mar. 27. 1216. to which he became a great Benefactor, by purchaſing York-Place in London, now called White-Hall, for the Uſe of his Succeſſors; and alſo Biſhops-Thorp, which he ſettled on them: He alſo founded the Subdeanary, Succentorſhip and Prebends of Wiſtow and Fenton in his Cathedral, to which he gave thirty two Copes, and augmented the Precentorſhip and Chancellorſhip with the Impropriations of Ouſeburne and Askham, as he did the Archdeaconry of Eaſt-Riding with that of Mapleton. He died May 1. 1255. and was buried in the South Tranſept. in the Chapel next the South Iſle in the Choir, under an antique Tomb of grey Marble, without any Inſcription; however I find in the Cotton-Library in a MS. notat c. 4. this Gingle made in place of one,

Ille ſuis ſumptibus villam adoptavit,
Thorp & ſucceſſoribus ſuis aſſignavit,
Obiit Catholicus præſul & fidelis,
Ad altare ponitur ſancti Michaelis.

On Archbiſhop Grey's Deceaſe,

SEWALL DE BOVILL, Dean of this Church, found Means to be elected to ſucceed him by the Chapter, on Oct. 1. 1255. and though the King heſitated, as having a mind to keep the Revenues for ſome time in his Hands, yet, the Pope befriending him, he became conſecrated July 23. 1256. While he continued Archbiſhop he oppoſed ſome Oppreſſions of the Pope, and endowed ſeveral Vicaridges in his Dioceſe. He died May 10. 1258. and was buried in a Chapel on the Right-ſide his Predeceſſor without any Inſcription: And ſucceeded by

GODFREY DE LUDEHAM, called by Godwin, Godfrey de Kinton; he was alſo Dean of York; his Conge d' Elire bears date May 29. 1258. as does the Royal Aſſent July 25. his Conſecration Sept. 23. and his Receipt to the Temporalities Dec. 1. following. Mr. Torr mentions his Conſecration to have been at Rome, April 28. 1258. though I follow the Decem Scriptores, which place it Sept. 23. He appropriated Mexbo- rough

rough to the Archdeaconry of York. alias West-Riding; and dying Jan. 12. 1264. was buried in the Cathedral. On his Death

WILLIAM DE LANGTON, Dean of this Church, was elected by the Chapter; but the Pope ſet him aſide, and preferred hereunto

WALTER GIFFARD, Treaſurer and Chancellor of England, firſt Canon, and then Biſhop of Bath and Wells, whom he tranſlated hither Oct. 15. 1265. He was inthronized Nov. 1. and had the Temporalities reſtored Dec. 26. following. He died April. 25. 1279. as in ſome Accounts; others make it April 27. or 29. and was buried in the Eaſt Part of the Cathedral, behind the High-Altar, under a plain Stone, which, according to Leland, had this Date on it,

Walter Gisfart, obiit 7. Kal. Maij, 1277. [i. e. April 25.]

His Succeſſor was

WILLIAM WICKWANE, Chancellor of this Church, elected June 17. and conſecrated at Rome, Sept. 19. 1279. He died at Pontiniac in France, Aug. 27. 1285. having a little before reſigned his Charge. He provided, with the Aſſent of the King and his Chapter, that thirty two Oxen, fifty four Plough-Horſes, and a thouſand Sheep ſhould be aſſigned of his Goods to his Succeſſors, and that they ſhould be obliged to keep the ſaid Stock good on the Manors of the See. His Succeſſor was

JOHN ROMANE, Precentor of this Church, and alſo of Lincoln, elected Oct. 29. 1285. and conſecrated at Rome, Feb. 10. following. He began the Nave of the Cathedral, as it now ſtands, laying the firſt Stone of the Foundation on Friday, April 6. 1291. And dying at his Manor of Burton near Beverley, Mar. 8. 1295. was buried under a Grave-Stone near Archbiſhop Giffard, having this on it, according to Leland, Johannes Romanus, obiit 1295.

HENRY DE NEWARK, Archdeacon of Richmond, and Dean of this Church, ſucceeded, Leave of Election being granted Mar. 26. became elected May 7. 1296. and conſecrated in his own Cathedral June 25. 1298. by the Biſhop of Durham. He died the Year following, on Aug. 15. 1299. and was buried near his Predeceſſor: And was ſucceeded by

THOMAS DE CORBRIDGE, Canon of this Church, Prebendary of Lincoln, and Cuſtos or Sacriſt of St. Sepulchre's Chapel, elected Nov. 12. 1299. and conſecrated at Rome, Feb. 28. following. He died at Lanham Co. Nottingham, Sept. 22. 1303. and was buried in the Collegiate legiate Church of Southwell, under a plain Altar-Tomb in the middle of the Choir there, which had his Effigies in Braſs engraven on it, long ſince torn off and defaced. His Succeſſor was

WILLIAM DE GRENEFIELD, Canon of this Church, Chancellor of England, elected Dec. 4. 1303. though, by Delay of the Pope, not conſecrated till Jan. 30. 1305. after which he had the Temporalities reſtored in March following, which were then ſaid to amount to 3145 l. 13 s. 5 d. He died at Cawood, Dec. 6. 1315. on St. Nicholas's Day, and was buried in St. Nicholas's Chapel in the North Tranſept. of his own Cathedral, where his Monument yet remains.

WILLIAM DE MELTON, Canon of York, Prebendary of Lincoln, and Provoſt of Beverley, ſucceeded, being elected Jan. 21. 1315. though not conſecrated till Sept. 25. 1317. He finiſhed the Nave of the Cathedral, began by Archbiſhop Romane; and having been Archbiſhop twenty two Years, and held the Offices of being ſucceſſively Chancellor and Treaſurer of England, he died at Cawood, April 15. 1340. and was buried near the Font in his own Cathedral: And ſucceeded by

WILLIAM LE ZOUCHE, Dean of York, elected May 2. 1340. and conſecrated at Avignion, after two Years Delay in the Pope's Court, July 7. 1342. King Edward III. having in his Abſence left him Warden of the North Parts, he had the good Fortune, on the Scots invading England, to encounter them in Battle, and give them a total Overthrow, and take David Bruce their King Priſoner. He died July 19. and was buried Aug. 8. 1352. in his own Cathedral, before St. Edmund's Altar, where he begun a Chantry, and left 500 l. in his Will to finiſh it, which was effected by his Succeſſor

JOHN THORESBY. He had been firſt Prebendary of Lincoln, Maſter of the Rolls, and thence preferred to the Sees of St. David's and Worceſter, from which laſt Place he was tranſlated hither, and enthroniſed Sept. 8. 1354. He was, as Godwin tells us, a very learned Man, and wrote an Expoſition on the Commandments in the Engliſh Tongue, with other Divinity Tracts rare in that Age, which Godwin prays God be not now too common. He was afterwards made a Cardinal by the Title of St. Peter ad Vincula, as appears by his Seal, which Mr. Torr ſays he has ſeen. Upon Aug. 30. 1361. he laid the firſt Stone of the Foundation of the Choir in his own Cathedral, as it now remains, contributing an hundred Marks then, and laying out annually 200 l. as he promiſed all his Life: He alſo beſtowed great Coſts in adorning St. Mary's Chapel behind the Choir, whether he removed the Bodies of divers of his Predeceſſors, and founded a Chantry to pray for their Souls and his his own. He died, and was buried among them in the middle, where he left a Place for his Grave-Stone, which bore this Inſcription, Johannes de Thoresby, quondam Menevenſis, poſtquam Wigornienſis, & Ebor. Archiepiſcopus, qui fabricam —— —— obiit 6. die Novembris, A. D. 1373.

ALEXANDER NEVILL, Canon of York, Archdeacon of Durham, ſucceeded, being elected May 30. 1374. and conſecrated June 4. following. He built much at Cawood, where he reſided: But, being accounted by the Nobility an ill Inſtrument, in fomenting the Differences between them and King Richard II. he was forced to retire beyond Sea, where he died in Exile in Brabant, and was buried in the White-Friars Church in Lovaine, about the end of May, 1392. near five Years after his Deprivation. Upon which

THOMAS ARUNDEL, Biſhop of Ely, was tranſlated to this See by Papal Proviſion, Bull dated April 3. 1388. He was, on Sept. 25. 1396. tranſlated to Canterbury. And

ROBERT WALDEY, a Native of York, firſt Biſhop of Sodor, then Archbiſhop of Dublin, next Biſhop of Chicheſter, tranſlated hither Oct. 5. 1396. He died May 29. 1397. and was buried in St. Edmund's Chapel in Weſtminſter Abbey, under a large Marble Grave-Stone, having his Effigies thereon, and this Inſcription on a Plate of Braſs,

Hic jacet expertus in quovis jure Robertus
De Waldby, dictus nunc eſt ſub marmore ſtrictus,
Sacre Scripture doctor fuit, & geniture
Ingenuus medicus, & plebis ſemper amicus;
Preſul Arduren, poſt hec Archos Dublinen,

On his Death

RICHARD SCROPE, LL.D. firſt Dean of Chicheſter, and afterwards Biſhop of Lichfield, and Chancellor of England, was tranſlated to this See in February, and had the Temporalities reſtored to him June 23. 1398. About his taking up Arms againſt Henry IV. and being beheaded on that Account June 8. 1405. ſee what is ſaid in our Engliſh gliſh Hiſtories. He was buried in his own Cathedral, in the Eaſt Part between two Pillars, where is yet remaining his Tomb, which was much frequented by the common People, who, on account of his thus ſuffering in Behalf of his injured Patron, King Rich. II. had a great Eſteem for him.

THOMAS LANGLEY, Dean of this Church, obtained the King's Aſſent to the Election of him made by the Chapter Aug. 8. 1405. But he was ſet aſide, and next Year became Biſhop of Durham: And

ROBERT HALLUM was nominated by the Pope, but before Conſecration the Pope thought good to appoint him to the See of Salisbury: Whereupon

HENRY BOWETT, LL. D. Archdeacon and Prebendary of Lincoln, firſt Canon and next Biſhop of Bath and Wells, became tranſlated to this See Oct. 7. 1407. He was, as Mr. Torr ſays, famous for his Houſe-Keeping, exerciſing ſo great Hoſpitality, that he uſually expended eighty Tons of Claret-Wine yearly. He died at Cawood, Oct. 20. 1423. the great Hall of which Palace he had built, and was buried in the Cathedral, where yet his Monument remains, which is referred to in the Ichnography. In his Will, which bears date Sept. 9. 1421. he gives ſome Veſtments to Wells Cathedral; to Tupholm Abbey Co. Lincoln, where his Mother lay buried; and to Penrith Co. Cumberland, where his Father was interred. On his Death

RICHARD FLEMING, Biſhop of Lincoln, was by the Pope appointed to this See, and had the Temporalities reſtored him Dec. 1. 1424. But the King and Chapter ſo ſtrongly oppoſed him, that he was content to go back to Lincoln again: And the Pope tranſlated in his room

JOHN KEMPE, LL. D. Biſhop of London, to this See, to which he was elected April 8. 1426. He had been Archdeacon of Durham, Biſhop of Rocheſter and Chicheſter, before he became Biſhop of London, and was removed thence to this Archbiſhoprick, and from hence to that of Canterbury, An. 1452. where he died in little more than a Year, and was buried in that Cathedral. He had alſo been twice dignified with a Cardinalſhip, as well as with five Biſhopricks, as is expreſſed in this Verſe, Bis Primas, ter Præſul erat, bis Cardine functus.

On his Removal to Canterbury,

WILLIAM BOOTH, Biſhop of Lichfield, was tranſlated to this See July 21. 1452. His other Preferments, before he was made a Biſhop, were, the Rectory of Preſcot Co. Lancaſter, a Prebend of Lincoln, the Archdeaconry of Middleſex, the Chancellorſhip, and a Prebend of St. Paul's Cathedral, London; he had been alſo conſtituted Chancellor of England.

England. He received the Pall of his Archbiſhoprick Sept. 24. 1452. and on the 4th of Sept. 1453. he was ſolemnly enthronized at York. He died at Southwell, Sept. 12. 1464. where he beſtowed much Money on his Palace, and was buried in the Collegiate Church there, where is yet to be ſeen his Tomb, being a plain, ordinary Altar-Monument. In his Will, which bears date at Southwell, Aug. 26. 1464. "He appointed to be buried in St. John Baptiſt's Chapel in Southwell Collegiate Church, if he died at Southwell; or in York Cathedral, if he died at York; and ordered his Executors to build a Manſion for the Chaplains to live in, that officiated at Eccles Co. Lancaſter, where he had founded a Chantry." He alſo gave ſeveral Ornaments to York Minſter.

GEORGE NEVILL, Brother to Richard Nevill the great Earl of Warwick, ſucceeded. He had been Archdeacon of Northampton, and Prebendary of Lincoln, York and Rippon, and at length Biſhop of Exeter, from whence he was tranſlated hither Mar. 15. 1464. on Sept. 6. he received the Pall at Cawood, and the 22d of that Month, 1465. made that prodigious Feaſt, the Bill of Fare of which is given in Godwin and other printed Authors; at which were provided three hundred Tons of Ale, and one hundred Tons of Wine, above a thouſand Sheep, and five hundred Veniſon-Paſties, with other Proviſion; to the Dreſſing of which were appointed ſixty two chief Cooks, beſides five hundred and fifteen Servants and Turn-Spits. In his Time Pope Sixtus IV. made the Biſhop of St. Andrew's Primate of all Scotland, which till this time belonged to this See: He did what he could to hinder it, but in vain. Of his taking King Edward IV. Priſoner, and the Troubles he met with, ſee what is ſaid in Godwin and other Authors; though it was at Wolvey in Warwickſhire, and not at Olney in Northamptonſhire, [i. e. Buckinghamſhire] as Godwin has it, that the Fact happened. He died June 8. 1476. and was buried in his own Cathedral: And ſucceeded by

LAURENCE BOOTH, Biſhop of Durham, tranſlated hither Sept. 1. and enthronized Sept. 8. 1476. the other Preferments he enjoyed, not mentioned in Godwin, were, the Deanary of St. Paul's, London; the Archdeaconries of Richmond and Stow; the Rectory of Cottenham Co. Cambridge; and Prebends in York, London and Lichfield Cathedrals. He purchaſed the Manor of Batterſea Co. Surry of one Nicholas Stanley, and gave it to his Succeſſors, appointing that they ſhould pay Stipends to two Chantry Prieſts at Southwell; which Stipends are now, as I am informed, given to Guilford Free-School. In his Will, dated Sept. 28. 1479. he ordered to be buried at Southwell in St. John Baptiſt's Chapel, next the Wall; and gave 20 l. to York Cathedral. He died at Southwell, May 19. 1480. where yet is to be ſeen his Tomb, being ing a plain Altar-Monument, which had his Effigies engraven on a Piece of Braſs, and an Inſcription under it long ſince defaced: So that his being buried at Cawood, mentioned in the Account of him in Anglia Sacra, Vol. I. is a Miſtake. His Succeſſor was

THOMAS SCOT, alias ROTHERHAM, born at Rotherham. He had been Fellow of King's College, and Maſter of Pembroke-Hall, Cambridge, Prebendary of Sarum and Beverly, Chaplain to King Edward IV. Keeper of his Privy Seal, and Lord Chancellor; afterwards Biſhop of Rocheſter, then of Lincoln. The Bull of his Tranſlation from Lincoln hither bears date July 7. 1480. which was publiſhed at York, as Mr. Torr tells us, Dec. 12. following. He built the Schools-Gate at Cambridge, and Library at the end of that Building; finiſhed Lincoln-College in Oxon, begun by Biſhop Fleming, and added five Fellowſhips to it; and founded a College at Rotherham for a Provoſt, five Prieſts, ſix Choiriſters, and three School-Maſters for Grammer, Singing and Writing; built the great Kitchen at Whitehall, ſeveral Offices at Southwell; and at Biſhops-Thorp erected the Hall, Houſe-Keeper's Room, Bake-Houſe, Kitchen, Drawing-Room, Dining-Room, Study and other Chambers above, as Mr. Torr ſays. He died of the Plague at Cawood, in the ſeventy ſixth Year of his Age, May 29. 1500. and was buried in his own Cathedral, under a Tomb he built for himſelf, yet remaining. In his Will, dated Aug. 6. 1498. he bequeathed ſeveral Veſtments to Zuton Church Co. Bedford, where his Mother and Brother were interred; and a Chalice to Wingham Co. Kent, where he had been Provoſt; and to Ripple, where he had been Rector.

THOMAS SAVAGE, LL. D. Biſhop of London, was elected to this See April 12. 1501. He died at Cawood. Sept. 3. 1507. (having ſpent much on his Palace there and at Scrooby) appointing his Heart to be buried at Macclesfield Co. Cheſter, where he was born, and had founded a College; and his Body in York Cathedral, in the South Choir, where his Monument is yet ſtanding. His Succeſſor was

CHRISTOPHER BAINBRIGGE, LL. D. Provoſt of Queen's College, Oxon, Rector of Aller Co. Somerſet, Maſter of the Rolls, Treaſurer of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, Prebendary of Sarum, York, Lincoln, Dean of Windſor and York, and at length Biſhop of Durham, from whence he was tranſlated hither Sept. 22. 1508. and received the Temporalities Dec. 12. following. He was An. 1511. made a Cardinal, as he had been, before he was made a Biſhop, Lord Chancellor of England. He died at Rome, July 14. 1514. being poiſoned there by his own Steward, and was buried in the Engliſh College there with this Epitaph,

Chri-

Christopher. Archiep. Eboracc. S. Praxed, Presbyter Cardinalis, Orator Regis Anglie, obiit prid. Id. Julij, 1514.

His Succeſſor was

THOMAS WOLSEY, the famous Cardinal, Founder of Chriſt's Church College in Oxford, born in March 1471. for an Account of whom I need only refer to his Life, publiſhed by the learned Dr. Fiddes, and to what is ſaid of him in other numerous Authors. The Bull of Pope Leo X. for his Tranſlation from Lincoln hither, bears date Oct. 1. 1514. which was publiſhed at York, Dec. 3. and the 17th of the ſaid Month he was enthronized by Proxy. In the next Year he was made a Cardinal, and had about two Years after the Abbatſhip of St. Alban's given him in Commendam, being the only Cardinal Abbat ever in England as we find. In the Year 1518. he had the Biſhoprick of Bath and Wells given him alſo in Commendam, which in four Years he reſigned for that of Durham, which he likewiſe quitted An. 1529. on his Acceptance of Wincheſter. About the beginning of Nov. 1530. he was arreſted at Cawood for High-Treaſon, from whence as they were conducting him to London, he fill ſick by the way, and died Nov. 29. 1530. in Leiceſter Abbey, and was buried in the middle of the Lady's Chapel of that Monaſtery, which being deſtroyed, and the Church entirely demoliſhed at the Diſſolution about twelve Years afterwards; and no Foundation of it being at this time poſſible to be diſcovered, prevented a late pious Deſign of removing his Aſhes to the Cathedral in his own College at Oxford, and erecting a Monument to his Memory there; the Want of which gave occaſion to a Right Reverend Member of his Foundation to complain thus in the laſt Age,

And though, from his own Store, Wolſey might have A Palace or a College for his Grave;
Yet here he lies neglected, as if all
Of him to be remembred were his Fall.
Nothing but Earth, to Earth, no pompous Weight
Upon him, but a Pebble or a Quait.
If thou art thus neglected, what may we Hope for after Death, who are but Shreds of thee!

EDWARD LEE, S. T. P. Archdeacon of Colcheſter, Chancellor of Salisbury, Prebendary of York and Salisbury, after the See had been vacant near a Year, was promoted hither by King Henry VIII. by Bull of

Pope Clement, dated Oct. 30. 1531. on Dec. 3. he had the Temporalities reſtored, and Dec. 13. received Conſecration, and Dec. 12. following was enthronized by Proxy, though not in Perſon till April 1. 1534. He died Sept. 13. 1544. and was buried in the Cathedral, under the uppermoſt Window on the North Side, with this Inſcription, Edwardus Leus, Archiepiſcopus Ebor. Theologus eximius, atque omni Litterarum genere longe eruditiſſimus, ſapientie & vite ſanctitate clarus, evangelice doctrine Præconem ſemper agens, pauperibus hereticus, omnibus ordinibus juxta charus, magno de ſe apud omnes deſiderio relicto, hic ſepultus jacet. Sedit Archiepiſcopus annos minus 13. obiit Id. Septembris, etatis ſue 62. Anno Chriſti 1544.

In his Time there were in the Cathedral, as Mr. Torr obſerves, no leſs than thirty Altars, and ſixty four Chantries richly adorned, and ſeveral of them well endowed. About two Years before his Death, by Indenture dated Nov. 12. 1542. he alienated his Manors of Beverley, Southwell, Skidby and Biſhops-Burton, in Exchange with the Crown, for the diſſolved Priory of Marton cum membris, and other Manors belonging to Religious Houſes, as Kilbourne, Sutton under Whitſon-Cliffe, &c. but this was no ill Bargain, and the Church had little Diſadvantage hereby, eſpecially in compariſon with what it ſuffered in the Time of his Succeſſor,

ROBERT HOLGATE, S. T. P. tranſlated from Landaff hither Jan. 6. 1544. born at Holmſworth, about eight Miles from Wakefield, in the Weſt-Riding of Yorkſhire, and bred up among the Gilbertine Monks at Sempringham in Lincolnſhire, and afterwards Prior of Watton in this his native Country; who ſurrendering his Priory, and being a forward Man to promote King Henry VIII. Meaſures, he ſoon found Means to be removed from Landaff to this See, which, within a Month after his Tranſlation, he greatly impoveriſhed, by paſſing away to the King and his Heirs, as already mentioned, thirteen Manors in Northumberland, forty in Yorkſhire, ſix in Nottinghamſhire, and eight in Glouceſterſhire; in Lieu of which he obtained theſe thirty three Impropriations and Advowſons, late Parcels of Abbey-Lands, whoſe Names I ſhall briefly repeat, viz. Doncaſter, Ruiſton, Felkirk, Darington, Neither-Popleton, Feliſkirk, Sutton, Shirriff-Hutton, Braferton, Myton, Crawm, Thirkleby, Marton, Stainton, Ormeshy, Lithe, Agnes-Burton, Weſtow, Eſlington, Kayingham, Nafferton, Gisburgh, Whitby, Kirkleavington, Yarum, Malton, Kilborne, Hutton on Derwent, Thirke, Marton in Galtres, all Co. York, and Haxy and Owſton Co. Lincoln. And though, by theſe

theſe unworthy Meaſures, he had heaped and amaſſed a great deal of Wealth, beyond what any other Biſhop in England was Maſter of, yet it did not proſper with him; for in Edward VI. Reign he met with his Troubles, one Norman petitioning that King and his Council againſt him, claiming the Archbiſhop's Wife to be his, the ſaid Norman's Wife. And in the next Reign, viz. Queen Mary's, he had all his Riches ſeized on, as may be ſeen in Strype's Life of Archbiſhop Cranmer; where ſee, ſub An. 1554. an Inventory of his vaſt Poſſeſſions that he had hoarded up at Cawood and Batterſea; and was moreover deprived and put into the Tower; there being alſo, about the beginning of March 1554. deprived with him, as Mr. Wharton ſpeaks (who tells us, that, by his Covetouſneſs and baſe Actions, he was a Blemiſh to the Reformation) the Biſhops of St. David, Cheſter and Briſtol, who were likewiſe ſet aſide for their Marriages; on account that having, all three of them as well as our Archbiſhop, been brought up in Religious Houſes, and taken the Vow of Cœlibacy upon them, they had broken the ſame, and ſo were more ſeverely dealt with, than the ſecular Clergy, who were not under ſuch ſolemn Reſtrictions, and ſo were diſmiſſed without farther Hardſhips and Impriſonment; which this Archbiſhop having undergone for above a Year and half, he was, by the Intereſt of King Philip, releaſed Jan. 18. 1555-6. And ſo, as I preſume, retiring to Hemſworth, the Place of his Nativity, where he had founded an Hoſpital and Free-School, died there, and was obſcurely buried. In his Will, which I have ſeen, dated April 27. 1555. in the Tower, and proved Dec. 4. 1556. about eleven Months after his Enlargement, he orders to be buried privately in the Pariſh where he ſhould deceaſe, bequeaths his Soul to Almighty God, St. Mary and all the Company of Heaven, and gives 40 s. to the Miniſter of the Pariſh where he died to pray for him. In a Grant of Arms to him, entred in the Herald's Office, he is ſtyled of Holmſworth Co. York, In the Year 1553. a little before his Deprivation, I find granted to Barbara his Wife, by King Edward VI. about ſix Weeks before that King's Death, on May 27. the Manor of Scroby Co. Nottingham for her Support. She is in the Patent ſtyled, Barbara, Wife of Robert Archbiſhop of York, and ſo I ſuppoſe Norman's Proſecution of him was made up. After her Death, and the Archbiſhop's, it was provided, that this Manor ſhould revert to the See of York again: Which on his Deprivation lay ſome time vacant, till the Tranſlation of

NICHOLAS HEATH, Biſhop of Worceſter, hither, whoſe Conge d'Elire was granted Feb [illegible] and he received the Temporalities [illegible] 1556. [illegible] of his Tranſlation June [illegible]

21. and Oct. 3. received the Pall, and Jan. 22. following he was enthronized by his Proxy, the Suffragan Bishop of Hull. His first Preferments were, the Archdeaconry of Stafford, and Bishoprick of Rochester; he was also Almoner to King Henry VIII. as he was Lord Chancellor to Queen Mary, of whom he obtained Suffolk-House in Southwark, in Recompence for Whitehall, which had been taken from this See; but that being at too great a Distance, he procured instead thereof York-Place in the Strand, which himself and Successors enjoyed till King James I. to pleasure the Duke of Buckingham, exchanged it with Archbishop Matthews for Lands elsewhere. He also prevailed on Queen Mary, to restore Rippon Lordship with seven Manors, Members thereof, alienated by his Predecessor Holgate; and also got back again Southwell, and five other Manors in Nottinghamshire: Insomuch that Mr. Torr says, in Truth the See of York owes to Queen Mary and this Archbishop, more than a third Part of its present Revenues. Upon Queen Elizabeth's Accession to the Crown, he was deprived; and having been ever esteemed a most excellent Man, endowed with great Piety and Moderation, he was suffered to retire to his Estate at Chobham in Surry; where he died, and was buried in the Chancel An. 1579. under a blue Stone, as our Writers inform us, and the Inhabitants have yet a Tradition: Though when I was there An. 1723. I could see no Sign of any Grave-Stone that was in Memory of him, or any of his Name; notwithstanding his Relations flourished here till very lately. Soon after his Deprivation An. 1560.

WILLIAM MAY, Dean of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, was elected to this See: But dying before he received Consecration, was buried in St. Paul's Cathedral, with this Inscription on his Grave-Stone,

En recubat tumulo Gulielmus Meius isto,
Qui sacra bis in hac ede Decanus erat,
Cantabriam teneris petiit studiosus ab annis,
Ingenium ingenuis artibus excoluit,
Clarus doctorum juris prudentia fecit,
Pectore qui miti charus ubique fuit,
Factus Eboracus forte Archiepiscopus idem est,
Quem fungi officio fata proterva vetant,
Attulit hec mortem que lux concessit honorem,
Malunt at fieri Presul adire polum.
Aspice quam rebus sit sors incerta caducis,
En pete que nulla sunt peritura die.
Obiit An. Verbi incarnati 1560. 8. die Augusti.

THOMAS

THOMAS YOUNG, LL. B. Biſhop of St. David's, was tranſlated to this See, being elected Jan. 27. 1560. and confirmed Feb. 25. following; of whom and his Succeſſors there being a particular Account given, in a Book publiſhed by Mr. Le Neve, An. 1720. entitled, the Lives of the Proteſtant Archbiſhops of this See, I need only refer thereto for the Hiſtory of him and the ſucceeding Archbiſhops: However, in carrying on the Method of this ſhort Account, I ſhall beg leave to inſert ſome few Corrections and Additions to Mr. Le Neve and other Writers; and briefly remark, that this Archbiſhop, who was about 1508. born at Hogeſton, near Lantfey in Pembrokeſhire, had, beſides the Preferments mentioned in Le Neve, the Prebends of Trallong and Caron in the Collegiate Churches of Brecknock and Llandewybrewy. What Le Neve intimates from Fox, about his asking Farrer Forgiveneſs at his Execution, ſeems entirely a Miſtake: For 'tis certain Younge was gone out of the Land An. 1554. when Farrer ſuffered. In Stephens's additional Volumes to the Monaſticon, we find ſome Complaints of this Archbiſhop's making an ill uſe of his Power, by diſpoſing of his Preferments to mercenary Ends, and ſettling the Eſtates of his beſt Prebends to provide for his Family: And Sir John Harrington intimates, that he was a very worldly Man, and ſtuck at nothing to advantage his Son; and that, having made a 1000 l. by ſtripping his Palace at York of the Lead, and by other ſacrilegious Plunder, tells us a merry Story, how he was circumvented of the Booty, and loſt it all by a Courtier's Stratagem, who, on the Archbiſhop's proteſting on his Faith about his Poverty, found Means to get into his Hands what this Booty yielded. He died at Sheffield, June 26. 1568. and was buried in the South Iſle of the Cathedral, on one ſide the Choir, under a Grave-Stone which had this Inſcription on it,

Thomas Youngus nuper Eboracenſis Archiepiſcopus, civilis juris Doctor peritiſſimus, quem propter gravitatem ſummum ingenium eximiam prudentiam rerum politicarum ſcientiam, illuſtriſſima regina ſeptentrionalibus hujus regni partibus præſidem conſtituit, quo magiſtratu quinque annos perfunctus eſt. Sedit Archiepiſcopus annos ſeptem & ſex menſes, obiit viceſimo ſexto die menſis Junii A. D. 1568.

His Wife, whom he married in his elder Years, about 1552. ſurvived him upwards of forty Years, and, dying An. 1614. was, with others of his Family, buried near him; though all their Epitaphs are I think as well as his periſhed.

EDMUND

EDMUND GRINDAL, S. T. P. first Fellow, then Master of Pembroke-Hall, Cambridge, and afterwards Bishop of London, was, after a Vacancy of near two Years, elected to this See April 11. 1570. and translated hither May 22. and received the Temporalities June 6. following, and was next Day installed by Proxy. He was on Feb. 15. 1575. translated to Canterbury: And succeeded by

EDWIN SANDYS, S. T. P. Master of Catharine-Hall, Cambridge, Prebendary of Peterborough, first Bishop of Worcester, and afterwards of London, who became elected to this See Jan. 25. 1576. confirmed March 8. enthronized by Proxy March 13. and had the Temporalities restored the 16th of the said Month. To what Mr. Le Neve says of him in his Life, I shall add, that Fuller tells us, he was born at Conisby in Lancashire, and not Furnesfells: And Parker, in his Skeletos Cantabr. informs us, the Scholarship he had in St. John's, Cambridge, was of Dr. Felton's, not Dr. Fell's Foundation, as in Le Neve. He was doubtless like his Predecessor Young, a very worldly Man; and, by the Disputes he had every-where, I fear of a very contentious Spirit. He had many Children, the youngest of which George Sandys, born, after he was Archbishop, at Thorp, was a most excellent Poet, and a Man of universal Learning and Worth. Concerning the Story of him at Doncaster, being catched a Bed with his Hostess, he seems to be much wronged: The Tradition is still fresh at Doncaster. His Scruples to Queen Elizabeth, in refusing to lease Southwell, would scarce have been so commended by Mr. Le Neve, if he had observed what Thoroton informs us, of his alienating for the most part Scroby to his Son, and his pulling down the Palace there; or if he had seen what Mr. Torr remarks, about his giving his eldest Son (though not in Orders) the golden Prebend of his Church; which Prebend, with several other Estates of the Archbishoprick, remained An. 1693. in Mr. Torr's Time, in his Family. In the second Volume of Strype's History of the Reformation, we have sad Complaints against him by Bishop Aylmer, his Successor at London, who writes thus of him to the Lord Treasurer Cecill: "Coloured Covetousness, an envious Heart, covered with the Cloak of "Dissimulation, will when Opportunity serveth shew itself." Aylmer also calleth him, "An unthankful Man;" and says, "That as soon as he "got himself a Rochet, he was transformed, and shewed himself in his "Nature." — Strype, speaking of him An. 1577. after he was Archbishop, tells us, that visiting the Church of Durham, Whittingham, the Dean there, opposed him, which instigated him to write to Court, that Whittingham was no ordained Minister of the Church of England, but received his Orders at Geneva; and next Year he wrote again to Court

Court againſt his own Dean, Dr. Hutton, with whom he had alſo quarrelled, and ſo on that account ſollicited, that Hutton might be made Biſhop of Lichfield; For, ſays he, I cannot live with that Man. Hutton in Return taxed him, That he made no account of his Clergy, and the Preachers of the Goſpel. He was An. 1579. preſented for Dilapidations at London, which gave handle to a great Courtier to preſs him more eagerly to part with Southwell and Scroby; though who this Courtier was, we are not told: But I cannot ſuppoſe him Sir Robert Stapleton, or that Sir Robert was, as Mr. Le Neve imagines, precipitate to take the unhandſome Revenge he did, on being denied Southwell. At length, after this Archbiſhop had lived in perpetual Diſquiet, both at Worceſter, London and here, having out of the Patrimony of the Church raiſed a fair Fortune to his Family, he departed this Life at Southwell, July 10. 1588. aged ſixty nine, and was buried in the Church there, and not at Hawkshead, as the Author of the Antiquities of Worceſter would have it, from his Cœnotaph erected there, which is verbatim the ſame as on his real Monument at Southwell; though 'tis plain, from ſome Expreſſions in it, that the Character could not relate to Hawkshead, but Southwell. His Will is in Regiſtro Drury, Qu. 30. in the Prerogative-Office, but has nothing memorable in it of his Charities. What farther relates to him is given in his Epitaph on his Tomb, in the North Corner of Southwell Choir, which contains his Effigies lying at length, with a Book in his Hand, and his Children kneeling on one ſide. Round the Verge is this Inſcription, Edwinus Sandes, S.T.P. poſtquam Wigornienſem Epiſcopatum xi. annos, totidemque tribus demptis Londinenſem geſſiſſet, Eboracenſis ſui Archiepiſcopatus An. XII. vitæ autem LXIX. obiit Julii x. An. Dom. 1588.

At the Head of the Monument, which was erected ſeemingly many Years after his Death, and taken from his excellent Succeſſors Epitaph is this,

Cujus hic reconditum cadaver jacet, genere non humilis, vixit dignitate locoque magnus, exemplo major duplici functus Epiſcopatu, Archiepiſcopali tandem amplitudine etiam illuſtris: honoris hoſce mercatus grandi pretio, meritis virtutibuſque. Homo hominum a malitia & vindicta innocentiſſimus, magnanimus, apertus, & tantum neſcius adulari, ſumme liberalis atq; miſericors, Hoſpitaliſſimus, Optimus, Facilis, & in ſola vitia ſuperbus: ſcilicet, haud minora quam locutus eſt, vixit; & fuit.

In evangelii prædicandi laboribus, ad extremum usque halitum, mirabiliter assiduus. A sermonibus ejus nunquam non melior discederes. Facundus volebat esse, & videbatur. Ignavos, sedulitatis suæ conscius, oderat. Novas litteras auxit, pro facultatibus. Ecclesiæ patrimonium, velut rem Deo sacratum decuit, intactum defendit. Gratia quæ fervuit apud illustrissimam mortalium Elizabetham effecit, ne hanc in ea jures ecclesiam, tu jacentem cerneres, venerande Præsul. Utriusque memorandum fortunæ exemplar, qui tanta cum gesseris multo his majora animo ad omnia semper impavido, perpessus es: carceres, exilia, cum librorum facultatum amissiones, quodq; omnium difficillime innocens præferre animus consuevit, immanes calumnias: & hac re una votis tuis minor, quod Christo testimonium, etiam sanguine, non præbueris. Attamen qui in prosperis tantos fluctus, & post agonum tot adversa, tandem quietis sempiternæ portum fessus mundi, Deique sitiens reperisti. Æternum lætare: vice sanguinis sunt sudores tui.

At his Feet under his Arms,

Abi lector, nec ista scias tantum ut sciveris, sed ut imitere. Verbum Domini manet in æternum.

JOHN PIERS, S. T. P. Rector of Queinton-Mallet Co. Bucks, Prebendary of Chester, succeeded; being elected to this See from that of Salisbury, Feb. 1. 1588. translated hither Feb. 9. and confirmed Feb. 19. what his other Preferments were are given us in his Inscription on his Monument, to which I shall refer for his Character. He was in short endowed with all sorts of Learning, and in all Places where he presided, particularly at Chester, Oxford, Salisbury and here, beloved by all for his Humanity, Christian Behaviour and Generosity, which, being a single Man, he exercised to that degree, that he had little left to bestow at his Death: So that I cannot find he made any Will, otherwise than a nuncupative one, as is supposed. This primitive Bishop died at Bishops-Thorp, universally lamented, in the seventy first Year of his Age, having leased nothing of the Revenues of the Church (as his Predecessor and Successor did both to their Children) and was buried in the Cathedral, at the East End; where is erected to his Memory the following Inscription, on a Copartment of Marble, between two Pillars, having his Arms on a Shield at top,

Johannes Piers, S. Theol. Doctor cœlebs, postquam Decanatum Cestriæ, Eccl. Christi in Acad. Oxon & Sarisburiæ functus esset, & postquam Epis-

Episcopat Roffensem viginti menses, Sarisburiensem undecim plus minus annos gessisset, Archiepiscopatum Eboracensem annos sex, vitæ autem 71. obiit Sept. 28. A. D. 1594.

Cujus hic repositum est cadaver. Genere non magnus fuit (nec tamen humilis) dignitate locoque major, exemplo maximus. Homo (si quisquam mortalium) a malitia & vindicta plane innocens: summe liberalis in omnes. Pauperibus ita beneficus, ut non suam modo, sed & principis sui munificentiam, eleemosynarius regius, larga manu per multos annos erogarit. Hospitalis adeo, ut expensæ reditus sæpe æquarint nonnunquam superarint. Contemptor mundi, optimus, facilis & in sola vitia superbus. Scilicet non minus factis quam sermonibus syncerum verbi Præconem egit. Et fuit in evangelio prædicando, tam in aula & academia, quam in ecclesia, ut semper valde nervosus, ita ad extremum usq; halitum mirabiliter assiduus. Veram & Germanam Christi religionem modis omnibus propagavit, falsam & adulterinam totis viribus oppugnavit. Bonas litteras pro facultatibus auxit. Ignavos, sedulitatis suæ conscius ferre non potuit. Manus temere nemini imposuit. Ecclesiæ patrimonium veluti rem Deo sacratam intactum defendit. Summa semper apud illustrissimam mortalium Elizabetham gratia floruit. Ineffabili apud Deum immortalem gloria æternum florebit. Vivit in cœlo anima ejus, vivet in terris memoria: utinam & vivum exemplar in omnibus Episcopis ecclesiæque Pastoribus cerneretur.

Johannes Bennet, Legum Doctor, hæres in Testamento scriptus, memoriæ tanti præsulis talisque Patroni sui (cui omnibus officii ac observantiæ nominibus se deditissimum profitetur) hoc pii grati animi non tantæ hereditatis, monumentum suis sumptibus posuit.

N. B. This Epitaph seems to have raised an Emulation in Sandys's Family, to have given him the like Character.

MATTHEW HUTTON, S. T. P. Rector of Boxworth Co. Cambridge, Prebendary of Ely, Westminster, St. Paul's Cathedral, London, Master of Pembroke-Hall, Dean and Prebendary of York, and at length Bishop of Durham, succeeded; being translated from Durham hither Mar. 24. 1594. and enthronized by Proxy Mar. 31. 1595. He was born, as Mr. Torr says, at Warton in Lancashire, which Mr. Le Neve calls Wareton; and, as he has heard, it is the common Tradition of that Place, that he was a Foundling there, and on that account in his Will provided for the Erection of an Hospital and Free-School at Warton: Though other Writers, especially Mr. Le Neve, mention his being born at Priest-Hutton in Lancashire. He was doubtless a Man of great Learning, and an excellent Preacher; though he had in his younger Days engaged himſelf much in worldly Affairs, having married no leſs than three Wives before he was made Biſhop: He died at Biſhops-Thorp, Jan. 16. 1605. in which Year his eldeſt Son was High-Sheriff of Yorkſhire, to whom he left a fair Eſtate out of the Biſhoprick; ſeveral Leaſes being, as Mr. Torr ſays, An. 1693. in the Hands of his great Grandſon. He lies buried in the Cathedral, where is a ſumptuous Monument erected to his Memory, having his Effigies lying thereon, with two male Children and one female kneeling underneath, with this Inſcription above it, Epitaphium Matthæi Hutton Celeberrimi Archiepiſcopi Ebor.

Memoriæ Sacrum.

Cujus expreſſum corporis effigiem cernis lector, ſi mentis quoque imaginem videre cupis, Ambroſium vel etiam Auguſtinum cogita; alterius quippe ingenium argutum, alterius limatum judicium hoc Præſule vivente viguit. Qui in academia Cantab. olim S. T. P. publicus & literarum columen claruit: poſtea erat ad Decanatum Ebor. hinc ad Epiſcopatum Dunelm. illinc ad Archiepiſcop. Ebor. providentia divina Sereniſſ. Regin. Elizabethæ auſpiciis propter admiralem educationis, integritatis & prudentiæ laudem provectus, & decurt. tandem ætatis ſuæ 80. curri culo, corpus Adæ, animum Chriſti gremio commendabat. Ecquid vis amplius, Lector noſce teipſum. Obiit 16. die menſis Januarii, A. D. 1605.

Fuller, in his Worthies in Lancaſhire, p. 111. gives an Annary of his Life, as he calls it, and tells us, he was born An. 1529. which Le Neve alſo informs us; and ſo he could be no more than ſeventy ſix, as Fuller makes him, and the calling him eighty muſt be a Miſtake in his Epitaph.

TOBIAS MATTHEW, S. T. P. Archdeacon of Bath, Prebendary of Sarum, Preſident of St. John's College, Oxon, Canon, and at length Dean of Chriſt's Church, Oxon, Precentor of Sarum, Dean of Durham, Rector of Biſhops-Wearmouth, and afterwards Biſhop of Durham, was tranſlated hither; having been Succeſſor to Dr. Hutton, as well in Durham as in this See, to which he was elected July 26. confirmed Aug. 18. and enthronized by Proxy Sept. 11. following. While he ſate here he alienated from this See, to pleaſe the Duke of Buckingham, in Exchange for other Lands, York-Houſe in the Strand, in London, An. 1622. having before, to pleaſe a Scotch Courtier, while he was Biſhop of Durham, given up in like manner Norham and Norhamſhire from that See. He died March 29. 1628. and was buried in the Minſter, under a ſpatious Monument already deſcribed, bearing this Inſcription, Iſaacus Montaignus Teſtamenti Curator Frater, B. M. M. P. vixit annos 59. M. 6. D. 2.

Having been a ſingle Man, he founded two Scholarſhips in Queen's College, Cambridge, and gave a good Piece of Plate to that Society, in token of having been a Fellow thereof. On his Death

SAMUEL HARSNET, S. T. P. Biſhop of Norwich, was elected to this See Nov. 26. 1628. confirmed Jan. 13. following, and inſtalled by Proxy April 23. 1629. His other Preferments that he had paſſed through were, a Prebend of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, the Rectory of Shenfield, Vicaridges of Chigwell and Hutton, Rectory of Stiſted, Archdeaconry of Colcheſter, all in Eſſex; beſides the Maſterſhip of Pembroke-Hall, Cambridge, which he kept with the See of Chicheſter, before his Removal

Removal to Norwich, till he was ejected out of the ſame for ſome ſcandalous Practices, which were ſo flagrant againſt him, being exhibited in fifty ſeven Articles, that he was glad to quit his Maſterſhip, to prevent farther Enquiry. In his Will, dated Feb. 13. 1633. he appointed to be buried at Chigwell in Eſſex, near Thomaſine his Wife; and ordered his Effigies in Braſs to be engraven in old Faſhion, and faſtened to a Stone with this Inſcription on a Plate of Braſs,

Hic jacet Samuel Harſnet, quondam Vicarius hujus eccleſiæ primo indignus Epiſcopus Ciceſtrenſis, dein indignior Norwicens, demum indigniſſimus Archiepiſcopus Eboracens:

Which was accordingly performed with theſe additional Words,

Qui obiit 25. die Maii, A. D. 1631. quod ipſiſſimum Epitaphium ex abundanti humilitate ſibi poni curavit teſtamento Reverendiſſimus Præſul.

His Succeſſor was

RICHARD NEIL, S. T. P. firſt Prebendary, then Treaſurer of Chicheſter, Vicar of Cheſhunt Co. Hertford, Dean of Weſtminſter, and ſucceſſively Biſhop of Rocheſter, Lichfield, Lincoln, Durham, Wincheſter, paſſing through all theſe five Sees before his Tranſlation to this, to which he became elected Feb. 28. 1631. tranſlated Mar. 19. following, and inſtalled by Proxy April 16. 1632. He died Oct. 31. 1640. in the Manſion-Houſe belonging to the Prebend of Stillington, in the Cloſe of the Church of York, and was buried in the Cathedral, in All Saints Chapel, without the leaſt Memorial. In his Will he ordered, if he died at Southwell, to be buried in Lincoln Cathedral; if at London, in Weſtminſter Abbey; and if at York, in York Cathedral: And left his Son, Sir Paul Neil, Executor, whom though he left rich (as he did his Wife 300*l. per Annum* for her Life) yet he ſoon run it out, without affording his Father a Grave-Stone. On his Death

JOHN WILLIAMS, S. T. P. Biſhop of Lincoln, was tranſlated hither Dec. 4. 1641. and enthronized in Perſon June 27. 1642. He was born at Conway in Carnarvonſhire, Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge, Rector of Walgrave and Grafton-Underwood Co. Northampton, Precentor and Prebendary of Lincoln, Prebendary of Peterborough and Hereford, Archdeacon of Cardigan, Dean of Salisbury and Weſtminſter. The Hiſtory of this unhappy politick Prelate has been publiſhed in ſo many Authors, that I need ſay no more of him here, than to remark, that, that, dying at Glothaeth Co. Carnarvon, the Seat of Sir Roger Moſtyn, Baronet, about a Mile from Conway, he was buried in Llandegay Church, about two Miles off Bangor Cathedral, where I have ſeen his Monument; 'tis a Copartment of white Marble, affixed to the Wall, and contains his Effigies kneeling, with the Arms of the Sees of Lincoln and York, and Deanary of Weſtminſter, ſeverally impaled, with his own Arms, and has on a Tablet this Inſcription,

After his Death, during the Times of Anarchy and Confuſion, this See continued vacant ten Years, till, on the happy Reſtauration of Church and Monarchy,

ACCEPTED

ACCEPTED FREWEN, S. T. P. Bishop of Lichfield, was elected to this See Sept. 22. translated Oct. 4. and installed Oct. 11. 1660. The other Preferments he had enjoyed were, a Prebend of Canterbury, the Presidentship of Magdalen College, Oxon, the Rectories of Stanlake Co. Oxon, and Warnford Co. Southampton, and Deanary of Gloucester; though he had considerable Advantages from Lichfield and York, and was a single Man, yet being the Son of a Puritanical Minister, (as his Father was reported to have been) I find nothing done by him to either of his Cathedrals: However, it is certain he laid out considerably on his Palace at Bishops-Thorp, and was a Benefactor to Magdalen College. Dr. Chamberlain, as Mr. Le Neve says, assures us in his State of England, that his Benefactions, besides Abatement to Tenants, amounted to 15000 l. but how that was expended he does not account. I cannot in short find, that he distinguished himself to be a Person of a publick Spirit, and so I shall say no more of him, than to exhibit his Epitaph from his Monument in this Cathedral, the Scite of which, with those of other Archbishops, see in the Ichnography:

Hic requiescit in spe, novissimam præstolans tubam, Acceptus Frewen,

On his Death

RICHARD STERNE, S. T. P. Bishop of Carlisle, was elected to this See April 28. 1664. and enthronized June 10. following. He made, as Mr. Torr observes, some Reparations at Bishops-Thorp; though that did not atone for his demising Hexgrave Co. Nottingham (which Dr. Thoroton tells us of) to his Son, Mr. Sterne, and his Son's Wife. He died, and was buried in the Cathedral, near his Daughter Anne's Grave, with the following Inscription on his Monument, which accounts for a farther History of him and his Preferments,

JOHN DOLBEN, S. T. P. Biſhop of Rocheſter, elected July 26. 1683. confirmed Aug. 16. and enthronized Aug. 26. following. The other Preferments that he had enjoyed were, the Archdeaconry of London, and a Prebend in that Cathedral, the Deanary of Weſtminſter, a Canonry of Chriſt-Church, Oxon, Rectory of Newington Co. Oxon, and Vicaridge of St. Giles's Cripplegate, London. He died April 11. 1686. aged 62. of the Small-Pox at Biſhops-Thorp, where he had expended ſome Money on the Palace; as he had been alſo a Benefactor to Chriſt-Church College, Oxon, and St. Paul's Cathedral, and was buried in this Cathedral, under a ſumptuous Monument bearing this Inſcription,

After a Vacancy of two Years and an half

THOMAS LAMPLUGH, S. T. P. Biſhop of Exeter, was elected to this See Nov. 28. 1688. tranſlated Dec. 7. and inſtalled Dec. 19. following by Proxy. He was born at Thwing in the Eaſt-Riding of Yorkſhire, as Mr. Torr informs us; ſo how his Oath, of being a Native of Carliſle Dioceſe, on his being admitted Fellow of Queen's College, Oxon, was diſpenſed with, I cannot account. He was, as A. Wood tells us, (to the new Edition of whoſe Athenæ I ſhall refer for his Life and Character, as additional to what Le Neve ſays of him) for ſome time Rector of Binfield Co. Berks, and afterwards of Carlton on Oſt-

more Co. Oxon, Principal of Alban Hall, Oxon, Archdeacon of London, Prebendary of Worceſter, Vicar of St. Martin's in the Fields, Weſtminſter, and Dean of Rocheſter before he was made a Biſhop. He died at Biſhops-Thorp, May 5. An. 1691. and was buried in this Cathedral, (the Altar-Place of which he had paved with black and white Marble, and added new Rails and Tapeſtry-Hangings) with this Inſcription on an handſome Monument,

His Succeſſor was

JOHN SHARP, S. T. P. conſecrated July 5. 1691. To the Account, given of this eminent Prelate in his Epitaph drawn up by Biſhop Smallridge, whoſe Knowledge of him, and Integrity, will, as Mr. Le Neve obſerves, render every Particular in it to be depended on, I ſhall only add, That he was a moſt excellent Governour, brought the Prebendaries in his Cathedral of York, and Colleges of Southwell and Ripon, to ſtrict Reſidence; and, that they might be the better diſpoſed thereto, he made it his unalterable Practice always to elect them out of ſuch as lived in his Dioceſe, and had recommended themſelves by doing their Duties in their reſpective Parochial Cures: By which Means no Cathedral in England was better attended by Clergy, and the Service more regularly performed than at York; or the Miniſters of ſmall Livings, in any Dioceſe, more encouraged to attend their Charge; becauſe this good Biſhop would reward their Diligence by ſuch Compenſations, more eſpecially thoſe in York City, on whoſe Conduct the World had a more eſpecial Eye. Hoping his Example would influence his Succeſſors ſors to take the like Courſe: Which certainly if other Biſhops had in like manner practiſed, the Dignities of Cathedrals would have been kept up as in the primitive Times, and we ſhould not have ſeen ſeveral of them ſo ſcandalouſly neglected, nor have Reaſon to complain, as we juſtly may, in relation to one of them, viz. Landaff; where, as there has ſcarce been in theſe thirty Years laſt paſt one Clergyman in the Dioceſe preferred to a Prebend therein, we may leſs wonder at the laying aſide the Organ and Choir-Service, and the ſuffering the Bells, which have been broke in leſs than that Period, to remain cracked, and the Breaches, made by ſome late Storms in the Towers and other Parts of the Church, to continue unrepaired: Whereas, on a like Accident to Southwell Collegiate Church, a Place of leſs Note than Landaff, it being only a Village, this good Archbiſhop immediately ſet himſelf to work to repair that Church, and not only generouſly gave his own, but obtained ſeveral large Charities to it, and by his Example and Zeal ſoon made up the Breaches. But I come to his Epitaph aforementioned, erected on his Monument in this Cathedral, which as it ſums up his Preferments, and gives us ſome farther Hiſtory of him, I may thence refer for the remaining Part of his Character:

M. S.

Quam iniquissimis temporibus, magno suo periculo,
Contra apertam Pontificiorum rabiem,
Argumentis invictissimis
Asserverat, propugnaverat, stabiliverat,
Apostolicæ simul veritatis Præco, ac fortitudinis æmulus;
Faventibus Gulielmo & Maria Regibus,
Plaudentibus bonis omnibus,
Ad Archiepiscopalis dignitatis fastigium tandem evectus est:
Nec hujusce tantum Provinciæ negotia satis ardua feliciter expediit,
Sed & Annæ Principium optimæ, tum a Consiliis, tum ab Eleemosynis fuit,
Quas utcunque amplas, utcunque diffluentes,
Ne quem forte inopum a se tristem dimitteret,
de suis sæpenumero facultatibus supplevit.
Erat in sermone apertus, comis, affabilis,
In concionibus profluens, ardens, nervosus,
In explicandis Theologiæ casuisticæ nodis
Dilucidus, argutus, promptus:
In eximendis dubitantium scrupulis,
Utcunque naturæ bonitate ad leniores partes aliquanto propensior,
Æqui tamen rectique custos semper fidissimus:
Primæva morum simplicitate,
Inculpabili vitæ tenore,
Propensa in calamitosos benignitate,
Diffusa in universos benevolentia,
Studio in amicos perpetuo ac singulari,
Inter deterioris sæculi tenebras emicuit,
Purioris Ævi lumina æquavit.
Tam avi rerum cœlestium desiderio flagrabat,
Ut his solis inhians, harum unice avarus,
Terrenas omnes neglexerit, spreverit, conculcarit.
Eo erat erga Deum pietatis ardore,
Ut illum totus adamaverit, spiraverit,
Illum ubique præsentem,
Illum semper intuentem,
Animo suo ac ipsis fere oculis observaverit.
Publicas hasce virtutes domesticis uberrime cumulavit,
Maritus & Pater amantissimus;
Et a conjuge liberisque impense dilectus,
Qui ne deesset etiam mortuo pietatis suæ testimonium.
Hoc marmor ei mærentes posuerunt.

Biſhop Dawes became elected Archbiſhop, and was on March 24. following enthronized by Proxy.

DEANS.

DEANS of YORK.

OF Deans, Canons, and other Dignitaries in Cathedrals, see Dugdale's Appendix to his History of St. Paul's Cathedral; and also the learned Bishop Stillingfleet's Ecclesiastical Cases; where is given a particular Account of their Creation, Office, &c. which is likewise very amply treated of in Bishop Kennet's excellent Book of Parochial Antiquities of Ambrosden, Burchester, &c. What I shall here observe is, That the Dean is the Principal Canon or Priest in the Church, being bound to reside altogether there, and being obliged to inspect the Government of it, and to defend its Liberties, and keep its laudable Customs, and exercise his Authority in causing others to observe them; he is also bound by Oath to preserve the Goods and Estates of the Church from being lost, or alienated; and as he is Chief in the Church next the Bishop, so in the Chapter he is the greatest of all; for without his Concurrence the other Members cannot regularly meet, or act.

The original Establishment of this Office, as well here as in other Cathedrals, was, as all our Writers agree, since the Conquest: For tho' titular Deans (by which seems to be understood only rural ones) occur in the Saxon Times; yet 'tis plain all their Jurisdiction and Power was settled after the Norman Invasion; since which Time Precentors, Chancellors, Treasurers, Archdeacons and Prebendaries became first constituted, and introduced into Cathedrals. The Founder of them in this Church (where doubtless they were established as early as in any other) was Archbishop Thomas, who An. 1090. about twenty four Years after the Conquest, divided the Lands of this Cathedral into Prebends, alloting each Member his particular Portion, as it continues to this Day; except, that the Treasurership, with two Prebends annexed to it, being too well endowed, and four others were dissolved not long after the Reformation.

The Endowment of the Deanary, valued An. 1534. 26. Hen. VIII. at 308 l. 10 s. 7 d. consists of the Impropriations of the Rectories of Pocklington, Pickering and Killum, of which Vicaridges the Dean is Patron and Ordinary, having all manner of Jurisdiction; as he is also Patron of Thornton, Ebberston, Ellerbourne, Burnby-Moor, Gevendale and Hayton Vicaridges, most or all which were antiently Members of Pocklington, or some of the other Parishes where his Demesnes lie.

The first of these Deans, on Erection of the Office by Archbishop Thomas aforesaid, was

HUGH,

HUGH, conſtituted An. 1090. He enjoyed it An. 1109. As did
ALDRED An. 1113. After whom I meet with a ſecond
HUGH poſſeſſed of it An. 1130. and 1132. As I do with WILLIAM de St. Barbara, An. 1138. He was An. 1142. made Biſhop of Durham: And ſucceeded by ROBERT de Gaunt, An. 1142. He held it 1153. The next I find is ROBERT BOTIVELIN: On whoſe Death, which happened Anno 1168.
HUBERT WALTER was made Dean An. 1168. He was 1188. preferred to the See of Salisbury.
HENRY MARSHALL ſucceeded, being elected Sept. 6. 1188. He was An. 1193. made Biſhop of Exeter.
SIMON de Apulia ſucceeded 1192. and was likewiſe preferred hence 1214. to the See of Exeter.
WILLIAM, Archdeacon of Nottingham, had, as Le Neve tells us, Sept. 20. 1214. a Mandamus to be elected Dean; though I don't find his Name in Mr. Torr's Catalogue: Or Mention of
* MAUGERIUS's being Dean here, whom Leland in his Itinerary, Vol. VIII. pag. 127. tells us was An. 1199. from this Dignity made Biſhop of Worceſter: For he is omitted both in Le Neve and Mr. Torr, who places in his Catalogue
* HAME as Dean An. 1206. next after Simon de Apulia: And after him mentions ROGER de Inſula as Dean An. 1221. Le Neve tells us he was elected to this Office from the Chancellorſhip of Lincoln Cathedral. He died An. 1230. as ſome Accounts have it; or rather, as in others, Anno 1235. And was ſucceeded by GEFFRY de Norwich, An. 1235. He died An. 1239. And was ſucceeded by FULK BASSET, elected in November, 1239. He was 1241. made Biſhop of London. After him
* WILLIAM is mentioned as Dean in Mr. Torr's Collections. The next is WALTER de Kirkham: On whoſe being made Biſhop of Durham, Anno 1298.
SEWALL de Bovill ſucceeded, 1249. He was Anno 1255. made Archbiſhop: And ſucceeded by GODFREY de Ludham, Anno 1256. He was likewiſe preferred to this Archbiſhoprick: And ſucceeded by ROBERT de Holderneſs, An. 1258. Whoſe Succeſſor

WILLIAM de Langton, alias Rutherford, was Anno 1264. elected Archbiſhop; but ſet aſide by the Pope, and ſo continued Dean, refuſing the See of Carliſle, to which he was nominated in 1278. He died July 15. 1279. and was buried in the Cathedral with this Inſcription on his Grave-Stone, the oldeſt in the whole Church, Hic requieſcit Corpus Gulielmi de Langueton, qui obiit die S. Swithini, A. D. 1279. cujus anima ſit cum Deo.

On his Death

ROBERT de Scardeburgh, Archdeacon of Eaſt-Riding, was confirmed in this Dignity Nov. 1. 1279. He died An. 1290. And was ſucceeded by

HENRY of Newark, inſtalled June 11. 1290. He was Anno 1296. elected Archbiſhop: And ſucceeded by

WILLIAM de Hamelton, elected 9. Id. Dec. 1298. But the Archbiſhop refuſed to confirm him, on account that the Pope had thruſt in one Francis, Cardinalis S. Marie de Coſmedyn, who reſigning his Pretenſions, William died poſſeſſed of it April 20. 1307. Upon which

REYMOND de la Goth, a Roman Cardinal, ſucceeded, being provided by the Pope, and admitted July 31. 1307. He died about June, 1310. And was ſucceeded by

WILLIAM PICKERING, Archdeacon of Northampton, elected Sept. 11. 1310. He died April 7. 1312. And was ſucceeded by his Brother,

ROBERT PICKERING, Archdeacon of Northumberland, elected June 12. 1312. He died 1332. And was ſucceeded by

WILLIAM de Colby, admitted Nov. 4. and inſtalled Dec. 27. 1332. He died next Year: And was ſucceeded by WILLIAM le Zouch, admitted Nov. 12. 1333. He was 1340. made Archbiſhop. Le Neve places him coming in An. 1336. But Mr. Torr fixing it 1333. I follow his Authority.

THOMAS SAMPSON was elected next Dean by the Canons, Nov. 2. 1342. But the Pope made his Election void, appointing

TALYRANDOS de Petagoricis, a Roman Cardinal, to this Dignity, who became admitted Mar. 18. 1342. However, An. 1347. on April 16. the King nominated his Chaplain, Philip de Weſton, to the Deanary: But notwithſtanding this, the Pope and Chapter confirmed Talyrandus to his Death, which happened An. 1366. When

JOHN Anglicus Cardinalis was likewiſe provided by the Pope, and admitted Nov. 11. 1366. of whom is this Account given by Fox, who tells tells us, That the Lord Anglicus, a Roman Cardinal, held the Deanary of York from Nov. 11. 1366. and that it was worth 400 l. per Annum then; and that John Stoke, Canon of York, held it for him. He was on May 1. 1381. deprived by the Pope: And

ADAM, another Roman Cardinal, admitted in his Place Mar. 7. 1381. He was likewise deprived by the Pope on June 5. 1385. And

EDMOND de Stafford, LL. D. admitted Aug. 12. 1385. He was 1395. made Bishop of Exeter: And succeeded by

ROGER WALDEN, admitted 1395. He was 1397. elected Archbishop of Canterbury: And succeeded by

RICARD CLIFFORD, LL. D. elected Mar. 26. and installed Mar. 28. 1397. He was 1401. made Bishop of Worcester: And succeeded by THOMAS LANGLEY, confirmed in this Dignity Jan. 1401. He was An. 1406. made Bishop of Durham.

JOHN PROPHETE, or Profyt, Keeper of the King's Seal, Dean of Hereford, succeeded, being elected April 10. 1407. In his Will, dated at London, April 8. 1416. and proved May 4. following, he appointed to be buried, if he died at York, in the Cathedral there, or else at Pocklington; but if he died in Canterbury Province, as 'tis plain he did at London, in his Prebendal Church of Leighton-Bosard Co. Bedford, or in his Church at Ringwood in Hampshire. He was buried, as I judge from an old Grave-Stone spoiled of its Brasses, in St. Peter and St. Paul's Church at Leighton; to which Prebendal Church he seems to have been a good Benefactor, that being built, as I judge from some Accounts, in his Time.

THOMAS POLTON, LL. B. succeeded, being elected July 23. 1416. He was 1420. made Bishop of Hereford.

WILLIAM GREY, LL. D. was installed April 5. 1421. and in 1426. made Bishop of London.

ROBERT GILBERT, S. T. P. succeeded, being confirmed Dean Sept. 19. 1426. He was 1436. also made Bishop of London: And succeeded by WILLIAM FELTER, LL. D. Archdeacon of York, admitted Dec. 16. 1436. In his Will, dated April 6. 1451. he appointed to be buried in the Cathedral, gave 50 l. to Keynsham Abbey Co. Somerset, 10 l. to Merton College, Oxon, 20 l. to Ratcliff Church, Bristol, to pray for his Father and Mother's Souls, no doubt there buried, and 4 l. to St. Werburgh's Church, Bristol, which was then probably rebuilding. He died, and was buried in the Cathedral with this Inscription on his Grave-Stone, stollen away with divers other Brasses after 1641.

Orate pro anima Will. Felter, Decretorum Doctoris, quondam Decani & Canonici Resid. istius Eccl. Cathedr. ac Prebendar. Prebend. de Driffeild in eadem, qui obiit x. die mensis April. 1451. Cujus, &c.

Richard Andrew, LL. D. Canon of Windsor, Archdeacon of Buckingham, succeeded, being confirmed Jan. 21. 1451. In his Will, dated Sept. 12. 1477. and proved Nov. 5. following, he appointed to be buried in York Cathedral, bequeathing a Legacy to Adderbury Co. Oxon, where he was born; and St. Asaph Cathedral, where no doubt he had been Canon or Dean. He resigned this Deanary a little before his Death, and was buried in the Cathedral, where he had founded a Chantry, with an Inscription on his Grave-Stone now perished. On his Resignation

Robert Bothe, LL. D. was admitted Aug. 18. 1477. In his Will, dated Jan. 23. 1487. two Days before his Death, he desired to be buried near his Predecessor, Dean Andrews, and to have a Stone laid over him, which I find had this Inscription now likewise perished,

——— Ingenio, virtute, fide, vir locus iste
Vulgi voce raro noverat ante virum.
Soli Deo sit honor & gloria, Robertus Bothe Decanus, 1487.

On his Death

Christoper Ursewick, LL. D. became admitted May 22. 1488. of whom and his numerous Preferments see an Account in Newcourt. He resigned this Dignity: And was succeeded by William Sheffield, LL. D. admitted June 24. 1494. He died, and was buried in the Cathedral with this Inscription, Sepultura Will. Sheffeild Decani, obiit 8. die Decembris, 1496.

Miserere mei Deus secundum magnam misericordiam tuam:
And in divers Places of the Stone,
Jesu miserere!

Geffry Blith, S.T.B. succeeded, being admitted May 24. 1496. He was An. 1503. made Bishop of Lichfield: And succeeded by

Christopher Bainbrigg, LL. D. Archdeacon of Surry, admitted Dec. 9. 1503. He was An. 1507. made Bishop of Durham: And succeeded by

James

JAMES HARRINGTON, confirmed Dean Jan. 29. 1507. and inſtalled Jan. 31. He died in Dec. 1512. And was ſucceeded by

THOMAS WULCY, or Wolſey, S. T. P. elected Feb. 19. 1512. He was An. 1514. made Biſhop of Lincoln, and afterwards Archbiſhop of this See. On his Promotion to Lincoln

JOHN YOUNG, LL. D. ſucceeded, being admitted May 17. 1514. He died, and was buried in the Rolls Chapel, London, under an handſome Monument bearing this Inſcription, Dominus firmamentum meum. Joh. Young, LL. Doctori ſacrorum Scriniorum, ac hujus Domus Coſtodi, Decano olim Ebor. Vita defuncta April. 26. 1516. Sui fideles Executores hoc poſuerunt.

BRIAN HIGDEN, LL. D. Prebendary of Lincoln, ſucceeded, being admitted June 27. 1516. He died, and was buried with this Inſcription on his Monument,

Of your Charitee pray for the Soul of Brian Higden, ſometime Dean of this Metropolitan Church, and Reſidentiary, which departed to the Mercy of Almighty God, the 5th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1539.

His Succeſſor was

RICHARD LAYTON, LL. D. admitted July 26. 1539. He died about 1544. being Archdeacon of Bucks, and Rector of Breington Co. Northampton; having been a zealous Promoter of the Reformation, begun by Hen. VIII. and one of his Viſitors of Monaſteries, which induced him to pawn the Jewels of this Church, which I find were redeemed Mar. 27. 1544. on his Death, by Order of the Chapter, out of the common Stock. He was, as I judge, buried at Brington, though there is no Memorial for him. His Succeſſor was

NICHOLAS WOTTON, LL. D. admitted Aug. 7. 1544. He died Jan. 26. 1566. being alſo Dean of Canterbury, and was buried in Canterbury Cathedral, where is his Inſcription printed by Batteley, &c. On his Death

MATTHEW HUTTON, S. T. P. was inſtalled Dean April 8. 1567. He was An. 1589. made Biſhop of Durham, and at length Archbiſhop of this See.

JOHN THORNBOROUGH, S. T. P. ſucceeded, being elected Oct. 28. 1589. He was 1593. made Biſhop of Limerick in Ireland, and thence thence removed to Briſtol, with Liberty to hold his Deanary in Commendam, which he did till his Tranſlation to Worceſter: When on his Reſignation.

GEORGE MERITON, S. T. P. Rector of Hadley in Suffolk, ſucceeded, being admitted Mar. 25. 1617. He died Dec. 23. 1624. and was buried in the Cathedral without any Monument: And ſucceeded by

JOHN SCOT, S. T. P. admitted Feb. 3. 1624. How he got this Dignity is intimated in Hatchet's Life of Archbiſhop Williams, p. 207. which tells us he died in the Fleet-Priſon, London, An. 1644. On his Death

RICHARD MARSH, S. T. P. was, as our Writers intimate, nominated, but not regularly preſented to it till July 25. 1660. He was inſtalled Aug. 20. following, and dying Oct. 13. 1663. aged 78. was buried in the Cathedral without any Monument: And ſucceeded by

WILLIAM SANCROFT, S. T. P. afterwards Archbiſhop of Canterbury, nominated Jan. 23. and inſtalled Feb. 26. 1663. He quitted it for St. Paul's Deanary, London: And was ſucceeded by

ROBERT HITCH, S. T. P. admitted Dec. 22. 1664. and inſtalled Mar. 8. following. He died An. 1676. and was buried at Guiſeley Co. York: And ſucceeded by

THOMAS WICKHAM, S. T. P. admitted Mar. 1. 1676. and inſtalled Mar. 31. 1677. He died April 27. 1697. and was buried in the Cathedral, behind the High-Altar, without any Monument: And ſucceeded by THOMAS GALE, S. T. P. admitted Sept. 16. 1697. of whom and his many moſt learned, uſeful Works, ſee an Account in Collier's Dictionary. The Brevity and Compaſs of my Deſign not allowing me to expatiate on a juſt Character of this eminent Dean; who, upon his Admiſſion, finding ſome Objections ſtarted, calling in queſtion the Dean's Title to be a Canon Reſidentiary, to put it out of all diſpute, generouſly procured the following Letters patent to fix it to himſelf and Succeſſors, An. 1699.

PRECENTORS of YORK.

THE Precentor is commonly called the Cantor, or Chaunter of the Church: His Office is to look after the Singing-Men and Choiriſters, and take care of the Singing-Service in the Choir, where he has the next Place after the Dean, and is, by the Dean's Directions, to manage and take care of the Inſtallments, and other Regulations of the Choir; to put out and in, the Singing-Men, and determine Diſputes between them. He has under him a Succentor or Subchantor, whoſe Duty is to ſupply his Office in his Abſence, which Perſon is ſtill continued.

The Revenues of this Dignity, founded Anno 1090. as already obſerved, are the Impropriation of Usborne parva in Borough-Bridge Deanary, (which lies now in Cheſter Dioceſe) and Advowſon of the Vicaridge, with ſome Tythes in Tadcaſter and Heſlington, valued at 30 l. 14 s. Which not being thought ſufficient, Archbiſhop Rotherham, Anno 1483. annexed to it the Prebend of Driffeild, valued at 62 l. per Ann. to which belongs a Moiety of Haxby Lordſhip Co. Lincoln.

Beſides the Advowſons of Usborne and Driffeild aforeſaid, the Precentor is alſo Patron of Oddington Co. Glouceſter, which Pariſh belonged to the See of York, till Archbiſhop Holgate granted away the Manor, though the Precentor ſtill kept his Right.

The Value of this Dignity with Driffeild is rated for Firſt-Fruits at 89 l. 10 s. 10 d.

GILBERT was made the firſt Precentor, on founding this Dignity by Archbiſhop Thomas, Anno 1090. He occurs poſſeſſed of it Anno 1113. As does

* WILLIAM de Augo, Anno 1144. in Prynn's Collectanea, Vol. II.

HAMO, afterwards Dean of this Church, ſubſcribed by this Title Anno 1155, and 1179.

* HUGH MURDAK was, as Prynn tells us, made Precentor Anno 1201. But the Archbiſhop appointed

RALPH de Kyme to it at the ſame Time, viz. 1201. though perhaps Hamo kept it till he was made Dean Anno 1206. In which Year REGI-

N. B. This Mark (*) denotes the Precentors, Chancellors, Treaſurers, Subdeans, and Archdeacons omitted by Mr. Le Neve in his Faſti, the Inſertion of which will help to perfect his Series of Liſts of principal Dignitaries in Cathedrals.

REGINALD ARUNDEL occurs Precentor Anno 1206. As does PETER de Ruſſinol, Anno 1215. And
GEFFRY de Norwich, Anno 1225. On whoſe ſucceeding to the Deanary 1235.
ROBERT became Precentor Anno 1235. As did
* WALTER about 1239. He held it not long: For I meet with SIMON de Eveſham poſſeſſed of it 1239. and 1240. He was about 1250. made Archdeacon of Richmond: And ſucceeded by WILLIAM de Paſſamar, who occurs poſſeſſed of it about 1250. As does ROBERT de Winton about 1258. And
HUGH de Cantelupe, Anno 1265.
* JOHN ROMANUS held it 1269. He was 1285. made Archbiſhop, having ſome time before reſigned it: For I find
* WILLIAM de Corneys, afterwards Biſhop of Sarum, poſſeſſed of it 1283. As I do
PETER de Roſs, collated to it July 17. 1289. And THOMAS de Cobham, Anno 1312. He was 1317. made Biſhop of Worceſter: And ſucceeded by
* ROBERT de Valoignes, collated 1317. His Succeſſor was
* THOMAS de Berton, Rector of Clive Co. Glouceſter, admitted 1320.
WILLIAM de Alburwicks ſucceeded, being admitted 3. Id. Nov. 1321. on Berton's Death. He quitted it for the Chancellorſhip of this Church: And was ſucceeded by
* ROBERT de Naſſington, inſtalled An. 1332. He died 1345. being alſo Prebendary of Beverley, and was buried in the Cathedral: And ſucceeded by
* ROBERT de Patrington, alias Thurgats, S. T. P. inſtituted April 1. 1345. on Naſſington's Death. He died, and was buried at Patrington: And ſucceeded by
* SIMON de Beckingham, inſtituted Aug. 26. and inſtalled Nov. 17. 1349. on Patrington's Death. His Succeſſor was
* HUGH de Wymonds-Would, LL. B. inſtalled April 13. 1352. To whom ſucceeded
* NICHOLAS de Cave, admitted Mar. 16. 1364. He was made Rector of Trinity Godramgate in York City, and Prebendary of St. Mary's Chapel; ſo quitted this.
ADAM de York ſucceeded, being admitted July 3. 1365. and inſtalled Dec. 24. following, on Cave's Reſignation. He died Anno 1370. And was ſucceeded by

*HENRY de Barton, collated May 20. 1370. and installed July 11. following. He was Prebendary of Lincoln and Lichfield: And succeeded in this Stall by

* HUGH de Wymonds-Would, who had resigned it, as I judge, about six Years ago, admitted 1371. On whose Resignation Anno 1379.

* ROGER de Rypon became admitted 1379. He held it not long: For I find

* WILLIAM de Hexby, or Kexby, occurs possessed of it the same Year. In his Will, proved Mar. 8. 1409. he appointed to be buried in this Cathedral.

* JOHN BURRELL, Rector of Gilling, succeeded 1410. and, dying the same Year, was buried in the Cathedral: And succeeded by

* BRIAN FAIRFAX, collated Anno 1410. He died Anno 1436. And was succeeded by

* JOHN SETOW, admitted Dec. 29. 1436. on Fairfax's Death.

ROBERT DOBBES, LL.B. succeeded, being admitted Oct. 2. 1439. On whose Resignation

JOHN CASTELL, S.T.P. Rector of Rudby, was admitted Oct. 7. 1447. on Dobbes's Resignation. In his Will, dated Oct. 30. 1456. and proved Febr. 16. following, he appointed to be buried in the Cathedral, near the Font, where was this Epitaph on his Grave-Stone, torn off after 1641.

Hic jacet Dom. Johannes Castell miser & indignus Sacerdos.
Orate pro me Dom. Johanne Castello misero & indigno Sacerdote.
Miserere mei Domine secundum magnam misericordiam tuam.
Sanctissima Maria Mater misericordie ora pro me.

In cross Fashion these Words,

Miserere mei quoniam in te confidit Anima mea.

JOHN GISBURGH succeeded, being admitted Mar. 21. 1456. on Castell's Death. He died Nov. 11. 1481. being Rector of Sposford, and was buried in the Cathedral: Having several Years before quitted this Dignity to

* WILLIAM EURE, B.D. admitted Nov. 16. 1460. on Gisburgh's Resignation. His Successor was

WILLIAM BEVERLY, admitted 1483. In his Time Anno 1485. Archbishop Rotherham annexed Driffeild Prebend to this Dignity. He died, and was buried in the Cathedral, with this Inscription on his Grave-

Grave-Stone; having in his Will ordered his Sepulture here, or elſe at Middleham,

Guillhelmus dura jacet hac ſub rupe Beverley,
Qui Precentoris fulſit honore nimis,
Canonicus reſidens fuit hic heu tempore parvo,
Poſt decies ternas non magis ebdomadas:
Ille Decanus erat Myddelim venerabilis olim,
Spiritus eternam nunc erit in requiem.
Qui obiit Januarij 7. 1493.

*HUGH TROTTER ſucceeded, being admitted Jan. 23. 1493. He reſigned the ſame Year, being made Treaſurer: And was ſucceeded by JOHN HERT, admitted June 23. 1494. He died, and was buried in the Nave of the Cathedral, as he ordered in his Will, near St. William, with this Epitapth, Sepultura magiſtri Johannis Hert, quondam hujus Eccl. Precentoris, Prebendarius Prebende de Driffeild, ac Reſidentiarius ejuſdem, qui obiit 8. die menſis Decembris, A. D. 1495. cujus anime propicietur Deus.

WILLIAM LANGTON, S. T. P. ſucceeded about Jan. 1495. In his Will, dated Nov. 10. 1496. on which Day he deceaſed, he ordered to be buried in the Cathedral, near St. Saviour's Image, and had this Epitaph on his Grave-Stone, now periſhed, Orate pro anima magiſtri Will. Languetone, S. T. P. ac hujus Eccl. Precentoris, qui obiit Nov. 10. 1496. cujus, &c.

MARTIN COLLYNS ſucceeded, being admitted Nov. 26. 1496. on Langton's Death. He reſigned it Anno 1503. on being made Treaſurer: And was ſucceeded by JOHN PERROT, LL. B. admitted Oct. 20. 1503. He ordered in his Will, dated Febr. 2. and proved Febr. 12. 1518. to be buried in the Cathedral; and that a Prieſt ſhould pray for him over Biſhop Savage's Tomb.

THOMAS LYNACRE ſucceeded, being admitted April 9. 1519 on Perrot's Death. He reſigned the ſame Year: And was ſucceeded by RICHARD WYAT, S. T. P. admitted Nov. 15. 1519. on Lynacre's Reſignation. In his Will, proved in Oct. 1522. he appointed to be buried in Southwell Collegiate Church.

WILLIAM HALGILL succeeded, being admitted Nov. 6. 1522. on Dr. Wyat's Death: On whose Resignation in Nov. 1534. being made Prebendary of South-Cave, as he was also Master of the Savoy Hospital, London, and Archdeacon of Carlisle,

WILLIAM CLIFFE, LL. D. became admitted Nov. 2. 1534. He quitted it for the Treasurership: And was succeeded by

EDWARD KELLET, LL. D. admitted April 13. 1538. He died Dec. 5. 1539. and was buried in the Cathedral with this Epitaph,

All good Men pray for the Soul of Master Doctor Kellet, Chantor of this Place, and Commissary and Receiver General of the Exchequer, who deceased the 5th Day of September, 1539.

NICHOLAS EVERARD succeeded, 1539. His Successor was

JOHN ROKEBY, LL. D. Chancellor of the Diocese, or Vicar General, admitted 1545. He died Anno 1574. And was succeeded by

JOHN GIBBON, or Gibson, Kt. LL. D. admitted 1574. He died Febr. 28. 1612. And was succeeded by

HENRY BANKS, S. T. P. admitted in April, 1613. on Gibbon's Death. He exchanged it, for the Prebend of Bugthorpe, with

JOHN BROOK, S. T. P. admitted in 1615. about April. He died next Year, and was buried in the Cathedral with this Inscription on his Monument, Johannes Brook, S. T. P. Coll. Univers. Oxon. Socius, Elmleiensis primum, tunc Silkstoniæ, Brainstonicæ Rect.

Vir prudens & providus, in Concionibus frequens, & doctus:
Vixit ad annum Ætatis suæ 49. obdormivit in Domino
23. Martii, A. D. 1616. & positus est juxta hoc Monumentum, Exspectans novissimam Sanctorum Resurrectionem.

Pastor eras plebi dilectæ pabula vitæ,
Sæpe tuæ & doctæ Doctor in urbe dabas,
Officium egregie tu Precentoris obibas,
Tempora sed vitæ sunt magis arcta tuæ.
Quæ te delixit mœrit tua funera conjux,
Accipe suprema hæc funera justa tuæ.

JOHN FAVOUR succeeded, being admitted in 1617. He died Mar. 10. 1623. and was buried at Halifax: And succeeded by

HENRY

HENRY HOOK, B. D. admitted March 19. 1623. on Favour's Death. He died next Year: And was ſucceeded by

RICHARD PALMER, admitted April 23. 1624. on Hook's Death. He died Anno 1631. And was ſucceeded by

GEORGE STANHOPE, S. T. P. admitted in Nov. 1631. on Palmer's Death. He died Anno 1644. And was ſucceeded, at the Reſtauration of Church and Monarchy, by

TOBY WICKHAM, preſented by the Crown in Aug. 1660. on the Death of Dr. George Stanhope, as the Patents expreſs. However,

* THOMAS HARWOOD, who had, as I ſuppoſe, been nominated by Archbiſhop Williams, Anno 1644. got out the Letters Patent to it Sept. 29. 1660. And, being Rector of St. George's, Eaſtcheap, London, was, I ſuppoſe, prevailed on to quit his Title, as Wickham had done: For I find

ROBERT SORSBY, S. T. P. Rector of Birkin Co. York, obtained it 1661. He died, and was buried in the Cathedral with this Inſcription, Hic jacet Robert Soresby, S. T. P. Precentor hujus Eccleſ. Cath. natus Sheffeildiæ, educatus Cantabr. Coll. Emanuel, qui obiit 15. die Auguſt, A. D. 1683. Ætatis ſuæ 74.

THOMAS COMBER, S. T. P. ſucceeded, being collated Jan. 19. 1683. He was An. 1691. made Dean of Durham: And ſucceeded by

JAMES FALL, S. T. P. collated Jan. 19. 1691. He died June 13. 1711. and was buried in the Cathedral with this Inſcription, Hic dormit quod mortale fuit, venerabilis & primævæ pietatis viri, Jacobi Fall, S. T. P. olim Regiæ majeſtati apud Scotos, ab hiſtoriis & Academiæ Glaſcuenſis Principalis plurimum colendi: quem Hierarchia Apoſtolica e Scotia ſua exulante, oſtraciſmo ſimul inſignitum hæc Eccleſia Metropolitica in Præcentorem, Archidiaconum Clevelandiæ, & Canonicum Reſident. cooptaſſe ſummo in honore & lucro poſuit; ubi per 19. & quod excurrit annos Confratribus conjunctiſſimus: Pauperibus peregrinis, bonis omnibus charus vixit, flebilis obiit.

Prid. Id. Junii Anno Salutis 1711. Ætatis ſuæ 64.

His Succeſſor, both in this Dignity and the Archdeaconry of Cleveland, was

JOHN RICHARDSON, A. M. the preſent moſt worthy Precentor, Anno 1723. and Rector of Beford, inſtalled Aug. 6. 1711. to whoſe kind-kind Aſſiſtance, in this Account of the Dignitaries of this Church, I have been much indebted.

CHANCELLORS of YORK.

THE Founder of the Chancellorſhip, as already obſerved, was Archbiſhop Thomas, who eſtabliſhed it, as Mr. Torr ſays, a little before 1090. when he appointed the Dean, Precentor, Prebends, &c: This is the third great Dignity in the Church. His Office was to write the Letters on the Chapter Buſineſs, and to read in the Chapter the Letters ſent to them; to keep the Seals, and ſet them to the Chapter Acts; to take care of the Divinity and other Lectures in the Church, and to licence and appoint Preachers and Readers of Divinity, and to ſee that the Leſſons and Goſpels were well and diſtinctly read; and on this account he was to be a Maſter in Divinity; and had the Care and Charge of the Grammar-School, and appointed a Perſon to teach it; he was alſo to make up Chronologies, and regiſter remarkable Occurrences in the Church; and ſo had an Aſſiſtant, who was to be skilled in Divinity, and was intitled his Subchancellor.

The Revenues belonging to this Dignity are the Impropriations and Advowſons of Acclam and Waghen, the firſt valued at 13 l. 6 s. 8 d. and the laſt, viz. Waghen, at 20 l. But theſe not being thought ſufficient, Archbiſhop Rotherham, Anno 1483. annexed to it the Prebend of Laughton, conſiſting of the Tythes, Manor and Advowſon of that Pariſh, valued at 63 l. To all which three Vicaridges the Chancellor preſents, and pays for Firſt-Fruits for the whole 85 l. 6 s. 8 d.

SIRUS held this Office 1113. about twenty five Years after the Foundation of it, and was probably the firſt Chancellor: Among the Perſons our Chronicles mention caſt away on Shipboard, returning from Normandy tempore Hen. I. is

* ROBERT, Chancellor of York, Anno 1130.

* SIMON de Apulia was from this Dignity made Dean Anno 1193. And, as I judge, ſucceeded by JOHN; for he held it 1195. and 1199. and is the ſame perhaps with

JOHN LAURENCE, or de S. Laurence, who poſſeſſed it 1201. and is called only Laurence in ſome Accounts.

RICHARD de Cornubia held it 1225. As did

JOHN BLUND Anno 1231. He died poſſeſſed of it 1248. After him

JOHN

JOHN de Exeter occurs Chancellor 1254. and 1258.

WILLIAM de Wickwane held it 1263. and was from it made Archbishop Anno 1279.

THOMAS CORBRIDGE succeeded 1279. and became likewise Archbishop afterwards.

SIMON succeeded Anno 1290. on Corbridge's Resignation: To whom succeeded

*THOMAS de Wakefield, collated the same Year, viz. 1290. He died Anno 1297. And was succeeded by ROBERT de Ripplingham, collated 8. Id. Julii, 1297. on Wakefield's Death. In his Will, dated Anno 1332. he appointed to be buried in the Cathedral, near the Body of Canon John Nassington.

*WILLIAM de Alburwick, Precentor of this Church, succeeded, being collated Oct. 1. 1332. on Ripplingham's Death. He died 1349. and was buried at Acclam, the Corps of his Chancellorship: And succeeded by

*SIMON de Beckingham, collated Nov. 17. 1349. on Alburwick's Death. He died about Aug. 1369. And was succeeded by

THOMAS FERNILAWE, or Farnilaw, collated in 1369. His Will bears date Dec. 13. 1379. Soon after which he was succeeded by JOHN de Sherborne, collated about the end of January, or beginning of February, 1379. He died after the Year 1400. possessed of this Dignity, and was buried in the Cathedral with this Inscription on his Grave-Stone, Hic jacet Johannes de Shirborne, Doctor in Theologia, quondam Cancellarius istius Ecclesie, cujus anime propitietur Deus.

JOHN RICKINGALE succeeded Anno 1440. as Mr. Torr places it. He was Anno 1426. made Bishop of Chichester: And succeeded by

*JOHN ESTCOURT, Archdeacon of Merioneth, collated 1426. To whom succeeded

JOHN HAXBY, or Kexby, S. T. P. collated 1427. He died, and was buried in the Cathedral with this Inscription on his Grave-Stone, Hic jacet Magister Johannes de [Hexby] quondam Cancellarius istius Ecclesie, & Doctor in Theologia, qui obiit 30. die mensis Maij, A. D. 1432. cujus anime propitietur Deus. Amen.

*THOMAS GASCOIGNE, S. T. P. of the University of Oxford, of whom Mr. Hearne speaketh, in his Book of the History of Glastonbury, bury, &c. succeeded Anno 1432. and held it 1451. His Successor was

* WILLIAM MORETON, S. T. P. admitted July 27. 1453. In his Will, dated Dec. 10. 1466. and proved May 27. 1467. he appointed to be buried in the Cathedral, near St. William.

THOMAS CHANDLER succeeded, being admitted Febr. 25. 1466. on the Death of Moreton; he was also Prebendary of Southwell and Beverley, and Dean of Hereford, where dying Anno 1490. he was buried in that Cathedral: And succeeded by

WILLIAM LANGTON, S. T. P. admitted Jan. 11. 1490. He quitted it Anno 1495. for the Precentorship: And was succeeded by WILLIAM MELTON, admitted July 18. 1495. His Will bears date at Acclam, August 20. 1528. where probably he died, and was buried.

HENRY TRAFFORD succeeded, being collated in Febr. 1528. on the Death of Melton. He died Anno 1537. And was succeeded by

JEFFRY DOWNES, S. T. P. admitted Aug. 11. 1537. on Trafford's Death; he was also Prebendary of Southwell. His Successor in this Dignity was

RICHARD BARNES, admitted July 12. 1561. He was Anno 1570. made Bishop of Carlisle: And succeeded by

WILLIAM PALMER, Anno 1571. He died, and was buried in the Cathedral with this Inscription,

Gul. Palmer, Cantabr. Aulæ Pembr. quondam Socius, in terris peregrinatus est 66. annos: S. sancti ecclesiastici Pastoris munere functus est 45. Cancellarius hujus Ecclesiæ 34.

Obiit Anno Gratiæ 1605. Octobris 23.

Cujus Doctrinam, Hospitalitatem, Vigilantiam, Mores, Rostra publica, Ædes privatæ, Ecclesiæ Fabrica, Civium Eulogia. resonant. Annam Conjugem duxit Rolandi Taylour Doctoris & Martyris Filiam, & ex ea 7. Liberos superstites reliquit tribus premissis:

Sub hoc Marmore, Christi adventum exspectans obdormit.

His Successor was

WILLIAM GOODWYN, S. T. P. collated Oct. 25. 1605. He was afterwards made Dean of Christ-Church, Oxford: And succeeded by

PHINEAS HOGSON, S. T. P. collated Sept. 26. 1611. on the Resignation of Goodwyn. In his Will, dated Nov. 18. 1645. and proved Nov. 8. 1647. he makes no mention of any Place of Burial. His Successor, according to Mr. Torr, was

* THOMAS

* THOMAS CLUTTERBUCK, Anno 1660. Though I find in that ſame Year

CHRISTOPHER STONE, A.M. inſtalled into it Oct. 24. 1660. He died Nov. 26. 1686. and was buried in the Cathedral, (being alſo Rector of Beford and Scrayingham) And ſucceeded by

JOHN COVEL, S.T.P. inſtalled Nov. 9. 1687. He died about Dec. 1722. being Rector of Kegworth Co. Leiceſter, and Maſter of Chriſt-College, Cambridge, and was buried in Chriſt-College Chapel: And ſucceeded by DANIEL WATERLAND, S.T.P. Maſter of Buckingham, alias Magdalen College, Cambridge, collated about Jan. 1722.

TREASURERS of YORK.

THIS was the laſt of the four great Dignities, which Archbiſhop Thomas I. founded Anno 1090. and though it was the loweſt of them in Precedence, yet it was the moſt conſiderable of them in Profit. The Office of this Dignitary was to keep the Treaſury of the Church, as the Reliques, Books, Veſtments, Chalices, &c. to find Lights and Candles to burn in the Choirs and High-Altar, and other Altars, on ſpecial Anniverſaries, and Coals and Salt for the Uſe of the Church; to repair the Copes and Cloaths, and to find new ones in caſe of Need; to provide Hangings for the Choir, Pulpit, and other Ornaments, and Bread and Wine for the Communion; to buy Bell-Ropes, and other Neceſſaries about the Bells, as Braſs, Iron, &c. except on new Founding them, the Cognizance of which belonged to the Chapter.

He was by Oath bound, as were the other Members, to keep and obſerve faithfully the antient Cuſtoms of the Church, and defend its Liberties to the utmoſt of his Power.

He had alſo a Subtreaſurer under him, whoſe Office fell with his, to whom he paid a Salary of fifty Marks; and to his Management was left the providing Sacriſts, and other Officers, to do the ſervile Offices of the Church, as opening the Doors, ringing the Bells, and cleaning it, blowing the Organs, &c. He had alſo the Cuſtody of the Plate, Veſtments, Charters, Evidences, &c. ſo was bound continually to reſide and look after things, both by himſelf and Deputy.

The Revenues, appropriated for his Maintenance, were the Tythes and Manor of Accome, the Prebends of Newthorpe and Wilton, the Impropriations or Rectories of Wicerthorp, Lowndesborough, Clere, Stainton and Alne, of all or moſt which Churches he was Patron, as he was alſo of Broughton Rectory in Hampſhire, and of Wigginton and Skelton Co. York, and had a good Houſe and Lands at York, and Lands at Rippon.

The Valuation in the King's Books, Anno 1534. was 233 l. 6 s. 8 d.

WILLIAM was inſtituted firſt Treaſurer by the Founder, An. 1090. After him

RALPH held it 1093. and 1113. As did

WILLIAM FITZHERBERT Anno 1130. He was An. 1144. made Archbiſhop, and afterwards Sainted.

HUGH PUDSEY ſucceeded Anno 1144. He was Anno 1153. made Biſhop of Durham: And ſucceeded by

JOHN, Anno 1153. He was Anno 1163. made Biſhop of Exeter: And ſucceeded by

RALPH de Warnehill, Anno 1163. He held it 1170.

* GEFFRY PLANTAGENET, natural Son to King Henry II. who had held the See of Lincoln nine Years without Conſecration, till 1181. is ſaid to have been appointed Treaſurer here that Year. He was An. 1191. made Archbiſhop; but ſeems to have given up this: For

BUCHARD de Pudſey, or Puteaco, occurs poſſeſſed of it 1186. As does

* EUSTACHIUS, Anno 1196. He was Anno 1198. made Archdeacon of Richmond: And, as I judge, ſucceeded by

HAMO; for he held it 1204. and 1215. As did

* WILLIAM, Anno 1218. Who perhaps is the ſame with

WILLIAM de Rotherfeild, LL. D. who occurs Anno 1221. And, dying 1241. was ſucceeded by ROBERT HAGET, Anno 1241.

JOHN ROMANE enjoyed it 1249. and died in Jan. 1255. having been a diligent Man in carrying on ſeveral Buildings in the Fabrick: After him Mr. Le Neve places

JOHN MANSEL as Treaſurer, whoſe Authority I chuſe to follow, becauſe I conceive it better ſupported than Mr. Torr's Account, who places Manſel before Romane, and makes one Henry Treaſurer about 1263. However, 'tis plain Manſel held it then, and that he was next Year ſucceeded by

ALMARICK de Montfort, on whom King Henry III. was forced to confer it Febr. 7. 1264. being then in Simon Montfort the Earl of Leiceſter's Cuſtody, on the Vacancy, as 'tis expreſſed, by Manſel's Death; which as ſoon as he got free from, he revoked what Montfort had compelled him to, and beſtowed it upon

EDMOND MORTIMER, Aug. 7. 1264. Whoſe Succeſſor ſeems to have been

* NI-

*NICHOLAS de Well, Prebend of Southwell, collated about 1270. He reſigned it 1274.

BOGO de Clare ſucceeded, 1274. Mr. Torr calls him Bogo de Fairfax. He occurs poſſeſſed of it 1278. and 1281. being alſo Chancellor of Landaff Cathedral. He died, as I find in Prynn's Collectanea, Vol. III. p. 783. in the Year 1298. having reſigned this Dignity to

JOHN COLUMNA, whoſe coming in Mr. Torr places Anno 1281. He held 1293. And was ſucceeded by

THEOBALD de Barr, collated about Nov. 1297. He was Anno 1303. by the Pope made Epiſcopus Leodienſis, I ſuppoſe ſome foreign See; quere if not Leige: And ſucceeded by

FRANCIS de Millan, called Gaytanni in Le Neve, collated 1303. To whom ſucceeded

WALTER de Bedewin, Prebendary of Hoveden, Anno 1306. And after him

JOHN BARBAZON had it given him by the King, Aug. 9. 1327. As had

*WILLIAM de la Mare, according to Mr. Torr, An. 1328. And

*WILLIAM de Yarwell, Rector of Dighton, Anno 1329. And next Year

WILLIAM de la Mare obtained it again, viz. Anno 1330. He died, and was buried in this Cathedral, with this Epitaph on his Grave-Stone, Hic jacet Magiſter Will. de la Mare, quondam Canon. hujus Eccleſie, qui obiit 26. die Decembris, A. D. 1361. cujus, &c.

By this it appears, that he had, ſeveral Years before his Death, quitted this Dignity, into which the Pope thruſt

*FRANCIS de Filiis Urſi, Anno 1335. To whom ſucceeded

*WILLIAM de Kildesby, Anno 1341. by the King's Gift, who alſo beſtowed it upon

*BARTHOLOMEW de Bourne, July 25. 1343. as the Patents mention.

*A. TUSCULANUS Cardinalis held it about 1349. by the Pope's Gift, as we find in Rimer's Fœdera: In which Year the King conferred it upon

JOHN de Winwick, July 29. 1349. Mr. Torr ſeems to think he came in Anno 1335. probably becauſe he then began to exerciſe his Office for the Foreigners, whom the Pope had introduced. His Succeſſor in Mr. Torr is

* JOHN BARTON, or Burton, Anno 1360. To whom ſucceeded the ſame Year

JOHN de Branktree, Anno 1360. In his Will, dated 1374. and proved Sept. 24. 1375. he appointed to be buried in the Cathedral, near St. William's Tomb, and gave a Legacy to Debenham Co. Norfolk, where he was baptized. On a Grave-Stone in the Cathedral there was this imperfect Inſcription to his Memory,

——Hunc Benedic. Chriſte quem claudit —— Johannem Brangtre,
—— iſtius Eccl. fuit, vir præſto Sophie —— Pauperibus & inopes multos

JOHN CLIFFORD ſucceeded 1374. He died, and was buried near St. William, with this Inſcription, Hic jacet Johannes Clifford, quondam Theſaurarius iſtius Eccleſie, qui obiit 29. die menſis Maij, 1392. Fmiente viam univerſe carnis ingreſſus eſt, cujus anime propitietur Deus.

He was alſo, as I find, Rector of Sedgfeeld Co. Durham.

JOHN de Newton, LL.D. was inſtalled Treaſurer Mar. 30. 1393. In his Will, proved July 13. 1414. he appointed to be buried in this Cathedral, near his Predeceſſors, which I find was performed. He died Jan. 21. 1413. And was ſucceeded by

* RICHARD PYTTS, admitted Anno 1414. In his Will, proved Sept. 18. 1415. he appointed to be buried near Archbiſhop Henry's Tomb, and gave five Marks to Wells Cathedral, of which I ſuppoſe he had been a Prebendary.

JOHN NOTTINGHAM ſucceeded, being admitted Aug. 17. 1415. He died, and was buried in the Cathedral, with this Inſcription on his Grave-Stone, Hic jacet Magiſter Johannes Nottingham. Theſaurar. Eccl. Cath. Ebor. dum vixit, qui obiit xx. die menſis Decembris, A. D. 1418. cujus, &c.

In his Will he gave 20 l. to the Fabrick, and 10 l. to the High-Altar of the Cathedral.

* THOMAS HAXEY ſucceeded, being collated Anno 1418. He was Prebendary of Southwell, Howden and Rippon. In his Will, dated at Southwell, Febr. 29. 1424. he appointed to be buried in the Cathedral, dral, where he had founded a Chantry, at St. Thomas of Becket's Altar, and had this Inſcription on his Grave-Stone, Hic jacet Tho. Haxey, quondam Theſaurarius hujus Eccl. qui obiit 25. die menſis Januarij, A. D. 1424. cujus, &c.

* ROBERT GILBERT ſucceeded, being admitted Aug. 11. 1425. on Thomas Haxey's Death. He was afterwards Biſhop of London: And, reſigning this, was ſucceeded by ROBERT WOLVEDEN, admitted 1426. on Gilbert's Reſignation. In his Will, dated Sept. 4. 1432. and proved the 20th of the ſame Month, he appointed to be buried in this Cathedral, near St. Mary's Altar without the Porch, and gave 20 l. to the Fabrick, and his Theology-Books to the Library. He was alſo Dean of Lichfield.

JOHN BERMYNGHAM ſucceeded, being collated 1432. on Wolvedeu's Death. While he continued Treaſurer he rebuilt the South-Weſt Tower, where the Bells hang, as appears by his Name, yet viſible, ſubſcribed on it, in Capitals on the outſide, BERMYNGHAM. In his Will, dated Mar. 29. 1457. and proved May 28. following, he gave 50 l. to the Fabrick of the Cathedral, 3 l. 6 s. 8 d. to Milden-Hall, where he was Rector, and 5 l. to the Fabrick of the Nave of Wolverhampton Church. He died, and was buried in the Cathedral, with this Inſcription, Orate pro anima Johannis Bermyngham, quondam Theſaurarij iſtius Eccleſie, ac præpoſiti Eccleſie beati Johannis Beverlaci, qui obiit 23. die Maij, A. D. 1457. cujus, &c.

* JOHN BOTHE ſucceeded Anno 1457. and was afterwards made Biſhop of Exeter, having reſigned this before to

JOHN PAKENHAM, collated 1459. on Bothe's Reſignation. He died Oct. 2. 1477. and was buried in the Cathedral: And ſucceeded by THOMAS PORTINGTON, A. M. admitted 1477. on Pakenham's Death. In his Will, dated June 10. 1485. and proved Jan. 30. following, he names no Place of Burial; but I ſuppoſe he was interred near his Predeceſſors in the Cathedral.

WILLIAM SHEFFEILD ſucceeded, being collated 1485. on Portington's Death. He was Anno 1494. made Dean: And ſucceeded by

HUGH TROTTER, collated 1494. He died Anno 1503. And was ſucceeded by MARTYN.

MARTYN COLLYNS, LL. D. collated 1503. on Trotter's Death. In his Will he appointed to be buried in the Cathedral, near his Predecessor Haxey, which was accordingly performed, there having been put this Inscription on his Grave-Stone, Sub hoc Lapide recenditum jacet corpus Martini Colyns, Decretorum Doctoris, olim Thesaurarij Ecclesie Ebor. & ejusdem Ecclesie Canonici Residentiarij, qui quoque Magistratum gessit, primo Commissarij, deinde Officialis Domini Archiepiscopi usque ad diem ejus extremum, sub fide catholica, & spe sancta future resurrectionis in novissimo die, obiit autem ab hoc seculo in Dominica septuagesime, videlicet, quarto die Februarij, An. Dom. Computationis Anglicane, 1508. cujus anime semper propitius sit Deus.

On some Vestments he had bestowed on the Church was this,

Orate pro Magistro Martino Collyns, Decretorum Doctore, qui obiit 4 Februarij, 1509.

ROBERT LANGTON, LL. D. succeeded, being installed April 24. 1509. on Dr. Collyns's Death. He resigned it Anno 1514. And was succeeded by

LANCELOT COLLYNSON, admitted in May, 1514. He died, and was buried in the Cathedral, with this Inscription on his Grave-Stone, Orate pro anima Magistri Lanceloti Collynson, quondam Thesaurarij ac Residentiarij hujus Ecclesie, qui obiit 8. die mensis Aprilis, An. Domini 1538. Cujus, &c.

WILLIAM CLIFF, LL. D. succeeded, being installed April 13. 1538. on the Death of Collynson. He resigned May 26. 1547. this Dignity to King Edward VI. with all its Demesnes, Manors, Rights, Members and Appurtenances, with the Advowsons of all its Churches, Vicaridges, Chapelries, &c. A Caption whereof was taken, and recognized June 1. following, by the said Dr. Cliff, before Sir Edward North, Chancellor, and ratified June 14. by Archbishop Holgate; and, lastly, confirmed by Dr. Wotton, the Dean, and the Chapter of York, July 8. 1547.

With the Treasurership, as already observed, fell the Subtreasurership, and so these two Dignities have become entirely extinct in this Cathedral, as it has in that of Lincoln ever since, where the Reason given is, Abrepto omni Thesauro desiit Thesaurarii munus.

Of

Of the noble Ornaments, Plate, Jewels, &c. in both theſe Cathedrals, of immenſe Value, taken moſt ſacrilegiouſly away in the Reign of Edward VI. ſee an Account in the third Volume of Dugdale's Monaſticon, where is an Inventory given of them.

SUBDEANS of YORK.

THIS Dignity was founded by Archbiſhop Walter Grey, 13. Hen. III. Anno 1229. who annexed to it the Impropriation of Preſton in Holderneſs, and Advowſon of the Vicaridge, rated at 50 l. 14 s. 3 d.

His Office was to be a Coadjutor to the Dean, and to reſide continually, on which account he had Houſes given at York by the Chapter. He was High Pœnitentiary to the Archbiſhop, and had Juriſdiction over his Church of Preſton in Holderneſs, and three Chapels there.

JOHN ROMANUS was the firſt appointed to this Dignity by the Founder, Anno 1229. He was, I preſume, made Treaſurer 1241.

* SIMON de Sancto Egidio, or St. Giles, occurs poſſeſſed of it 1241.

ROGER PEPYN held it 1254. And, dying Anno 1266. was ſucceeded by

WILLIAM de Champvent, collated Nov. 8. 1266. on Pepyn's Death: In which Year Mr. Torr places the coming in of

* GILBERT de Sarum. He held it 1280. And was ſucceeded by

* THOMAS de Wakefeild, collated 13. Cal. June, 1281. He was in 1290. made Chancellor: And ſucceeded by

WILLIAM de Blith, inſtalled 10. Cal. Dec. 1290. His Succeſſor was

* PETER de Inſula, admitted 5. Cal. Martii, 1310. He died next Year: And was ſucceeded by

* PAND. de Sabello, admitted June 12. 1311. on Peter de Inſula's Death: After him

ROBERT de Appelby came in, Anno 1315. as Le Neve informs us: As did

* URSINUS de Urbe, Anno 1327. To whom ſucceeded

* WILLIAM de la Mare the ſame Year: And

* WALTER de Burton was inſtalled into it Aug. 2. 1328.

* WILLIAM de Exon had it given him by the King, March 18. 1338.

* URSO.

* URSO is ſtyled Subdean, Anno 1346. He was ſucceeded by

ANDREW OFFARD, made Subdean Jan. 24. 1347. by the Crown, who, revoking his Gift to Offard, gave it to

* WILLIAM de Retford, Febr. 19. 1349. In his Will, proved April 20. 1372. he appointed to be buried in St. Swithin's Church, in Eaſt-Retford. On his Death

THOMAS de Brandon was inſtalled into this Dignity, March 26. 1373. by Proxy. He held it 1380. As did

JOHN de Waltham, Anno 1381. He quitted it Anno 1384. for the Archdeaconry of Richmond.

* WILLIAM de Monkton ſucceeded Anno 1384. In his Will, proved Nov. 26. that ſame Year, he appointed to be buried in the Cathedral, to which he gave 10 l.

* ROGER de Bakton ſucceeded Anno 1384. and quitted it for Pulham Rectory Co. Norfolk, in Exchange, as I ſuppoſe, with

* WILLIAM de Holym, collated Jan. 12. 1385. He was Rector of Beſord.

* RALPH de Selby, LL. D. ſucceeded 1386. and exchanged it 1392. for the Archdeaconry of Buckingham, with

* JOHN EVOTTS, who became admitted in 1392. He exchanged it next Year with

* ANDREW BONDEBY for ſome other Preferments; and he became admitted Anno 1393. He exchanged it, for Swaffham Rectory in Norfolk, with

* JOHN MAPURLEY; and he became collated to it 1409. He died the ſame Year, and was buried in Elſing-Spittle Hoſpital, London: And ſucceeded by

RICHARD ARNALL, collated to it Jan. 19. 1409. He died June 9. 1441. and was buried in the Cathedral, with this Epitaph on his Grave-Stone, Orate pro anima Magiſtri Ricardi Arnall, quondam Subdecani & Canonici iſtius Eccleſie Cathedral. & Curie Ebor. Officialis, qui obiit 9. die menſis Junij, A. D. 1441. Cui ſolamen ſibi det Chriſtus precor. Amen.

* NICHOLAS CLERK, Rector of Spofford, and Maſter of St. Mary Magd. Hoſpital at Rippon, ſucceeded Anno 1441. and quitted it the ſame Year: As did

* JOHN SPENCER Anno 1441. To whom ſucceeded

* JOHN

* JOHN BATE in 1441. He likewise resigned it May 1. 1478. and had a Portion of 20 l. allowed annually out of it, by his Successor

* HENRY GILLOW, admitted May 7. 1478. In his Will, proved April 29. 1483. he appointed to be buried in Houghton le Spring Church-Yard Co. Durham, where he was Rector, near his Mother's Grave, and a Chapel to be built over him; and a Chantry to be founded, if Leave could be obtained. His Successor was

WILLIAM CONSTABLE, collated May 9. 1483. He quitted it 1484. on being made Archdeacon of Cleveland: And was succeeded by

THOMAS PERESON, or Pearson, admitted 1484. He died, and was buried in the Cathedral, with this Inscription on his Grave-Stone, Hic jacet Thomas Pearson, hujus Eccl. Cath. quondam Subdecanus, qui obiit 28. die mensis Octobris, A. D. 1490. cujus anime, &c.

EDWARD CRESSACRE succeeded Anno 1490. and died Mar. 31. 1504. and was buried in the Cathedral, with this Epitaph on his Grave-Stone, Orate pro anima Magistri Edw. Cressacre, quondam istius Ecclesie Subdecani, qui obiit 31. Martij, A. D. 1504. cujus anime propietetur Deus. Amen.

RICHARD RAWLINS succeeded, being admitted Oct. 1. 1504. He quitted it for the Archdeaconry of Cleveland: And was succeeded by

JAMES HARRINGTON, collated in July, 1507. On whose being made Dean

THOMAS KNOWLES succeeded Anno 1507. He quitted it Anno 1529. on being made Prebendary of Absthorpe in this Church.

WILLIAM CLIFTON, LL. D. succeeded in May, 1529. And, dying Anno 1548. was succeeded by

ROBERT BAPTHORPE, S. T. P. collated in Sept. 1548. He died Anno 1570. And was succeeded by

EDMOND BUNNEY, collated Anno 1570. On whose Resignation

HENRY WRIGHT, A. M. succeeded in 1579. He resigned it Anno 1606. And was succeeded by

ANDREW BING, A. M. obtained it by the King's Title in the Vacancy of the See, May 12. 1606. He was afterwards Archdeacon of Norwich, Rector of East-Derham and Winterton Co. Norfolk, as he had been alſo of Broughton Co. Bucks; and dying after 1642. was buried, as 'tis ſuppoſed, at Winterton. On his Death

ANTHONY ELCOCK, S. T. P. obtained this Dignity, at the Reſtauration of Church and Monarchy Anno 1660. And, dying Anno 1670. being Rector of Kirkheaton and Methly, was ſucceeded by

ROBERT FEILD, S. T. P. collated Sept. 3. 1670. He died Sept. 9. 1680. and was buried in the Cathedral, being alſo Archdeacon of Cleveland: And ſucceeded by

GEORGE TULLY, A. M. collated Oct. 9. 1680. He died April 24. Anno 1695. and was buried at Gateſide, where he was Rector: And ſucceeded by

WILLIAM PEARSON, LL. D. collated May 1. 1695. He died Febr. 6. 1715. and was buried in the Cathedral, being alſo Archdeacon of Nottingham, with this Inſcription,

M. S. Gulielmi Pearſon, LL. D. Dioceſeos Ebor. Cancellarii, Archid. Nottingham, hujus Eccl. Canonici Reſidentiarii & Subdecani, necnon Rectoris de Bolton-Percy. Viri non tam muneribus & dignitatibus, quam meritis & dotibus eccleſiaſticis cumulati: Illorum enim cum ambiviſſet nulla, egregie adminiſtravit ſingula, ornavit omnia: Viri inſuper pietate, charitate & ſuavitate, morum ſingulari plane inſignis, qui ſtudiis & laboribus ſacris aſſidue incumbendo valetudinem ſatis firmam, imminuit exhauſit, vitamque omnibus deſideratiſſimam per brevem reddidit, obiit 6. Febr. 1715. Anno Ætatis 53.

Marito dilectiſſimo Conjux mæſtiſſima M. H. P. C.

His Succeſſor was

CHARLES BLAKE, S. T. P. collated Febr. 18. 1715. Living 1723.

Archdeacons of YORK, alias Weſt-Riding.

THE aforeſaid Archbiſhop Thomas alſo in the Year 1090. as already mentioned, having divided the Revenues of the Church into Prebends, diſtributed his Dioceſe into Archdeaconries, and appointed the five following ones, viz. York, Richmond, Eaſt-Riding, Cleveland and Nottingham: And aſſigned them Stalls in the Church, where they were to take place above the Prebendaries; though not to mix with them in the Chapter, unleſs they had Prebends to entitle them.

As

As to the Office of Archdeacon, though 'tis of great Antiquity, being derived even from the primitive Times, yet their Power and Juriſdiction in this Kingdom certainly owes its Riſe to the Norman Times: Inſomuch that even in London, (the moſt antient Biſhoprick in the Kingdom) and other Engliſh Dioceſes, (except ſome ſuppoſed Archdeacons of Canterbury) we meet with no Name of any Archdeacon till ſome Years after the Conqueſt: And whether thoſe of Canterbury, if we credit the Account of them, had any relation to the Cathedral, does not appear. Wherefore it is to be preſumed, that theſe, inſtituted by Archbiſhop Thomas in this Metropolitical Church An. 1090. were ſome of the firſt Archdeacons that ever were introduced into Cathedrals.

In Biſhop Kennet's Parochial Antiquities (where ſee a large Account of their Original) we are told, their firſt Inſtitution was to adminiſter in ſervile Employments under the Rural Dean of Chriſtianity, to whom they were as much inferior as a Deacon was to a Prieſt: But by the Advantage of a Perſonal Attendance on the Biſhop, and a Delegation to viſit ſome remote Parts of the Dioceſe, they by degrees obtained the Powers they now exerciſe; which is, to viſit their Diſtricts annually in the Abſence of the Biſhop, and to enquire into all Crimes and Miſgovernment of the People, and to reform and puniſh whatever they find heinouſly committed againſt the Laws of God, or Man's Laws. And for this Viſitation they have Procurations, and at Eaſter, Synodals paid them; and in ſome Archdeaconries, over above theſe pecuniary Stipends, are endowed with Impropriations or Demeſnes, as theſe our Archdeacons of York, alias Weſt-Riding, are: Of whom I come now to give a Series of their Names, who have, as their Corps, the Rectories and Advowſons of Mexborough and Brayton Churches Co. York annexed to their Dignity, which is valued at 90 l. 3 s. 1 d. for Firſt-Fruits.

DURAND was the firſt that enjoyed this Office: He held it 1093. and 1113.

WILLIAM held it about 1118. and 1130. After him

* JOHN FITZLETOLD occurs poſſeſſed of it in Mr. Torr: As does

* HUGH de Sotevagina in the Decem Scriptores, pag. 321. in the Year 1138.

OSBERT de Baines held it 1150. and 1155. As did

JEFFRY, Provoſt of Beverley, 1174. and 1176.

RALPH died poſſeſſed of it 1194. in his Return from Rome, as Prynn tells us: On which

PETER de Dinant had it given him 1195. But

Adam de Thornar got it, according to Le Neve, Anno 1195. which occaſioned a Controverſy between them; and ſo, according to Mr. Torr's Collections, Dinant ſeems to have enjoyed it 1199. After him

* Sampson held it 1217. As did

Alexander Anno 1230. And

Laurence de Lincoln, Anno 1239. and 1241. He died about 1247. bequeathing an hundred Marks to the Cathedral, where he appointed to be buried.

Sewall de Bovill held it 1249. and was Anno 1251. made Dean; and afterwards Archbiſhop.

* Ralph enjoyed it 1256. As did

Reyner de Skipton, Anno 1259. (In his Time Archbiſhop Godfrey de Ludeham annexed to this Dignity the Impropriation of Mexborough.) He died Anno 1265. And was ſucceeded by Dedicius de Camilla, collated Anno 1265.

* G. de Giffard (no doubt the ſame with Godfrey Giffard, made Biſhop of Worceſter 1268.) ſucceeded, being admitted 4. Cal. Maii, 1267. After him

Robert Burnel occurs in Le Neve, and was, as he tells us, from it made Biſhop of Bath, Anno 1271. Though I find in Mr. Torr

* Thomas de Wythorn collated to it 1270. His Succeſſor was Walter de Glouceſter, admitted 1282. On whoſe Reſignation Anno 1288.

William de Hameſton was collated to it on the Nones of December, 1288. He was Anno 1298. elected Dean: And no doubt ſucceeded by

Aymo de Savoy; for he occurs Archdeacon An. 1300. in Le Neve. The next was

* Reymond de Cot Cardinalis, provided by the Pope 1307. who appointed all theſe nine following, omitted in Le Neve, viz.

* Peter Cardinalis about 1340. And

* Stephen Cardinalis, Anno 1361. He died 1369. And was ſucceeded by

* Philip Cardinalis, admitted March 16. 1369. on the Death of Stephen Cardinalis. His Succeſſor was

* Peter Cardinalis, Anno 1372. He held it, as we learn from Fox, Anno 1374. when it was valued at 151 l. per Annum. He died the ſame Year: And was ſucceeded by

* Simon Cardinalis, admitted 1374. on the Death of Peter, Tituio Praxed Cardinalis. He died An. 1376. And was ſucceeded by

* Guy

* GUY Cardinalis, admitted Dec. 1. 1376. on the Death of Simon Cardinalis.

* JOHN de Thoren ſucceeded 1378. And, dying Anno 1389. was ſucceeded by

* FRANCIS Cardinalis, admitted 1389. To whom ſucceeded

* ROGER de Coringham, Anno 1405. And to him

* WILLIAM PILTON Anno 1412. And then

WILLIAM FELTER, admitted July 15. 1435. He was next Year made Dean: And ſucceeded by

THOMAS KEMPE, collated Dec. 14. Anno 1436. On whoſe quitting it, for Richmond Archdeaconry,

* ANDREW HOLES became admitted Dec. 19. 1442. He died 1470. and willed to be buried in Salisbury Cathedral, where he was Chancellor.

* THOMAS CHIPPENHAM, S. T. P. ſucceeded, being admitted July 28. 1470. on Holes's Death. His Succeſſor was on his Death, which happened Anno 1477.

RALPH BOTHE, LL. B. admitted Febr. 24. 1477. He died Anno 1497. And was ſucceeded by

HENRY CORNBULL, admitted 1497. on Bothe's Death. He died about 1508. being Prebendary of Leighton Manor in Lincoln Cathedral; and was no doubt buried in this Church, where he founded a Chantry Anno 1505. the Year after his Reſignation of this Dignity: In which he was ſucceeded by

JOHN CARVER, LL. D. admitted June 14. 1504. on Cornbull's Reſignation. He reſigned it Anno 1515. And was ſucceeded by

BRIAN HIGDEN, admitted May 26. 1515. He was next Year made Dean: And ſucceeded by

* HUGH ASHDEN, Archdeacon of Cornwal, admitted 1516. On whoſe Death Anno 1522.

* THOMAS WINTER ſucceeded Anno 1523. and kept it till 1540. though he had before parted with his other numerous Preferments Anno 1529. which were in five or ſix other Cathedrals.

* THOMAS WESTBIE ſucceeded, being inſtalled June 26. 1540. He died Dec. 21. 1543. being Prebendary of Eccleſhall in Lichfield Cathedral: And was ſucceeded by

* GEORGE PALMES, LL. B. Rector of Collingham Co. Nottingham, admitted 1543. He was deprived Anno 1560. And ſucceeded by JOHN STOCKES, nominated Jan. 1. 1560. and preſented Jan. 15. by Queen Elizabeth. His Succeſſor was

WILLIAM

WILLIAM CHADERTON, S. T. P. admitted May 31. 1568. He was afterwards Biſhop of Cheſter and Lincoln.

ROBERT RAMSDEN ſucceeded, being admitted 1575. on Dr. Chaderton's Reſignation. He died, and was buried at Spofford, with this Epitaph, Robert Ramſden, Parſon of Spofford, Archdeacon of York, buried October 14. 1596. Right dear in the Sight of the Lord is the Death of his Saints.

CHRISTOPHER GREGORY ſucceeded Anno 1596. or 1597. And, dying 1600. was ſucceeded by

* ROGER ACROYD, S. T. P. admitted 1600. He died 1617. and was buried at Bolton Priory, where he was Rector: And ſucceeded by HENRY HOOKE, collated June 3. 1617. On whoſe Reſignation, 1623.

HENRY WICKHAM ſucceeded 1623. and paid Firſt-Fruits for it May 5. 1634. He died, being Prebendary of Fenton, Anno 1641. And was ſucceeded by

RICHARD MARSH, S. T. P. preſented by the King Aug. 15. 1641. He died Anno 1663. being alſo Dean of this Church: And was ſucceeded by

EDMOND DIGGLE, S. T. P. Treaſurer of Lichfield, inſtalled in Oct. 1663. He died, and was buried at Slimbridge Co. Glouceſter, where he was Rector: And ſucceeded by

KNIGHTLY CHETWODE, S. T. P. inſtalled Nov. 10. 1688. He died Anno 1720. being Dean of Glouceſter, and was buried at Tempſford Co. Bedford: And ſucceeded by CHARLES BLAKE, S. T. P. collated May 23. 1720. Living 1723. Subdean of this Church.

Archdeacons of RICHMOND.

OF the Corps of this Dignity, and an Account of its Poſſeſſors, ſee the learned Roger Gale's, Eſq; moſt curious and elaborate Hiſtory, entituled, Regiſtrum Honoris Richmond, printed at London in Folio, Anno 1722. A Work publiſhed with the utmoſt accurate Judgment and Learning, and which will ever be eſteemed an inimitable Pattern for others to copy after. What I ſhall from thence obſerve in this Place is, that its Endowment was the Impropriations of Eaſingwold, Bolton, Clopham, Thornton-Stuard in this County, and Arlecden Co. Cumberland, with ſeveral other Perquiſites, valued at upwards of 200 l. per per Annum; being eſteemed the richeſt Archdeaconry, for Revenues and Privileges, in the Kingdom, while it belonged to this See, and continued part of this Dioceſe, to which Time Mr. Gale has carried down the Series of the Archdeacons, which were as follows,

CONAMUS was the firſt: He held it 1090. and 1131. As did

THURSTAN Anno 1146.

WILLIAM de Chawill had this Dignity given him by the King 1189. As had

EUSTACE Anno 1196. He was 1198. as I preſume, made Biſhop of Ely: And ſucceeded by

ROGER de St. Edmond, Anno 1198. about Dec. 19. However,

HONORIUS had it given him by the Archbiſhop in March, 1198. For he occurs Archdeacon, in Anglia Sacra, Vol. II. p. 380. about 1202. In which Year, as we learn from Madox's Hiſtory of the Exchequer, p. 354. and 358. both he and Roger were fined in three hundred Marks for this Dignity: In which I find

ROGER de St. Edmond aforeſaid got himſelf confirmed in it by the King, March 2. 1200. After him

RICHARD de Mariſco occurs Anno 1213. He was 1217. made Biſhop of Durham: And ſucceeded by

WILLIAM Anno 1217. He was about 1221. made Treaſurer: After him I meet with

WALTER de Woburn, Anno 1237. As I do

ROBERT de Haget about 1240. On whoſe quitting it next Year, for the Treaſurerſhip,

JOHN de Romayn ſucceeded 1241. He died 1255. being alſo Treaſurer. After him I meet with

*WILLIAM poſſeſſed of it 1256. and 1259. As I do

*RALPH about 1261. And

SIMON de Eveſham 1265. On whoſe Death, which happened Anno 1272.

THOMAS PASSELEW ſucceeded 1272. and died the ſame Year.

GEFFRY de St. Medardo held it 1278. And, dying Anno 1281. was ſucceeded by

HENRY de Newark, Anno 1281. On whoſe being made Dean, as Le Neve tells us,

GEFFRY de Vyſpanys, called in Mr. Gale, Gerard de Weppens, was admitted May 22. 1290. That his Name was Gerard, and not Geffry, appears from his being ſummoned to Parliament by this Title of

Arch-

Archdeacon of Richmond, Anno 1295. in which Summons he is called Gerard de Wispanys.

FRANCIS GAYTANI, a Roman Cardinal, had it given him by the Pope Anno 1307. In his Time, as Mr. Gale informs us, this Dignity was valued at 449 l. 7 s. 5 d. He died 1317. And was succeeded by

ROGER de Northburgh, presented by the King May 29. 1317. He was Anno 1322. made Bishop of Lichfield: And succeeded by

ELIAS TAILARANDI, provided by the Pope, and admitted by Proxy Nov. 2. 1322. He voided it on being made Bishop of Altisodorensis, as Le Neve styles him.

ROBERT de Wodehouse succeeded Sept. 14. 1328. In his Will, proved Febr. 3. 1345. he appointed to be buried in the Convent of Austin Priors at Stamford.

JOHN de Gineswell, made afterwards a Roman Cardinal, succeeded, being installed Jan. 19. 1345. by Proxy. He died 1349. And was succeeded by

HENRY de Walton, admitted July 18. 1349. He died 1359. And was succeeded by

HUMPHRY de Cherlton, S. T. P. admitted by Proxy Dec. 14. 1359. He died 1382. being also Prebendary of Riccall, and was buried in Riccal Chancel: And succeeded by

JOHN BACON, Prebendary of Buckingham in Lincoln Cathedral, admitted by Proxy Febr. 20. 1382. He exchanged it, for some other Dignity, with JOHN de Waltham, Jan. 11. 1384. On whose being made Bishop of Salisbury, Anno 1388.

THOMAS de Dalby succeeded, and was installed Sept. 23. 1388. He died, and was buried in the Cathedral, with this Inscription on his Grave-Stone, Hic jacet Thomas Dalby, quondam Archidiaconus Richmondie, & Canon. Residենt. Eccl. Cathedr. Ebor. qui obiit —— die mensis Maij, A. D. 1400. cujus anime propietur Deus.

STEPHEN de Scrope, Junior, succeeded, being collated by the Archbishop May 14. 1400. He exchanged it with

NICHOLAS BUBBEWITH, installed by Proxy March 16. 1401. He exchanged it again with STEPHEN de Scroop in two Days, who became re-admitted March 18. 1401. He died Anno 1418. having appointed in his Will to be buried in the Cathedral.

HENRY

HENRY BOWET ſucceeded, being collated Sept. 6. 1418. on Scroope's Death.

THOMAS KEMPE, Archdeacon of York, was removed to this Archdeaconry Nov. 19. 1442. In 1448. he was made Biſhop of London: And ſucceeded by

WILLIAM GREY, S. T. P. admitted Mar. 3. 1449. He was 1454. made Biſhop of Ely: And ſucceeded by

LAURENCE BOTHE, admitted Aug. 21. 1454. He was 1457. made Biſhop of Durham: And ſucceeded by

JOHN ARUNDEL, M. D. admitted Oct. 31. 1457. He was 1459. made Biſhop of Chicheſter: And ſucceeded by

JOHN BOTHE, admitted May 27. 1459. He was Anno 1465. made Biſhop of Exeter: And ſucceeded by

JOHN SHIRWODE, admitted July 14. 1465. In 1484. he was made Biſhop of Durham: And ſucceeded by

EDWARD POLE, admitted Jan. 6. 1484. He died next Year, 1485. And was ſucceeded by

JOHN BLITH, admitted Oct. 8. 1485. He was Anno 1493. made Biſhop of Salisbury: And ſucceeded by

CHRISTOPHER URSWICK, admitted March 21. 1493. He reſigned it 1500. And was ſucceeded by

JAMES STANLEY, admitted Dec. 5. 1500. He was Anno 1506. made Biſhop of Ely: And ſucceeded by

THOMAS DALBY, collated Aug. 24. 1506. He died, and was buried in the Cathedral, with this Inſcription on his Grave-Stone, Orate pro anima Magiſtri Thomas Dalby, Decretorum Doctoris, Archidiaconi Richmond, Prebendarij Prebende de Stevelington, ac Canonici in Eccl. beati Johannis Beverlaci, ac Theſaurarij Hoſpitij Thome Savage, quondam Ebor. Archiepiſcopi, Capellani & Conſiliarij illuſtriſſimi Regis Henrici VII. & Capellani & Conſiliarij ſereniſſimi Regis Henrici VIII. & Decani Capelle illuſtriſſimi principis ducis Richmond & Somerſett, qui obiit 26. die menſis Januarij, A. D. 1525. cujus anime propitietur Deus. Amen.

Miſeremini mei my Frendys all,
The World hath inform'd me to fall;
Yer I may no long endure, pray for my Soul,
For this World is tranſitory and terreſtial.

THOMAS WINTER, Archdeacon of York, ſucceeded, being admitted March 24. 1524. He reſigned it Anno 1529. And was ſucceeded by WILLIAM KNIGHT, LL. D. admitted Dec. 1529. He was the laſt Archdeacon of Richmond, while it continued part of this Dioceſe of York: It being, on his Reſignation May 20. 1541. by King Henry VIII. together with that of Cheſter, (which he alſo held, being likewiſe the laſt Archdeacon of Cheſter in the Church of Lichfield) made part of the new-erected Biſhoprick of Cheſter; where ſee, in the Hiſtory of that Church, the ſucceeding Archdeacons deduced and continued down to this Time.

Archdeacons of EAST-RIDING.

THIS Dignity, rated at 62 l. 14 s. 7 d. is endowed with the Impropriation and Advowſon of Mapleton for its Corps.

WILLIAM Filius Durandi held it, as Le Neve ſuppoſes, about 1130.

* HUGH de Pudſey is the next I meet with. He was from this Dignity made Treaſurer Anno 1141.

GEFFRY de Lucy was from it, as is ſuppoſed, made Biſhop of Wincheſter, Anno 1189.

WALTER de Wyſebech held it 1221. and 1225. As did

WILLIAM CANON 1229. And one

WALTER, Anno 1235.

SIMON de Eveſham enjoyed it 1249. He was about 1265. made Archdeacon of Richmond.

ROBERT de Scardeburgh ſucceeded 1266. as in one Account, tho' in another he is ſaid to be collated 8. Cal. April, 1269. after a conſiderable Vacancy.

JOHN de Craucombe ſucceeded about 1277. for he occurs poſſeſſed of it 1278. He died 1308. And was ſucceeded by

BERTRAM de Fergis, Anno 1308. And he by

* DIONIS AVENEL 1322. After whom I find

AUDOMER ROBERT poſſeſſed of it 1345. He died 1352. And was ſucceeded by

WILLIAM de Walcote, collated 1352. on Robert's Death. His Succeſſor was

WALTER SKIRLAW, admitted 1361. He was 1385. made Biſhop of Lichfield: And ſucceeded by

* WIL-

* WILLIAM de Waltham 1385. He died 1389. And was ſucceeded by

* FRANCIS Cardinalis de St. Euſtace, admitted 1389. To whom ſucceeded

WILLIAM de Feriby, LL. B. inſtalled June 7. 1393. He exchanged it, for Althorpe Rectory in Lincoln Dioceſe, with

WILLIAM de Waltham, who became admitted July 23. 1409. As did

HENRY BOWETT, Anno 1416. He was 1418. made Archdeacon of Richmond: And ſucceeded by

JOHN WOODHAM, Anno 1418. He died 1432. or, as in ſome Accounts, 1434. And was ſucceeded by

RICHARD TONE, LL. D. admitted 1432. He died 1463. being Prebendary of Sleford in Lincoln Cathedral: And was ſucceeded by

* ROBERT CLIFTON, admitted 1463. He died Anno 1467. And was ſucceeded by JOHN WALKER, or Walter, LL. B. admitted July 16. 1467. He died 1475. And was ſucceeded by

EDMOND AUDLEY, A. M. admitted Dec. 25. 1475. On whoſe being made Biſhop of Rocheſter.

EDWARD POLE became admitted Dec. 25. 1480. He was made Archdeacon of Richmond: And ſucceeded by WILLIAM POTEMAN, inſtalled Jan. 16. 1485. He died March 25. 1493. Having in his Will appointed to be buried in the Cathedral, near Archbiſhop George Nevill.

He was Vicar of St. Mary's, Nottingham, and Rector of Barton in Fabis, and Prebendary of this Cathedral; of all which I think he was deprived Anno 1690. for not taking the Oaths to King William and Queen Mary, as his Predeceſſor had been of the Biſhoprick of Peterborough, as aforeſaid.

WILLIAM PEARSON, A. M. ſucceeded, being collated July 26. 1690. He died Febr. 6. 1715. being Subdean, where ſee more of him, and was buried in the Cathedral: And ſucceeded by ROBERT MARSDEN, B. D. collated Febr. 18. 1715. Living 1723. Prebendary of Southwell, and Rector of Rempſton.

PREBENDARIES of YORK.

COLLEGIATE Churches, being by their Inſtitution, to have daily Prayers ſaid in them at affixed Hours, appointed by the Canons or Statutes of their Foundation, thence called Canonical Hours, had on that account Rents or Revenues appropriated for the Maintenance of certain Perſons, who were to attend thoſe Prayers and Hours; out of which each of thoſe Perſons had a Portion aſſigned him, which was therefore called a Prebend.

Theſe Portions, as they were ſet out in this Cathedral, were for the moſt part the Rectories of divers Parochial Churches, which were impropriated to maintain the reſpective Prebendaries, or Incumbents, who were thence denominated from the Names of the Places ſo appropriated.

Theſe were all of them collated to by the Biſhops of the Churches wherein they were founded, and the Incumbents were admitted into their reſpective Prebends by Tradition of a Book and Bread, and inveſted by the Dean in the Chapter-Houſe, and inſtalled by the Precentor in the Choir, on the Dean's Mandate. They were obliged to give to the Church a Cope, while they continued poſſeſſed of a Prebend; and if they had not performed that Obligation in their Life-Time, during their Poſſeſſion, they were bound to bequeath at leaſt 10 l. at their Death, to the Uſe of the Church, or pay moreover twenty Marks, and their beſt Palfrey: All which was beſtowed on the Fabrick.

There were anciently in this Cathedral thirty ſix of theſe Prebends, of which two, viz. Wilton and Newthorp, being about 1240. annexed to the Treaſurerſhip, were diſſolved with it Anno 1547. A third, viz. Bramham, was not long after the Foundation annexed to the Priorſhip of Noſtell; as was a fourth, viz. Salton, annexed to Hexam Priorſhip; and ſo fell Anno 1540. in the general Deſtruction of Religious Houſes, with thoſe two Monaſteries. But the fifth and ſixth, viz. Maſſam and Southcave, the former valued at 136 l. and the latter at 87 l. were An. 1547. on account of their large Endowments, ſacrificed with the Treaſurerſhip to the Avarice of ſacrilegious Courtiers. And ſo only thirty (of which two, as aforeſaid, are united to the Precentorſhip and Chancellorſhip) remain at this Day.

Theſe thirty ſix Prebendaries, in like manner as the greater Dignitaries, had their reſpective Subſtitutes; each Prebendary having his Vicar, or Deputy, to repreſent him on Occaſions, and officiate for him in the Choir. Theſe Vicars Places, the Prebendaries were under Engagements ments to keep fully ſtated; for, on their Default in ſo doing, the Chapter took care to ſupply and fill up the Vacancy. Theſe Vicars were entitled from the Stall of the Prebendary they belonged to; and had from him a Stipend of 40 s. per Annum, which is ſtill paid according to the antient Number of the Prebendal Stalls by the Chapter; who, though they have deduced and leſſened the Vicars to no more than five, according to the Number of the Canons reſident, yet they ſtill pay them the old Revenue of 72 l. being thirty ſix times 40 s.

As to the Obſervation of Reſidence, purſuant to the old Statutes, each Reſidentiary was to attend the Service of the Choir twenty ſix Weeks, and during that Time obliged to keep Hoſpitality, and never to be out of his Houſe after the ringing of the Corfew-Bell.

By the laſt Statutes, printed in the Monaſticon, Vol. III. dated Anno 1542. 33. Hen. VIII. made ſince the Reformation, it was ordained, That every Canon ſhould make his ſolemn Proteſtation when he began his Reſidence; and, That there ſhould be always (as it had been practiſed before the Reformation) one Canon's Share or Dividend reſerved for the Treaſure of St. Peter; and, if there were no Reſidentiary, the common Revenue was all of it to be returned and paid into the Treaſury; and That, to prevent the Canons purloining or diſpoſing of the Eſtate of the Church at their will, all the Prebendaries, being at or repairing to York, ſhould be admitted to the Chapter, and vote therein; and That the Seal of the Chapter ſhould be locked up under three Keys; That the Time of Reſidence ſhould be fixed by the Dean and Canons; and That there ſhould be always preſent two or three Reſidentiaries; and if there were but one he ſhould receive the Profits of the reſt, and be obliged to continual Reſidence and Attendance; That any of the Archdeacons being choſen Reſidentiaries, they ſhould be allowed, out of the twenty ſix Weeks, thirty Days for their Viſitations; That, though the Reſidentiaries ſhould over-ſtay their twenty ſix Weeks, the Overplus of that time ſhould not be taken into a new Year, and no Canon be reputed a Reſident, unleſs he lived in a Prebendal Houſe, and expended an 100 l. by the Year; That the Vicars ſhould, in lieu of their claiming a Right to eat at the Reſidentiary's Table, have an Allowance of 5 l. per Annum, and a Stipend of 6 l. 13 s. 4 d. over and above the 40 s. due from the ſeveral thirty ſix Prebendaries.

The Number of Reſidentiaries is now, as already noted, limited to five, viz. the Dean and four others, which are all elective but the Dean; tho' antiently the Dean, Precentor, Chancellor and Treaſurer were de jure Canons, and there were beſides them generally three or four others choſen to that Honour: And though there were ſo many of them, which which leſſened their Income, yet they always conſidered the Fabrick, and conſtantly ſet apart one Dividend to it, beſides the Revenues belonging to it, as they do at this Day; the Church having always a fifth or ſixth Share of the Reſidence-Money annually divided and ſeparated to its Uſe.

I have been the longer in deſcribing the ſeveral Offices of this Church, and enlarging on the Statutes, becauſe the ſame Uſage and Practice was in other Cathedrals; and the Statutes of Landaff, which is the only Church in the Kingdom that has been deprived of its antient Cuſtoms, expreſsly deſcribe theſe very Uſages, which I have here exhibited, and which are yet kept up in this our Cathedral of York, and to which by Oath each Prebendary of Landaff ſeems obliged, at his Admittance, to bind himſelf: And on this account as the Treaſurer of Landaff was to be held to continual Reſidence, ſo he, by not having appointed him the Dividend of a Mark a Year (the only Share or Wages the unreſident Canons of that Church ſeem to have antiently allotted them) was as I conceive entituled to receive the whole of the Chapter-Lands, and be accountable for the Diſtribution of it towards the Fabrick and Hoſpitality, and other neceſſary Duties of the Church.

ABSTHORPE,

SO denominated from Apeſthorp, or Abſthorp, a Pariſh Co. Nottingham, where the Prebendary has the Impropriation and Advowſon of the Donative, and all other Juriſdiction there. SAMUEL TERRICK ſucceeded, being collated Auguſt 11. 1711. He died about December, 1718. and was buried in the Cathedral: And ſucceeded by THOMAS SHARPE, A. M. collated April 29. 1719. the preſent moſt worthy Incumbent, An. 1723. Prebendary of Southwell, and Rector of Rothbury Co. Northumberland, of which County he is alſo Archdeacon.

SUCCENTORS, or SUBCHANTERS.

HAVING done with the Prebendaries, I ſhall conclude my Account of the Incumbents of the Stalls in this Cathedral, with the Succentors, or Subchanters, which Office (though not ſo in Revenues) is eſteemed the loweſt in Rank in all the Cathedral; but, being a Place of Truſt, it is often and commonly beſtowed by the Archbiſhop on a Prebendary, and ſo entitles him to two Stalls.

The Endowment of it is the Rectory of Tunſtall in Holderneſs, valued at 8 l. of which the Succentor is Patron.

His Place in the Church, in the Precentor's Abſence, is to take care of chanting in the Choir, and to officiate for him, as his Deputy; which I the rather chuſe to mention, becauſe, beſides the Succentor Canonicorum, here is alſo a Succentor of the Vicars, which has ſometimes been miſtaken the one Subchanter for the other.

NICHOLAS held this Dignity about 1190. As did
WILLIAM de Langeton, about 1240. And ALANUS SALVATOR, 1252. And
PETER de Fickledon, 1255. The next in Mr. Torr's Catalogue is ALEXANDER: And after him he places
THOMAS de Monkegate: On whoſe Death, which happened Anno 1298.

ROGER le Mar ſucceeded, 1298. He died, 1313. And was ſucceeded by

EDMUND de Brun, Anno 1313. He died, 1322. And was ſucceeded by THOMAS

THOMAS de Stangrave, Anno 1322. He died, 1332. and was buried at Tunſtall: And ſucceeded by RICHARD WITHERBY, 1332. He reſigned it, 1338. And was ſucceeded by

ROBERT de Sprotteley, 1338. He quitted it next Year: And was ſucceeded by

NICHOLAS de Elton, 1339. On whoſe Death ſucceeded

HUGH de Walton, inſtalled, 1345. He reſigned, 1352. And was ſucceeded by JOHN de Gisborne, 1352. He exchanged it for Doncaſter Vicaridge with

ROBERT de Marreys, Anno 1361. He exchanged it for Gilling Rectory with

THOMAS de Toutham, 1366. He died, 1375. And was ſucceeded by

ROGER de Pickering, inſtituted, 1375. He quitted it for Holm-Spalding Rectory, on Exchange to

JOHN de Sutton, Anno 1377. He died, 1385. being Rector of Great-Markham Co. Nottingham: And was ſucceeded by

JOHN HARLE, Rector of St. Mary Caſtleſtreet in York, inſtituted, 1385. He died, 1420. And was ſucceeded by

THOMAS WYAT, 1420. He reſigned it, 1429. being alſo Prebendary of Beverley, to

RICHARD MORTON, 1429. He reſigned it, being alſo Prebendary of Rippon, to

EDWARD BROUGHTON, inſtituted, 1436. He died about 1475. and was buried at St. John's Delpike in York City: Having reſigned it to

THOMAS FORSETT, inſtituted, 1472. He reſigned it, 1480. being Rector of Catton.

WILLIAM ROWKESHAW ſucceeded, 1480. and quitted it, 1486. being alſo Prebendary of St. Mary's Chapel.

RICHARD de Greyſtock ſucceeded, 1486 and died, 1496. being alſo Rector of Brompton.

WILLIAM COOK ſucceeded, 1496. and died, 1522. being alſo Prebendary of Rippon. His Succeſſor was

WILLIAM CLIFTON, Anno 1522. To whom ſucceeded

ROBERT NOOK, 1529. on Clifton's Reſignation. He died the ſame Year: And was ſucceeded by RICHARD WADE, 1529. He died, 1546. being Rector of Barmſton: And was ſucceeded by

ROGER

ROGER MARSHALL, 1546. He was Chantry-Prieſt of Trinity Hoſpital at Pontefract.

JOHN WELLES was inſtalled into it, 1560. and quitted it, 1568. being made Prebendary of Huſtwait. His Succeſſor, no doubt, was

JOHN BATEMAN; for he held it, 1569. He died, 1571. being Vicar of Trinity in Kingſgate, York: And was ſucceeded by

ANTHONY FORDE, 1571. He died, 1578. And was ſucceeded by RICHARD PERNE, inſtituted, 1578. He died, 1599. And was ſucceeded by

ZACHARY STEWARD, inſtituted, 1599. On whoſe being made Prebendary of Ampleford,

JOHN COULTON ſucceeded, 1600. He reſigned it, 1620. being Rector of Sigleſton.

THOMAS KEYE ſucceeded, 1620. and died after 1642.

ANTHONY ELCOCK, S. T. P. was next inſtalled, 1660. after Keye's Death. He was next Year made Subdean: And ſucceeded by

TOBIAS SWINDEN, A. M. inſtalled, 1661. He died the ſame Year: And was ſucceeded by

GEORGE PARISH, collated Dec. 10. 1661. He died, 1689. keeping it with his Prebend of Wiſtow: And was ſucceeded by

THOMAS SANDYS, A. M. collated June 17. 1689. on Dr. Pariſh's Death. He died, being alſo Prebendary of Wighton: And was ſucceeded by SAMUEL BREARY, S. T. P. collated April 18. 1718. He is living, Anno 1723. being alſo Prebendary of Strenſall.

HAVING

HAVING thus mention'd Hexham's being a Peculiar, it may not be improper to take notice how it became ſo; and as it is the only diſſus'd or extinguiſh'd See in this Province, I ſhall here briefly remark, that An. 674. St. Wilfrid founded an Epiſcopal See in this Church, and that after him, as our Authors inform us, ſate theſe following Biſhops.

St. Eata, An. 678.
Tumbertus, 680.
St. John of Beverley, 685.
St. Acca, 709.
Frithbertus, 739.
Almundus, 766.
Tilherus, 780.
Ethelbertus, 789.
Headredus, 797.
Eanbert or Osbert, 800.
Tidferthus, 810.

After whoſe time, An. 821. it was united to Lindisfarne, and ſo became with it tranſlated to Durham, and continued ſubordinate to thoſe Biſhops till Henry the Firſt's Reign; when being, after the Year 1100. beſtowed on the Church of York, it remained as a Fee or Member of that Archbiſhoprick, and acquired the Reputation of being a County Palatine, as Dr. Heylin tells us, till it was by Act of Parliament (as may be ſeen in our Statute Books, 37 Hen. VIII. c. 16.) An. 1546. united to the County of Northumberland, in Temporal Matters: However, it yet belongs to this Dioceſe in Eccleſiaſtical. On its being given to York, Archbiſhop Thomas placed a Convent of Canons Regular in the Church of St. Andrew at Hexham, An. 1113. which (tho' valued at 122 l. 11 s. at the Diſſolution, An. 1541.) not being thought ſufficiently endowed, occaſioned his Succeſſor Archbiſhop Thurſton, for the better Support of the Priorſhip, to annex the Prebend of Salton in York Cathedral, to that Dignity; and ſo that Stall was accordingly held by the Priors of Hexham, till the Surrender of it by Edward Jay, the laſt Prior, as I conceive, An. 1541. whom I meet with poſſeſs'd of it An. 1534.

The Priors Church, as may be ſeen by the printed Draughts, is a large Building, and eſteem'd the moſt magnificent in theſe Parts. It is ſtill ſtanding, tho' in no extraordinary Repair, and uſed as Parochial.

THE DIOCESE OF DURHAM

CONTAINS the whole County of Durham, all Northumberland except eight Churches and Chapels, being Hexham Peculiar, which belong to York; it has alſo one Pariſh, viz. Alſton Moor Co. Cumberland, and lays claim to Crayke, Co. York, to be under its Juriſdiction. It is divided into theſe two Archdeaconries:

I. DURHAM, which has theſe Deanaries in it, Cheſter, Darlington, Eaſington, Stockton; all Co. Durham.

II. NORTHUMBERLAND, which compriſeth Alnwick, Bamburgh, Corbridge, Morpeth, and Newcaſtle Deanaries; all Co. Northumberland.

The moſt antient See of this Dioceſe was firſt fix'd at Lindisfarne Iſland, Co. Northumberland, where it remained near three hundred Years, and was thence remov'd to Cheſter on the Street, Co. Durham, where it continued near a hundred Years; till it was, Anno 995. tranſ-planted to Durham, where it now remains. Its Biſhop enjoys great Privileges, being reputed a Count Palatine, or temporal Lord, within the County of Durham, where all Cauſes were try'd in his Name; and he had the Appointment of the Sheriff; divers of which Prerogatives it yet retaineth: And the Biſhop, by virtue hereof, claimeth Precedence of all the Biſhops of the Kingdom, except London, and hath accordingly Place in Parliament, without reſpect to Priority of Conſecration.

Here are in this Dioceſe, as our Authors mention, a hundred and thirty five Pariſhes, whereof eighty ſeven are impropriate; tho' in my Account the number is two hundred and one. The Clergies Tenths amount to 385*l.* 5*s.* 6*d.*

CATHEDRAL of DURHAM

HAS a Dean, twelve Prebendaries, twelve Minor Canons, a Deacon, Subdeacon, ſixteen Singing-men, a Maſter of the Choriſters, ten Choriſters, a Divinity Reader, eight Almſmen, two Maſters of the Grammar-ſchool, eighteen Scholars, two Virgers, two Porters, two Sextons, two Barbers; in all ninety one, by King Henry the VIIIth's Foundation, who Anno 1541. converting the Priory into a College of Secular, aſſigned his new Dean and Prebendaries their reſpective Apartments out of the old Monaſtery; within the Precincts of which, the Biſhop, Dean, Prebendaries, and other Members, have very good Houſes, the beſt of any Cathedral in England, according to the Dignity of the Prebends, which are reputed more richly endow'd than any other Church; owing, as I hear, to the Members allotting themſelves at firſt their reſpective Dividends or Shares out of the Chapter-Lands, and not leaſing them in common, by which Practice (in this ſole Church of the new Foundation) ſome Prebends are of more Value than others, whereas in the reſt they are all equal, as they might be here poſſibly at firſt, tho' the Improvements of Eſtates have made a Diſproportion, as it now continues.

The antient Valor being given in the firſt Volume of Abbies (where ſee an Account of the Priors) I ſhall thence extract it: Deanary, Value 284*l.* 4*s.* 8*d.* twelve Prebendaries, 32*l.* 5*s.* 10*d.* each; twelve Minor Canons, 10*l.* each; a Deacon, 6*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* Subdeacon, 6*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* ſixteen Lay Singing-men, 6*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* each; Schoolmaſter, 11*l.* [illegible]er, 6*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* Maſter of the Choriſters, 9*l.* 15*s.* Divinity-Reader, 20*l.* eight Almſmen, 6*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* eighteen Scholars, 3*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* ten Choriſters, 3*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* two Virgers, 6*l.* two Porters, 6*l.* two Cooks, 5*l.* two Barbers, 5*l.* two Sacriſtaries, 6*l.* each.

A Scale of Feet

North

M Burghers sculp

In a curious Hiſtory of this Place, wrote ſoon after the Diſſolution, entitled, The Rites of Durham Monaſtery, publiſhed by John Davies, are ſeveral particular Memorials of this Cathedral; which is a magnificent Pile of Building, extending itſelf, in Length, from Eaſt to Weſt, 411 Foot; and in Breadth, about 78 or 80 Foot. In the Middle is a ſpacious croſs Iſle, being from North to South 170 Foot. In the Section of this ſtands the Rood-Tower, or Steeple, in Height, to the Top of the Lantern, within-ſide, 162 Foot; over which hang the Bells, which are eight in number. To the Top of this Tower it is reputed 223 Foot, as may be ſeen in the Ichnography; from whence may be learned the whole Dimenſions, and Scite of the antient Tombs and Graveſtones before 1600.

The Builders of this noble Structure were Biſhop William de Carilepho, who begun it Anno 1093. and left it to his Succeſſor Biſhop Flambard, who for the moſt part finiſh'd it; Biſhop Pudſey, who built the Gallilee at the Weſt End, Temp. Hen. II. Biſhop Farnham, Temp. Hen. III. who vaulted over the Roof of the Church with Stone; Biſhop Skirlaw, Temp. Rich. II. who built the Cloiſters; Biſhop Langley, Temp. Hen. VI. who finiſh'd the Gallilee; Priors Foſſor and Wallworth, Temp. Edw. III. made ſeveral new Works, and added much to the Beauty of it in ſeveral Parts, as is deſcrib'd more at large in Anglia Sacra, and the firſt Volume of Abbies. The whole Fabrick, together with the Cloiſters and Chapter-houſe, is vaulted throughout. The Nave is ſupported by thick Pillars; the Wainſcot of the Choir regular; the Organ large and good; the Font of Marble; the Windows of exquiſite Workmanſhip, eſpecially the great Eaſt Window, called St. Katherine's Window, becauſe reſembling a Katherine-Wheel: near which on the South Side is a Window, called St. Cuthbert's Window, on account that the Glaſs of it was painted with the Hiſtory of that Saint; as was the oppoſite North one with the Hiſtory of St. Joſeph, and ſo called by his Name. At each end of the great croſs Iſle are alſo two other noble Windows: The North one was called the Four Doctors, becauſe it had pourtray'd in it the Effigies of the Bleſſed Virgin, with four Doctors (or Monks, as the Vulgar fancied; probably the four Evangeliſts) praying to her; as had the oppoſite South one the Myſtery of the Te Deum Hymn painted, and was thence called the Te Deum Window: As may be more particularly ſeen in the aforeſaid Account of this Church, publiſhed by John Davies of Kidwelly.

In a curious M. S. in the Heralds-Office are beautifully drawn all the Arms in this Church, compriſing 117 Coats; and alſo Biſhop Hatfeild's Monument, which contains his Effigies under an Arch, with a noble Canopy over him. 'Tis among Dugdale's M.S. notat. c. 41.

In the new Edition of Bede, there are Repreſentations of ſome inſide Views of the Cathedral. And in Dugdale's Hiſtory of St. Paul's, London, lately publiſhed, is printed ſome Account of this Church, York, and Carliſle, drawn up by him.

As to Inſcriptions before 1600. beſides ſome few of Dignitaries here given, I could never meet with any, except of Priors Foſſor, Hemingburgh, William and Robert Ebcheſter, Prior Caſtel, and Venerable Bede; neither have I diſcovered any Tomb of Lay Perſons before the Reformation, except of Ralph Lord Nevill, who died 1361. and was the firſt ſecular Perſon buried here; and John Lord Nevill his Son, who died 1389. whoſe Wills ſee printed in Mr. Madox's excellent Book, entituled, Formulare Anglicanum; and neither of theſe had any Inſcription belonging to them, as I could find, tho' the Priors had: However they are all long ſince demoliſhed, together with Venerable Bede's; which, as it was the moſt antient, I ſhall begin with it.

The Scite of these and all other antient Gravestones, as I have already observ'd, are shewn in the Ichnography, which will help much to explain the aforesaid History of the Rites; as will a Draught of the Cathedral, inscrib'd inſcribed to the preſent Dean, Dr. Mountague, publiſhed by Mr. Buck, (who has given us a large Draught of the Proſpect of this City,) much correcter than what King has given us in the Monaſticon; tho' I muſt obſerve, that ſince King's Draughts, the two Weſt Spires have been taken down about ſixty Years ago, and the Towers being now diveſted of them, appear not much higher than the Leads of the middle Iſle of the Church. But I come to the ENDOWMENT of the See, as it was given in, Anno 1534. of which I ſhall here exhibit an Abſtract of the Rental.

According to which Sum, viz. of 2821 l. 1 s. 5 d. it was rated in the antient Payment of Firſt-Fruits; but it is now leſſen'd 1000 l. it paying at this time 1821 l. 1 s. 3 d. Which Abatement was made, with very very good Reaſon, in Queen Elizabeth's Time; who for the beſt part of her Reign, notwithſtanding what ſhe took away, made all the Biſhops of this See (who were every one of them married Men) pay and refund (as ſome Authors tell us) 1000 l. per Ann. out of their Revenue, towards keeping a Garriſon in theſe Parts, at Berwick, to awe the Scots.

In King Edward the VIth's Time, this Biſhoprick was by Act of Parliament (which ſee in our printed Books) diſſolved and annihilated in the laſt Year of his Reign; but his Death happening ſoon after, Queen Mary reſtored it again, with the whole Revenues of the Church.

What it ſuffered in Queen Elizabeth's Reign, I ſhall give at Length, as I took it from the Patents.

April 24. Ann. 5. Edw. VI. 1551. the King granted to his Siſter, the Lady Elizabeth, for her Life, Durham-Place in Weſtminſter, in St. Martins Pariſh in the Strand.

[N. B. This was reſtored, Anno 4. Mariæ, 1557. and the Reverſion, after her Siſter's the ſaid Lady Elizabeth's Life, granted to Cuthbert Tonſtall, Biſhop of Durham, and his Succeſſors; and ſo it falling Anno 1602. to the See of Durham again, was, 1661. as I have heard, granted by Biſhop Coſin on a Building-Leaſe, reſerving to himſelf and Succeſſors a Fee-Farm Rent of about 200 l. which is now paid.

Anno 1561. the Letters Patent recite, That Queen Elizabeth had taken from this Biſhoprick, Anno 1559, or 1560. the Manours of Norham Norhamſhire, Allerton Allertonſhire, Sadbergh, Middleham, Eaſington Ward and Coronator, Cotton-Monxill, Gateſide, and ſo had exempted them all out of the Reſtitution of the Temporalities to Biſhop Pilkington. Teſte March 25. But,

Anno 1566. teſte Jun. 13. other Patents ſpecify, that on a new Reſtitution of the Temporalities, all were reſtored, except Norham and Norhamſhire. So that hitherto the See loſt little, except paying its Penſion of 1000 l. per Ann. till Biſhop Barnes, Anno 1582. leaſed out Gateſide Lordſhip and Borough; as he did, Anno 1587. the Manour and Advowſon of Crayke Co. York, to Sir Francis Walſingham; as he had done Hovedon and Hovedonſhire for ninety nine Years. He alſo leaſed his Mills at Darlington for forty Years, and his Franchiſes of Norham and Norhamſhire; making ſome Grant almoſt every Year during the eleven Years he continued Biſhop. But I ſhall give the Words of the Patents as I took them.

Anno 1577. the Queen recites, That Barnes, Biſhop of Durham, May 31. Ann. Regni 19. granted her his Fiſheries in Tweed Water, and and Franchiſes of Norham and Norhamſhire. She grants the ſame to Tho. Leighton Eſq;

Anno 1578. Elizabeth the Queen recites, That Richard Barnes, Biſhop of Durham, Anno Regni 20. demiſed to her his Mills in Darlington and Blackwall for forty Years. She grants them to William Appleton. Teſte June 19.

Anno 1581. the Queen recites, That Richard Barnes, Biſhop of Durham, granted to her the Manour of Midridge for eighty Years. Now the Queen grants the ſaid Manour, and her Intereſt, to Richard Franklin. Teſte Nov. 23. Anno Regni 24.

Anno 1582. Nov. 12. the Queen recites, That Richard Barnes, Biſhop of Durham, Anno Regni 23. June 20. granted her, for ſeventy nine Years, the Lordſhip and Borough of Gateſide, near Newcaſtle. The Queen gives her Intereſt to Henry Andrews, and William Selby, Aldermen of Newcaſtle.

Anno 1585. 27. Eliz. the Queen recites, That Barnes, Biſhop of Durham, July 13. Ann. Regni 27. granted her his Manour, &c. of Hovedon for ninety nine Years. Now ſhe grants the Premiſes to John Gate, of Houlden, Eſq; Teſte May 20.

Anno 1587. the Queen recites, That Richard Barnes, Biſhop of Durham, Sept. 29. Anno Regni 28. deviſed to her the Manour and Advowſon of Crayke for eighty Years. Now ſhe grants the ſame to Sir Francis Walſingham. Teſte March 22. Anno Regni 30.

In Gardiner's Account of Newcaſtle, he mentions Biſhop Barnes his Leaſe of Gateſide Collieries to Queen Elizabeth for ninety nine Years, which ſhe aſſigned to the Corporation of Newcaſtle, to whom it yields an immenſe Profit: As would this Biſhoprick have been worth perhaps five times as much as it is, but for the Alienations; however, it may ſtill be accounted one of the richeſt in England by this Account of

The SALE of the Lands of the See of Durham, in 1647, 1648, 1649, 1650, and 1651.

The Chapter of Durham ſeem yet to be poſſeſs'd of theſe Demeſnes, except Durham College in Oxford, and Ruddington Co. Nottingham. They preſent to above twenty Livings in Durham Dioceſe, which ſee in the Account of it; and theſe other Livings in other Dioceſes, viz. Northallerton V. Boſſall V. Walkington R. Brentingham R. in Yorkſhire, and Frampton Vicarige in Lincolnſhire. But I come to treat of the

BISHOPS of DURHAM.

IN Anglia Sacra, Vol. I. there is a very good Account of the Biſhops of this See from 635. to 1541. I ſhall briefly extract them, noting that the ſixteen firſt were ſtyled

BISHOPS of Lindisfarne or Holy Iſland.

THESE were firſt, St. AIDAN, who Anno 635. ſettled an epiſcopal See in a ſmall Iſland Co. Northumberland, called Lindisfarne; and dying Aug. 31. 651. was buried, as is ſuppoſed by ſome Writers, in Glaſtonbury Abby; tho' Wharton gives no Credit to this Tradition, and mentions his being buried at Lindisfarne.

FINANUS ſucceeded 651. and died on the 13th of the Calends of March 661.

COLMAN ſucceeded 661. and quitted it, 664. to

TUDA, 664. He died next Year, and was ſucceeded by

EATA, Anno 1665. (tho' he may more properly be ſtyled Biſhop of Hexham.) He reſigned it Anno 684. and was ſucceeded by

ST. CUTHBERT, who became conſecrated on Eaſter-Day 684. He reſigned it 686. and died in about a Year afterwards, viz. March 20. 687. and was firſt buried at Lindisfarne, and afterwards removed to Durham, where he had a moſt ſumptuous Shrine erected to his Memory behind behind the High Altar of that Cathedral, which was on his Account held in ſo great Sanctity, that till 1310. no Biſhops durſt preſume to be buried in the Cathedral, or any Prior lie there till 1374. as is told at length in a Book entitled, The Rites of Durham.

EADBERT ſucceeded 687. and dying March 6. 698. was buried at Lindisfarne, near his Predeceſſor, and ſucceeded by

EGFRITH, Anno 698. Iſaakſon and Wharton call him Eadfride. He died 721. and was ſucceeded by

ETHELWOLD, Anno 721. as Heylin ſays, or rather Anno 724. as Iſaakſon and Wharton place it. He died Anno 740. and was ſucceeded by KENULPH, Anno 740. He died Anno 781.

HIGBALD ſucceeded 781. After him Heylin places one Ethelwine; but he being omitted by other Authors, I ſhall paſs him by. As to Higbald, he died May 25. 803. and was ſucceeded by

EGBERT conſecrated June 11. 803. He died 821. and was ſucceeded by

HEATHOREDUS, Anno 821. He died Anno 828. as Wharton fixes it, and was ſucceeded by

EGRED, or EGFRID, as Iſaackſon calls him, who places his coming in, Anno 827. He died Anno 846. and was ſucceeded by

EANBERT, or EGBERT, Anno 846. He died 854. and was ſucceeded by EARDULPH, Anno 854. who fearing the barbarous Incurſions of the Danes, fled Anno 875. from Lindisfarne for ſome time, and ſettling at length at Cheſter, Co. Durham, Anno 883. or 884. He died Anno 900. after he had been Biſhop forty ſix Years. His Succeſſors, the next eight, are reckoned BISHOPS of Cheſter on the Street.

THE firſt of theſe was CUTHARD, who ſucceeded Eardulf, An. 900. He died Anno 915. and was ſucceeded by

TILRED, or TULRED, called alſo MILRED, who came in An. 915. and was ſucceeded by

WIGRED, or WITHRED, Anno 929. He died Anno 944. and was ſucceeded by

UCHTRED, Anno 944, or 945. To whom ſucceeded

SEXHELM, Anno 947. and to him, on his relinquiſhing it,

ALDRED, Anno 948. He died Anno 968. and was ſucceeded by

ALFSIGUS

ALFSIGUS, called alſo ALFIUS, or ELFSINUS, conſecrated at York, Anno 968. He died Anno 990. and was ſucceeded by

ALDHUN, Anno 990. who Anno 995. removed the See to Durham, with the Body of St. Cuthbert, when he had on Sept. 4. dedicated a new Church. He died Anno 1017. and was buried in the Chapter-Houſe of his new Church at Durham, the firſt regular Biſhop of which Place, he, viz. the ſaid Aldhun, may properly be ſtyled; as his Succeſſors have ever ſince been named

BISHOPS of DURHAM.

EADMUND became elected Anno 1020. He died Anno 1041. at Gloceſter, upon his Attendance of the King, and was thence convey'd to Durham, and buried in the Chapter-Houſe, and ſucceeded by

EADRED, Anno 1041. He died before he had been Biſhop eleven Months, and was ſucceeded by EGELRIC, Anno 1042. He quitted it Anno 1056. and afterwards died a Priſoner in Weſtminſter Abby, Oct. 15. 1072. and was buried in St. Nicholas Chapel there.

EGELWINE ſucceeded 1056. He was, it ſeems, Brother to Biſhop Egelric, who had reſigned to him. He was expelled this See by William I. ſtyled the Conqueror, King of England, Anno 1070. and dying next Year, was buried in Abington Monaſtery. On his Expulſion,

WALCHER, born in Lorain, became conſecrated Biſhop of Durham at Winchester, Anno 1072. He bought of the King the Earldom of Northumberland; and engaging in temporal Buſineſs, drew on himſelf for his Covetouſneſs ſo much the Hatred of the People, that he was at length murdered May 14. 1080. and firſt buried in Jarrow Monaſtery, but afterwards remov'd to Durham Chapter-Houſe, and there interr'd. On his Death,

WILLIAM de Kairlepho, Abbot of St. Vincents in Normandy, was nominated by the King, Nov. 9. 1080. and conſecrated Jan. 3. following. This Biſhop began building the preſent Cathedral; and dying Jan. 2. 1095. was buried in the Chapter-Houſe, and ſucceeded, after a Vacancy of near four Years by

RALPH FLAMBARD, nominated by the King on Whitſunday, May 29. 1099. and conſecrated June 5. following, on Trinity-Sunday. He carried on the Building of the Cathedral begun by his Predeceſſor, built Norham Caſtle, Kepyre Hoſpital, and a Bridge over Durham River, founded Motisfont Priory in Hampſhire, and was a great Benefactor to Chriſt-Church College in that County, of which, as Godwin ſays, he had had been Dean. He died Sept. 4, or 5. 1128. and was buried in the Chapter-Houſe by his Predeceſſor, and ſucceeded by

GEOFRY RUFUS, Chancellor of England, conſecrated Aug. 6. 1129. as ſaith Godwin; tho' in Anglia Sacra, Vol. I. p. 709. his Conſecration is placed Aug. 6. 1133. He died May 6. 1140. was buried in the Chapter-Houſe, and ſucceeded by

WILLIAM de St. Barbara, Dean of York, elected March 14. and conſecrated June 20. 1143. He died Nov. 14. 1152. was buried by his Predeceſſors, and ſucceeded by

HUGH PUDSEY, Treaſurer of York, and Archdeacon of Wincheſter, conſecrated Dec. 20. 1153. He built divers Houſes belonging to his See from the Ground, made a fair Church and Houſe at Darlington, founded Finchale Priory, purchaſed the rich Manour of Sedburgh, and and gave it to his See, built the Bridge over Elvet River, leading into Durham, and made the Gallilee at the Weſt End of the Cathedral, and tranſlated the Bones of Venerable Bede thither, founded Shirborn and Allerton Hoſpitals, and purchaſed of King Richard I. the Earldom of Northumberland, An. 1192. about two Years before his Death, which happened March 3. 1194. in the ſeventieth Year of his Age; whereupon his Body was convey'd to Durham, and buried in the Chapter-Houſe. His Succeſſor was

PHILIP of Poictiers, elected in November, 1195. and conſecrated May 12. 1197. He obtained leave to ſet up a Mint at Durham, and coined Money there, ſome of which I have ſeen. Taking part with King John againſt the Pope, he was on that account excommunicated, and ſo is ſaid by ſome Authors to have been buried without the Church by the Hands of Laymen; however, I find he was interred in the Chapter-Houſe. He died April 22. 1207. and was ſucceeded, after ten Years Vacancy, by RICHARD de Mariſco, Dean of Salisbury, and Archdeacon of Northumberland, conſecrated at Gloceſter, July 2. 1217. He died May 1. 1226. having been a great Waſter of the Revenues of his Church, which he left much in Debt, and was buried in the Chapter-Houſe, and had this jingling Epitaph beſtowed on him by a Monk of this Convent.

Culmina qui cupi-tis laudes pompaſque ſiti-
Eſt ſedata ſi- ſi me penſare veli-
Qui populos regi- memores ſuper omnia ſi-
Quod mors immi- non parcit honore poti- tis

On his Death the Convent elected

William Stichill, alias Scot, Archdeacon of Worceſter, for their Biſhop, Ann. 1126. But the King oppoſing it, and the Pope making the Election void, the Monks choſe

Richard Poor, Biſhop of Salisbury, in his ſtead, who obtain'd the Royal Aſſent July 22. 1228. He was a Man of rare Learning and Integrity, and a great Benefactor to every Place he had relation to. Being 1215. made Biſhop of Chicheſter, he purchaſed unto that Church Amport in Hampſhire; and being thence, An. 1217. removed to Saliſbury, began An. 1219. the ſtately Cathedral there, now in Being, eſteemed, for its elegant Architecture, one of the Wonders of the Kingdom, and founded a College in that City. At Durham he had much to do to clear off a vaſt Debt of fourty thouſand Marks that his Predeceſſor Richard de Mariſco had left upon the See. He died April 15. 1237. at Tarrant Monaſtery in Dorſetſhire, which he founded, and was buried there, as Godwin tells: Tho' in Anglia Sacra it is expreſly ſaid he was buried in Durham Chapter-Houſe, as it is alſo in the following Inſcription, remaining on a Tablet in Leland's Time in Salisbury Cathedral, where is a Tomb erected to his Memory.

Orate pro anima Rici Poure, quondam Sarum Epiſcopi, qui Eccleſiam hanc inchoari fecit, in quodam fundo ubi nunc fundata eſt ex antiquo nomine Maryfield, *in honorem B. N. B. His beginning Salisbury Cathedral, as mention'd in this Inſcription, in the Reign of Richard I. is a Miſtake; for he was not Biſhop there till King Henry IIId's Time; tho' he was Dean Anno 1197. about two Years before King Richard's Death. His Succeſſor in this See was

Nicholas de Farnham, elected Jan. 2. 1240. after a long Conteſt between the Monks and the King who ſhould be Biſhop, and conſecrated

June

June 9. 1241. He was a Man of moſt exemplary Sanctity, a great Benefactor to his Cathedral, which he cover'd with a new Roof, and arch'd with Stone. And as he was with much ado perſuaded to take a Biſhoprick, having before refuſed Lichfeild, ſo with great Willingneſs he reſigned this, An. 1249. and retiring to Stockton, died there about Feb. 1257. having lived a private Life the Space of eight Years, and was buried in Durham Chapter-Houſe by his Predeceſſors. On his Reſignation

WALTER de Kirkham became elected April 21. 1249. and conſecrated Dec. 5. following. He died Auguſt 9. 1260. was buried in the Chapter-Houſe, and ſucceeded by

ROBERT STICHELL, Prior of Finchale, elected Sept. 30. 1260. He founded Greatham Hoſpital, and recover'd ſome Lands to his See, and dying Auguſt 4. 1274. was buried in the Chapter-Houſe, and ſucceeded by ROBERT de Inſula, elected Sept. 24. 1274. He died June 7. Godwin ſays, June 13. 1283. and was buried in the Chapter-Houſe under a Stone curiouſly wrought, as Godwin tells us.

ANTHONY de Bek, or Beak, Archdeacon of Durham, ſucceeded, being elected July 5. 1283. and conſecrated Jan. 9. following. He was a Man of vaſt Power and Wealth, and by that means obtained of the Pope the Patriarchate of Jeruſalem, and of the King the Principality of Man; and had ſo great Command, that, as Stow tells, in the Battle of Fawkirk, fought by King Edward I. againſt the Scots, there were no leſs than thirty two of his Banners in the Army. He repaired divers Caſtles, built a noble Hall and Chapel at Aukland, in which he placed Prebendaries, and founded the Priory of Alvingham Co. Lincoln, and a College of ſeven Prebendaries at Cheſter on the Street. He died March 3. 1310. Godwin ſays March 28. 1311. and was buried in the Cathedral behind the high Altar, being the very firſt Biſhop that preſumed to lie in the Church, on account of the Interment of the holy St. Cuthbert; and ſo ſuperſtitious were they then, that they durſt not bring him in at the Doors, but broke a Hole in the Wall to bring in his Coffin at the End of the Church, which is yet viſible. Over his Grave was a large Marble laid, which had this Inſcription upon it.

Præſul magnanimus Antonius hic jacet imus,
Jeruſalem ſtrenuus Patriarcha fuit, quod opimus
Annis vicenis regnabat ſex & 1 plenis,
Mille trecentenis Chriſto mœritur quoque denis.

RICHARD de Kellaw ſucceeded, being elected March 13. 1311. and conſecrated May 30. following. He beſtowed much on Building at Middleham and Stockton, and in his Will bequeathed a hundred Marks to be diſtributed to the Poor on the Day of Burial. He died Oct. 19. 1316. and was buried in the Chapter-Houſe, and ſucceeded by LEWIS de Beaumont, Treaſurer of Sarum. His Conge d' Elire bears Date Oct. 19. 1317. and Conſecration March 26. following. He built a Hall, Kitchen, and Chapel at Middleham, and walled the City of Durham about, and recovered ſome Lands to his See; and dying Sept. 22. 1333. or as ſome ſay, Sept. 28. was buried before the high Altar under the Steps in his own Cathedral, and had laid over him a large Marble, whereon was his Effigies engraven in Braſs in his epiſcopal Habit, and round him the Pourtraitures of the twelve Apoſtles; and in ſeveral Parts of the Stone theſe Inſcriptions, the firſt of which was his Epitaph.

In Gallia natus

Celo quam dignus, juſtus, pius, atque benignus;
Dapſilis ac hilaris inimicus ſemper avaris.

Over his Head was this in a Scroll,

Credo quod Redemptor meus vivit, qui in novisſimo die me reſuſcitabit ad vitam eternam; & in carne mea videbo Deum Salvatorem meum.

And this on his Breaſt,

Repoſita eſt hec ſpes in ſinu meo Domine miſerere.

And on his right and left Hands theſe two Verſes,

Conſors ſit ſanctis Lodovicus in arce tonantis,
Spiritus ad Chriſtum qui ſanguine liberat ipſum.

On his Death,

ROBERT de Grayſtanes, a Monk of Durham, was conſecrated Biſhop November 14. by the Archbiſhop of York, but was denied the Temporalities poralities by the King; ſhortly after which he died, and was buried in the Chapter-Houſe, with this Inſcription:

De Grayſtane natus, jacet hic Robertus humatus,
Legibus armatus rogo ſit ſanctis ſociatus.

On Grayſtane's being put by,

RICHARD de Bury, Archdeacon of Northampton, Prebendary of Lincoln, Sarum, and Lichfeild, and Dean of Wells, became conſecrated Dec. 19. 1333. by the Biſhop of Wincheſter. He was a Man of great Learning, and an excellent Biſhop, very charitable, diſtributing much in Alms, and a good Benefactor to his Cathedral, on which he beſtowed many ſumptuous Ornaments. He died greatly lamented, April 24. 1345. aged 58. and was buried under a large Marble in the South Angle at the Eaſt End of his Cathedral. In his Will he gave his Books to Oxford, where ſome report him to have founded Durham College; but that was rather the Work of his Succeſſor.

THOMAS HATFEILD, Prebendary of Lincoln and York, elected May 8. and conſecrated July 10. 1345. He founded Durham College in Oxon, as may be ſeen at large in Anglia Sacra, which is now part of Trinity College in that Univerſity; and alſo built Durham-Houſe in the Strand, where Durham-Yard is, behind the New-Exchange. In his Will, now remaining in the Archives at Lambeth, he appointed to be buried in his own Cathedral, where is a ſtately Tomb erected to his Memory, already deſcribed, containing his Effigies in his pontifical Habit, lying under a large arch'd Canopy, tho' without any Inſcription. On his Death, which happen'd May 7. 1381.

JOHN FORDHAM, Dean of Wells, Prebendary of Lincoln, York, and Chicheſter, was provided to this See by the Pope, Sept. 9. 1381. and conſecrated Jan. 5. following. He was April 3. 1388. tranſlated to Ely, and ſucceeded by

WALTER SKIRLAW, LL. D. Treaſurer of Lincoln, Archdeacon of Eaſt-Riding, Canon of York and Lincoln, Dean of St. Martin's London, firſt Biſhop of Lichfeild, and afterwards of Wells, from whence he was tranſlated hither by the Pope's Bull, dated April 3. 1388: the Day the Pope removed his Predeceſſor to Ely, and had the Temporalities reſtored Sept. 13. following. He gave and ſpent 600 l. on the Cloiſters of this Cathedral, and beſtowed 220 l. on building the Dormitory; built the Bridges of Shinkley, Yarrow, and Aukland; the Steeples of Hulme and Hoveden; and the Chapel of Swine, Co. York, where Godwin ſays he was born; and good Part of the Lantern in York Minſter; and gave

gave 150*l.* to Wells Cathedral, to buy Ornaments. In his Will, dated March 15. 1404. he bequeathed a hundred Marks to the Dormitory of Durham Monaſtery, 20*l.* to Durham College, and the Manour of Rothing to Univerſity College, Oxon, to which he was a principal Benefactor. He died March 24. 1405. and was buried in the Cathedral, in the South Side on one Side the Choir, under a large Graveſtone, which had this Inſcription on it.

Credo quod Redemptor meus vivit, & in novissimo die de terra resurrecturus sum, & in Carne mea videbo Deum Salvatorem meum.

Hic jacet bone memorie Walterus Skirlaw, primum Episcopus Coventr. & Lichfeild. deinde Bathon. & Wellen. & postea ad hanc sanctam Sedem Dunelmenſ. translatus, qui obiit —— die Mensis ——, A. D. Mcccc. —— Deum pro anima ejus.

THOMAS LANGLEY, Prebendary and Dean of York, and Chancellor of England, ſucceeded, being elected May 17. 1406. and conſecrated Auguſt 8. following. He beſtowed 499*l.* 6*s.* 7*d.* in finiſhing the Gallilee in the Weſt Part of the Cathedral and Cloiſter; and founded, for the uſe of his Church, two Schools, one for Grammar, and another for Muſick; was a Benefactor to Rocheſter Bridge; and being a great Favourite of his Prince, was a ſecond time made Lord Chancellor, and alſo a Cardinal. He died Nov. 28. 1437. and was buried in his Cathedral under a Graveſtone before the Galilee Altar, as he had directed in his Will; which ſee an Account of in Anglia Sacra.

ROBERT NEVILL, Provoſt of Beverley, Prebendary of York, and at length Biſhop of Salisbury, was tranſlated to this See by the Pope, Jan. 27. 1437. and had the Temporalities reſtored April 8. 1438. He built the Exchequer at Durham, near the Caſtle-Gate; and dying July 8. 1457. was buried in the Cathedral, near St. Bede's Shrine, as he had appointed in his Will. His Succeſſor was

LAURENCE BOOTH, Maſter of Pembroke-Hall, Cambridge, and Chancellor of that Univerſity, conſecrated Sept. 25. 1457. He built the Gate of the College of Aukland, and Edificies adjoining; and having ſate here near twenty Years, he was tranſlated to York; (where ſee more of him) and ſucceeded by

WILLIAM DUDLEY, Prebendary of Wells and Wolverhampton, Archdeacon of Middleſex, and Dean of Windſor, who had the Temporalities reſtored Oct. 14. 1476. He died Anno 1483. and was buried in St. Nicholas Chapel in Weſtminſter Abby, where yet remains his his Tomb, having his Effigies on a Plate of Braſs let into the Stone, and this Inſcription round the Verge of it.

Hic jacet Gulielmus de Dudley, e familia Baronum de Dudley, Dunelm: Epiſcopus, obiit A. D. ———

He was a great Benefactor to his Colleges of Windſor and Wolverhampton, and Dudley Church, Co. Stafford.

JOHN SHIRWODE, Chancellor of Exeter, and Archdeacon of Richmond, ſucceeded, and had the Temporalities reſtored Aug. 6. 1485. He died at Rome. and was buried in the Engliſh College there, with this Inſcription:

Hic jacet P. Pater Johannes Shirwode, Epiſcopus Dunelm. Sereniſſimae Regis Angliae orator, qui obiit 12 Jan. 1493. Cujus Anima in pace quieſcat.

On his Death,

RICHARD FOX, LL.D. Prebendary of Sarum and Hereford, firſt Biſhop of Exeter, then of Wells, was tranſlated to this See, and had the Temporalities reſtor'd him Dec. 8. 1494. He was afterwards the worthy Founder of Corpus Chriſti College, Oxon, and a great Benefactor to Wincheſter Cathedral, to which See he was tranſlated from hence, after he had ſate here about eight Years; during which time he made great Improvements at the Palace of Durham, and walled round his Park near this City. On his quitting this for Wincheſter,

WILLIAM SEVER, or SEVEYER, Biſhop of Carliſle, was tranſlated hither, and had the Temporalities reſtored him Oct. 15. 1502. He died An. 1505. and was buried in St. Mary's Abby in York, of which he had been Abbot, and ſucceeded by

CHRISTOPHER BAINBRIGGE, LL.D. Prebendary and Dean of York, and Dean of Windſor, Prebendary of Lincoln, Maſter of the Rolls, who had the Temporalities reſtored him Nov. 17. 1507. after two Years Vacancy. He was next Year tranſlated to York (where ſee more of him) and ſucceeded by

THOMAS ROWTHALL, or RUTHALL, Dean of Salisbury, Prebendary of Lincoln and York, (of whom ſee an Account in Anglia Sacra, and Wood's Athenæ) who had the Temporalities reſtored to him July 3. 1509. He died Feb. 4. 1522. and was buried in Weſtminſter Abby, where yet remains his Effigies lying on his Monument of Free-

ſtone

ſtone in St. John Baptiſt's Chapel, habited in his Pontificalibus, which has this Inſcription on it, wrong in the Date.

Hic jacet Tho. Rowthall, Epiſcopus Dunelm. & Regis Hen. VII. Secretarius, qui obiit 1524.

While he ſate Biſhop he built the Dining-Chamber at Aukland, and a third Part of Newcaſtle Bridge over the Tine. On his Death, Cardinal

THOMAS WOLSEY, Archbiſhop of York, Commendatory Biſhop of Wells, reſigning that Biſhoprick, took this in lieu thereof, and had the Temporalities reſtor'd April 30. 1523. and in April 1529. he quitted this in Exchange for Winchester, which he retained till his Death, together with the Archbiſhoprick of York, and Abbotſhip of St. Albans; ſo that what ſome People mention of his being depriv'd of St. Albans by the Premunire, An. 1530. ſeems a Miſtake: for in a Book of Inſtitutions of St. Albans I have peruſed, I find he gave in September, about two Months before his Death, Inſtitution to St. Peter's Vicaridge in the Town of St. Albans, by his Title of Commendatory Abbot. On his quitting this See, Anne Bullen, Henry VIIIth's ſecond Queen, had the Profits of it for one Year, till ſuch time as

CUTHBERT TONSTALL, Biſhop of London, became tranſlated hither, and had the Temporalities reſtored March 25. 1530. His firſt Preferments were the Rectory of Harrow Co. Middleſex, Maſterſhip of the Rolls, Archdeaconry of Cheſter, Deanary of Sarum, and a Prebend in the Cathedrals of Lincoln and Sarum. He was a Man of incomparable good Learning, and endowed with rare Virtues, which the Brevity of my Deſign does not allow me to expatiate upon, ſo muſt refer to printed Authors for an Account of him; and ſhall only remark here, that while he ſate Biſhop, he built a fair Chapel and Gatehouſe at his Palace at Durham, into which by leaden Pipes he brought Spring or Conduit Water. In King Edward VIth's Reign, he was depriv'd; that Prince's Courtiers, who coveted the Revenues of this See, having prevailed to diſſolve the Biſhoprick by Act of Parliament, in order to get it for Dudley Duke of Northumberland, in like manner as Seymour Duke of Somerſet, had got the Eſtate of the Biſhoprick of Wells. But, as a certain Author remarks, the viſible Hand that wrote on the Wall while Belſhaſar was quaffing in the holy Veſſels, would not ſuffer this Morſel to be ſwallow'd; and ſo the two Biſhopricks became reſtor'd, whilſt the two Dukes were cut ſhorter by the Head. In ſome Accounts I have ſeen, King Edward, about ſix Months before his Death, is ſaid in in Nov. 1552. to have nominated Robert Horne, Dean of this Church, to the Biſhoprick; but he miſliking the Conditions, Nicholas Ridley, Biſhop of London, was deſigned to be removed hither, if the King's Death had not prevented it, which made way for Queen Mary's Acceſſion to the Crown, who forthwith repealed all that had been done in Prejudice to Biſhop Tonſtal and this Church, and reſtored back again all the Poſſeſſions, except Durham-Houſe in the Strand, which was given to her Siſter the Lady Elizabeth for Life, and came, as already mention'd, again to the See, on her Death, An. 1602. ſhe holding it all the forty four Years of her Reign; at the beginning of which, An. 1558. Biſhop Tonſtall was a ſecond time depriv'd, and committed Priſoner to Lambeth-Houſe, where he ended his Days in great Peace of Mind and Conſcience, in the eighty fifth Year of his Age, Nov. 18. 1559. and was buried in Lambeth Pariſh-Church, with this Epitaph on his Grave-ſtone.

Anglia Cuthbertum Tonſtallum moeſta requirit,
Cujus ſumma domi laus erat atque foris.
Rhetor Arithmeticus Juris Conſultus & aequi,
Legatuſque fuit, denique Præſul erat.
Annorum ſatur & magnorum plenus Honorum,
Vertitur in Cineres Aureus iſte ſenex.

In his Will, proved Jan. 30. 1559. he order'd to be buried before the Crucifix, or Rood Loft, of Durham Cathedral, if he died in his Dioceſe; or, if he died at London, in St. Paul's Cathedral, where he had been Biſhop, near Thomas Linacre.

James Pilkington, S. T. B. after the Deprivation of Tonſtall, when the Church had been kept vacant ſome time, had the Royal Aſſent to his Election Feb. 20. 1560. and became conſecrated March 2. and had the Temporalities reſtored March 25. 1561. But in the Patent for the Reſtitution there was left out of it the Manours of Norham and Norhamſhire, Allerton and Allertonſhire, Crayke, Sedberge, Eaſington, Cotton, Monvill, and Gateſide; but moſt of theſe he got reſtored back again on certain Terms. While he ſate here, he was, as may be ſeen in a Book already cited, entitled, The Rites of Durham, too complying with Whittingham, the Puritanical Dean of his Church, in ſuffering him to deface the antient Monuments in the Cathedral. He died January 23. 1575. as A. Wood tells us, at Biſhops-Aukland, leaving behind him ſeveral Children, and was for a time buried there, but afterwards taken up, and reburied in Durham Cathedral; where was on his Graveſtone ſeveral Verſes engraven on Braſs Plates, long ſince defaced: However, I having met with them in a MS. in the Bodleian Library, ſhall thence give them, with other Inſcriptions now loſt, which I copied out.

His Succeſſor was

RICHARD BARNES, Biſhop of Carliſle, who when he took that Biſhoprick, obtained leave to hold his other Preferments with it, which were the Chancellorſhip of York Cathedral, and the Rectories Stokeſly, Stangrave, and Romaldkirk, all in Yorkſhire. He was elected to this See April 5. 1577. had the Royal Aſſent May 9. and received the Temporalities May 29. following. On his firſt coming hither, he had a great Conteſt with Biſhop Pilkington's Widow for Dilapidations, and began rectifying ſome Abuſes, complaining much of his Predeceſſor Pilkington's Remiſſneſs, and ill Government, and that the Dioceſe hated him for baniſhing Superſtition. But being a little ſettled, he fell to plundering his See, alienating all he could from it, granting to Queen Elizabeth ſeveral Manours; among which, as Gardiner tells us in his Account of Newcaſtle, was Gateſide, which he leaſed to the Queen April 28. 1582. with all the Manours, Cole-pits, and Colemines in Gateſide and Whickham, with the Commons, Waſtes, Parks, &c. at the Rent of 90 l. per Ann. Theſe, as Gardiner ſays, the Queen gave to the Earl of Leiceſter, who ſold his Right to Sutton of the Charterhouſe, and he convey'd his Intereſt to the Mayor and Burgeſſes of Newcaſtle for 12000 l. This Author farther informs us, that Dr. Cradock, Archdeacon of Northumberland, atteſted that this Leaſe was worth 50000 l. per Ann. Having ſate Biſhop here about eleven Years, and got all he could for his Wife and Children out of what he could ſcrape up after his Payment of 1000 l. per Ann. impoſed on his Predeceſſor for the Maintenance of Berwick Gariſon, he died Aug. 24. 1587. aged 55. (and ſo Fuller had no occaſion to call him a very aged Man) and was buried in the Choir under a Graveſtone which had this Inſcription on a Plate of Braſs, now periſhed.

MATTHEW HUTTON, S. T. P. Dean of York, ſucceeded, being elected June 9. 1589. confirm'd July 26. and conſecrated July 27. He was Anno 1594. tranſlated to York, (where ſee more of him) and ſucceeded by

TOBIAS MATTHEW, S. T. P. Dean of Chriſt-Church, Oxon. His Conge d' Elire was dated March 25. the Royal Aſſent April 7. and Temporalities were reſtored him March 29. 1595. He demiſed to King James the Caſtle, &c. of Norham and Norhamſhire, and Elandſhire, which the Dean and Chapter confirmed April 2. 1604. but had ſome Recompence made his See by the Confirmation of Durham-Houſe, London, and Abatement of the 1000*l. per Ann.* to Berwick. He was Aug. 18. 1607. having obliged the King in paſſing ſome Grants, tranſlated to York, and ſucceeded by

WILLIAM JAMES, S. T. P. Archdeacon of Coventry, Maſter of Univerſity-College, firſt Dean of Chriſt-Church, Oxon, and afterwards of this Church; conſecrated Sept. 7. 1606. He died May 12. 1617. and was buried in this Cathedral, being the laſt Biſhop interred here, where, beſides himſelf, Pilkington, and Barnes, no Biſhop has been buried ſince 1457. On his Graveſtone was his Effigies in Braſs, holding a Bible in his Hands, and underneath, on a Plate of Braſs this Inſcription, torn off by ſacrilegious Hands:

In

In his Will, proved July 4. 1617. he directs his Burial here, gives 5 l. to Kingham Poor in Oxfordſhire, 20 l. to Durham, and 20 l. to Aukland Poor; the reſt to his Family. Executor his Son Francis. On his Death,

Richard Neile, S.T.P. Biſhop of Lincoln, was tranſlated to this See, and confirm'd herein Oct. 9. 1617. While he ſate here, he expended 3000 l. on his Epiſcopal Houſes, which, as Dr. Heylin tells us, were left in ſuch Decay by his Predeceſſor, that he was neceſſitated to go about it immediately. He was Feb. 27. 1627. removed hence to Wincheſter, and from thence tranſlated to York; (where ſee more of him.) On his quitting this See,

George Monteigne, S.T.P. Maſter of the Savoy, Dean of Weſtminſter, firſt Biſhop of Lincoln, and then of London, was, Anno 1627. nominated to this Biſhoprick; but having no Mind to leave London, he deferred accepting it till 1628. when York falling, he gladly took it, July 1. 1628. in order to go thither; upon which

John Howson, S.T.P. firſt Vicar of Bampton Co. Oxon, and Rector of Brightwell Co. Berks, then Canon and Biſhop of Oxford, was tranſlated thence hither Sept. 28. 1628. This primitive good Biſhop died Feb. 6. 1631. aged 75. and was buried in St. Paul's Cathedral, London, under a handſome Marble, without any Inſcription upon it, and ſucceeded by Thomas Moreton, S.T.P. Biſhop of Lichfeild, tranſlated and confirmed Biſhop here July 2. 1632. For a Character of this good Biſhop, ſee what is in our printed Authors, beſides his publiſhed Life. In his Will, dated Feb. 26. 1658. and proved Oct. 1. 1660. he bequeathed his Chalice to All Saints Church in York, and 10 l. to the Poor of the Pariſh where he died. In the Codicil is a long Profeſſion of his Faith. He died and was buried at Eaſton-Manduit Co. Northampton, with this Inſcription on his Monument, which gives a farther Account of him and all his Preferments.

JOHN COSIN, S.T.P. Prebendary of this Church, Rector of Barnſpeth, Archdeacon of Eaſt-Riding, Maſter of Peterhouſe, Cambridge, and Dean of Peterborough, conſecrated Dec. 2. 1660. This good Biſhop, an Account of whom ſee in his printed Life by Dr. Baſire, died at London, Jan. 15. 1671. aged 77. and was buried at Biſhops-Aukland,

Aukland, April 29. 1672. where he had for the moſt part rebuilt the Palace and Chapel, with this Inſcription:

His Will, and thoſe of his Predeceſſors Tho. Moreton and William James, are in the Prerogative-Office at London; as are the Wills of Biſhops Richard de Kellaw, Tho. Hatfeild, Walter Skirlaw, and Tho. Langley, in the Archives at Lambeth. After his Death the Duke of Monmouth is ſaid to have receiv'd the Rents of this Biſhoprick, in the Vacancy, for near three Years; during which time the City and County of Durham were by Act of Parliament enabled to ſend four Repreſentatives to Parliament, which they never had done, unleſs in Cromwell's Uſurpation, when Stockton Caſtle, one of the Biſhop's Palaces, was demoliſh'd. This having been endeavoured in Biſhop Coſin's Time, and oppoſed by him, Care was taken to eſtabliſh it before the Tranſlation of his Succeſſor took place, who was NATHANIEL CREW, LL. D. Rector of Lincoln College Oxon, Dean and Precentor of Chicheſter, removed to this See Oct. 22. 1674. from that of Oxford, which he held with the Rectory of Whitney in that Dioceſe from 1671. This generous Biſhop became, by the Death of his elder Brother, who died without Iſſue Male, alſo a temporal Baron, by the Title of Lord Crew of Stene in Northamptonſhire, where departing this Life, aged 88. on Monday Sept. 18. 1722. he was buried in the Chapel there Sept. 30. following, with this Inſcription on his Monument.

Near this Place lyeth the Body
Of the Right Reverend and Right Honourable
NATHANIEL LORD CREW,
Lord Biſhop of DURHAM, and Baron of STENE,
Fifth Son of John Lord CREW.
He was born Jan. 31. 1633.

Was

Was conſecrated Biſhop of OXFORD 1671.
Tranſlated to DURHAM in 1674.
Was Clerk of the Cloſet and Privy-Counſellor
In the Reigns of King CHARLES II. and King JAMES II.
And died Sept. 18. 1722.
Aged 88.

Having no Children (not marrying till King William's Time, in whoſe Reign the Title fell to him, which is now by his Death extinguiſh'd) he became a great Benefactor to the Univerſity of Oxford, and particularly to Lincoln College, where he founded ſeveral Scholarſhips, and augmented the Headſhip and Fellowſhips. He held this See forty ſeven Years, as he had done that of Oxford three, continuing a Biſhop fifty Years, three Months and two Days, being a longer time than any Engliſhman ever enjoy'd that Honour, except Tho. Bourchier Archbiſhop of Caterbury, who held the Sees of Worceſter, Ely, and Canterbury, fifty one Years and twenty one Days. On his Death,

WILLIAM TALBOT, S.T.P. Dean of Worceſter, firſt Biſhop of Oxford, and afterwards of Salisbury, was tranſlated hither from Saliſbury in October 1722.

DEANS of DURHAM.

HUGH WHITEHEAD, S.T.P. laſt Prior, was conſtituted firſt Dean by the Foundation-Charter dated May 12. 1541. The Hiſtory of Durham ſays he died at London 1548. and was buried in the Minories there; which Author, A. Wood, in his Athenæ, alſo mentions; and tells us this Epitaph was placed over his Graveſtone, tho' it is now periſhed, as I found when I ſearch'd that Church.

Here lyeth the Body of Hugh Whitehead, the laſt Prior of Durham, and firſt Dean thereof, who died at London ——— ——— ——— and was buried in the Church of the Minories, Anno ——— ———

ROBERT HORN, S.T.P. ſucceeded, it being expreſly ſaid in the Patent 5 Edw. VI. Part 3. That the King preſented him Nov. 18. 1551. on the Vacancy by the Death of Whitehead, by which it ſeems as if Whitehead did not die ſo ſoon as 1548. or rather that the Deanary was kept vacant three Years, which I am apt to think it might. On Queen

Queen Mary's Acceſſion to the Crown, Anno 1553. Horne was depriv'd, and

THOMAS WATSON, S.T.P. Rector of North Crawley, Co. Bucks, appointed Dean in his Place Nov. 18. 1553. He was Anno 1557. made Biſhop of Lincoln, of which he was deprived by Queen Elizabeth in 1559. and committed Priſoner to Wisbich Caſtle, Co. Cambridge, where he died Sept. 27. 1587. and was buried obſcurely in Wisbich Church. On his Promotion to Lincoln,

THOMAS ROBERTSON, S. T. B. was preſented by the Queen July 23. 1557. He was Anno 1559. depriv'd, as Biſhop Watſon had been, by Queen Elizabeth, for his Religion, and took into Cuſtody, and

ROBERT HORNE became reſtored to this Dignity 1559. who being ſoon after made Biſhop of Winchester,

RALPH SKINNER, A. M. became inſtalled Dean, March 5. 1560. He died Anno 1563. and was, as I judge, buried at Sedgfeild, where he was Rector. On his Death,

WILLIAM WHITTINGHAM had this Dignity conferred upon him July 19. 1563. of whom ſee an Account in A. Wood, and the Hiſtory of Durham, wherein he and Dean Horne are accuſed of making violent havock of all the antient Tombs, &c. in the Church, converting the Stone Coffins to divers profane Uſes, for their Wives, &c. to ſalt Meat in them in the Deanary-Houſe. He died June 10. 1579. having been, as 'tis ſaid by ſome Writers, never ordained a Miniſter of the Church of England, and was buried in the Cathedral, where his Monument, ſoon after the erecting it, met with the ſame Fate as he had treated others. On it was this Inſcription :

In obitum doctiſſimi Viri Gulielmi Whittinghami Decani olim Dunelmenſis, Mariti Catherinæ Sororis Johannis Calvin Theologi, qui obiit Anno 1579.

Quæ Whittinghami cernis Monumenta ſepulti,

THOMAS WILSON, LL. D. (of whom see an Account in Strype) succeeded, being installed Feb. 5. 1579. He was divers times employ'd in Embassies by Queen Elizabeth, and made by her Master of St. Catharine's Hospital, London, where no doubt he lies buried, tho' without any Inscription; for his Funeral was celebrated there June 17. 1581. After his Death this Dignity lay vacant two Years, when it was bestowed upon

TOBIAS MATTHEWS, S. T. P. Rector of Bishops-Weremouth, installed Aug. 31. 1581. He was, Anno 1594. made Bishop, and succeeded by

WILLIAM JAMES, S. T. P. installed June 5. 1596. He was in like manner promoted to the Bishoprick, and succeeded the same Year of his Promotion, by

ADAM NEWTON, installed Sept. 27. 1606. He was An. 1620. being wealthy, advanced to the Dignity of a Baronet; and dying Sept. 13. 1626. was buried at Charlton, near Greenwich, in Kent, having, after taking upon him his secular Honour, renounced his Ecclesiastical Preferments. His Successor in this Deanary was

RICHARD HUNT, S. T. P. installed May 29. 1620. on the Resignation of Adam Newton. He died Nov. 2. 1638. being also Prebendary of Canterbury, and was buried in this Cathedral, with an Inscription on his Monument, printed in part in Le Neve, who having left out the following Verses, I shall here insert them, as I shall also the whole Epitaph, which is as follows:

Richardi Hunt Decani Eccl. Cathed. beatam Animam e Cœlo reducem, ad Tubam, olim Arch-Angeli, hic expectat Socium Corpus Richardi Hunt, Decani hujus Eccles. per 20 *Annos. WALTER BELCANQUALL, S. T. P. ſucceeded, being inſtalled May 14. 1639. He died Dec. 25. 1645. and was buried in Chirke Church, Co. Denbigh, with this Inſcription on his Monument:

M. S. Hic ſitus eſt vir eximius Gualterus Balcanquallus, *S. S. Theol. His Succeſſor was

CHRISTOPHER POTTER, S. T. P. Dean of Worceſter, nominated by the King in Jan 1645. But he dying March 3. following, was buried in Queen's-College, Oxon, where he was Provoſt, having been never inſtalled, and ſucceeded by

WILLIAM FULLER, S. T. P. Dean of Ely, preſented March 6. 1645. He died May 12. 1659. and was buried in St. Vedaſt alias Forſter-Lane Church, London, with this Inſcription on his Monument:

William Fuller, D. D. Vicar of St. Giles's Cripplegate, first Dean of Ely, afterwards Dean of Durham, Chaplain to King James, and afterwards to King Charles I. famous for Learning, Prudence and Piety, ſpoiled of all for his Loyalty to his Prince, lived obſcurely, and when denied Reſt in his own Church, he found it here. Born at Hadley in Suffolk, died on Holy-Thurſday, May 12. 1659. Put up by his Daughter Jane, Wife of Brian Walton, Biſhop of Cheſter.

His Succeſſor was

JOHN BARWICK, S. T. P. inſtalled Nov. 1. 1660. He was in October next Year, removed to the Deanary of St. Paul's Cathedral, of which ſee an Account in his printed Life, and ſucceeded by

JOHN SUDBURY, S. T. P. admitted Dec. 21. 1661. and inſtalled Feb. 15. following. He died An. 1684. aged eighty, and was buried in the Cathedral, with this Inſcription:

Quicquid mortale habuit, heic depoſuit in Spe beatæ Reſurrectionis, Johannis Sudbury, S. T. P. Pietate, Eruditione, antiquis Moribus, Gravitate, Integritate Vitæ, & ſancta Canitie, Vir vere reverendus; qui in funeſtiſſimis magnæ Rebellionis Temporibus magno Animo, & inconcuſſa in Regem Fidelitate multa perpeſſus Regno & Eccleſiæ Numinis Favore reſtauratis, Prebendarius primum Weſtmonaſterienſis, dein Decanus Dunelmenſis factus eo munere per Annos xxii. *& quod excurrit cum laude functus deceſſit, An. His Succeſſor was

DENNIS GREENVILL, S. T. P. inſtalled Dec. 14. 1684. He was deprived Feb. 1. 1690. on King William and Queen Mary's Acceſſion to the Crown, and retiring into France on Attendance of King James, died there at Paris, April 7. 1703. and was buried in the lower End of St. Innocents Church-yard in that City. On his Deprivation,

THOMAS COMBER, S. T. P. became nominated to this Dignity April 23. 1691. He died, and was buried at Stonegrave, Co. York, with this Inſcription:

M. S. Siſte Viator, Gradum moræ non erit diſpendium ſcire, quanti Viri venerandos premis Cineres, exuvias Mortales (perenni Felicitati maturos) heic deponi voluit Thomas Comber, *S. T. On his Death,

JOHN MONTAGUE, S. T. P. Maſter of Trinity College Cambridge, ſucceeded, being admitted Jan. 19. 1699. living 1723. Maſter of Sherborne Hoſpital.

ARCHDEACONS of DURHAM.

THE Value of this Dignity, with the Rectory of Eaſington annex'd to it, lying in this County, is rated for Firſt-Fruits, Anno 1534. at 100*l.*

LEOFWYN, or LEOFWYNE, who ſeems no doubt to have been the firſt Archdeacon of Durham, being murder'd May 12. 1080. this Office was, as Le Neve intimates, for near thirty one Years veſted in the Priors of Durham; the firſt of which was

* ALDWIN, who dying April 12. 1087. was ſucceeded by

* TURGOT, on whoſe being made Biſhop of St. Andrews in Scotland, Anno 1108.

MICHAEL ſucceeded Anno 1108. in Biſhop Ralph's Time, and reſumed the Title and Office as a diſtinct Perſon from the Prior. After him

ROBERT occurs Archdeacon, Anno 1129. In which Office

WASO, or WAZO, ſucceeded Ann. 1147. as did

* RANULPH, about 1150. and

LAURENCE, An. 1153. after whom I find

WILLIAM poſſeſs'd of it Anno 1174. as I do

JOHN, about 1180. and

BUCHARD de Pudſey about 1190. He died Dec. 6. 1196. and was, as I judge, ſucceeded by

AIMERICK

AIMERICK de Talboys, Nephew to Biſhop Philip de Poictiers, for I find him poſſeſs'd of it 1198. and 1214. next Year after which he is ſaid to have been appointed High-Sheriff of Northumberland. His Succeſſor ſeems to have been

WILLIAM, who occurs An. 1219. I take him to be the ſame with

WILLIAM de Lanim, whom I meet with poſſeſſed of it 1226, and 1236. He died, as I find by a Note, An. 1249. Next Year after which I meet with

THOMAS de Aneſty, poſſeſſed of it 1250. as I do

RICHARD de Agatha, in Anglia Sacra, An. 1266. who ſeems to me to be miſtaken; for

* ROBERT de Sancta Agatha, whom I meet with An. 1271. Soon after which

ANTHONY BEK held it, viz. An. 1274. He was An. 1283. made Biſhop, and ſucceeded by

WILLIAM de Luda, or Lowth, for he held it 1284. and being An. 1290. made Biſhop of Ely, had, as I judge, for his Succeſſor

* S. de Farlington, who held it 1296. As did

THOMAS de Goldesburgh, An. 1311. On whoſe Death, which happen'd Dec. 22. 1333. the King conferred it upon

AUMERICK de Bellamount about Dec. 31. 1333. However the Biſhop beſtowed it upon

ROBERT de Taunton, Jan. 3. 1333. He died An. 1335. being alſo Prebendary of St. Paul's, London; but whether he was permitted to hold this Dignity I cannot ſay. After him I meet with

* AUMERICK de Bellamount, the King's Clerk, poſſeſs'd of it 1336. and 1338. As I do with

THOMAS de Nevill, An. 1356. He died An. 1362. being Prebendary of Bole in the Church of York, and was, I preſume, ſucceeded by

* WILLIAM de Weſtle; for he enjoy'd it Aug. 15. 1362. After him I find mention of

* ALEXANDER de Nevill, being nominated from it 1374. to the See of York, when I preſume the Pope conferred it upon

* GEBAVEN, a Roman Cardinal, who, as Fox in his Martyrs, Vol. I. p. 563. informs us, held it 1378. when it was valued at 200 Marks per An. I preſume he was depoſed that Year, and

* WILLIAM de Baſingſtoke, alias dictus, Munday de Baſingſtoke, nominated to it by the King or Biſhop, Anno 1279. However,

* AGIPITUS de Columpna Cardinalis S. Priſcæ, held it 1380. as we learn from Rymer's Fœdera, Vol. VII. p. 276. In which Author we alſo find in the ſame Volume, p. 320.

PILEUS

PILEUS Cardinalis S. Praxedis, mention'd Anno 1381. The next I meet with, is,

THOMAS de Weſton, Prebendary of Grendall in York Cathedral. He held it 1393. and dying Anno 1408. was ſucceeded by

ALAN de Newark, Anno 1408. He enjoy'd it but a very little while, for at the End of the ſame Year

JOHN HONYNGAM, LL. D. was collated to it, viz. about Nov. 1408. He occurs poſſeſs'd of it May 4. 1416. as does

JOHN KEMPE, An. 1417. On whoſe Promotion to the See of Rocheſter, An. 1419.

* ROBERT GILBERT ſucceeded, for I find him poſſeſs'd of it An. 1420. He was An. 1436. made Biſhop of London; but who ſucceeded him I cannot aſcertain, unleſs I ſhould conjecture that

WILLIAM LE SCROOP was 1437. promoted to it, and held it twenty ſix Years, which is very probable. He died, and was buried in York Cathedral, with this Epitaph:

Hic jacet Mr. Will. le Scroop Archid. Dunelme, ac Reſidentiarius in Eccl. Coll. Sancti Johannis Beverlaci, & Sancti Wilfridi Rippon, qui obiit 25 Die Maii 1463. Cujus Animae propitietur Deus.

His Succeſſor, as I judge, was

RALPH BOOTH, An. 1463. and that Laurence Booth, made Biſhop here An. 1457. before his Tranſlation to York, collated him to it; as he afterwards collated him about 1480. to York Archdeaconry, and that he held both till his Death, An. 1497. when

ROGER LEYBORNE ſeems to have ſucceeded; for I find him poſſeſs'd of it 1499. In 1504. he was made Biſhop of Carliſle, and, as I judge,

* JOHN BOERNIUS, or Boerius Genenſis, a Foreigner, was intruded on this Dignity by the Pope. On whoſe quitting it An. 1515.

WILLIAM FRANKLIN, B. D. ſucceeded An. 1515. He was An. 1536. made Dean of Windſor, and about the ſame time Rector of Chalfonte Co. Bucks. In 1545. being Maſter of St. Giles's Hoſpital at Kepyer, he ſurrender'd that Hoſpital to the King's Hands, as he did good Part of the Revenues of Windſor Deanary; for which being complained of An. 1553. he was forced to quit his Deanary, but kept his other Preferments; and dying about 1555. was probably buried obſcurely at St. Giles's, Chalfonte. On his Death,

BERNARD GILPIN, B. D. ſucceeded in this Archdeaconry 1556. but quitted it in about four Years, contenting himſelf only with the Rectory ſtory of Houghton le Spring in this County, and refuſing to accept of the See of Carliſle, he died, and was buried at Houghton, March 4. 1583. On his Reſignation,

JOHN EBDEN, B. D. became admitted Archdeacon May 22. 1560. but being richly beneficed in Ely and Wincheſter Dioceſes, he quitted this to

JOHN PILKINGTON, B. D. collated Dec. 5. 1563. He died An. 1603. and was buried in the Cathedral without any Monument, and ſucceeded by

WILLIAM MORETON, B. D. collated Nov. 19. 1603. He died, and was buried in St. Nicholas Church in Newcaſtle, July 18. 1621. and was ſucceeded by

GABRIEL CLERK, or CLARK, S. T. P. collated Oct. 11. 1621. He died, and was buried in the Cathedral, with this Epitaph on his Graveſtone:

J. H. S. Hic jacet Dom. Gabriel Clark, S. S. Theol. Archid. Dunelm. & hujus Eccl. Subdecanus, qui mortuus eſt, An. 1662. Maii 10.

His Succeſſor was

DENNIS GRANVILL, S. T. P. collated Sept. 16. 1662. On whoſe Deprivation of this and the Deanary of Durham (where ſee more of him)

ROBERT BOOTH, B. D. ſucceeded, being collated May 15. 1691. living 1723. Dean of Briſtol.

ARCHDEACONS of Northumberland.

THIS Dignity, with Howick Rectory, Co. Northumberland, annex'd, was valued 1534. at 36*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*

ROBERT held this Office An. 1140. as did
RALPH An. 1141. and 1153. and
WILLIAM Anno 1160.
DURAND enjoy'd it Anno 1174. as did
RICHARD de Mariſco, An. 1212. He was 1217. made Biſhop, and ALAN de Lenne placed in his room, as I ſuppoſe; for he held it 1219.
THOMAS de Aneſty was preferred to it April 5. 1548. and quitted it 1250. for Durham Archdeaconry.

THOMAS

THOMAS de Hereford died poſſeſſed of it 1253. in Auguſt. The next I meet with is

RICHARD de Middleton; he held it 1270. as did

NICHOLAS de Wells 1310, and 1311.

ROBERT de Pickering was from it next Year, 1312. made Dean of York; having, I preſume, quitted it An. 1314. to

THOMAS de Charleton, LL. D. In 1327. he was made Biſhop of Hereford, and ſucceeded by JOHN de Carleton, or Charleton, promoted to it by the King, Feb. 16. 1328. The next I find is

* EDMOND HOWARD, An. 1343. and then I meet with

* WILLIAM de Shrewsbury, about 1355. He was about 1360. made Prebendary of Prees, and Archdeacon of Salop in Lichfeild Cathedral, and ſo I ſuppoſe quitted this to

JOHN BAMBURGH, who occurs 1361, and 1362. in June. His Succeſſor was

* RICHARD de Bernard's-Caſtle, collated Sept. 30. 1362. He is no doubt the ſame Perſon mention'd in the Rites of Durham, that made Bede's Shrine in the Cathedral or Abby, An. 1370. and lies buried by it. He ſeems to have quitted it to

* THOMAS DUFFEILD, whom I find collated Aug. 19. 1369. to whom ſucceeded

WILLIAM de Beverlaco or Beverley, collated about Jan. 1369. the ſame Year; and to him

JOHN DERBY, preſented to it as the King's Title, Dec. 3. 1370. The next is,

JOHN REFAME, who occurs 1386, and 1397. As does

* JOHN de Dalton, An. 1401. and

* JOHN RICKENGALE, An. 1408. He reſigned it next Year to

* HENRY ETON, for I find him poſſeſs'd of it 1410. However

* JOHN RICKENGALE came into it again An. 1411. and being 1426. made Biſhop of Chicheſter,

* MARMADUKE LUMLEY ſeems to have ſucceeded; for I meet with him An. 1427. He was An. 1430. made Biſhop of Carliſle; but who ſucceeded him I am to ſeek, the next in my Catalogue being

ROBERT MASON, LL. D. made An. 1481. Precentor of Lincoln. When he came in I connot find, and it is hard to preſume he held it ſixty three Years, tho' he died aged, and was buried in Lincoln Cathedral, with this Inſcription on his Graveſtone:

Orate pro Anima Magistri Roberti Mason, Legum Doctoris, Archidiaconi Northumbriæ, & Precentoris hujus Ecclesiae, qui obiit An. Dom. 1493. His Successor was

Ralph Scroop, instituted Feb. 23. 1493. He died An. 1516. being Prebendary of Lincoln, and Rector of Hambledon Co. Bucks, and was no doubt succeeded by

Robert Davell or Dovell, LL. D. Canon of Exeter and York; for I meet with him possess'd of it 1518. two Years after Scroope's Death. He also enjoy'd it 1541. and dying, as I judge, An. 1557. was succeeded by William Carter, S. T. P. for I find him collated to it Nov. 3. 1558. He was An. 1561. sentenced, as being a Popish Recusant, to remain at or near Thirske in Yorkshire, having been the preceding Year deprived of his Preferments by Queen Elizabeth, who nominated

William King to this Dignity Jan. 1. 1560. He died An. 1590. being Prebendary of Canterbury and Windsor, and was buried at Windsor, having many Years before his Death been deprived of this, as I suppose, on some Tenets of his Religion, which he might afterwards comply with.

Ralph Lever, A. M. Rector of Stanhope, succeeded, being collated Aug. 21. 1566. on King's Deprivation. He resigned it An. 1573. and was succeeded by

Francis Bunny, A. M. collated Oct. 20. 1573. He resigned it, being made Rector of Ryton Co. Durham, and was succeeded by

James Bold, S. T. P. collated Sept. 25. 1578. He resigned it An. 1581. and was succeeded by

Ralph Tonstall, A. M. collated Oct. 29. 1581. He died in March 1618. being also Prebendary of this Cathedral and York, and Rector of Long-Newton in this Diocese, and was succeeded by

Reverendo admodum in Christo Patri

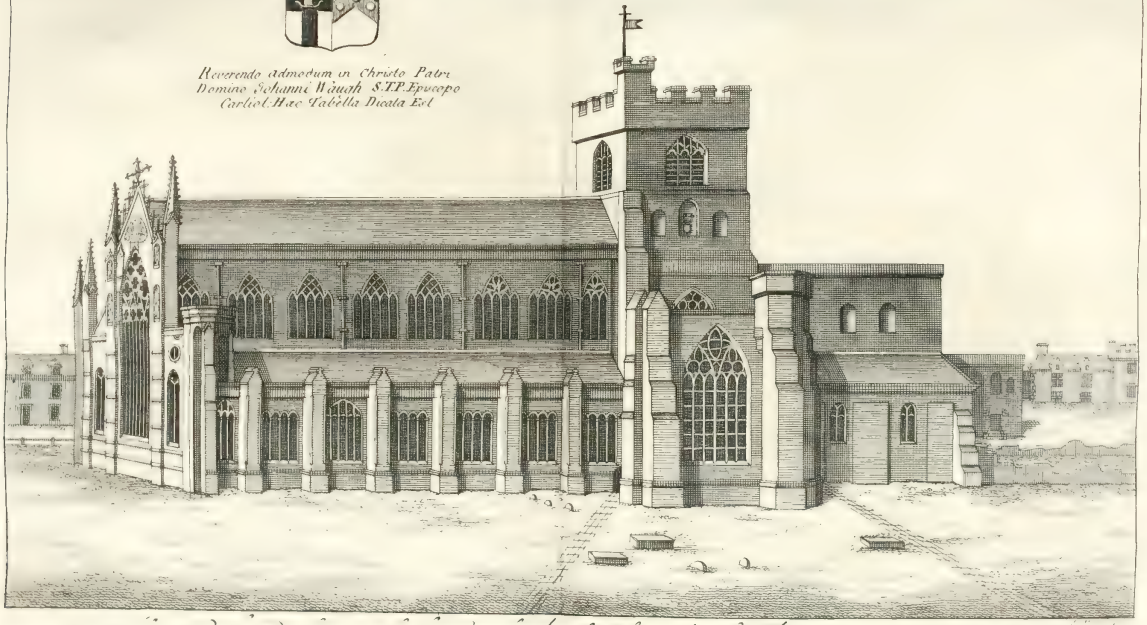
Carliol. Hæc Tabella Dicata Est



A North Prospect of the Cathedral Church of S.t Mary at Carlisle

Tho' in my Account here are reckon'd one hundred thirty one Churches and Chapels. The Clergy's Tenths amount to no more than 161 l. 1*s.* 7 d. the leaſt of any of the Engliſh Biſhopricks.

CATHEDRAL of CARLISLE

HAS a Dean, four Prebendaries, who have all Houſes near the Cathedral, eight Minor-Canons, a Subdeacon, four Lay-Clerks, or Singing-Men, a Maſter of the Grammar-School, ſix Choriſters, a Maſter of the Choriſters, ſix Almſmen, a Virger, two Sextons, a Porter, Barber, Cook, Under-Cook, Divinity Reader, a Court-keeper, and Clerk of the Court, in all forty four, by King Henry the VIIIth's Foundation-Charter, Anno 1542. at which time he converted the old Priory, or Convent, into a College of Seculars, allotting his new Dean and Prebendaries Apartments out of the Monks Habitations.

By an old Valor made on the firſt Endowment, or ſoon after, I find the Deanary rated at 126 l. and each Prebend at 22 l. 5*s.*

The firſt Builder of this Church was Walter, Deputy of theſe Parts under King William Rufus, who dedicated it to the Bleſſed Virgin. But it being a mean Fabrick in reſpect to other Cathedrals, Biſhop Gilbert de Welton, with the Aſſiſtance of ſome of the Priors, and help of Money, as I preſume, left by Robert Ecclesfeild, Founder of Queen's-College, Oxon, began the Foundation of a new Choir about the Year 1354. which was perfected by his Succeſſors, Biſhops Tho. de Appleby and William Strickland, and the Contributions of the Nobility and Gentry in theſe Parts, as may be judged by their Arms on the Roof, which is of Wood neatly vaulted, and has theſe Coats painted on it, viz. Peircy, Warren, Montague, Mortimer, Clifford, Greyſtock, Beauchamp, Dacre, Muſgrave, Fitzhugh, Nevill, Vaulce, Curwen, Lamplugh, Lowther.

The other Parts of the Church, as the Croſs Iſle, Tower in the Middle, and Weſt End, are very meanly built, with ſmall Windows, darkiſh and narrow; and the Roof lies low, like a common Pariſh-Church; as may be ſeen in Mr. Kyp's Draught, which is here alſo given, foraſmuch as it is the only true Repreſention of it, the Draught in the Monaſticon, by Daniel King, which is printed alſo on a Sheet of imperial Paper, and in a leſſer Size, being in no reſpect like it, and may paſs as well for any other Church as this. This Church contains in Length from Eaſt to Weſt now only 219 Foot; tho' when the whole Weſtern Part was ſtanding, it was 81 Foot longer: But this, with the Square of the Cloiſters, being given in the Ichnography, as it ſtood before it was demoliſh'd about 1646. I need only refer the Reader thereto. The Breadth of the Body, and Side-Iſles of the Choir Part, is 71 Foot; equal to which is the Height of the Vaulting or Roof. The Length of the Croſs Iſle from North to South is 124 Foot; being anſwerable to the Height of the Tower, which is 123 Foot; in it hang five Bells, the only Peal of ſo great a number in the Dioceſe, except at Penreth. Here are no Inſcriptions, or one Braſs, except Biſhop Bell's and Biſhop Robinſon's, before 1660. neither can I find mention of any that remained here an hundred Years ago, except this one, painted on the Wall on the South Side, for one Skelton, who died An. 1420. and is called here Sir John Skelton.

Orate pro Anima Johannis Skelton Armigeri, quondam Servientis illuſtriſſime Regine —— Henrici Quinti, & pro Anima Margarete, Uxoris ejus, & pro Animabus omnium Liberorum eorundem, quibus Animabus propitietur Deus. Amen.

In a MSS. notat c. 39. in the College of Arms, or Heralds-Office, London, is a Delineation of this Inſcription of Skelton, and of Biſhops Bell and Robinſon's Epitaphs, and Draughts of thirty one Coats of Arms in the Choir, Roof, and Windows, and alſo a Proſpect of the City, which makes but an indifferent Appearance, here being only one ſmall Pariſh-Church without a Steeple, beſides the Cathedral, the Weſtern Part or Nave of which is alſo Parochial, as I have already obſerved in my Account of this Church and its Priors in the firſt Volume of Abbies; to which I beg leave to add, that Thomas Barnaby occurs Prior An. 1433. to whom ſucceeded Tho. Hathwaite, about 1445. who built the Biſhop's Throne at the upper End of the Choir; and to him, as I judge, Thomas Goudibour, who held the Priorſhip An. 1484.

The clear Value of the Lands at the Diſſolution, ſettled on the Dean and Chapter on the new Foundation, An. 1541. was 418 l. per An. They then came into all the Priory's civil Rights, and lived, as the Convent did, in a regular Diſcipline, dining in the Fratry, or Refectory, and allotting the Dor'try, or Dormitory, to the Choriſters and others, till the great Rebellion; ſoon after which, about 1646. all the Buildings of the College, except the Refectory, or Fratry, and ſome few Offices, with eighty one Foot of the Cathedral, together with the whole Cloiſters, were entirely pulled down, under a Pretext of employing the Materials to build Guard-Houſes to ſecure the City. How ill this Sacrilege thrived I have elſewhere told from my learned Friend Dr. Todd's Informations; who farther obſerves, in his Account of the Cathedral, that the Choir is a noble noble and exact Piece of Architecture, the Pillars of the Compoſite Order, of curious Workmanſhip, the Tabernacle-Work of the Stalls entire, made ſeemingly ſoon after 1354. (as he judges by the Arms) by Robert Ecclesfeild, Founder of Queen's-College, Oxon. On the South Side was painted the Legend of St. Auſtin, as was that of St. Cuthbert on the North. Over the Stalls were in Niches ſeveral ſmall Images of Wood; but theſe were taken away about 1649. as has been a ſmall Spire of Lead, of about thirty Foot in Height, pulled off the Top of the Tower. All the publick Buildings, as the Deanary, and four Prebendal Houſes, and two Houſes of Minor Canons within the Precincts, were rebuilt for the moſt part ſince 1660. The two Iſles on each Side of the Choir are arched with Stone; and againſt the Biſhop's Throne, on the Outſide, is a Veſtry lately built. The decanal Stall is here on the left Side the Choir Entrance, that on the right Hand belonging to the Biſhop, who has two Seats here, as being antiently look'd upon as Prinpal or Abbot of the Church, and ſo ſate on the Right Hand of the Prior when he pleaſed.

Alienations of LANDS of the Biſhoprick.

IN the Year 1551. in May, a Letter was wrote by King Edward VI. with an Order to the Biſhop of Carliſle, to make the Lord Clinton a Leaſe of 60 Years of his Manour of Horncaſtle, after the accuſtomed yearly Rent, which was no doubt complied with; for, on Nov. 1. 1552. Biſhop Aldrich leaſed the ſame to him, on a Reſervation of 28 l. per An. to the Biſhoprick.

And in this Reign (viz. Edward VI.) the Rents of Carliſle Houſe in the Strand, were made to the Marqueſs of Worceſter, on a reſerved Rent of 16 l. per An. Thoſe are, as I conceive, now known by the name of Beauford-Buildings; and by it, as Dr. Todd writes me, this See ſuffered a Diminution, tho' otherwiſe it eſcaped, Horncaſtle reverting again to the See An. 1558. on Queen Mary's acceſſion to the Crown. However, we are told in Carleton's Life of Bernard Gilpin, on his mentioning Biſhop Sandes of Worceſter's tempting him to accept of Carliſle Biſhoprick, that he uſes this Argument —— Intelliges interea epiſcopatum illum intactum tibi relinquendum, nihil enim abſcinditur ex eo, ſicut in aliis nonnullis fieri ſolet, ſed & integrum epiſcopatum accipies. And Dr. Heylin, ſpeaking of the ſaid Bernard Gilpin, ſays, he would not take it on the Terms Biſhop Beſt did, viz. ſtripping it of moſt of its its Feathers. But what he ſays, I judge was rather his Belief, or Opinion, than any real Grounds he had for it; becauſe I cannot diſcover any thing done in Prejudice to this See, but what is before-mentioned: For tho' Biſhop Mey, to provide for his Family, would have leaſed ſeveral things to his Wife and Children, yet the Dean and Chapter worthily oppoſing him, they were all ſet aſide.

In the great Rebellion theſe Sales were made of the Lands of this Biſhoprick.

Endowment of the Dean and Chapter of CARLISLE, Pat. 33. Hen. VIII.

THE King erects the Chapter of Carliſle to conſiſt of a Dean and four ſecular Canons, Charter dated May 8. 1542. endows them with the Scite of Carliſle Priory, and Manours of New Bigging, New Lathes, Ellerton, Lorton, Seburgham, Iſakeby, New Bigging in Allerdale, Canaby, Croſsby in Allerdale, Allerthwait, and Little Salkeld, keld, Co. Cumberland; Corbridge Manour, Co. Northumberland, all Parcel of Carliſle Priory; and Lands in Weſtmoreland. Cumberland, Parcel of the ſame; the Rectories and Churches of Morland, and Churches of St. Michael's and St. Laurence in Appleby; Tythes of Hay and Lambs in Morland and Appleby Pariſhes, and Penſion of 16 s. 8 d. from Lowther Rectory; the Advowſon of Morland, Corbridge, Whittingham, Bewcaſtle, and a Moiety of Newcaſtle Tythes; the Priory of Wethered, the Rectories of St. Mary's and St. Cuthbert in Carliſle, and of Sowerby, Aldingham, Kirkland, Thoresby, Bughalkirk, Seburgham, Ireby, Cannonby, Camerton, Heyton, Cromwhitton, Comrewe, Edenhall, and Rowcliff Churches, and half Stany Rectory; Penſions iſſuing out of Hoton, Hokemanby, Caſtle-Carrock, Aghton, and Thoresby, all Parcel of Carliſle Priory; the Advowſons of Hutton, Caſtle-Carrock, and Bewcaſtle, and of the Vicaridges of Sowerby, Thoresby, Edingham, Edinghall, Kirkland; and the Advowſons of the Chantries of St. Katherine's, Holycroſs, and St. Roches, in Carliſle Cathedral, and of St. Alban in St. Cuthbert's Church in Carliſle, and of St. Mary's Chantry in Skelton Church, all Parcel of Carliſle late Monaſtery, with all the Rights and Privileges belonging to the ſaid late Priory, habend. to the Dean and Chapter, and their Succeſſors, in puram & perpetuam Elymoſynam.

The Value of the Temporalities then amounted to 247 l. 9 s. and of the Spiritualities to 282 l. 6 s. 9 d. which made the whole 529 l. 15 s. 9 d. but 82 l. being deducted for neceſſary Payments, the clear Value amounted to under 450 l. per An.

I cannot find any thing alienated from this Grant, the Chapter yet preſenting to the Livings mentioned therein, within the Dioceſe; and alſo to Corbridge Vicaridge, and Whittingham Rectory, Co Northumberland, in Durham Dioceſe.

BISHOPS of CARLISLE.

THIS See, as we find in Anglia Sacra, Vol. I. pag. 282. was erected April 11. 1133. by King Henry I. who took it out of the Dioceſes of York and Durham, and Archdeaconries of Richmond and Durham, making Carliſle an Archdeaconry of itſelf, as well as Biſhoprick.

ATHELWOLD, or ADULPH, Prior of St. Oſwalds, alias Noſtell, was conſecrated firſt Biſhop, at York, May 14. 1133. He died An. 1156.

BERNARD

BERNARD ſucceeded, and was conſecrated An. 1157. On his Death, which happened An. 1186. King Henry II. being at Carliſle, nominated to the Chapter one Paulinus de Leeds to be elected Biſhop; and tho' the Chapter choſe him, and the King offered to augment the Biſhoprick if he would accept thereof, yet he refuſed it, as did two others to whom it was likewiſe offered, and ſo it lay vacant thirty two Years, no one caring to accept thereof, it lying ſo expoſed to the Scots, whom the Canons favouring, and not much regarding the King of England, occaſioned him to complain to the Pope, who at length conſtituted

HUGH, Abbot of Battell, Biſhop here An. 1218. whom all our Authors juſtly reckon the third Biſhop, and he became accordingly conſecrated by Gualo, the Pope's Legate, Jan. 24. 1218. He died on his return from Rome, June 23. 1223. On his Death, as Newcourt informs us, the Cuſtody of this Biſhoprick was committed June 23. 1223. to Theobald de Valen, Archdeacon of Eſſex. But according to Godwin,

WALTER de Malclerk had on that Day, viz. June 23. a Conge d' Elire iſſued out in his Favour, and Oct. 27. 1223. obtained the Royal Aſſent to his Conſecration. Our Authors tell us he reſigned this See June 29. 1246. and retiring to Oxford, died there Oct. 28. 1248. in the Houſe of Grey-Friars. By ſome Accounts I have ſeen, he is reported to have acquired Horncaſtle, Co. Lincoln, to his See. On his quitting of which,

SYLVESTER de Everdon, Archdeacon of Cheſter, and Rector of Hanſlap, Co. Bucks, ſucceeded, being elected An. 1246. and conſecrated Feb. 5. 1247. He died April 1. according to the Annals of Burton, An. 1254. tho' other Accounts place his Death on May 13. 1254. His Succeſſor was

THOMAS Vipount, or de Veteri Ponte, who obtained the Royal Aſſent to his Election Nov. 6. 1253. He died in the Beginning of October 1256. and was ſucceeded by

ROBERT de Chauſe, or Chanſey, called by Leland, Cheverel, the Queen's Chaplain, conſecrated April 10. 1258. or rather April 14. He died on Michaelmas-Day 1279. and was ſucceeded by

RALPH de Ireton, or Irton, Prior of Gisborne, who having been before conſecrated at Rome, July 10. 1280. obtained the Temporalities, and made his Profeſſion of Obedience to the Archbiſhop of York, July 22. 1280. He died Feb. 28. 1292. and was buried in the Cathedral, where no doubt his three Predeceſſors had been interred, tho' there is no Memorial of them. His Succeſſor was

JOHN de Halton, Monk or Canon of this Convent, who was by the King's Licence, dated March 23. 1292. elected Biſhop, and had the Royal Aſſent to his Election May 26. and the Temporalities reſtored July 18. 1293. He died Nov. 1. 1324. at his Palace in Great Dalſton Pariſh, called Roſecaſtle, and was buried in the Cathedral under an Arch in the North Iſle on one ſide the Choir, under a plain Altar Tomb, near Biſhop Strickland. On his Death,

WILLIAM AYREMIN, Canon of York, became elected by the Chapter, and had the Royal Aſſent Jan. 17. 1324. which was confirmed by the Archbiſhop of York Feb. 11. but ſet aſide by the Pope, who, to make him amends, preferred him to Norwich, and gave this See to

JOHN de Roſſe, Archdeacon of Salop in the Church of Hereford, and Canon of that Cathedral, Son of Robert Lord Roſs, or Roos, of Hamlake, born probably at the Family Seat at Belvoir-Caſtle, who had the Temporalities reſtored Jan. 20. 1324. and made his Profeſſion of Obedience Aug. 30. 1326. He died An. 1332. and was ſucceeded by

JOHN de Kirkeby, Canon or Monk of Carliſle, who being choſen by his Convent, had the Royal Aſſent to his Election May 8. 1332. the Temporalities reſtored July 9. and was conſecrated July 19. following at South Burton, near Beverley. During the time he ſate Biſhop, the Scots invading his Dioceſe, he valiantly engaged them in Battel, and obtained a great Victory over them, in the Year 1345. Seven Years after which, viz. about Feb. 1352. he died, and was buried in the Cathedral. On his Death,

JOHN de Horncaſtle, Prior of this Church (not of Ely, as in Godwin) was nominated by the King, and confirmed by the Archbiſhop of York, but ſet aſide by the Pope, who provided to this See

GILBERT de Welton, LL. D. and he became accordingly confirmed Biſhop May 24. 1353. He died Jan. 18. 1362. and was buried in the Cathedral, and ſucceeded by THOMAS de Appleby, Canon or Monk of this Church, conſecrated An. 1363. On his Death, which happened Dec. 5. 1395.

WILLIAM STRICKLAND was elected, but ſet aſide by the Pope, who tranſlated

ROBERT READ, Biſhop of Waterford and Liſmore in Ireland, to this See, and he had the Temporalities reſtored him March 30. 1396. He was the ſame Year removed to Chicheſter, where he died 1415. and was buried in that Cathedral. On his Promotion to Chicheſter,

THOMAS MERKS, alias de Newmarket, alias Somaſtre, Monk of Weſtminſter, was, at the Requeſt of King Richard II. thruſt into this

See

See by the Pope, An. 1397. to which, as we are informed in the Edition of Cambden's Britannia, printed An. 1695. he became an extraordinary Benefactor, by procuring of the King the Seigniory or Soke of Horncaſtle Co. Lincoln, conſiſting of thirteen Lordſhips, to himſelf and Succeſſors, for their Maintenance and Habitation, when the Scots invaded this Dioceſe, and drove them from their Palace at Roſe-Caſtle. What our Writers mention of his bold Speech in behalf of his Patron and depoſed Sovereign King Richard, for which he ſuffered Impriſonment, I ſhall not enlarge upon here, but refer to our many Hiſtories, who ſpeak much in his Praiſes for it. As to his dying Heart-broken, which (they tell us) prevented his Execution, ſoon after his Deprivation, An. 1399. it is plainly a Miſtake; for he ſurvived it ten Years, and had, for his Support, ſome Preferment beſtowed on him; as the Vicaridge of Sturmiſter Co. Dorſet, and Rectory of Todenham Co. Gloceſter, the firſt of which was given him by the Crown, and the other by the Convent of Weſtminſter, where probably he ended his Days about 1409. and was buried; for I find in an old MSS. Chronicle this: Epiſcopus Carliol. ad magnam Inſtantiam Amicorum ad Monaſterium ſuum de Weſtminſter redire permittitur. And concerning his having Todenham Rectory given him, and dying poſſeſs'd thereof, I ſhall exhibit my Authority from the Regiſters of Worceſter, as I extracted it:

Tho. Merks, quondam Epiſcopus Carliol. ad Rectoriam de Todenham ad Preſentationem Abbat. & Convent. de Weſtm. vacantem per mortem Thome Furzen ultimi Rectoris. Inſtituitur Auguſt 13. 1404. Regiſt. Clifford. Ep. Wigorn. fol. 78.

Robert Ely, alias Weſton, ad Rectoriam de Todenham ad dictam Preſentationem, vacantem per Mortem Thome Merks. Inſtituitur Jan. 13. 1409. Regiſt. Peveral. Ep. Wigorn. fol. 12.

On Biſhop Merks's Deprivation, An. 1399. as aforeſaid,

WILLIAM STRICKLAND, who had been before elected to it, An. 1395. but kept out of it till 1399. received the Temporalities Nov. 15. that Year, and became conſecrated at Cawood, Aug. 24 1400. by the Archbiſhop of York, on the King's Recommendation of him to the Pope. He was a great Benefactor to his Cathedral, as his Predeceſſor had been to the Biſhoprick, by new building the Belfry, and furniſhing it with four Bells, new roofing the Choir, and making handſom Stalls in it; as Leland informs us, in his Collectanea, in theſe Words: Fecit magnum Campanile a medietate ad ſummum, una cum 4 magnis Campanis in eodem, & Stalla perpulchra in choro, & co-operturam Cancellæ ejuſdem. He likewiſe founded a Chantry in the Church of St. Andrews, at Penreth; and dying Auguſt 30. 1419. was buried in the Cathedral, under an Arch in the North Iſle, on one Side the Choir, where is yet to be ſeen his Effigies elegantly cut in Freeſtone, habited in his Pontificalibus. His Succeſſor was

ROGER WHELPDALE, S. T. P. ſometime Provoſt of Queen's-College, Oxon, conſecrated at London, An. 1419. as Godwin tells us. He had the Temporalities reſtored March 17. 1419. and made his Profeſſion of Obedience Aug. 1. 1420. In his Will in Regiſtr. Chichely, fol. 353. in the Archives at Lambeth, dated Jan. 25. 1421. he gives ſeveral Books to the Univerſity of Oxford, and particularly to Baliol-College, and 20*l.* to the Univerſity, and orders 36*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* to be depoſited in a Cheſt at Queen's-College, for the Benefit of poor Scholars. Soon after which he departed this Life at London, in his Palace there, Feb. 4. 1422. and was buried in St. Paul's Cathedral in that City. Among other Charities, he is ſaid to give 200*l.* for founding a Charity in his own Cathedral at Carliſle for one Skelton and Mr. John Glaſton's Souls, of his own Dioceſe, who lie buried in the South Iſle, where is yet to be ſeen the Tomb of the firſt; and probably the unknown Monument on the oppoſite Side, referred to in the Ichnography, may be in Memory of Glaſton. His Succeſſor in this See was

WILLIAM BARROW, LL. D. Biſhop of Bangor. He had been, before he was made a Biſhop, Canon of Lincoln, Rector of St. Laud's Church at Skirrington Co. Bucks, and of Helmdon Co. Northampton, in that Dioceſe, Chancellor of the Univerſity of Oxon, and became tranſlated from Bangor hither, An. 1423. and received the Temporalities June 16. that Year. He died at Roſecaſtle Sept. 4. 1429. and was buried in his own Cathedral, in a Chapel on the right Side the South Iſle of the Choir, where yet remains his Effigies neatly cut, in his Epiſcopal Habit. In his Will, dated Sept. 1. 1429. three Days before his Death, he gives ſome Plate to his Cathedral, and 20*l.* to a Prieſt to ſing for him in St. Catherine's Chantry within his own Church; and bequeaths ſome Lands and Tenements at Skirrington (where he ſeems to have contributed towards the building the preſent Church) to his Kinſman Hugh.

MARMADUKE LUMLEY, LL. B. Maſter of Trinity-Hall Cambridge, Archdeacon of Northumberland, Precentor of Lincoln, Rector of Stepney Co. Middleſex, and Charryng Co. Kent, ſucceeded, and had the Temporalities reſtored April 15. 1430. He was An. 1450. tranſlated to Lincoln, and ſucceeded by

NICHOLAS

NICHOLAS CLOSE, S. T. P. Archdeacon of Colcheſter, who had the Temporalities reſtored March 17. 1450. He was tranſlated to Lichfeild, and ſucceeded by

WILLIAM PEIRCY, Prebendary of York, Lincoln, and Sarum, who had the Temporalities reſtored Oct. 1452. He died 1462. and was ſucceeded by

JOHN KINGSCOTE, LL. D. Archdeacon of Gloceſter, provided to this See by the Pope, July 12. 1462. and had the Temporalities reſtored Oct. 20. following. He died in about a Year, and was ſucceeded by

RICHARD SCROOP, who had the Temporalities reſtored June 5. and was conſecrated at York, June 24. 1464. In his Will, dated in May, 1468. on the 22d of which Month he died, he appointed to be buried in his own Cathedral, before the high Altar; which was accordingly perform'd: Tho' I find no Memorial of him remaining. His Succeſſor was

EDWARD STORY, S. T. P. Maſter of Pembroke-Hall, Cambridge, Rector of Alhallows the Great, London, who had the Temporalities reſtored him Sept. 1. 1468. He was An. 1478. tranſlated to Chicheſter, and ſucceeded by RICHARD BELI, S. T. P. Prior of Durham, who had Reſtitution of the Temporalities April 24. 1478. After he had ſate here eighteen Years (during which time he built a Tower at his Palace at Roſecaſtle, which yet bears his Name) he betook himſelf again to a monaſtick Life; but whether he retired to Durham, or ended his Days in this Convent, I know not: Tho' 'tis probable, as he lies buried, ſo he deceaſed here. In the Middle of the Choir, near the Litany-Desk, is a large Marble, having his Effigies upon it in Braſs, and this Inſcription round the Verge, being the only one whatſoever, except Skelton's, as aforeſaid, before 1600.

Hic jacet reverendus Pater Richardus Bell, quondam Epiſcopus Carliol. qui ab hac Luce migravit, viz. vicesimo Die —— Anno Domini —— Et omnium fidelium Defunctorum per Miſericordiam Dei; requieſcat in Pace.

On his Breaſt a Book open, with theſe Words:

Credo quod Redemptor meus vivit.

At his Feet theſe Verſes :

Duriſme dudum Prior hic poſt Pontificatum
Geſſit ſed renuit, Chriſtum ſuper omnia quærens, Deſpiciens Mundum, poſcendo Præmia fratrum.

WILLIAM SEVER, or SVEYET, Abbat of St. Mary's York, ſucceeded, and had the Temporalities reſtored Dec. 11. 1495. and was conſecrated about Feb. 1495. He was An. 1502. tranſlated to Durham, and ſucceeded by

ROGER LEYBURN, S. T. P. Maſter of Pembroke-Hall Cambridge, Archdeacon of Durham, and Prebendary of York, conſecrated Sept. 10. 1503. and had the Temporalities reſtored Nov. 13. 1504. In his Will, dated July 17. 1507. he appointed to be buried in St. James's Hoſpital, near Charing-croſs, Weſtminſter ; which I find was performed, by a MSS. Note I have ſeen of his Death, which happened about the End of the ſame Year, or Beginning of 1508. On his Death,

JOHN PENNY, LL. D. Abbat of Leiceſter, and Biſhop of Bangor, was tranſlated to this See, June 20. 1509. He died An. 1520. and was buried at St Margaret's Church in Leiceſter, under a fine Alabaſter Tomb, at the End of the North Iſle, having his Effigies curiouſly carved, lying upon it in his epiſcopal Habit. I preſume his Burial here was occaſioned by his having been the chief Inſtrument in re-building this Church. His Succeſſor was

JOHN KITE, titular Archbiſhop of Thebes, and Archbiſhop alſo of Armagh in Ireland, who became conſecrated to this See An. 1520. and received the Temporalities Nov. 11. 1521. He died at London June 19. 1537. and was buried in the Middle of Stepney Chancel, towards the North Side, with this Inſcription on his Graveſtone :

In his Will, dated June 18. and proved June 21. 1537. he ordered to be buried near his Father's Grave in St. Margaret's Church Weſtminſter; tho' probably he altered his Mind, and appointed to be buried here. According to Newcourt, he ſeems to have been Rector of Harlington in Middleſex. While he ſate Biſhop, he built alſo a Tower at Roſecaſtle, on the Weſt Side, which yet bears his Name. His Succeſſor was

ROBERT ALDRICH, S. T. P. Archdeacon of Colcheſter, Canon of Windſor, firſt Schoolmaſter, and afterwards Provoſt of Eaton Guidabiles Co. Bucks, nominated to this See by the King Jul. 18. 1537. On Aug. 7. he had the Royal Aſſent, and had the Temporalities reſtored Aug. 24. the ſame Month. He ſeems to have been a Man of the Times, a Complier with all the Changes of Religion, to keep his Preferments, and ſo I preſume was eaſily prevailed on, at the End of Edward the VIth's Reign, to leaſe Horncaſtle; tho' that King's Death happening ſoon after, it was regain'd. He deceaſed there March 5. 1555. in his Palace at Horncaſtle, and was buried in that Pariſh-Church, tho' there is no Memorial of him, as I could diſcover in the Church. In his Will, in Regiſtr. Kitchen. Qu. 23. he ordered, if he died in his Dioceſe, to be buried in Carliſle Cathedral, and gave thereunto his Chapel Furniture. On his Death,

OWEN OGLETHORPE, S. T. P. Preſident of Magdalen-College Oxon, firſt Canon then Dean of Windſor, Rector of Newington, and Haſely Co. Oxon, and St. Olave's Southwark, had the Temporalities delivered him Oct. 27. 1556. and was conſecrated Aug. 15. 1557. By his Intereſt with Q. Mary he procured the Collation to the Prebends, and in his Church the Advowſons of theſe Livings in this Dioceſe, and in Cumberland, viz. Burgh, St. John's, St. Bride's, St. Leonard's, Irton, Derham, Bingham, Kirkoſwald, Dacre, Whitbeck, Ponſanby, Muncaſter, Bramp-

ton, Croſsly, Millam, Overton, and Bethome; tho' they were afterwards took away by Queen Elizabeth, who made him an ill Return for his crowning her Queen (when all the other Biſhops had refuſed it) by depriving him ſoon after, which is ſuppoſed to have ſhortened his Days; for he died Dec. 31. 1559. and was buried Jan. 4. 1559. in St. Dunſtan's Church in Fleetſtreet, London, without any Memorial. In his Will, dated Nov. 10. and proved Jan. 13. 1559. he gives ſome ſmall Legacies in Charity. After his Deprivation, Bernard Gilpin, as I have already mentioned, was offered this Biſhoprick; but he refuſed to accept hereof, ſo it was conferred upon

JOHN BEST, S. T. P. Prebendary of Wells, who became conſecrated March 2. 1560. and had the Temporalities reſtored April 18. 1561. He died May 21. 1570. and was buried in the Cathedral, without any Memorial, leaving behind him the Character of a learned and pious Man. His Succeſſor was

RICHARD BARNES, S. T. B. Suffragan Biſhop of Nottingham, Chancellor and Prebendary of York, elected June 25. had the Royal Aſſent July 15. and received the Temporalities July 26. 1570. On account, as was pretended, of the Exility of the Biſhoprick, he had Licence granted him to hold his Chancellorſhip of York, with the Rectories of Stokeſley, Stangrave, Romaldkirk, all in Yorkſhire, in Commendam. But I ſuppoſe it was rather to advance his Fortune, which he was intent on, as a very worthy Member of this Church writes me, and ſo try'd all he could with the Chapter to alienate ſome of the Revenues, being the firſt married Biſhop of this See, but was worthily oppoſed by them; tho' on his Tranſlation, An. 1577. to Durham, he effected it there, and granted away good Part of the Endowment of that rich See, being a Perſon that had little Regard to the Hierarchy of the Church, and a great Favourer of Puritans, as a learned Author calls him. On his Promotion to Durham

JOHN MEY, S. T. P. Maſter of Catherine-Hall, Cambridge, Prebendary of Ely, Archdeacon of Eaſt-Riding, and Rector of Darfeild, ſucceeded, had the Royal Aſſent Auguſt 9. 1577. was conſecrated Sept. 29. and had the Temporalities reſtored Oct. 8. following. By what I learn from Carliſle, he much preſs'd the Chapter to confirm ſome Leaſes he had made of the Patrimony of this Biſhoprick to his Family; but they ever oppoſing him, the Revenues of this See were preſerved entire all Queen Elizabeth's Reign; and on King James's Acceſſion to the Crown, an Act of Parliament made by that Prince, reſtraining thoſe Practices in Biſhops, hath preſerved this Church from Alienations, ſo that I find nothing diminiſhed of its antient Endowment, but the leaſing of Carliſle-

Rents

Rents in London. As to Biſhop Mey, he died Feb. 15. 1597. at Roſecaſtle, and was buried in the Cathedral, without any Memorial, leaving behind him a Widow and ſeveral Children; which Widow dying at her Son-in-Law's Houſe, Richard Pilkington, Rector of Hambledon Co. Bucks, was there buried, as I find by that Pariſh-Regiſter, Dec. 20. 1620. which ſtyles her Amey Mey, Widow to the Biſhop of Carliſle. On Biſhop Mey's Death,

HENRY ROBINSON, S. T. P. Provoſt of Queen's-College Oxon. was elected May 27. 1598. confirmed July 22. and conſecrated July 23. following. This pious and charitable good Man, of whoſe Benefactions to Queen's-College ſee an Account in A. Wood, died June 19. 1616. and was buried in the Cathedral, on the North Side the high Altar, where was put up over his Grave an Inſcription on a Braſs Plate, much the ſame with that in Queen's-College Chapel, printed in A. Wood, tho' without the Verſes on it, which are on the real Monument in Carliſle Cathedral, which bears this Inſcription:

Henrico Robinſono, Carleolenſi, S. S. Theolog. Doctori, Collegii Reginæ Oxoniæ Præpoſito providiſſimo, tandemque hujus Eccl. per Annos xviii Epiſcopo vigilantiſſimo; xiii Cal. Julii, An. a partu Virginis MDCXVI. Ætatis ſuæ LXIII. pie in Domino obdormienti, Bernardus Robinſonus, Frater ac Hæres, hoc qualecunque MNHMEION, Amoris Teſtimonium.

RICHARD SNOWDEN, S. T. P. (Prebendary of Southwell in his native County of Nottingham) ſucceeded, being elected Sept. 12. and conſecrated Nov. 24. 1616. A. Wood ſays, he deceaſed at London in Parliament-time; but by what I am inform'd from Tradition of his Relations in theſe Parts, he died at Roſecaſtle, and was buried in the Cathedral without any Monument; his Son, to whom he left a good Eſtate, not affording him any. His Succeſſor was

RICHARD MILBOURNE, S. T. P. tranſlated from St. David's to this See; Conge d' Lire dated June 21. 1621. He had been, before he was Biſhop, Dean of Rocheſter, Rector of Cheam Co. Surrey, and Vicar of Sevenoke in Kent. He was deſcended from a good Family of his Name, and born at Hellerbeck, in Gilleſland Co. Cumberland, and and not in London, nor of Welch Parentage, as A. Wood tells us. After he had scarce sate here three Years, he died, and was buried in the Cathedral Cemitery, leaving what he had to charitable Uses.

RICHARD SENHOUSE, S. T. P. born at Alneburgh-Hall, Co. Cumberland, Dean of Glouceſter, ſucceeded, being conſecrated Sept. 16. 1624. He died about May 1626. by a Fall from an Horſe, as we are told in his Funeral-Sermon, preached in the Cathedral of Carliſle, where he lies buried without any Inſcription. On his Death,

FRANCIS WHITE, S. T. P. Rector of Broughton-Aſhley, Dean of this Church, became conſecrated Biſhop Dec. 3. 1626. He was 1628. tranſlated to Norwich, and thence removed to Ely; and dying at London 1637. was buried in St. Paul's Cathedral, London, without any Memorial. His Succeſſor in this Church was

BARNABAS POTTER, S. T. P. Provoſt of Queen's-College, Oxon, conſecrated March 15. 1628. He died in January 1641. and was buried in St. Paul's Convent Garden Church, Weſtminſter, without any Memorial. On his Death, the moſt learned

JAMES USHER, S. T. P. Archbiſhop of Armagh in Ireland, received Adminiſtration of the Temporalities Febr. 16. 1641. and held it to his Death, which happened March 21. 1655. at Ryegate in Surry. He was buried in Weſtminſter Abby, as we are inform'd in his printed Life; where is given the following Epitaph, deſigned to be put up on a Monument for him, but it was never erected.

MS. Jacobus Uſſerius, Archiepiſcopus Armachanus H. S. E. ob præclaram proſapiam, raram eruditionem, ingenii acumen, dicendi & ſcribendi facundiam, morum gravitatem ſuavitate conditam, vitæ candorem & integritatem; æquabilem in utraque fortuna animi conſtantiam, orbi chriſtiano & piis omnibus charus, omniumque judicio præterquam ſuo, Præſul vere Magnus.

On

On his Death this See continued vacant five Years, when

RICHARD STERNE, S. T. P. Maſter of Jeſus-College, Cambridge, Rector of Harleton Co. Cambridge, and Yeveſton Co. Somerſet, was nominated hereunto, Conge d' Elire dated Oct. 9. had the Royal Aſſent Nov. 28. was conſecrated Dec. 2. and received the Temporalities Dec. 19. 1660. and was enthronized Jan. 4. following. He was An. 1664. tranſlated to York, and ſucceeded by

EDWARD RAINBOW, S. T. P. Dean of Peterborough, Maſter of Buckingham, alias Magdalen-College, Cambridge, Rector of Little Cheſterford in Eſſex, and Benefeild in Northamptonſhire, conſecrated July 10. 1664. He was, as the Writer of his Life tells us, a great Benefactor to his Epiſcopal Palace at Roſecaſtle, the Chapel of which he rebuilt; and deceaſing there in the 76th Year of his Age, was buried in the Churchyard of Great Dalſton, in which Pariſh Roſecaſtle ſtands, with this Inſcription on his Monument:

Depoſitum Edvardi Rainbow Epiſcopi Carliol. qui obiit XXVI Martii, A. D. MDCLXXXIV.

His Succeſſor was

THOMAS SMITH, S. T. P. Dean of this Church, became conſecrated Biſhop hereof, being elected May 2. and conſecrated June 29. 1684. He had been alſo Prebendary of the ſame See, as well as of Durham and Lichfeild, and became hereto one of the greateſt Benefactors this Church ever had; he rebuilding not only his Prebendal and Decanal Houſe from the Ground, but beſtowing a new Organ on the Choir, and furniſhing the Communion-Table with a Set of Plate doubly gilt, building the Regiſters-Office, and erecting a Library. Beſides what he did at his Epiſcopal Palace, and in other Parts of the Dioceſe, which daily partook of his Charities: At Appleby, near where he was born, he contributed liberally to the Free-School, and made a Piazza for the Market-People, and gave an Organ to St. Laurence Church in that Town; at Penrith he gave 500 l. to augment the Vicaridge. Not to mention his Benefactions to Queen's-College, Oxon, where he had been Fellow, or his building entirely his Prebendal Houſe at Durham, or his leſſer Works of Piety, he may be ſaid every Day of his Life to be beſtowing ſomewhat on the Publick, having no Family to provide for. He died An. 1702. in the eighty eighth Year of his Age, and was buried in the Cathedral, within the Communion-Rails, with an Inſcription on his Graveſtone, being the only Epitaph of any Biſhop whatever in this Church, except Biſhop Bell and Robinſon. His Will remains in the Prerogative-Office, London, and is the only one I can find there ſince 1559.

On his Death,

WILLIAM NICHOLSON, A. M. Fellow alſo of Queen's-College, Oxon, Archdeacon and Prebendary of this Church, and Vicar of Torpenhoe in this Dioceſe, was by Conge d' Lire dated May 8. 1702. elected Biſhop, and conſecrated June 14. following, ſoon after which, about July, he took his Degree of Doctor of Divinity. This learned Biſhop, to whom the World is much indebted, not only for what he has publiſh'd in Antiquity, but in univerſal Sciences, was An. 1718. tranſlated to Londonderry in Ireland, and ſucceeded in this See by

SAMUEL BRADFORD, S. T. P. Prebendary of Weſtminſter, Rector of St. Mary Le Bow, London, and Maſter of Bennet, alias Corpus-Chriſti-College, Cambridge; Conge d' Lire dated April 30. 1718. received Conſecration June 1. being Whitſunday, and was enthronized Nov. 4. About June 1723. this preſent Year, he quitted it for Rocheſter, and was ſucceeded by JOHN WAUGH, S. T. P. Fellow of Queen's-College, Oxon, Dean of Gloceſter, Prebendary of Lincoln, and Rector of St. Peter's Cornhill, London, nominated hereunto about July 1723. who being a Native of the Dioceſe, born at Appleby, render'd his Promotion very acceptable to all the Clergy and Gentry in theſe Parts.

DEANS of CARLISLE.

LANCELOT SALKELD, laſt Prior of Carliſle, was by King Henry VIII. on the new Foundation, conſtituted firſt Dean by the Foundation-Charter dated May 8. 1542. An. 33. Hen. VIII. He was, on King Edward's Acceſſion to the Crown, deprived, and

THOMAS SMITH, LL. D. afterwards knighted, ſubſtituted in his place An. 1547. but on Queen Mary's ſucceeding King Edward VI.

LANCELOT SALKELD was reſtored An. 1553. He was a ſecond time deprived An. 1559. the Year after which he died, viz. Sept. 3. 1560. and was buried in the Cathedral, without any Memorial. On his Deprivation,

Sir

Sir THOMAS SMITH became reinſtated by Queen Elizabeth, An. 1559. of whom we may ſee an Account in his Life, publiſhed An. 1698. by Mr. Strype, and in A. Wood's Athenæ. He died Aug. 12. 1577. and was buried at Mount-Theydon Co. Eſſex, on the North Side the Chancel, with this Inſcription on his Monument, on which lies his Effigies in Marble in a cumbent Poſture.

Thomas Smithus, Eques Auratus, hujus Manerii Dominus, cum Regis Edw. VI. tum Elizebethæ Reginæ Conſiliarius, ac primi nominis Secretarius; eorundemque Principum ad maximos Reges Legatus; nobiliſſ. Ordinis Garterii Cancellarius; Ardæ auſtraliſque Claneboy in Hibernia Colonellus; Juris Civilis ſupremo Titulo etiamnum adoleſcens inſignitus; Orator, Mathematicus, Philoſophus, excellentiſſimus; Linguarum Latinæ, Græcæ, Hebraicæ, Gallicæ, etiam & Italicæ, callentiſſimus; proborum & ingenioſorum Hominum Fautor eximius; plurimis commodans, nemini nocens, ab injuriis ulſciſcendis alieniſſimus; denique, Sapientia, Pietate, Integritate inſignis, & in omni Vita, ſeu æger ſeu valens, intrepidus mori. Cum Ætatis ſuæ LXV Annum compleviſſet, in Ædibus ſuis Montaulenſibus 12 Die Aug. An. Salutis MDLXXVII. pie & ſuaviter in Domino obdormivit.

In his Will I find no Charity given to Eaton College, of which he had been formerly Provoſt, or to this Church, but all to his Family. On his Death,

JOHN WOOLEY, A. M. was conſtituted Dean Oct. 11. 1577. In the Preſentation he is ſtyled Eſq; and Secretary of the Latin Tongue. He died at Pyrford in Surry, about the Beginning of March 1595. and was buried in St. Paul's Cathedral, London, under a ſtately Monument, with this Inſcription:

D. O. M. Johannes Wolleius, Eques Auratus, Reginæ Elizabethæ a Secretioribus Conſiliis Secretarius Linguæ Latinæ, Cancellarius Ordinis Periſcelidis, Doctrina, Pietate, Fide, Probitate, Gravitate clariſſimus. Obiit An. MDXCV.

At the Bottom were twenty four ordinary Latin Verſes, mentioning his double Marriage; which I don't find taken notice of on his Predeceſſor's Monument, tho' he had alſo two Wives.

CHRISTOPHER PERKINS, LL. D. (of whom ſee an Account in A. Wood's Athenæ) afterwards knighted, as his Predeceſſor had been, ſucceeded An. 1596. He died in Auguſt 1622. and was ſucceeded by

FRANCIS WHITE, S. T. P. preſented Sept. 14. and inſtalled Oct. 15. 1622. He was An. 1626. made Biſhop of this See, and ſucceeded by

* WILLIAM PETERSON, S. T. P. preſented Dec. 4. 1626. He was An. 1629. promoted to the Deanary of Exeter, and ſucceeded in this by

THOMAS COMBER, S. T. P. preſented Aug. 28. 1630. He died Feb. 28. 1653. at Cambridge, and was buried March 3. in St. Botolph's Church Cambridge, without any Memorial but what is in the Pariſh-Regiſter. His Succeſſor, at the Reſtoration of Church and Monarchy, was

GUY CARLETON, S. T. P. preſented June 29. 1660. on the Death of the laſt Incumbent, viz. Dr. Comber. He was 1671. made Biſhop of Briſtol, and ſucceeded by

THOMAS SMITH, S. T. P. admitted March 4. 1671. He was An. 1684. made Biſhop of this See, and ſucceeded by

THOMAS MUSGRAVE, S. T. P. admitted Oct. 13. 1684. He died and was buried in Durham Cathedral, with this Inſcription on his Graveſtone.

Here lies interred Thomas Muſgrave, D. D. Dean of Carliſle, and late Prebendary of this Cathedral. He was the fifth Son of Sir Philip Muſgrave of Hartley-Caſtle in the County of Weſtmoreland, Bar. who died the 28*th of* March, 1686. in the 47*th Year of his Age. He firſt married* Mary the Daughter of Sir Tho. Harriſon of Allerthorpe in the County of York, Knt. by whom he had Iſſue Margaret. His ſecond Wife was Anne the Daughter of Sir John Cradock of Richmond in the ſaid County, Knt.

WILLIAM GRAHME, A. M. ſucceeded, being inſtalled June 23. 1686. He died Feb. 4. 1712. and was buried at Kenſington, near London, without any Memorial; having ſeveral Years before his Death been promoted to the Deanary of Wells, on which he reſigned this, and was ſucceeded by

FRANCIS ATTERBURY, S. T. P. born March 6. 1662. at Milton-Keynes, near Newport-Pagnel Co. Bucks, inſtalled Dean Oct. 2. 1704. He was An. 1711. removed to the Deanary of Chriſt-Church Oxon, and ſucceeded by

GEORGE SMALRIDGE, S T. P. admitted Nov. 3. and inſtalled by Proxy Nov. 29. 1711. He was likewiſe removed to Chriſt-Church Deanary in Oxford in July 1713. and was ſucceeded by

THOMAS

THOMAS GIBBON, A. M. ſince S. T. P. Rector of Grayſtock, admitted Oct. 22. and inſtalled next Day, viz. Oct. 23. 1713. He died about Oct. 1716. and was buried in the Cathedral, within the Communion Rails, on the North Side Biſhop Smith, and ſucceeded by THOMAS TULLIE, A. M. inſtalled Nov. 22. 1716. living 1723.

ARCHDEACONS of CARLISLE.

THIS Dignity, with its Corpſe, viz. the Rectory of Salkeld annexed, was rated An. 1534. 26 Hen. VIII. at 22*l.* 10*s.* 10*d.*

* ROBERT was doubtleſs the firſt that held this Dignity; for we meet with him ſtyled Archdeacon An. 1133. on the erecting this See.

* WILLIAM Archdeacon of Carliſle, was 1150. Witneſs to a Charter of Wedderal Priory. After him I find one

ROBERT poſſeſs'd of it 1160. as was

PETER de Roſs, An. 1180. He died 1196. and was ſucceeded by

AUMERIC de Tailboys, Rector of Dalſton, Nephew to Biſhop Poictiers of Durham, An. 1196. and he by ALEXANDER Lucy, appointed to this Office, as 'tis ſaid, by King John, An. 1204.

ROBERT de Roſſe held it 1225. as did after him

GERVASE de Lowther, An. 1230. and

* ROBERT de Otterington, An. 1240. and

WALTER de Ulceby about 1245.

H—— I ſuppoſe Henry, was poſſeſs'd of it 1260. as was

RICHARD de Whitby, An. 1291. and then I meet with

PETER de Inſula, LL. D. 1302. He died 1311. being alſo Archdeacon of Coventry.

GILBERT de Halton ſucceeded, and held it 1311. as did

THOMAS de Caldbeck, An. 1318. and

HENRY de Carliol, An. 1320. to whom ſucceeded

WILLIAM de Kendale, An. 1323. And after him I find

RICHARD de Arthuret preferred to it 1354. to whom ſucceeded

WILLIAM de Rothbury about 1356. In his Will, dated 1363. he appointed to be buried in Salkeld Churchyard. On his Death,

JOHN de Appleby occurs poſſeſs'd of it 1364. as does

* HUMPHREY de Thirland, An. 1373. as Dr. Todd informs me. However I find

JOHN

* JOHN de Appleby, Archdeacon An. 1380. I preſume he died An. 1389. Dean of St. Paul's, London. The next is

* THOMAS STRICKLAND, he occurs An. 1406. His Will bears Date An. 1419. ſoon after which I ſuppoſe he died, and was ſucceeded by

* ALEXANDER COKK, for I find him poſſeſſed of it 1427, and 1432. His Succeſſor was

* STEPHEN CLOSE, preferred, as I judge, by Biſhop Cloſe, who died 1453. He was alſo Prebendary of Lincoln, and dying 1470. was buried at Salkeld, in the Chancel, with this Inſcription on his Graveſtone:

Orate pro Anima Stephani Cloſe, Rectoris & Archidiaconi, qui mortuus eſt An. 1470.

After him I meet with

* HUGH DACRE, Archdeacon, and Rector of Salkeld, An. 1490, and 1494. as I do

* THOMAS BOURBANK about 1500. He was alſo Warden of Grayſtock College, and dying An. 1520. was buried there, as I learn from Dr. Todd, who informs me, that in Grayſtock Chancel Windows he is called, quondam Archidiaconus Carliol.

WILLIAM BOURBANK, LL. D. no doubt ſucceeded, for he is ſtyled Archdeacon An. 1526. He died, as I conceive, about Dec. 1531. and was ſucceeded by

* WILLIAM HOLGILL, An. 1531, or 1532. He occurs poſſeſs'd of it 1534. and died Archdeacon in 1549, or 1550. as I judge by the Date and Probate of his Will, tho' in it he is only called Maſter of the Savoy.

GEORGE NEVILL, Vicar of Morland, ſucceeded about 1550, or 1551. and died poſſeſſed of it and Rothbury Rectory Co. Northumberland An. 1567.

EDWARD THELKELD, EL. D. was collated to it March 11. 1567. on George Nevill's Death. He was An. 1571. made Rector of Grayſtock, and about the ſame time Prebendary of Hereford, and Vicar of Tenbury Co. Worceſter, in that Dioceſe. On his Death, which happened 1588. I find

HENRY DETHICK, A. M. and LL. B. collated Oct. 8. 1588. on Dr. Thelkeld's Death. Being made Official, and Chancellor of the Dioceſe, he quitted this, and was ſucceeded by

RICHARD

RICHARD PILKINTON, A. M. collated 1597. in which Year on Sept. 2. he paid Firſt-Fruits for it; however he reſigned it about the End of next Year, when

GILES ROBINSON, S. T. P. became collated 1598. and paid his Firſt-Fruits Nov. 8. 1599. He died or reſigned it about 1604. being Vicar of Croſſthwaith, and was ſucceeded by

GEORGE WARWICK, who paid his Firſt-Fruits for it Aug. 8. 1604. He died about 1621. being Rector of Symondsborne, and was ſucceeded by

ROBERT WRIGHT, Vicar of Bromfeild, who paid his Firſt-Fruits for it May 12. 1621. He held it not long, for

ISAAC SINGLETON, A. M. became collated to it Jan. 15. 1622. and paid his Firſt-Fruits for it Feb. 1. following. He died An. 1645. and was buried at Salkeld, without any Memorial, being Archdeacon of Brecknock, and ſucceeded by

PETER WENTWORTH, the expulſed Dean of Armagh in Ireland 1645. He died July 22. 1661. and was buried at Bath Abby-Church, without any Memorial, having the Year before his Death reſigned this Dignity to

LEWIS WEST, A. M. inſtituted Aug. 16. 1660. He died 1667. being Prebendary of this Church, and Vicar of Aldenham, and was buried at Salkeld, and ſucceeded by

JOHN PEACHEL, S. T. P. Vicar of Stanwix, and Prebendary of this Church, collated Nov. 28. 1667. Being made Maſter of Buckingham, alias Magdalen-College in Cambridge, he reſigned his Preferments in this Dioceſe, and was ſucceeded by

THOMAS MUSGRAVE, A. M. collated March 25. 1668. He was afterwards Dean of this Cathedral, and Prebendary of Durham. On his Reſignation,

WILLIAM NICHOLSON, A. M. Vicar of Torpenhoe, was collated Oct. 3. 1682. On whoſe being made Biſhop,

JOSEPH FISHER, A. M. Vicar of Burgh under Stanmore, was preſented hereunto July 9. 1702. and inſtalled July 14. He died An. 1704. and was buried at Burgh, and ſucceeded by GEORGE FLEMING, A. M. collated March 28. 1705. and inſtalled April 12. following. He is the preſent Incumbent, An. 1723. Rector of Ouſeby, and Prebendary of this Church.

PREBEN-

PREBENDARIES of CARLISLE.

FIRST STALL.

WILLIAM FLORENS, Monk of Carliſle, per Fundationem, May 12. 1542.

HUGH SEWEL, S. T. P. was preſented by the King Aug. 20. 1549. on the Death of Florens. He died 1585. being Rector of Caldbeck, and Vicar of St. Laurence Appleby.

EDMUND BUNNIL, B. D. ſucceeded, being collated July 2. 1585. He died An. 1617. and was buried in York Cathedral, with this Inſcription:

Edm. Bunnæus ex nobili Bunnæorum Fam. oriundus, S. T. B. Coll. Merton in Oxon. olim Socius, Paroch. de Bolton-Peircy Paſtor, Eccl. B. Pauli Londin. B. Petri Ebor. & B. Mariæ Carleolenſis, Prebendarius digniſſimus; Concionator frequentiſſ. vicatim & oppidatim prædicando multos Annos conſumpſit, cum ob Amorem Chriſti Hæreditatem Paternam Fratri juniori reliquiſſet. Obiit Die Menſis Feb. 26. An. 1617.

Hæc ſenis Edmundi Bunni eſt quem cernis imago,
A quo Bunnæi villula nomen habet.
Clarus erat tanti, tumuit neque ſanguinis æſtu,
Hæres patris erat profuit eſſe nihil.
Devotat ætatem gravitas reſolutio mentem
Zelum ſcripta, aciem pulpita facta fidem.
Vaſa ſacra libroſque dedit poſt funera templo,
Et bona pauperibus, cætera ſeque Deo.

As he is ſtyled Prebendary of this Church, I conceive Mr. Le Neve's mention of

RICHARD SYBSON, S. T. P. of Glaſgow Univerſity in Scotland, his being collated to this Stall An. 1602. is a Miſtake; for

RICHARD SNODEN, who was certainly collated to it An. 1617. and, as I ſuppoſe, ſucceeded on Bunny's Death. He was alſo Vicar of St. Oſwald's Durham, and reſigning this Prebend, was ſucceeded by

LANCELOT DAWES, A. M. collated 1619. on Snoden's Reſignation. He died May 18. 1655. and was buried at Barton Co. Weſtmoreland, where he was Vicar, and ſucceeded by

THOMAS

THOMAS SMITH, S. T. P. inſtalled Nov. 14. 1660. He reſigned it March 16. following, being afterwards Dean, and at length Biſhop of this Church, and was ſucceeded by

THOMAS CANON, S. T. B. collated March 27. 1661. He died An. 1668. and was ſucceeded by

WILLIAM SILL, A. M. Vicar of Addingham, collated March 27. 1668. He reſigned it 1681. being made Prebendary of Weſtminſter, and was ſucceeded by

WILLIAM NICHOLSON, A. M. collated Nov. 17. 1681. On whoſe being made Biſhop, WILLIAM ATKINSON, A. M. was inſtalled into it July 14. 1702. living 1723. Vicar of Kirkby-Stephen.

SECOND STALL.

EDWARD LOSH, per Fundationem, May 12. 1542. He reſigned it, being made Rector of Marrum Co. Lincoln.

* WILLIAM PURYE, S. T. P. was preſented Jan. 22. 1546. by King Edward VI. on the Reſigna ion of Edward Loſh. He died An. 1552. and was ſucceeded by

* JOHN EMANUEL TREMELLIUS, Profeſſor of Hebrew in Cambridge, who I find by the Letters Patent, had Oct. 29. 1552. a Prebend of Carliſle given him, vacant by the Death of William Purye, which I preſume he did not accept of, and that Edw. VI. might on that account confer it on

* EDWIN SANDYS; for Strype ſays, An. 1552. he had a Prebend of this Church given him, which could be no other than this; however he was deprived An. 1554. by Queen Mary, of his Dignities, who, I ſuppoſe, gave this Stall to

EDWARD MITCHELL, LL. B. An. 1554. He died An. 1566. being Rector of Rothbury, and was ſucceeded by

JOHN MAGBRAY, Vicar of Croſſthwait 1566. On whoſe Reſignation,

THOMAS TOOKIE, LL. B. Vicar of Torpenhoe, was collated 1568. He reſigned it, and was ſucceeded by

JOHN BARNES, collated Nov. 7. 1574. He was alſo Rector of Aiſkby, and reſigning this, was ſucceeded by

THOMAS FAIRFAX Sen. Rector of Caldbeck, An. 1577. On whoſe Death,

JOHN MEYE, LL. B. became inſtituted to both his Dignities, An. 1595. but he quitted this the ſame Year to

WILLIAM MEYE, A. M. his Brother, An. 1595. to whom ſucceeded

THOMAS FAIRFAX Jun. Vicar of St. Michael's Appleby, about 1600. He died An. 1640. and was ſucceeded by

FREDERIC TUNSTALL, A. M. inſtalled Oct. 4. 1640. His Succeſſor was

ARTHUR SAVAGE, A. M. preſented An. 1660. to this Stall and Caldbeck Rectory, both void on Tunſtall's Death. He died An. 1700. and was buried at Caldbeck, and ſucceeded by GEORGE FLEMMING, A. M. inſtalled March 12. 1700. living 1723. Rector of Oulſby, and Archdeacon of Carliſle.

THIRD STALL.

BARNABAS KIRKBRIDE, per Fundationem, May 12. 1542. He died 1563. being alſo Prebendary of Lincoln, and was ſucceeded by

GREGORY SCOT, A. M. collated May 2. 1564. He was alſo, I preſume, Vicar of St. Michael's Appleby. He died An. 1576. and was ſucceeded by

THOMAS BURTON, LL. B. collated Dec. 19. 1576. removed from the Fourth Stall to this. He reſigned it next Year, being Rector of Brougham, to

ANTHONY WALKWOOD, collated April. 8. 1577. He died An. 1611. and was buried at Hutton, where he was Rector, and ſucceeded by

BERNARD ROBINSON, collated 1612. He died 1637. being Vicar of Torpenhoe, and Rector of Muſgrave, and was ſucceeded by

LEWIS WEST, A. M. An. 1637. He died 1667. being alſo Archdeacon, and was ſucceeded in both Dignities by

JOHN PEACHEL, B. D. collated Nov. 28. 1667. On whoſe Renation,

THOMAS MUSGRAVE was collated to this Stall, An. 1669. which on his Reſignation was given to

JOHN ARDREY, A. M. collated Oct. 7. 1676. on the Reſignation of Muſgrave. He died, being Rector of Clibbourne, An. 1684. and was buried at Muſgrave, where I ſuppoſe he died, and ſucceeded by

THOMAS TULLIE, A. M. Vicar of Croſſthwait, collated An. 1684. On whoſe being made Dean,

THOMAS BENSON, A. M. ſince S. T. P. became collated Nov. 21. 1716. living 1723. Vicar of Stanwix and Dalſton.

FOURTH

FOURTH STALL.

RICHARD BRANDLING, Monk of Carliſle, per Fundationem, May 12. 1542.

ARTHUR KEY, Rector of Bownes, became collated Feb. 8. 1570. On the Death of Brandling. He reſigned it 1575. and was ſucceeded by

THOMAS BURTON, LL. D. collated 1575. On whoſe quitting it for the third Prebend,

GEORGE FLOWER was collated March 24. 1576. He reſigned it, and was ſucceeded by

EDWARD HANSBY, collated July 10. 1582. He died, and was buried at Grayſtock, where he was Rector, and ſucceeded by

EDWARD MAPLET, collated March 4. 1584. He died Aug. 31. 1624. being Rector of Clifton, and was ſucceeded by

JOHN FLETCHER, B. D. admitted Aug. 31. 1624. He died An. 1632. being alſo Rector of Clifton, and was ſucceeded by

WILLIAM DODDING, A. M. Rector of Muſgrave, An. 1632. He died in 1637. and was ſucceeded by RICHARD SMITH, B. D. Rector of Rothbury, An. 1637. He died 1643. and was ſucceeded by

HENRY HUTTON, A. M. Rector of Longmartin, in 1643. To whom ſucceeded

GEORGE BUCHANAN, A. M. preſented July 30. 1660. on the Death of Hutton. He was alſo Vicar of Stanwix, and dying An. 1666. was buried in the Cathedral, without any Monument, and ſucceeded by

HENRY MARSHALL, A. M. Vicar of Croſsthwaite, collated March 30. 1666. He died 1667. and was buried in the Cathedral, without any Memorial, and ſucceeded by

JEREMY NELSON, A. M. Vicar of Stanwix and Corbridge, collated July 4. 1667. He died 1685. and was buried in the Cathedral, in the South Iſle, and ſucceeded by HUGH TODD, A. M. collated Oct. 4. 1685. living 1723. S. T. P. Vicar of Penreth, and Rector of Arthuret.

DIOCESE OF CHESTER.

IT contains the entire Counties of Chester and Lancaster; part of Westmoreland, Cumberland, and Yorkshire; the Chapelries of Holt and Iscoed, Co. Denbigh; the Churches of Hawarden, Hanmer, Bangor, Worthenbury, and Chapelry of Orton-Madock, Co. Flint; and is divided into two Archdeaconries:

I. CHESTER, which has these Deanaries, viz. Chester, Frodesham, Malpas, Macclesfeild, Malbanc, alias Nantwich; all Co. Chester: Blackborn, Leiland, Manchester, and Warrington, Co. Lancaster. Which nine Deanaries were in Lichfeild Diocese, till the Erection of this new See, An. 1541.

II. RICHMOND, which contains the Deanaries of Amounderness and Furness, Co. Lancaster; and Kirkby-Londsdale Deanary, which extends itself not only into Lancashire, but also into Yorkshire and Westmoreland: The other Deanaries are, Kendale Co. Westmoreland, Catterick, Boroughbrigg, and Richmond Deanaries, Co. York; and Coupland Deanary, Co. Cumberland: All which were subject, under the Archdeacon of Richmond, to the See of York, till 1541.

The Number of Pariſhes in this great Extent, as Heylin, &c. tell us, are reckoned 256, of which 101 are Impropriations; tho' including Chapels and Donatives, neither of which are in the Valor Beneficiorum, they make no leſs than 506. The Clergies Tenths amount to 435*l.* 12*s.*

Touching Cheſter's being a Biſhoprick of itſelf before 1541. that will beſt be ſeen in Lichfeild; for tho' there ſate but one Biſhop here, viz. Peter, who continued Biſhop but about twenty Years, and died, and was buried in St. John's Church in this City, which was the antient Cathedral; yet ſeveral of his Succeſſors in the See denominated themſelves Biſhops of Cheſter inſtead of Lichfeild, and choſe rather that Style, as is apparent from our Records: Tho' the proper Biſhops of Cheſter may be accounted only thoſe who were ſettled after 1541. in St. Werburgh's Abby, and have continued ever ſince, as I ſhall deſcribe them.

CATHEDRAL of CHESTER.

UPON the converting of the Abby of St. Werburgh's in Cheſter into a Cathedral by King Hen. VIII. An. 1541. he aſſigned his new Biſhop, Dean, ſix Prebendaries, &c. all of them Houſes out of the Buildings of the Monaſtery; in which, beſides the Dean and ſix Major-Canons or Prebendaries, he eſtabliſhed ſix Minor-Canons or Prieſts-Vicars, a Deacon, ſix Singing-Men or Conducts, ſix Choriſters, two Maſters of the Grammar-School, twenty four Scholars, ſix Almſmen, a Virger, two Sextons, two Porters, of which one to be a Barber, a Cook, and Under-Cook; in all ſeventy eight, by the Foundation-Charter, dated Aug. 4. 1541.

In King's Vale Royal (a Folio Book ſo entitled) are ſeveral curious things collected about this Cathedral, and all the Inſcriptions remaining before 1641. given us; which are, together with the Arms in the Windows, &c. preſerved in Dugdale's and Aſhmole's MSS. at the Heralds-Office, London, and the Muſæum in Oxford, as well as the Lord Hatton's Library; but theſe are very inconſiderable, it being plain, that beſides Biſhop Downham's Inſcription on his Graveſtone, there were an hundred Years ago only theſe four following Epitaphs before 1600. And as thoſe are in the South Croſs-Iſle ſeparated from the Cathedral, and appropriated to the Uſe of St. Oſwald's Pariſh, tho' I might be excuſed taking notice of them; yet being willing to include every thing within the ſuppoſed Compaſs of my Deſign, I ſhall here ſubjoin them, with two others, tranſmitted me out of an old MSS. relating to two Earls of Cheſter buried in the Chapter-houſe.

4. For Tho. Green, late Alderman of this City. Age is a Crown of Glory, when 'tis found in the Way of Righteousness; Prov. xvi. 18.

To that grave and worthy Citizen Tho. Green, sometimes Mayor of this City, taken heuce by a timely Death in the Perfection of his Age and Virtues; for his Integrity of Life, Courtesy, Sobriety, and Facility of Manners, his constant Love to his Friends, and Bounty to the Poor, the Executors of his last Will and Testament have caused this Monument to be erected. He had two Wives, Ellen the Daughter of John Brasey Gent. and Dorothy Daughter to John Davenport of Calvely Esq; but surviving them both, and having no Issue by either, he conveyed the Inheritance of the House wherein he dwelt to the Intent that the yearly Profits thereof should for ever be employed to good and charitable Uses; to which purpose also he gave in effect his whole Substance, with divers Legacies to his Friends and Kinsfolks, and to his Brethren the Aldermen of this City. He was Sheriff here in the Year 1551.

In Mr. Dodsworth's MSS. in the publick Library at Oxon, is exhibited some Account of what Antiquities remained in St. John's Church, which was reputed the antient Cathedral, and was truly a magnificent Fabrick, and extended itself East, West, North, and South, considerably farther than the present Church; as may be discerned by any Person that observes where it has been shorten'd in every Part, and contracted at the End of the Cross every where; as has been the Tower or Steeple removed from the Middle, on account of its falling down in Queen Elizabeth's time, An. 1574. and set at the West End thereof. An. 1581. as my Author tells us, the Parishioners having obtained the Church of the Queen, began to build up Part of it again, and cut off all the Chapels above the Choir: Before which it seemeth to me to have been at first no ways ways inferior to that of St. Werburgh's for Largeneſs, where Hen. VIII. fixed the Cathedral Church: Which I ſhall ſomewhat briefly deſcribe, by informing my Reader, That the ſaid Cathedral is a large Pile of Building, and for the moſt part very regular and uniform, tho' built at ſeveral times; the Side-Iſles, Nave, and South Tranſept being all of a piece. The only old Part of the whole Structure ſeems to be the North Tranſept and Chapter-Houſe, which appear to be very antient. Theſe new Parts of the Church (which compriſe all but the ſaid New Tranſept) ſeem to have been erected and re-edified tempore Edw. IV. and Hen. VII. by the Abbats Oldham, Ripley, and Birchenſhaw; who, as I judge by the Foundation of Arches ſpringing from the Walls, intended to vault the whole Nave, or middle Iſle, which being left unfiniſhed, has remained ſo ever ſince; there being no part of this Church vaulted but the Lady-Chapel and Side-Iſles of the Choir Part, the reſt being left open, with the Beams, &c. appearing under the Lead, like a Pariſh-Church; tho' the Choir Roof being newly plank'd with Money rais'd by a Brief, An. 1708. is moulded with ſome Bolection-Work. The Stalls of the Choir are very neat, being excellently well wrought with Tabernacle-Work: They are forty eight in number, viz. twenty four on each Side. At the upper End of them, on the South Side, is the Biſhop's Throne; and oppoſite to it, on the North Side, the Pulpit, cloſe to which is the Archdeacon of Richmond's Stall, as is the Archdeacon of Cheſter's adjoining to the Biſhop's Throne. Over the Rood-Loft, or Choir-Entrance, is the Organ, which is a new one, and facing the Nave of the Church and high Altar, makes a good Appearance. On the North Side is the old Organ-Loft, the Pipes of which being handſomly painted are ſtill remaining. In the Weſt Part of the Church, opening into the North Iſle, was one Way into the Abbacy. It is now the Biſhop's Palace. This adjoined to the Cloiſters on the Weſt Side; which Cloiſters were ſquare, and extended a hundred Foot every way, and opened by two Doors into the North Iſle of the Cathedral. Over the Weſt Part was a noble Hall, belonging to the Abby, or rather Abbat; for the Monks had their Hall or Fratry on the North Side the Cloiſters, and adjoining thereto, part of which is now the Free-ſchool. The Abbat's Hall, ſince part of the the Biſhop's Palace, being An. 1649. ſtrip'd of its Lead, has, with Part of the Cloiſters, gone to great Decay; as has alſo, for the ſame reaſon, the Chapter-houſe, which opens into the North Tranſept by a Paſſage cut thro', the old grand Entrance was into the Eaſt Cloiſter. This being a large venerable Building, [not improbably ſuppoſed to have been originally an Oratory to a Convent, before Hugh Lupus's Foundation] was deſigned by the preſent worthy Biſhop to be repaired and fitted up again, and converted into a Library:

brary: Which good Work the Biſhop having begun, and liberally contributed to, there is no doubt but his Example will be followed. Moſt of the Offices of the Abby have had the good Fortune to be tolerably preſerved, tho' built with a red mouldering Stone, and ſeem to look much older than really they are. The Tower of the Church, which ſtands on four Pillars in the Middle, was deſigned, as they have a Tradition here, to ſupport a lofty Spire: 'Tis only 127 Foot in Height, and has in it five large Bells, recaſt An. 1604. and 1605. in Biſhop Lloyd's time; in whoſe Predeceſſor's time, An. 1599. the whole Nave of the Church was flagged, and paved throughout. The Length of the whole Fabrick is 348 Foot from Eaſt to Weſt; the Breadth of the Body and Side-Iſles are agreeable to the Height of the Roof, which is 73 Foot: But theſe Dimenſions will be beſt diſtinguiſhed and underſtood by the Ichnography here annex'd, which has References not only to all the old Tombs before 1600. but even to thoſe erected ſince. And as to the antient Graveſtones, they being but few, and thoſe moſtly of Abbats, I ſhall crave leave to inſert an entire Catalogue of the Abbats, notwithſtanding the Series of them already publiſhed in my firſt Vol. of Abbies; foraſmuch as I have lately received from the Rev. Mr. Stones, Minor-Canon of this Church, a very curious Account of their Succeſſion and Place of Burial, which I hope may not be unacceptable, ſince I have hereby the Opportunity (which I am always glad of) to correct and improve what I have before printed.

Abbats of CHESTER.

Richard was appointed firſt Abbat on the Foundation, An. 1093. He died April 26. 1117. and was buried in the Eaſt Angle or Corner of the South Cloiſter, now in Ruins, near the Entrance into the North Iſle of the Cathedral, and ſucceeded by William, for he occurs Abbat 1118. He died Oct. 5. 1140. and was buried in the ſame Cloiſter at the Head of his Predeceſſor, and ſucceeded by Ralph, An. 1140. He died Nov. 16. 1157. and was buried in the ſame Cloiſter, on the left Side Abbat William.

Robert Fitznigel ſucceeded, and received the Benediction Dec. 6. 1157. He died January 31. 1174. and was buried in the Eaſt Cloiſter, under a Marble, on the right Hand of the Entrance into the Chapter-houſe. He was, as is ſuppoſed, of the Family of Fitznigels, Barons of Halton.

Robert

ROBERT the ſecond ſucceeded, being elected Feb. 3. 1174. and having received the Benediction two Days after, viz. Feb 5. at St. John's Church in the City of Cheſter. He died Aug. 27. 1184. On his Death the King ſeized this Abby into his Hands, and kept it two Years, after which he put in

ROBERT de Haſtings, July 13. 1186. who received his Benediction at Canterbury from Archbiſhop Baldwin. This Abbat was depoſed 1194. when there was a Portion of twenty nine Marks allotted to him for his Life. He lived not long after his Depoſition, and dying in the Convent, was buried in the South Cloiſter, at the Head of the forenam'd William; where, in the Wall, on the right Side, are ſtill diſtinguiſhable three Niches, above the Ruins of that Cloiſter, There are three Marble Stones, with Images and Croſiers cut thereon, which lie buried under the Rubbiſh. On his Depoſition, GEOFRY, by the Intereſt of the Patron, the Earl of Cheſter, was ſubſtituted Abbat. He died May 7. and was buried in the Chapter-Houſe, on the left Side, next the Door. On his Death, which happened 1208.

HUGH GRYLLE was made Abbat. He died April 21. 1226. and was buried in the Chapter-houſe under the ſecond Arch from the Door, on the left Side, at the Feet of Geofry.

WILLIAM MARMION ſucceeded, being elected on the Monday after St. James 1226. He died Aug. 27. 1228. and was buried on the left Hand his Predeceſſor, and ſucceeded by

WALTER PYNCHBECK who received the Benediction at London, Sept. 29. 1228. He died June 22. 1240. and was buried in the Chapter-Houſe, at the Head of Hugh Grylle.

ROGER FRIEND ſucceeded, and received the Benediction Sept. 21. 1240. He died Sept. 23. 1249. and was buried in the Veſtibulum of the Chapter-houſe, under the ſecond Arch from the Door, on the right Side.

THOMAS CAPENHIRST, being then Prior, ſucceeded 1249. He died March 28. 1265. and was buried at the Head of his Predeceſſor Abbat Roger.

SIMON de Albo Monaſterio, alias Whitchurch, ſucceeded, being elected April 17. and confirmed April 24. 1265. He died April 24. 1289. and was buried in the Chapter-houſe, on the South Side, under a Marble Stone, in an Arch, ſupported by ſix Marble Pillars. Some Accounts tell us the Abby remained in the King's Hands for two Years, viz. from 1289. till 1291. when the King appointed

THOMAS

THOMAS Birchelsey, alias Lytheles, one of his Chaplains, Abbat, Jan. 30. 1291. tho' in others he is said not to be made till 1294. and yet he received the Temporalities March 18. that Year. He died An. 1324. and was buried on the South Side the Choir, where is yet a Gravestone that had his Effigies on it in Brass.

WILLIAM de Bebinton, or Burington, Prior of this Abby, succeeded, being elected Feb. 5. 1324. He procured to himself and Successors the Mitre in the Year 1345. and next Year got an Exemption from the Bishop of Lichfield's Visitation. He died Nov. 20. 1349. and was buried in the Isle, on the South Side the Choir, on the right Side his Predecessor Birchelsey, where his Gravestone, with his Effigies on it, was lately remaining.

RICHARD Seynesbury succeeded 1349. and was about March 1362. deprived by the Pope for Male-Administration, who constituted in his room,

THOMAS Newport, An. 1363. He died at Sutton June 1. 1385. and was buried in the Chapter-house, within the inner Door, where his Tomb was lately discover'd.

WILLIAM *de Mersh*ton, formerly a Monk of this Abby, succeeded, being elected Abbat July 30. 1385. He died Jan. 13. 1385-6. and was buried in the South Isle, on the right of Will. de Babington.

HENRY de Sutton succeeded 1386. He occurs Abbat 1410. and dying May 10. [between 1411, and 1417.] was buried near the Choir-Entrance, on the North Side the first great Pillar on the South, where his Gravestone still remains, before a Piece of Painting on the said Pillar, formerly called the Piety of the Virgin Mary, of which some Outlines were of late remaining. His Successor was

THOMAS YERDELEY: The exact time of his coming in I have not discover'd. 'Tis plain he was Abbat An. 1418, and 1431. He dy'd An. 1434. and was buried in the North Side the Choir, above St. Werburgh's Shrine.

JOHN SALGHALL succeeded An. 1434. He died 1452. and was buried behind the high Altar, between two Pillars, where is still remaining his Gravestone, which had his Image on it in Brass. His Successor was

RICHARD OLDHAM, An. 1452. In Rymer's Fœdera his coming in is placed An. 1454. as he is in the Patent given us in Rymer, by mistake, called Oldern. He died Oct. 13. 1485. being also Bishop of Man.

SIMON RIPLEY succeeded, being elected Abbat An. 1485. He was a great Benefactor to this Church, and finished the middle Isle and Tower,

Tower, and dying at Warwick Aug. 30. 1492. was buried in the Collegiate Church there, and ſucceeded by JOHN BIRCHENSHAW, made Abbat by Papal Proviſion Oct. 4. 1493. He was, I preſume, a Native of Wales, and born near Conway; on the great Bell of which Church I met with this Inſcription, intimating, as I gueſs, that he gave it.

Ave fidelis anima Werburga ſanctis ſpina felix in choro virginum. Ora pro nobis. Johannis Berchinſhaw Abbas Ceſtrie.

He occurs Abbat An. 1512. in ſome Writings; about twelve Years after which he is ſaid to have been diſplaced, on account of ſome Faction, and

THOMAS HYPHILE, or Hyphild, was put in his room about 1524. He acted as Abbat 1525. but was An. 1529. ſet aſide, and

THOMAS MARSHALL ſubſtituted in his Place for ſome ſmall time, An. 1529. but he was about the End of the ſame Year forced to give way to the rightful Abbat, viz.

JOHN BIRCHENSHAW, who became reinſtated about the end of 1529, or beginning of 1530. and enjoyed it to 1535. and doubtleſs to the time of his Death. His Succeſſor was

THOMAS CLARK, about 1537. He occurs Abbat 1538. and at the time of the Diſſolution, An. 1540. and was next Year made the firſt Dean. But he held not his new Office long; for he died within leſs than ſix Weeks, as I judge by the Date of his Will, and his Succeſſor's Poſſeſſion of the Deanary.

As to Lay-Perſons interred here, I find John Arnway, who had been ten times ſucceſſively Mayor of Cheſter, and died 1278. is ſaid to be buried before St. Leonard's Altar, in the South Part of the Church, where he founded two Chantry-Chaplains. As is Richard de Capenhurſt, ſaid to be buried before the high Altar; he died An. 1349. And Richard de Manlegh, who died An. 1366. They were doubtleſs Benefactors to the Abby. The antient Earls of Cheſter were interred in the Chapter-houſe, as appears by our Hiſtories; but there remain no Tombs or Inſcriptions for them. And as to the ſuppoſed Monument of Henry IV. Emperor of Germany, in this Church, it is plainly a Miſtake and vulgar Error: He deceaſed at Spires at Germany, being buried there, as our Authors tell us.

Having now done with the Account of the Abby, I come to ſpeak of this Church in its preſent State, ſince it was made a Cathedral, and ſhall begin with giving an Account of its Endowments.

Endowment of the Biſhoprick of CHESTER, Patent 33. Hen. VIII. Part 2. An. 1541.

THE King grants to the Biſhop of Cheſter, by him newly erected, Cheſter and Richmond Archdeaconries, with all their Appurtenances, Rights, &c. the Manours of Abbats-Coton Co. Cheſter; Lands in the Pariſh of St. Mary's, St. Martin's, St. Michael's, St. Werburgh's, and Trinity, in Cheſter City; Lands in Mancote, Harden, Criſleton, Nantwich, Northwich, Middlewich, Over-Wollaſton, Neſton, Heſwall, Bidſton, Sandhough, i. e. Sandbach, Thornton, Eccleſton, and Roſthorn, and Davenham; Parcel of St. Werburgh's late Monaſtery; the Advowſon of Over Rectory; Penſions iſſuing out of Handley Rectory, Budworth Chapel, and Bidſtone Rectory; Parcel of Birkenhead Abby; Advowſons of Tattenhall and Waverton; Rectories of Clopham, Eſingwold, Thornton-Stuart, Bolton in Lonſdale, Bolton le Moor, and the Prebend of Bolton le Moor in Lichfeild Cathedral; the Manour of Weſton Co. Derby.: Habend. to the Biſhop and his Succeſſors. Teſte Aug. 5.

Mr. Wharton remarks, that Cheſter Biſhoprick was firſt founded July 16. 1541. but, on ſome Miſtakes, a new Charter was granted on Aug. 5.

Alienations of LANDS of Cheſter Biſhoprick.

N. B. AS Henry VIII. conferred theſe Eſtates on John Bird, whom he made firſt Biſhop of Cheſter, ſo he the ſaid John Bird conveyed them all back again to Hen. VIII, parting with all the Demeſnes and Royalties, and accepting, in lieu thereof, Impropriations and Rectories, which is the ſole Endowment of this See at this Day; there being not one Acre belonging to it of Temporalities, except the Epiſcopal Palace of Cheſter. The Eſtates he had on his Exchange, as ſpecify'd in the Patent, which bears Date Jan. 8. 1546. 38 Hen. VIII. Part 5. are as follow:

The

The King, in Conſideration of Weſton, and other Manours, grants to John Biſhop of Cheſter the following Rectories and Advowſons of the Vicaridges of Cotingham Co. York; Kirkby, Ravenſworth, Patrick-Brompton, Wirklington, Ribcheſter, Chipping, Mottrum, Bradley Co. Stafford; Caſtleton Co. Derby, Walliſee, Weverham, Backford, Bowden; yeilding and paying as a chief Rent, 15 l. 19 s. 9 d. By this Exchange, theſe Rectories being valued at as much as the Manours, there was little deducted for the Firſt-Fruits, it paying ſtill 421 l. 1 s. 8 d.

The Value of the Eſtates, on founding the Biſhoprick, wasas follows:

Abbats-Coton	19	11	8
Cheſter Nunnery Eſtates	91	2	8
Weſton Manour	84	1	9
Bridſton Rectory	6	13	4
In all	487	9	4

But Repriſals, and other limited Payments out of it, reduced it to conſiderably leſs than 400 l. per An.

In the Archives at Lambeth is an Account of all the Eſtates of every Biſhoprick, as they were diſperſed and ſold in the Time of the Anarchy and Confuſion in 1649. There are theſe recounted belonging to this See, which are, as I am informed, every Eſtate the Biſhop has: Llangaden Impropriation; Llaneblick R. Little Budworth R. Caſtleton R. Co. Derby, Bowden R. Mottyram R. Arleton R. Co. Cumberland. Boulton le Moor R. Cartmeal R. Childwall R. Chipping R. Ribcheſter R. Cottingham R. Eſingwood R. Kirkby-Ravenſworth R. Patrick-Brompton R. Thornton-Stuard R. Weverham R. Bidſton R. Wallaſey R. Backford R. Over R. Bradley R. Co. Stafford, Bolton R. Clapham R. In all twenty five Impropriations.

And that there were no Demeſnes belonging to this, appears by the Sale of Lands of other Biſhopricks; there being only ſold of Cheſter Biſhoprick, An. 1650. the Archdeacon's Houſe near St. John's Church in Cheſter, Sept. 27. to Adam Banks, for 31 l. 18 s. 4 d. beſides the Epiſcopal Palace at Cheſter, Dec. 13. 1650. to Robert Maller and William Richardſon, for 1098 l. ſo that the Total of the Sale of the Lands of this Biſhoprick amounted only to 1129 l. 18 s. 4 d.

The Biſhop of Cheſter is Patron of his ſix Prebends, two Archdeaconries, and about thirty Livings, all in his own Dioceſe, except theſe following; Llangaden V. Co. Carmarthen, Llaneblick V. Co. Carnarvan, Caſtleton V. Co. Derby, Eſſingwold V. Co. York, in York Dioceſe, and Bradley le Moor Co. Stafford; but this laſt the Biſhop has neglected to preſent to for ſeveral Years. Divers of theſe Livings, as Cottingham, Mottram, Ribchſter, Chipping, &c. were noble Benefices before Hen. VIIIth's time, who in a more ſacrilegious manner than the religious Houſes had done, ſtrip'd ſeveral of the beſt Rectories of their Endowments, and reduced them to mean ſtipendiary Curacies.

Endowment of the Dean and Chapter of CHESTER, Patent 33. Hen. VIII. 1541.

THE King grants to the Dean and Chapter of Cheſter the Manours of Huntington, and Sutton, the laſt in Wirehall H. Upton, Bromborough, Ireby, Ince, Salghton, Barnſhaw, Fernell cum Pertinentiis; Lands in Bakford, Huntingdon, Cheveley, Sutton, Bromborough, Upton, Boughton, Newton, Wyrvin, Croghton, Stamford, Criſtleton, Chorleton, Lee, Morton, Salghall, Shotwick; Right of Fiſhery in Dee, as cuſtomary, appertaining to ſeveral of theſe Places; Rectories of Shotwick, Bromborough, Upton, Weſtkirkby, Preſtbury, Great and Little Neſton, Willaſton, and Ince, Parcel of Cheſter late Monaſtery; Tythes in St. Oſwald's Pariſh in Cheſter City; Rectory and Advowſon of Cambden Co. Glouceſter; Penſion of 40*l.* iſſuing out of Rufford Manour Co. Lancaſter; Penſions out of Criſleton, and out of the Churches of St. Mary's and St. Peter's in Cheſter City, Bebington, Eſtham, Weſtkirkby, Thurſtanton, Doddleſtone, Codrington, Tatenhall, Waverton, Hanley, Aſtbury, and Northendon; Advowſons of Criſtleton, and St. Mary's, and St. Peter's in Cheſter City, Bebington, Thurſtanton, Weſtkirby, Doddleſton, Coddington, Handley, Aſtbury, and Northendon; Advowſons of the Vicaridges of Neſton, Preſtbury, St. Oſwald's in Cheſter, and Eaſtham, with all Lands, &c. belonging to thoſe Places, which were ever Parcel of Cheſter late Abby: habend. to them and their Succeſſors in puram & perpetuam Elymoſynam, Aug. 5.

The Value of theſe Lands, at founding, was as follows, viz.

Impro-

Six Almſmen, 6 l. 13 s. 4 d. each	40	0	0
In Alms	20	0	0
In Reparations they were alſo to expend	20	0	0
They were to pay for Firſt-Fruits	106	16	5
And afterward the Tenths of them annually.

So that 936 l. 1 s. 9 d. being thus accounted for, there remain'd but 7 l. 10 s. 11 d. clear Value undiſpoſed of.

In

In the Library of Sir Tho. Sebright, inter MSS. clariſſimi Edvardi Llyd, fol 111. is tranſcribed a Copy of the Statutes of the Cathedral of Chriſt-Church, and the Bleſſed Virgin Mary of Cheſter, as given by King Henry VIII. and afterward alter'd by Queen Elizabeth, An. Reg. 27.

Upon Nov. 20. 1550. William Cliff, Dean of Cheſter, ſurrender'd up the Manour of Idenſhaw; and 1553. May 14. had a Licence granted him to alienate the Manours of Huntington and Cheveley to Sir Robert Cotton. After which, 1580. An. 22. Eliz. the Queen recall'd the old Charter of this Chapter, and by her Letters Patent took away from them Dec. 22. ſeveral of their beſt Eſtates, particularly Cambden, and endowed them with ſome few ſmall Fee-Farm-Rents and Impropriations, no ways improveable, as their old Demeſnes were. The whole amounts to 1000 l. per An. out of which the old Rate for Firſt-Fruits and annual Tenths, being 106*l.* was ſtill reſerv'd. In this new Charter of Donation, it is called, Eccleſia Chriſti & Sanctæ Mariæ Ceſtriæ. The Dean and Chapter of Cheſter preſent to no Livings any where, except in Cheſhire.

BISHOPS of CHESTER.

JOHN BIRD, S.T.P. who had, on account of ſome Sermons he preach'd againſt the Pope's Supremacy, recommended himſelf ſo much to King Henry the VIIIth's Favour, as to be made Biſhop of Bangor, was by that Prince tranſlated hither, on his founding this Biſhoprick, Aug. 5. 1541. At which time it was made Suffragan to Canterbury; but April 13. following, An. 1542. it was ſubjected to York, and Biſhop Bird made his Profeſſion of Obedience to that Archbiſhop. Having in the Hiſtory of Bangor Cathedral given an Account of this Biſhop, I ſhall ſay the leſs of him here. I have already noted, that An. 1546. he granted away all the Manours and Demeſnes of this Biſhoprick, and accepted of Impropriations in lieu thereof. But notwithſtanding this Grant, in which no doubt he got conſiderably from the Courtiers, he was, An. 1553. on Queen Mary's Acceſſion to the Crown, ſo overrun with Debt, that he owed 1087*l.* 18*s.* for Tenths and Subſidies, which was a great Sum in thoſe times, and would poſſibly have been ſcarcely remitted him, but thro' his Intereſt with Biſhop Bonner, with whom he complied in every reſpect, as he had done in all Changes of Government and Religion, and ſo would doubtleſs have been ſuffered to keep his Biſhoprick, had he not broke his Vow of Celibacy, which was (as our Records mention) the Occaſion of his Deprivation, An. 1554. After which which retiring to London, and being by Bishop Bonner (to whom he became a Suffragan) made Rector of Great Dunmow in Essex, died there, being very aged, viz. about 81. and was buried in the Church of Dunmow (as I learn from a MSS. Note of Bale) without any Memorial. So that what the Chester Writers intimate of his Death and Burial among them in the Cathedral, An. 1556. seems entirely a Mistake, and to relate rather to his Successor

GEORGE COTES, S. T. P. Master of Baliol-College, Oxon, and Rector of one of the Medieties of Cotgrave Co. Nottingham, who became consecrated Bishop of this See April 1. 1554. on the Vacancy, as 'tis express'd in the Patents, by the voluntary Resignation of John Bird, last Bishop. He died at Chester, as I judge by some Notes I have seen, about Jan. 1555. and was obscurely buried in the Cathedral, near the Bishop's Throne. Fox accuses him, in his Acts and Monuments (where see some Account of his Predecessor Bird, Vol. III. p. 259, and 260.) about the Condemnation of one Marsh, who was a Martyr of those times, and villifies his Memory: Tho', by what I can discover, he was a good Man, and a most learned Divine, only possessed with an over-warm Zeal for his Religion, which was the Case of CUTHBERT SCOT, S. T. P. Master of Christ's-College, Cambridge, and Prebendary of York, who succeeded him in the Bishoprick, the Temporalities of which he received April 24. 1556. Being a zealous Catholick, he was soon after Queen Elizabeth's Accession to the Crown deprived, and for some time imprison'd in the Fleet, for his Religion; after which retiring beyond Seas to Lovain, he there ended his Days, and was buried. On his Deprivation.

WILLIAM DOWNHAM, A. M. Archdeacon of Brecknock, and Prebendary of Westminster, was consecrated Bishop May 4. 1561. He died Dec. 3. 1577. and was buried Dec. 8. in the Choir of this Cathedral, with the following Inscription on his Gravestone, on a Plate of Brass, long since perished.

Gulielmi Downham, qui ter sex claruit annos,
Praesul in hoc tumulo flebile corpus inest.
Bis triginta & bis sex vixit vixisset & ultra
Multorum possint si valuere preces.
Insignis pietate pater, solamen amicis,
Pauperibus stricta non fuit ille manu.

MDLXXVII. Decembris 31.

Ths

This Biſhop left behind him two learned Sons, both eminent Writers, and graduated in Divinity, one of which was ſometime Prebendary of this Cathedral. His Succeſſor, after near two Years Vacancy (which I wonder at, becauſe this Church had no Demeſnes to alienate) was

WILLIAM CHADERTON, S. T. P. Archdeacon of York, Warden of Manchester-College, Prebendary of York, Weſtminſter, and Southwell, confirmed Biſhop Nov. 7. and conſecrated Nov. 9. 1579. He was An. 1595. tranſlated to Lincoln, in which Dioceſe he purchaſed an Eſtate at Southoe in Huntingdonſhire, a Mile off his Epiſcopal Palace of Buckden; where living altogether, he let the Houſes belonging to his See go much to Ruin. He died at Southoe April 11. 1608. and was next Day, as I diſcovered in the Pariſh-Regiſter of Southoe, interred in that Chancel; tho' there is not the leaſt Memorial, or Graveſtone, erected for him, or any of his Family, who have been long ſince gone from Southoe. Sir John Harrington tells us, he had Iſſue only one Daughter, for whom he ſcraped a great Fortune, and married her to a Knight, tho' it was not a happy Match, they living aſunder. While he ſate Biſhop here, he was a great Encourager of the puritanical Exerciſe of Propheſying. On Biſhop Chaderton's Tranſlation to Lincoln,

HUGH BELLET, S. T. P. Rector of Tydde Co. Cambridge, and Vicar of Gresford Co. Denbigh, and at length Biſhop of Bangor, was preferred from that See hither June 25. 1595. and had the Temporalities reſtored Oct. 27. following. He died in leſs than a Year, at Birſe, near Wrexham, in Wales, about June 13. 1596. and was buried at Wrexham Co. Denbigh (his Funeral being ſolemnized at Cheſter, June 22.) with this Inſcription on his Monument, affixed to the South Wall in Wrexham Chancel:

Sub certa ſpe glorioſæ reſurrectionis, hic in domino obdormivit reverendus in Chriſto pater Hugo Bellot, Sacræ Theologiæ Doctor; ex antiqua familia Bellotorum de Morton in Com. Ceſtriæ oriundus: Quem ob ſingularem in Deum pietatem, vitæ, integritatem, prudentiam, & doctrinam, Regina Elizabetha primum ad epiſcopatum Bangorenſem in quo x annos ſedit, poſtea ad epiſcopatum Ceſtrenſem tranſtulit; ex quo, poſt paucos menſes, Chriſtus in cœleſtem patriam evocavit An. Dom. 1596. Ætatis ſuæ 54. Cuthbertus Bellot fratri optimo & chariſſimo mœſtiſſimus poſuit.

In ſome Accounts I have ſeen, he is reported to have had ſo ſtrict a Veneration for the Celibacy of the Prieſthood, as never to permit a Woman man to inhabit or lie in his Houſe. His Succeſſor in both Sees, not only at Bangor, but in this, was

RICHARD VAUGHAN, S. T. P. Archdeacon of Middleſex, and Canon of Wells, who became tranſlated from Bangor hither May 16. 1597. and was enthronized at Cheſter Nov. 10. following. While he ſate here, being a Man of a publick Spirit, he very much promoted the Reparation of his Cathedral, as he had before done at Bangor, and cauſed the Bells to be new caſt, and hung in the great Tower; as he had all the Weſt Roof to be new leaded, and the Timber-Work to be repaired. He was about Dec. 1604. tranſlated to London, where he died March 30. 1607. and was buried in that Cathedral, without any Memorial. In Holland's Herologia is a Picture of him, and ſome Account of his Writings. On his Tranſlation to London,

GEORGE LLOYD, S. T. P. Rector of Thornton and Bangor in this Dioceſe, and Biſhop of the Iſle of Man, was tranſlated hither Jan. 14. 1604. He died at Thornton, and was buried in the Cathedral, near Biſhop Downham, with this Inſcription on a Plate of Braſs, long ſince ſtollen off his Graveſtone.

Immatura mors hoc concluſit ſepulcro cor. Georgii Lloyd, cujus memoria reveretur Ceſtria; natione fuit Cambr. educatione Cantabrig. Theologiæ Doctor, Theologorum Ductor; Sodorenſi præfuit, & profuit epiſcopat. quingennio præfectus pacto; mater Angliæ repetiit prolem, & dignatus eſt ſinu Epiſcopatus Ceſtr. ubi undecim meſſibus non ſine procellis dolorum elapſis quinquageſimo quinto ætatis ſuæ anno, & primo die menſis Auguſti, An. Dom. 1615. lachrymatus lachrymandus obiit; nec pudet vitæ, nec piget mortis.

After his Death,

GERRARD MASSIE, S. T. P. Rector of Wigan, was nominated by King James to this See, who going up to London to ſettle Matters in order to his Conſecration, died there Jan. 16. 1615. and was buried in St. Mary le Savoy Church in Weſtminſter, without any Memorial. Le Neve tells us he was nominated Biſhop An. 1618. after Biſhop Moreton; whereas it is evident he was deceaſed long before the Election of

THOMAS MORETON, S. T. P. Dean of Wincheſter, Rector of Stockport in this Dioceſe, which bears Date May 22. 1616. as does his Confirmation July 5. and Conſecration July 7. following. He was An. 1618. tranſlated to Lichfeild, and thence to Durham; as is already mentioned in the preceding Account of him in Durham, Pag. 249. On his quitting this See,

JOHN BRIDGMAN, S. T. P. Rector of Wigan and Bangor in this Dioceſe, Prebendary of Lichfeild and Peterborough, became elected Biſhop March 15. 1618. In Prince's Worthies of Devonſhire, is ſome Account of his Life, he being born at Exeter: Tho' that Author, and other Writers, are all miſtaken as to his Death An. 1648, or 1649. and Burial at Cheſter; whereas he did not die till 1652. as A. Wood tells us, or rather, as I have lately been informed, till 1657, or 1658. When departing this Life at his Son's Houſe at Moreton, near Oſweſtre in Shropſhire, he was buried at Kinnerſley Church, near Moreton aforeſaid, with this Inſcription on a blue Stone in the Chancel, without any Date upon it.

Hic jacet ſepultus Johannes Bridgman, epiſcopus Ceſtrienſis.

Which being thought too obſcure, cauſed his Great-Grandſon to erect a handſome Monument againſt the Chancel North Wall, about four Years ago, with this Inſcription on it:

M. S. reverendi admodum viri Johannis Bridgman, Epiſcopi Ceſtrienſis; qui iniquitate temporum, quibus factio & uſurpatio valebant, ab epiſcopali ſede depulſus, ad ædes filii ſui, apud Moreton, ſe contulit; ubi latens pietati precibuſque vacabat, & tandem ſuaviter dormiebat in Chriſto; cujus reliquiæ mortales ſub marmore juxta hunc parietem locatæ in reſurrectionem ſupremo Die futuram, & omnibus Deo per fidem inſervientibus reconduntur. In memoriam proavi ſui optime meriti hoc Monumentum poſuit Johannes Bridgman, Baronettus, 21 Die Decembris, An. Dom. 1719.

His Succeſſor was

BRIAN WALTON, S. T. P. Prebendary of St. Paul's Cathedral, and Rector of St. Martin's Orgar, London, and Sandon in Eſſex, conſecrated Dec. 2. 1660. He died Nov. 29. 1661. and was buried in St. Paul's Cathedral, London, with this Inſcription on his Monument affixed againſt the South Wall on one Side the Choir:

HENRY FERNE, S. T. P. Maſter of Trinity-College, Cambridge, Dean of Ely, Archdeacon of Leiceſter, and Rector of Medbourne in that County, ſucceeded, being conſecrated in Feb. 1661. He died March 16. and was buried in St. Edmond's Chapel in Weſtminſter Abby, with this Inſcription on his Graveſtone:

Hic jacet Henricus Ferne, S. T. P. Johannis Ferne militis, civitat. Eborac. a ſecretis, filius natu octavus; collegii S. S. Trinitatis, Cantabr. præfectus, ſimul Ceſtrienſis epiſcopus; ſedit 5 tantum ſeptimanis. Obiit Martii 16. A. D. 1662. Ætatis 59.

His Succeſſor was

GEORGE HALL, S. T. P. Archdeacon of Cornwall and Canterbury, Canon of Exeter and Windſor, Vicar of Minhenet in Cornwal, and of St. Buttolph's Alderſgate, London, conſecrated May 11. 1662. He died Aug. 23. 1668. and was buried at Wigan in Lancaſhire, of which Church he was alſo Rector, as I ſaw by an Entry of his Burial in that Pariſh-Regiſter, where is laid over him, within the Communion-Rails, a black Marble Graveſtone, bearing this Inſcription:

P. M. S. Cujus repoſtus pulvere in ſacro cinis expectat hic ultimæ ſonum tubæ; mendace qui ne falleret titulo lapis, ſonum ſuum hoc ſepulcro juſſit incidi ſuo.

Georgius Hall, *S. T. In the Cathedral of Cheſter is erected alſo this Inſcription verbatim to his Memory; tho' 'tis plain it is but a Cænotaph there, and that his real Body lies in Wigan Chancel; where alſo his Wife was buried, who deceaſed the Year after him. She gave a Benefaction to Wigan Town, and has on that account her Name put upon a Tablet, where ſhe is call'd erroneouſly a Lady. His Succeſſor was

JOHN WILKINS, S. T. P. (Warden of Wadham-College, Oxon, in Oliver Cromwell's time, whoſe Siſter he had married, and after the Reſtauration, Dean of Rippon, and Prebendary of York) conſecrated Nov. 15. 1668. He died Nov. 19. and was buried Dec. 12. 1672. in the Church of St. Laurence Jewry, London, of which he had been Miniſter, without any Memorial, leaving behind him the Character of having been an univerſal Scholar. His Succeſſor was

JOHN PEARSON, S. T. P. Maſter of Trinity-College, Cambridge; Prebendary of Sarum and Ely, and Archdeacon of Surry (which laſt he held in commendam with the Rectory of Wigan in Lancaſhire, as his two Predeceſſors had done Wigan Rectory) conſecrated Feb. 9. 1672. This excellent Biſhop, whoſe Memory will live by his learned Expoſition on the CREED, died July 16. 1686. and was buried without the leaſt Inſcription or Graveſtone, within the Communion Rails of his own Cathedral. In his Will, dated Jan. 2. 1677. which has a Codicil added to it, dated June 18. 1685. he gave twenty Pounds to the Poor of St. Oſwald's in Cheſter City, twenty Pounds to Great Snoring Poor, in his native County of Norfolk, and a hundred Pound to his Nephew Dr. Thane, the preſent Archdeacon of Cheſter. On his Death,

THOMAS CARTWRIGHT, S.T. P. Vicar of Walthamſtow and Barking in Eſſex, Prebendary of London, Wells, and Durham, was conſecrated to this See, with Licence to hold Wigan Rectory in commendam, Oct. 17. 1686. This Biſhop, who had run the Lengths of King James II. and was by him nominated to the See of Sarum, died April 15. 1689. in the City of Dublin in Ireland, being glad to quit the Realm at the Revolution, where he had render'd himſelf obnoxious, and was buried in Chriſt-Church Collegiate Church in Dublin, without any Memorial,

Memorial, as I am informed from thence; leaving behind him a Son, who was Prebendary of Worceſter, but forced to leave it and the Kingdom for his Extravagances. His Succeſſor in this See was

NICHOLAS STRATFORD, S. T. P. conſecrated Sept. 15. 1689. He was Rector of Llanſanfrayd Sinecure, Co. Montgomery, and otherwiſe beneficed; an Account of which being given in the Inſcription put on his Monument in this Cathedral, I ſhall thither refer for the Character of this worthy Prelate; whoſe conſtant Reſidence in his Dioceſe will render his Memory precious to Poſterity; as will his Zeal in repairing his Cathedral endear him to this City, beyond what is ſaid of him in his Epitaph, which is inſcribed on a Copartment of white Marble on the North Side the high Altar, being the only remaining Monument whatſoever of any Biſhop interred in this Church, Biſhop Hall's being, as already obſerved, only a Cænotaph. The Inſcription is as follows:

His Succeſſor was

Sir William Dawes, Baronet, S. T. P. firſt Fellow of St. John's College, Oxford, and afterwards Maſter of Katherine-Hall, Cambridge, Prebendary of Worceſter, Dean of Bocking Co. Eſſex, who became conſecrated to this See Feb. 8. 1707. He was Feb. 26. 1713. tranſlated to York, and ſucceeded by the preſent worthy Biſhop, An. 1723. viz.

Francis Gastrell, S. T. P. Preacher of Lincolns-Inn, and Canon of Chriſt-Church, Oxon, born at Slapton in Northamptonſhire, conſecrated April 4. 1714.

Deans of CHESTER.

Thomas Clerk, B. D. laſt Abbat of this Church, was made firſt Dean, on Converſion of the Monaſtery into a Cathedral, by the Charter dated Aug. 4. 1341. He died or reſigned in leſs than half an Year. His Will bears Date in September, about ſix Weeks after his Admiſſion to his new Preferment, which I preſume he had no Enjoyment of in his Mind. His Succeſſor was

Henry Man, S. T. P. whom I find poſſeſs'd of it March 28. 1542. He was An. 1546. made Biſhop of the Iſle of Man, with Liberty to hold this Dignity in commendam: However he very ſoon reſigned the ſame, and was ſucceeded by

William Cliff, LL. D. preſented to it May 30. 1547. While he continued Dean he alienated ſeveral Eſtates belonging to the Church; as Edenſhaw Manour, Nov. 20. 1550. as he had in like manner ſacrilegiouſly given up the Treaſurerſhip of York into Lay Hands, to be diſſolved. He died at London, about Dec. 7. 1558. and was ſucceeded by Richard Walker, A. M. An. 1558. who is, by Miſtake, called Roger by ſeveral Writers. This Richard Walker, as we learn from Anglia Sacra, Vol. 1. p. 456. had paſſed thro' ſeveral Preferments; as a Rectory in Wirral, St. John's-College Deanary, in Cheſter the Archdeaconries of Stafford and Derby, and Rectories of Gotham and Leck

Co-

Co. Nottingham. He died at or near Lichfeild, as I learn from his Will, dated Sept. 4. and proved Nov. 11. 1567. in which he appointed to be buried in Lichfeild Cathedral, where he had been Canon. On his Death,

JOHN PIERS, S. T. P. was preſented to this Dignity, vacant, as 'tis expreſs'd in the Patent, by the Death of Richard Walker, Oct. 4. 1567. He was afterwards made Dean of Chriſt-Church, Oxon, and at length Archbiſhop of York; but kept this Deanary, with that of Chriſt-Church, till his getting Salisbury Deanary, at the End of 1571. when, on his Reſignation,

RICHARD LANGWORTH, S. T. P. Prebendary of Durham, was preſented to this Dignity Feb. 28. 1572. on Dr. Peirs's Reſignation. In his laſt Will and Teſtament, which I have ſeen, ſeemingly a nuncupative one, dated April 19. and proved July 8. 1579. he bequeaths a hundred Marks to Ann Langworth, which he ſays was allowed him about Cheſter Matter (probably in his trying to recover ſome Eſtates alienated by his Predeceſſors.) He alſo gives a Legacy to his Hoſt at the Red-Lion Inn at Holborn, where I gueſs he died, and might be buried in St. Andrew's Church there. His Succeſſor was

ROBERT DORSET, S. T. P. Canon of Chriſt-Church, Oxon, preſented Aug. 17. 1579. on Dr. Langworth's Death, and inſtalled by Proxy Sept. 10. following. He died May 29. 1580. and was buried at Ewelm Co. Oxon. where he was Rector, without any Monument, and ſucceeded by

THOMAS MODESLEY, B. D. preſented Aug. 12. 1580. on Dorſet's Death. He died about the beginning of June 1589. and was ſucceeded by

JOHN NUTTER, B. D. preſented July 4. 1589. He died March 30. 1602. and was buried at Sefton, where he was Rector, as I learn from that Pariſh-Regiſter, April 18. 1602. without any Memorial, and ſucceeded by

WILLIAM BARLOW, S. T. P. inſtalled June 12. 1602. He was 1605. made Biſhop of Rocheſter, and ſucceeded by

HENRY PARRY, S. T. P. inſtalled, Aug. 1. 1605. He was 1607. made Biſhop of Glouceſter, and ſucceeded by

THOMAS MALLORY, B. D. Archdeacon of Richmond, Rector of Romaldkirk, Mobberley, and Davenham, inſtalled July 25. 1607. He died April 3. 1644. and was buried in the Cathedral, without any Memorial, and ſucceeded by

WILLIAM

WILLIAM NICHOLS, S. T. P. inſtalled April 12. 1644. He died Dec. 16. and was buried Dec. 19. 1657. at Northenden, where he was Rector, with this Inſcription painted on a Board:

Hic ſubtus humatur corpus venerabilis viri Gulielmi Nicholis, ſacræ theologiæ Doctoris, Ceſtriæ Decani, & Rectoris de Cheadle; qui Catherinam filiam Georgii Leyceſtre, Equitis Aurati, viduam & relictam Gulielmi Tatton de Withinſhaw, Armigeri, *nupſit. His Succeſſor, after above two Years Vacancy was

HENRY BRIDGMAN, S. T. P. preſented by the Crown July 13. 1660. on the Death of Dr. Nicols. His other Preferments were the Rectory of Barrow, to which he was inſtituted Dec. 16. 1639. as he was to Monks Bangor Rectory Jan. 9. 1640. and May 28. 1648. to Richmond Archdeaconry. He was Oct. 1. 1671. conſecrated Biſhop of Man, with leave to hold this Deanary in commendam; and dying May 15. 1682. at Cheſter, he was buried in the Cathedral, without any Memorial, and ſucceeded by

JAMES ARDERN, S. T. P. Miniſter of St. Botolph's Alderſgate, London, inſtalled in July 1682. He died Aug. 18. 1691. and was buried in the Cathedral without any Memorial, and ſucceeded by

LAURENCE FOGG, S. T. P. Vicar of Plemonſtall, inſtalled Nov. 2. 1691. He died Feb. 28. 1717. and was buried in the Cathedral likewiſe, without any Memorial, and ſucceeded by

WALTER OFFLEY, A. M. inſtalled about March 27. 1718. He died Aug. 18. 1721. being Rector of Barthomley in this Dioceſe, and of Muccleſton Co. Stafford, and Prebendary of Lichfield, and was buried at Succleſton, and ſucceeded by THOMAS ALLEN, LL. D. Archdeacon of Stafford inſtalled Dec. 6. 1721.

ARCH-

Archdeacons of CHESTER ſince it's Separation from Lichfield Dioceſe, and being made a diſtinct See.

William Knight, LL. D. having ſurrender'd this Dignity May 20. 1541. on its being diſſevered from the Church of Lichfield; that Hen. VIII, might better annex it to his new intended See at Cheſter, would doubtleſs have been conſtituted firſt Archdeacon of this Foundation, as all the other old Archdeacons were in the reſt of the new erected Sees; but being made Biſhop of Bath and Wells a few Days afterwards, this Dignity remained vacant 'till

John Bird, S. T. P. firſt Biſhop became tranſlated hither from Bangor, Aug. 5. 1541. who having got the whole Archidiaconal Power veſted in him, on Payment of a Stipend of 50 l. per. An. to a nominal Archdeacon, he reſerved the Stipend to himſelf, and executed the Office by Deputies; for in the Convocation, An. 1545. he made Nicholas Buxie his Proxy to appear for the Archdeaconſhip. And that he held this Dignity till his Deprivation, An. 1553. I have reaſon to think, inaſmuch as I find no regular Archdeacon eſtabliſh'd till Queen Mary's Acceſſion to the Crown, when Biſhop Cotes ſeems to have conſtituted

Robert Perseval, B. D. Rector of Ripley, his Archdeacon An. 1554. He was An. 1559. as Sanders has it in his Book de Viſibili Monarchia, Lib. 7. Fol. 666. deprived and impriſon'd for his Religion, and thruſt out of this Archdeaconry, and his Prebend in this Church, tho' whether he afterwards complied with the Times, and kept Ripley and this Dignity, I cannot learn, but I believe he did not, for I meet with John Pullen, Rector of Ripley An. 1564. after which Time

Robert Rogers, B. D. occurs Archdeacon of Cheſter. He died, An. 1595. and was ſucceeded by

Cuthbert Bellot, B. D. collated Jan. 13. 1595. on the Death of Rogers. He was alſo Rector of Maghuntley, alias Macchenleth, a Sinecure, Co. Montgomery, and Prebendary of Weſtminſter, of which I judge he died poſſeſſed An. 1620. tho' it is plain he had before reſigned his Archdeaconry; for I find

George Snell, B. D. collated to it Jan. 16. 1618. on the Reſignation of Cuthbert Bellot. He died Feb. 5. 1655. and was buried in St. Mary's Church in Cheſter, with this ſhort Epitaph:

Hic ſitus eſt Georgius Snell, S. T. P. Archidiaconus Ceſtrienſis, qui per Injuriam Temporis in Communionem Laicam redactus privatus obiit Feb. 5. 1655.

He was alſo Rector of Walliſee and Smeaton, and as I preſume of St. Mary's Cheſter. His Succeſſor was

JOHN CARTER, S. T. P. Miniſter, as I take it, of Highgate, near London, whom I find preſented to it by the Crown, Oct. 19. 1660. on the Death of the laſt Incumbent not named; to whom ſucceeded

WILLIAM FINMORE, A. M. inſtalled Nov. 6. 1666. He died, and was buried in the Cathedral, with this Inſcription on his Monument:

H. S. E. In ſpe beatæ reſurrectionis, reverendus Gulielmus Finmore, eccleſiæ Ceſtrienſis Archidiaconus & Prebendarius, necnon per aliquamultos annos ibidem Theſaurarius & Receptor, quo utroque munere ad mortem uſque ſumma cum laude ac aliorum fructu functus eſt vir alioqui cum gravitate ac probitate morum, tum varia eruditione, atqui conſtanti in regem fide, undiquaque ſpectabilis, Diem Obiit menſe Aprilis vii *Eid. His Succeſſor was

JOHN ALLEN, A. M. collated April 12. 1686. He died April 17. 1695. and was buried in the Cathedral, with this Inſcription on his Monument:

Hic ſitus eſt reverendus Johannes Allen, hujus eccl. Prebendarius, Archidiaconus, necnon Collegii S. His Succeſſor was

EDMUND ENTWISLE, S. T. P. Rector of Barrow, collated April 30. 1695. on the Death of Allen. He died, and was buried Sept. 17. 1707. in the Cathedral, with this Inſcription:

Edmundus Entwiſle, S. T. P. Archidiaconus Ceſtrienſis, & cathedralis hujus Canonicus, filius tertius Johannis Entwiſle de Foxholes in Com.

His Succeſſor was

JOHN THANE, S. T. P. inſtalled about Feb. 1707. on the Death of Dr. Entwiſle, living 1723. Rector of Northendon, and Prebendary of this Church.

Archdeacons of RICHMOND, ſince its Separation from York.

WILLIAM KNIGHT, LL. D. laſt Archdeacon of Richmond, while it remained a Dignity in York Cathedral, and belonged to that Dioceſe, being, as ſpoken of in Cheſter Archdeaconry, made Biſhop of Bath and Wells, occaſion'd, on its Vacancy,

JOHN BIRD, the firſt Biſhop of this new See to take it into his own Hands, and exerciſe the Office of Archdeacon, as I find he did An. 1545. by conſtituting Richard Smith to be his Proctor or Proxy for him as Archdeacon at the Convocation, An. 1545. And that he held it likewiſe An. 1551. appears by this Mandate, directed to him by the King's Letters Patent, dated Jan. 11. An. 4. Edw. VI. Part 5. as I tranſcrib'd it from the Rolls-Chapel.

Rex reverendo in Chriſto Patri, Johanni permiſſione divina Ceſtrien. Epiſcopo Archidiacono Archidiaconatum Richmondiæ; ejuſve Vicegerenti infra dictam Archidiaconatam cuicunque ſalutem; ad eccleſiam parochialem de Bedall, vacantem per mortem Thomæ Magnus, ad preſentationem noſtram ratione minoris Ætatis W. Digby, ſpectant dilectum nobis Henricum Ilkyns vobis præſentamus. Teſte Jan. 11.

In 1553. he, viz. Biſhop Bird, being deprived of this Biſhoprick, and ſo conſequently of the Archdeaconry, his Succeſſor, Biſhop Cotes, appointed to this Dignity

JOHN HANSON, An. 1554. of whom all I find is this, that 1559. he became ejected out of this and all his other Preferments by Queen Elizabeth; and being either impriſoned, or threatned to be ſo, for his Religion, he found means to retire beyond Seas with Biſhop Scot, to whom he had been Chaplain, and ſo I preſume ended his Days with him in Lovain. In the afore-cited Book he is reckoned among the Liſt of the Archidiaconi Vincti, vel Exules. On his Deprivation,

CHRISTOPHER GOODMAN, Rector of Alford, became inſtituted 1559, or 1560. He died June 4. 1603. aged 85. and was buried in St. Bride's Church in Cheſter City, having been diſplaced from his Rectory of Alford, by Biſhop Vaughan, for Nonconformity. His Succeſſor was

THOMAS MALLORY, A. M. collated Nov. 6. 1603. on the Death of Goodman. He was An. 1607. made Dean, and ſucceeded by

THOMAS DOD, A. M. collated Dec. 1. 1607. on the Reſignation of Mallory. He died, and was buried at Malpas, with this Inſcription:

Thomas Dod, Doctor of Divinity, Rector of this Church, Chaplain in ordinary to King Charles and King James, died the tenth Day of March 1647. Reſurgam.

His Succeſſor was

HENRY BRIDGMAN, A. M. Son to Biſhop Bridgman, collated May 20. 1648. He occurs poſſeſs'd of it 1660. and being made Dean, and getting other Preferments, reſigned it to his Brother

CHARLES BRIDGMAN, A. M. collated June 10. 1664. He died, and was buried in Queen's-College Church, Oxon, with this Epitaph, now defaced.

Sub

Sub ſpe reditus ad vitam Caroli Bridgman, A. M. Nov. 26. 1678.
Denati reliquiæ hic reponuntur.

HENRY DOVE, B. D. ſucceeded, being collated Dec. 3. 1678. He died about February or March 1694. and was, I preſume, buried at St. Bridget's, London, where he was Vicar, and ſucceeded by

THOMAS LAMPLUGH, A. M. collated April 2. 1695. He died An. 1703. being alſo Prebendary of York, and Rector of the united Pariſhes of St. Andrew Underſhaft and St. Mary Ax, London, where he lies buried, without any Memorial. On his Death,

WILLIAM STRATFORD, B. D. Son to Biſhop Stratford, was collated Sept. 10. 1703. living 1723. S. T. P. Canon of Chriſt-Church, Oxon, and Rector of Little Shelford Co. Berks.

PREBENDARIES of CHESTER.

TO give a Series of the Prebendaries in this Cathedral digeſted into Stalls, as in the preceding ones of York, Durham, and Carliſle, is not ſo very practicable; for, on a Vacancy, the new Prebendary is inſtalled into the loweſt Stall, and not into that of his Predeceſſor: However, as my Authorities furniſh me with almoſt all the Accounts how each Vacancy was filled, I can particularly thereby conjecture, with pretty good Authority, except in one or two, that had the vacant Stalls been aſcertain'd from the Beginning, as in the other Churches, the Succeſſion would probably have ſtood as follows:

FIRST STALL.

WILLIAM WALL was admitted Aug. 14. 1541. per Fundationem. He is An. 1546. ſtyled Dr. Wall, and was doubtleſs the Dr. Wall ſpoken of in the Cheſter Hiſtories, that An. 1537. begun Boughton Conduit to convey Water into the City. He was then Canon of St. John's Collegiate Church, and ſo was eaſier removed to this Dignity, of which he died poſſeſſed An. 1574. and was ſucceeded by

EDWARD BUCKLEY, collated 1574. He held it 1592. and I preſume quitted it 1594. on being made Prebendary of Prees in Lichfeild Cathedral, to

GEORGE DOWNHAM, A. M. Son to Biſhop Downham, who muſt come into this or the third Stall, about 1594, or 1595. He died An. 1634.

1634. Bishop of Derry in Ireland, and was buried in that Cathedral; having resigned this in a few Years after he first obtained it, to

ROGER RAVENSCROFT, A. M. whom I find collated to it March 7. 1598. on the Resignation of George Downham. He died An. 1634. and was buried in the Cathedral, without any Memorial, being also Rector of Dodleston, which about three Months before his Death he resign'd it to

CHARLES DUCKWORTH, A. M. installed also into this Dignity Nov. 14. 1634. on Ravenscroft's Resignation. He died, and was buried at Dodleston, Oct. 8. 1673. without any Memorial, and succeeded by

LAURENCE FOGG, B. D. Vicar of St. Oswald's Chester, collated Oct. 7. 1673. to this Prebend, as 'tis express'd, whereof Charles Duckworth was Incumbent. He was An. 1691. made Dean, and succeeded by

EDMOND ENTWISLE, A. M. collated Nov. 14. 1691. on Fogg's being made Dean. He died, and was buried in the Cathedral, being also Archdeacon, where see more of him. On his Death,

SAMUEL SHAW, A. M. was presented by the Crown, An. 1707. on the Vacancy of the Bishoprick, to this Prebend, void by Entwisle's Death. He died An. 1719. and was buried at Warrington, where he was Rector, and succeeded by JOHN MAPLETOFT, A. M. collated June 27. 1719. on the Death of Shaw; living 1723. Vicar of Neston.

SECOND STALL.

NICHOLAS BUCKSIE, A. M. was admitted Aug. 4. 1541. per Fundationem. He was An. 1545. Proctor for the Chapter in Convocation, as he was also for the Archdeacon of Chester, as already mention'd. On his Death, which happened An. 1566.

JOHN PEIRSE, S. T. P. became collated An. 1566. He was next Year made Dean, and succeeded in this Prebend by

JOHN NUTTER, B. D. installed 1566. He was An. 1588. made Dean, and succeeded by

PETER SHARP, B. D. installed Nov. 14. 1588. in place of Nutter. He died An. 1616. being also Rector of Heswall, and was succeeded by

THOMAS ASHALL, A. M. presented by the Crown May 4. 1616. to a Prebend of this Church, void by the Death of Sharp. He held it 1631. being also Rector of Swetenham, where he died July 15. 1632. and was buried in the Church there July 18. as I learn learn from the Pariſh-Regiſter, without any Memorial. On Aſhall's Death, poſſibly Biſhop Bridgman's Brother-in-law,

WILLIAM HELLIAR, Archdeacon of Barnſtable, took this Prebend, and held it for his Nephew, the Biſhop's Son, two Years, till he was qualify'd for it; who better liking of the third Prebend, held by Biſpham, he the ſaid

WILLIAM BISPHAM, as I judge, quitted that, and was collated to this, Oct. 4. 1634. which is expreſs'd to be void by Helliar's Reſignation. As to Biſpham, he died 1685. being alſo Rector of Brindle, and one of the Medieties of Lym, and was buried in the Cathedral, with this Inſcription on his Monument:

Hic inde agitatus dum vixerit prope jacet Gulielmus Biſpham, hujus Eccleſiæ Subdecanus, & nunc requieſcat. Obiit Jan. 26. 1685. Ætatis ſuæ 88.

JOHN ALLEN, A. M. ſucceeded, being collated April 12. 1686. on Biſpham's Death; of whom ſee more among the Archdeacons of Cheſter. His Succeſſor was

THOMAS WILLIAMSON, A. M. collated Sept. 24. 1695. on the Death of Archdeacon Allen. He died 1696. and was buried at Weſt-Kirkby, where he was Rector, and ſucceeded by

DUDLEY GARENCIERS, A. M. Rector of Waverton, collated Nov. 3. 1696. on the Death of Williamſon. He died, and was buried April 8. 1702. in the Cathedral, without any Memorial, and ſucceeded by ARTHUR FOGG, A. M. Vicar of St. Oſwald's Cheſter, collated April 20. 1702. living 1723. S. T. P. and Rector of Dodleſton.

THIRD STALL.

THOMAS NEWTON, per Fundationem, Aug. 4. 1541.

PETER MANWARING was preſented Feb. 1. 1544. on the Death of Newton, by the King. He was An. 1547. at the Diſſolution of St. John's College, Cheſter, returned among the Prebendaries there, and ſaid to be aged 77. He died An. 1550. and was ſucceeded by JOHN WHITBY, preſented Sept. 15. 1550. by the King, on the Death of Manwaring. He was alſo Prebendary of St. John's, and aged 60, at the Diſſolution, An. 1547.

THOMAS

THOMAS WILSON, B. D. ſucceeded, being inſtituted Oct. 1. 1557. on the Death of Whitby. He quitted this Stall, having divers other Preferments, and was ſucceeded, as I judge, by

THOMAS DUN, collated 1566. He died 1575. being Vicar of Ilford in Eſſex, and was ſucceeded by

THOMAS HIDE, A. M. collated Jan. 4. 1575. on the Death of Dun. He was, I preſume, the ſame Perſon that was 1588. made Chancellor of Salisbury Cathedral. I find no mention of him here at Cheſter after 1593. and ſo I preſume he was about that time ſucceeded by JOHN MEIR, or MEYRE, A. M. for he could ſucceed to no other Stall but this, except the firſt. He was afterwards made Rector of Winwick, when I preſume he might give up this Stall, which I find him poſſeſs'd of from 1596, to 1620. When, on his Reſignation,

GEORGE SNELL, B. D. was collated Jan. 2. 1620. Of whom ſee an Account among the Archdeacons of Cheſter. He reſigned it An. 1632. to

WILLIAM BISPHAM, A. M. who is ſaid to be collated Feb. 4. 1632. on the Reſignation of Dr. Snell. He quitted it for the ſecond Prebend; for I find

DOVE BRIDGMAN, A. M. Son to Biſhop Bridgman, mentioned to be collated to this Oct. 3. 1634. vacant by the Reſignation of Biſpham, who next Day became collated to the ſecond Prebend, and quitted this to Bridgman, who died poſſeſſed of it An. 1637. and Tattenhall Rectory, and was buried in the Cathedral, without any Memorial, and ſucceeded by

EDWARD MORETON, A. M. collated Oct. 13. 1637. on the Death of Dove Bridgman. He was alſo Rector of Tattenhall and Barrow, and at length of Sephton; in which laſt Chancel he lies buried, with this Inſcription:

Piæ Memoriæ S. Edvardi Moretoni, S. T. P. Gulielmi Moreton de Moreton in agro Ceſtr' filii tandemque hæredis, Collegii Regalis apud Cantab. quondam Socii, atque Eccl. Cath. Ceſtr' Prebendarii; qui per triginta ſex plus minus annos, nec eis quidem exemptis quibus quaſi exul boniſque omnibus ſpoliatus vixit. Hanc ſollicite regebat eccleſiam utriuſque fortunæ, haud equidem æque particeps; at utrique par qui bene novit ſecundis rebus ſobrie uti, atque adverſis fortiter; primævæ pietatis, atque etiam diſciplinæ, perpetuus vindex, tandem non martyr fuit illuſtre ac rarum exemplar. Obiit Febr. 28. 1674. Ætatis ſuæ 76.

WILLIAM THOMPSON, A. M. Rector of St. Peter's, Cheſter, ſucceeded, being collated July 6. 1675. to the Prebend which Edward Moreton held. He died, and was buried Jan. 9. 1693. in the Cathedral, and ſucceeded by

PETER LANCASTER, A. M. Rector of Nantwich, collated May 2. 1694. on the Death of Thompſon. He died, and was buried May 17. 1709. in the Cathedral, without any Memorial, and ſucceeded by

RICHARD CLOTTERBOCK, A. M. Fellow of Katherine-Hall, Cambridge, collated Aug. 26. 1709. on the Death of Lancaſter. He died in about half a Year, and was ſucceeded by

CHARLES BLAKE, S. T. P. collated April 21. 1710. on the Death of Clotterbock. Being made Subdean of York, he reſigned this, and was ſucceeded by JOHN PRESCOT, A. M. collated Jan. 27. 1715. living 1723. Rector of Waverton.

FOURTH STALL.

JOHN HUET, admitted Aug. 4. 1541. per Fundationem.

JOHN GIBBES ſucceeded, being preſented 1544. on the Death of Huet.

JOHN WILSMSLEY, LL. B. ſucceeded, being preſented April 2. 1554. on the Reſignation of Gibbes. He died An. 1556. being Rector of Torperley, and Archdeacon of London, and was ſucceeded by

ROBERT PERCIVALL, B. D. collated Aug. 26. 1556. He was alſo Archdeacon of Cheſter, of which he is ſaid to be deprived by Queen Elizabeth; but I ſuppoſe he made ſome Compliances, for he was in Poſſeſſion of this Prebend in June 1562. as was

JOHN HARDYMAN, D. D. in June following, An. 1563. He was alſo Prebendary of Weſtminſter; but being a buſy Man in running in with the Puritans in deſtroying Monuments, &c. in Churches, he was juſtly deprived in 1567. About which time I find this Prebend beſtowed on

THOMAS HERLE, An. 1567. for it is plain he muſt come into this or the third about that time. He was alſo Warden of Manchеſter-College, Prebendary of Worceſter, and Vicar of Bromſgrove in that Dioceſe, which became void An. 1587. by his Death. No doubt

ROGER PARKER, D. D. ſucceeded, being collated Nov. 19. 1587. and inſtalled Sept. 5. 1588. He was afterwards, as I conceive, made Dean of Lincoln. His Succeſſor was

GRIFFITH VAUGHAN, A. M. collated April 5. 1604. in place of Dr. Parker. He died 1612. being alſo Treaſurer of Bangor, and Prebendary of St. Paul's, London.

PATRICK YOUNGE ſucceeded 1613. and died 1652. being Chancellor of St. Paul's, London, having An. 1618. quitted this to

WILLIAM FORSTER, S. T. P. Rector of Barrow, and at length Biſhop of Man. He died Feb. 23. and was buried Feb. 26. at Barrow, An. 1634.

CHARLES JONES is in the Firſt-Fruits Office Books returned as collated Feb. 24. 1634. on the Death of William Biſhop of Man; tho' 'tis plain he was ſet aſide, for I find

WILLIAM CHILLINGWORTH, A. M. the famous Writer, mentioned in the Patents to be preſented to it May 15. 1635. void, as therein expreſs'd, by the Death of William Forſter Biſhop of Man. He reſigned to

DAVID LLOYD, LL. D. afterwards Dean of St. Aſaph, collated July 13. 1639. on the Reſignation of Chillingworth. He quitted it to

ROBERT MORGAN, B. D. collated July 1. 1642. on the Reſignation of Lloyd. He was afterwards, An. 1666. made Biſhop of Bangor, but before that he quitted it An. 1663, or 1664. to

SIMON LAND, Rector of Wavertон and Penſans in Cornwall. He died An. 1676. and was, as I learn, buried at Penſans, and ſucceeded by

RICHARD WRIGHT, B. D. collated March 8. 1678. on the Death of Land. He died 1711. and was buried at St. Mary's Cheſter, where he was Rector, without any Memorial, and ſucceeded by JOHN OLIVER, A. M. Vicar of Audlem, collated May 17. 1711. on the Death of Wright; living 1723. Rector of Weſt Kirby and St. Peter's in Cheſter.

FIFTH STALL.

THOMAS RADFORD, Aug. 4. 1541. per Fundationem.

GEORGE COTES, S. T. P. was inſtalled March 28. 1544. in place of Radford; as was

THOMAS RUNCORN, A. M. Archdeacon of Bangor, preſented by the Queen April 2. 1554. on Dr. Cotes's being made Biſhop of this See. In his Will, dated Dec. 21. 1556. and proved July 2. 1557. he appointed to be buried at Bebington, if he died there, where I ſuppoſe he was Rector.

WILLIAM

WILLIAM COLLINGWOOD, Rector of Chriſleton, ſucceeded, being inſtituted Sept. 24. 1557. on the Death of Runcorn. He died 1560. and was ſucceeded by

EDWARD HAWFORD, B. D. Maſter of Chriſt's-College, Cambridge, collated Feb. 14. 1560. on the Death of Collingwood. He occurs poſſeſſed of it 1578, and 1579. and was ſucceeded by

DAVID YALE, LL. D. collated 1582. in the room of Hawford. He died 1625. and was buried in the Cathedral, without any Memorial, being Chancellor of the Dioceſe, having long before his Death quitted this to

DAVID ELLIS B. D. collated June 6. 1608. on the Reſignation of Dr. Yale. He held it 1622. and was next Year ſucceeded by

JOHN LLOYD, Rector of Cheadle, collated 1623. to a Prebend, which could be no other than this. He held it but a ſhort time; for I find

WILLIAM HELLIER, A. M. Archdeacon of Barnſtable, Rector of Lawton, collated April 9. 1624. to a Prebend void by the Death of John Lloyd. He is ſaid to reſign it to

GEORGE SNELL, D. D. collated April 4. 1627. on the Reſignation of Hellier. However Dr. Snell ſeems not to have accepted of this, as being in poſſeſſion of the third Stall; but to have quitted it the ſame Day to

JOHN LEY, or LEE, A. M. for he is ſaid to have been collated April 4. 1627. on the Reſignation of Dr. Snell. He died May 6. 1662. and was buried at Sutton Cofeild, Co. Warwick, where he was Rector, and ſucceeded by

MICHAEL EVANS, S. T. P. collated July 31. 1662. He died An. 1670. being alſo Treaſurer of Bangor, and was buried at his Rectory of Llanfaelog in that Dioceſe, and ſucceeded by

PHINEAS BURY, A. M. Fellow of Wadham-College, Oxon, collated Oct. 31. 1670. on the Death of Evans. He died An. 1678. and was, as I learn, buried at Enmer Co. Somerſet, where he was Rector, and ſucceeded by

RICHARD WROE, S. T. P. collated March 5. 1678. on the Death of Bury. He died An. 1718. being Warden of Manchester-College, and Rector of Weſtkirby, and was buried at Manchester, and ſucceeded by CHARLES HENCHMAN, A. M. Vicar of Great Budworth, and Rector of Adderleigh, collated Jan. 20. 1718. living 1723.

SIXTH STALL.

ROBERT SMITH, Aug. 4. 1541. per Fundationem.

JOHN LEPINGTON, admitted in March 1544. on the Death of Smith.

EDWARD GREGORY, admitted April 2. 1554. on the Deprivation of Lepington. He was An. 1559. deprived by Queen Elizabeth, of his Archdeaconry of Bangor, and ſo no doubt of this Stall, to which I find

ROBERT HEBLETHWAIT, preſented Jan. 13. 1560. in place of Gregory. He died, and was ſucceeded by

JOHN LANE, B. D. collated Sept. 8. 1570. on the Death of Hebleth waite. He died An. 1580. and was ſucceeded by

ROBERT ROGERS, B. D. collated Nov. 25. 1580. on the Death of Lane. He died An. 1595. being alſo Archdeacon of Cheſter, and was ſucceeded by

NATHANIEL DOD, A. M. collated Jan. 17. 1595. on the Death of Rogers. He reſigned it, and was ſucceeded by

THOMAS DOD, A. M. collated Nov. 10. 1607. on the Reſignation of N. Dod. He reſigned it, and was ſucceeded by

WILLIAM CASE, A. M. Vicar of Over, and afterwards Rector of St. Peter's, and Vicar of St. Oſwald's, Cheſter, collated Auguſt 13. 1613. on the Reſignation of Archdeacon Dod of Richmond. He died, and was buried in the Cathedral, with this Inſcription:

Hic ſitus eſt Gulielmus Caſe, Subdecanus hujus Eccleſiæ, Prædicator eximius, Scriptor egregius, qui placide ac pie obiit Oct. 6. 1634.

ESSEX CLARK ſucceeded, being collated Oct. 6. 1634. on the Death of Caſe. He was Rector of Tilſton and Dodleſton, and was alive An. 1653. but died before 1660. for I find

THOMAS MALLORY, S. T. P. preſented July 30. 1660. to a Prebend of Cheſter, void by the Death of Eſſex Clark. He held it 1662. His Succeſſor was

WILLIAM FINMERE, A. M. Vicar of Runcorn, collated July 25. 1664. of whom ſee an Account among the Archdeacons of Cheſter. His Succeſſor was

JOHN THANE, A. M. collated April 17. 1686. on the Death of Finmere; living 1723. Archdeacon of Cheſter, and Rector of Northenden.

DIOCESE OF MAN

COMPRIZETH only the Iſland of Man, which lies between England, Scotland, Ireland, and Wales, almoſt at equal diſtances, and contains no more than ſeventeen Pariſhes, and in them are four Market-towns, viz. Caſtletown, Douglaſs, Peel, and Ramſey, which have all of them Chapels within the reſpective Pariſhes of Kirks-Malew, Conchan, German, Maughold; two whereof, viz. Caſtletown and Douglaſs, have been lately rebuilt, as was that of Ramſey about the Year 1636.

The Names of the ſeventeen Pariſhes, with their Dedications, are,

Kirk Andrews, St. Andrew
St. Mary of Ballow
Kirk Bride, St. Bridget
Kirk Chriſt Ruſhen, Holy Trinity
Kirk Arbory, St. Columbus
Kirk Malew, St. Lupus
Kirk Santan, St. Santanus
Kirk Braddan, St. Brendinus
Kirk Marown, St. Runius
Kirk Conchan, St. Concha
Kirk Lonon, St. Lonanus
Kirk Maughold, St. Machutus
Kirk Patrick, St. Patrick
Kirk German in Peel, St. German, the Cathedral
Kirk Michael, St. Michael
Kirk Patrick in Jurby, St. Patrick
Kirk Chriſt Lez Ayre, Holy Trinity.

All

All which are appropriate, except the three firſt, which are the only Parſonages or Rectories; and of theſe Kirk Andrews is annex'd and united to the Archdeaconry, to which the Lords of this Iſle preſent, as they do, to all the Livings, except Kirks German, Braddan and Jourby, which are in the Biſhop's Gift: And to the aforeſaid Lords of the Iſle, the Patronage of the Biſhoprick ſeems all along to have appertained. For tho' Pope Celeſtine once made a Grant of it in theſe Words, to the Abby of Furnes Co. Lancaſter; Præterea in eligendo epiſcopum inſularum, libertatem quam reges earum bonæ memoriæ, Olavus & Godredus filius ejus monaſterio veſtro contulerunt, ſicut in authenticis eorum continetur; auctoritate apoſtolica confirmamus. Dat. Romæ 10 Cal. Julii, Pontif. noſtri 4. [1194.] yet his Bull ſeems never to have took place; foraſmuch as we learn from the Monaſticon Anglicanum, Vol. III. p. 145. that Olave II. the then King of Man, non diſtante Parneſium clamore, ſent Nicholas, whom he appointed Biſhop of this See, An. 1203. to the Church of York, and deſired ut cito conſecratum remittant. And it is plain, that ever ſince, as well as before, the Biſhops have been nominated by the Lords of this Iſle, which was once ſubject to the Kingdom of Northumberland; but being about 1065. won from it by the Danes and Norwegians, they appointed a petite King of their own till 1266. when the Scots, by a mix'd Title of Conqueſt and Purchaſe, obtained it, and held it for the moſt part till Edward IIId's Reign, when it was in 1340. conquer'd by William Montacute, Earl of Salisbury, who enjoy'd it during his Life, and never mortgaged it to Anthony Beck, Biſhop of Durham, as Sacheverel, in his Hiſtory of this Iſle, intimates through a very great Miſtake; for Biſhop Beck had been dead thirty Years before, and had no Title to it, unleſs any had been conferred upon him by a Grant of King Edward I. on his Conqueſt of Scotland, which expired on the Biſhop's Death, if not ſooner, when the Scots, Temp. Edw. II. recovered again what had been took from them, tho' they were outed of this in the ſucceeding Reign of Edward III. by the ſaid William Montacute, whoſe Son ſold it 1393. to Sir William Scrope, which coming by his Attainder to King Henry IV. he beſtowed it 1399. on Henry Piercy Earl of Northumberland, and on his forfeiting his Favour, gave it 1405. to Sir John Stanley, whoſe Poſterity, Earls of Derby, have ever ſince been poſſeſs'd of it, and have, as already mentioned, enjoyed all along the Patronage of the Biſhoprick, and nominate their intended Biſhop to the King, who diſmiſſes him with the royal Aſſent to the Archbiſhop of York, and he accordingly conſecrates him, as one of his Suffragans; this Biſhop being reputed the fourth or laſt Suffragan of his Province, tho' he has not, as the other three, any Place in Parliament: Not for the Reaſon

Reaſon as Heylin and other Hiſtorians give, becauſe he is not appointed by the Crown of England, for it has ſometimes ſo happen'd that the King of England has nominated to this See; but the true Reaſon rather appears, that this Biſhop's Dioceſe and Baronage was never within the Realm of England, no more than the Biſhops of Normandy whilſt that Country was in the Hands of the Engliſh. Beſides, it is apparent, if Dr. Heylin's Reaſon had took place, that the Biſhops of Rocheſter, as they had antiently been put in by the Archbiſhops of Canterbury, might have been excluded, in like manner, ſitting in Parliament.

The Government of this Dioceſe, under its Biſhop, is by an Archdeacon, two Vicars general, and ſixteen parochial Miniſters, which ſupply ſixteen of the ſeventeen Churches, the ſeventeenth being the ſaid Archdeacon's proper Cure.

The Revenues or Income of the Biſhoprick ariſe from a Demeſne, ſome Lands in Leaſe, and Appropriations, with the Advowſons of Kirk German, Kirk Braddan, Kirk Jurby, two thirds of Kirk Patrick, and one third of ſome other Pariſhes, and amount in the whole to about 400 l. per Ann. as does the Archdeaconry to about 90 l. the two Rectories to 60 l. each, and the other Livings to about 25 l. apiece; tho' ſeveral of them being leaſed out formerly to Ruſhen Abby, the Vicars enjoy'd a very ſmall Pittance, till Biſhop Barrow bought out the Leaſe from the Lords of the Iſle, part of whoſe Poſſeſſions it became at the Diſſolution; and for farther Augmentation, procur'd a Grant of 100 l. per Ann. to be ſettled for ever on the pooreſt Vicaridges, beſides his own Charity in endowing Schools to inſtruct the Youth.

As to the Cathedral Church, which is dedicated to St. German, and ſaid to have been built by Biſhop Simon in King Henry IIId's time, it is a plain Structure, erected in the Shape of a Croſs, with a Tower in the Middle, and conſiſts of two ſingle Iſles, croſſing each other, which are no more than nineteen Foot in Breadth, without Pillars. The Length from Eaſt to Weſt is a hundred and thirteen Foot and an half, and from North to South ſixty ſix Foot and an half. In the Tower (which ſtands upon four Arches, ſixteen Foot and an half wide, and is ornamented at Top, with overhanging or corbelled Battlements, in nature of a Caſtle) is neither Bells or Windows. Nor is here, as I am inform'd, one raiſed Monument either in this or any of the Pariſh Churches, which have none of them above one or two Bells, nor are there any Towers or Steeples belonging to above two or three of them, and not one Clock in any of them, except Douglaſs, lately ſet up. Neither are here any antient Inſcriptions on Graveſtones, which are ſcarce any where to be met with, except ſome few in Kirk Malew, the Governour's Pariſh. Nor is any Part of the Cathedral (which is the largeſt Church in the Iſland) except cept the Chancel, kept in good repair, by reaſon of its Situation within the Walls of Peel-Caſtle, to which there is no acceſs but at low Water, and even then no good coming; which being alſo the Caſe of Kirk Patrick Church, ſtanding near it, has occaſioned that likewiſe to go to ruin; on which account the preſent good Biſhop has erected a new Church for the Pariſhioners in a more commodious Place, the Inconvenience attending St. German's Pariſh being provided for by the Chapel at Peel Town.

In King's Vale Royal, or Hiſtory of Cheſhire, printed in Folio An. 1656. may be ſeen a Draught of this Cathedral, and Kirk Patrick Church, the Abby of Ruſhen, and Nunnery of Douglaſs, which, with the Houſe of Friars in Kirk Arbory, founded An. 1373. were the only religious Houſes in this Iſland. The firſt of theſe, viz. Ruſhen, reputed the uſual Burial-Place of the Kings of Man, appears by the Ruins to have been an elegant Structure. Here is alſo, among other Buildings, given a Draught or Proſpect of the Epiſcopal Palace, which ſtands in Kirk Michael Pariſh.

But beſides the Draught in King, there is publiſhed in Steven's Engliſh Monaſticon, a South-Weſt Proſpect of the Cathedral; and in the new Edition of Cambden's Britannia, by Biſhop Gibſon, we have ſome Account how the Biſhops of this Iſle came to be entitled Biſhops of Sodor. of which all I need add, is, that about 1098. when Magnus King of Norway had conquer'd Man and the Iſles, the two Sees of Sodor and Man were ſaid to be united into one, which having continued ſo for 235 Years, viz. till Edward IIId's time, about 1333. has occaſioned the Biſhops of this Iſle, even to this Day, to retain both Titles, notwithſtanding Sodor itſelf which is ſaid to be an obſcure Village in St. Columb's Iſle in Scotland, where Pope Gregory IV. planted a Biſhop's See An. 840. has, after its Separation from Man many Ages ago, been long ſince ſwallowed up in the Sees of Orkney and the Iſles, while Scotland had Biſhops. And, laſtly, as to the Juriſdiction of the Archbiſhop of Drontheim in Norway, ſpoken of by our Writers, and their conſecrating the Biſhop of Man, I cannot find any good Authority confirming their exerciſing Juriſdiction here, or diſcover that any Biſhop received Conſecration in Norway, except Laurence, and that was by a particular Accident. And this I am the better enabled to ſpeak to, foraſmuch as the preſent moſt primitive Biſhop, who has generouſly communicated to me an Account of this See, has not been able to meet with any Information about it; and on his ſending to Norway, could only be informed that their Regiſters at Drontheim (if any) were burnt. But I haſten to treat of the Biſhops; in diſcourſing of whom I ſhall beg leave to include what Remarks I have farther been able to pick up concerning this See.

BISHOPS

Bishops of MAN.

THIS Iſland became very early the Seat of a Biſhop; Amphibalus being reported to have preſided as ſuch about the Year 360. Tho' better Authorities inform us, that St. Patrick, the Iriſh Apoſtle, founded this See, and appointed

Germanus firſt Biſhop here An. 447. and after him conſecrated

Conindrius, and

Romulus, Biſhops of this Iſle; and that five Years after the ſaid Patrick's Death,

Machutus, called alſo Machilla and Maughold, ſate Biſhop here An. 498, and 518. He veiled St. Bridget a Nun, to whom a Church is dedicated, as well as one to himſelf, in this Iſland. The next Biſhop that occurs, is Conanus, Tutor to Eugenius King of Scotland, who died Jan. 26. An. 648. He had the Tuition of his three Sons in this Iſle, which was antiently in ſuch Repute, that the Scotch Hiſtories mention an Ordinance to be made for the Education of the Heirs of that Crown by the Biſhops here. Who ſucceeded him we have no account, for our Hiſtories only furniſh the bare Names of

* St. Contentus,

* St. Bladus,

St Malchus, and

Torkinus, who lived An. 889. and is ſtyled Biſhop of Sodor, as are the preceding Biſhops.

* Roolwer, ſaid to be buried at St. Maughold's;

* William; and

* Brendinus, to whom a Church in this Iſland is dedicated. Nor do we meet with any mention of this See till the Year 1098. when Matthew Paris tells us, that the two Sees of Sodor and Man were united into one.

Wymundus, or Reymundus, (called alſo Hamundus Son of Jole in the Manks Chronicle) a Monk of Sais in Normandy, was conſecrated the firſt Biſhop by Thomas Archbiſhop of York, who died An. 1113. Mr. Le Neve ſuppoſes his calling him the firſt Biſhop, was in regard that he became the firſt Biſhop of Sodor and Man after this See was appointed one of the Suffragans to the Province of York. This Biſhop was deprived An. 1151. and had, as Sacheverell tells us, his Eyes put out. His Succeſſor, as we learn from Matthew Paris, was

John, another Monk of Sais in Normandy, who ſays, he factus eſt ſecundus Antiſtites Moinæ inſulæ quæ eſt inter Angliam & Hiberniam, propinquior tamen Angliæ; An. 1151. tho' in Sacheverell's Account

* Gamaliel, an Engliſhman (buried in the Abby of Peterborough, and not with the two foregoing Biſhops, who were both interred in St.

German's Cathedral in Peel, is placed as next Biſhop after Wymundus. He is ſaid to have been conſecrated by Roger Archbiſhop of York, who became Archbiſhop An. 1154. and died ſo An. 1181. After him, according to Sacheverell,

REGINALD, a Norwegian, was Biſhop here, who obtained a Grant of the third Part of the Tythes of this Iſland. To him ſucceeded

* CHRISTIAN Archadienſis, (i. e. a Scot, a Native of Orkney, as I take it) who lies buried in Benchor Monaſtery in Ireland, and had to his Succeſſor

MICHAEL, a Manksman, who dying An. 1203. was buried in Fountains Abby Co. York, and ſucceeded by

NICHOLAS de Meaux, Abbat of Furneſs in Lancaſhire, An. 1203. in King John's time; in whoſe Reign Prynn intimates this See was ſubjected to York. He is reported to go into Ireland to viſit Benchor Monaſtery, and that dying there An. 1217. he was buried in that Priory; tho' I preſume he then only reſigned his Biſhoprick, for in the Monaſticon, Vol. I. p. 506. he occurs An. 1227. by the Name of N. quondam Manniæ & inſularum Epiſcopus, as Witneſs to a Charter of Stainfeild Priory. His Succeſſor was

REGINALD, a Perſon of royal Extraction, Nephew to King Olave, conſecrated An. 1217. He was a moſt exemplary Governour, and dying about the Year 1226. was buried in Ruſhen Abby with his Anceſtors, and ſucceeded by

JOHN, Son of Hefare, or Harfere, An. 1226. who by the Negligence of his Servants was unfortunately burnt. He was buried at Ferewas (I preſume Jervaulx Abby, called alſo Jerwas, Co. York.) After him

SIMON Archadienſis, an Orkney Man, occurs Biſhop An. 1229. He was a Man of great Learning and Prudence, held a Synod An. 1239. made thirteen Canons, which ſee in the Monaſticon Anglicanum. He died in his Palace in Kirk Michael An. 1249. and was buried in St. German's Cathedral at Peel, which he had begun to build. On his Death,

LAURENCE, Archdeacon of Man, was elected Biſhop An. 1249. who being at the ſame time on Attendance upon Harold King of this Iſle in Norway, received Conſecration at the Hands of the Metropolitan of that Kingdom; which is the only Inſtance I find of the Archbiſhop of Drontheim's conſecrating any Biſhop here. He had the Misfortune to be ſhipwreck'd, and drowned the ſame Year, ſo he never came home to take poſſeſſion of this Dignity, which was, after ſome Vacancy, next conferred upon

RICHARD, an Engliſhman, conſecrated at Rome An. 1252. He dedicated the Church of St. Mary's of Ruſhen, or Caſtletown, An. 1260. about ſix Years after which, the Scots got Poſſeſſion of this Iſland. He died An. 1274. at Langalyner in Copland, on his Return from a general Council, and was buried at Furneſs Abbey, and ſucceeded by

* MARK of Galloway, a Scot, by Miſtake written Marus, and ſometimes call'd Mauritius, promoted by Alexander the IIId King of Scotland An. 1275. according to ſome Accounts, or, as in others, An. 1280. He was on ſome Difference, as Sacheverell intimates, baniſh'd by the Natives; but they being interdicted for it, were glad to recal him, and lay a Smoke-Penny, by Way of Commutation on every Houſe, which is I think yet paid. He held a Synod at Kirk Braddan in March, An. 1291. and made there thirty nine Canons. He died An. 1303. having been ſometime blind, and was buried in St. German's Cathedral in Peel. After him

ALLEN, or ONACHUS, of Galloway, another Scot, became Biſhop An. 1305. He died Feb. 15. 1321. and was buried at Rotheſay in Scotland, and ſucceeded by a third Countryman, viz.

GILBERT of Galloway, An. 1321. He died 1323. and was buried at Rotheſay by his Predeceſſor, and ſucceeded by

BERNARD, another Scot An. 1324. He died An. 1333. and was buried at Kilwining in Scotland, where he had been Abbat, and ſucceeded by THOMAS, who was alſo a Scotſman, about 1334. In this Biſhop's Time this Iſland was entirely recovered and taken away from Scotland, and ſo he was the laſt Biſhop made by them. He died Sept. 20. 1348. and was buried at Scoon in Scotland.

WILLIAM RUSSEL, a Mankſman, Abbat of Ruſhen, ſucceeded, being conſecrated at Avignion, by Pope Clement, An. 1348. He is ſaid to have reſiſted ſome Encroachments which the See of Drontheim wou'd have impoſed, and to have entirely ſhook off that Biſhop. He held a Synod at St. Michael's, in which five additional Canons were made. He died April 21. 1374. and was buried in Furneſs Abby. His Succeſſor was

JOHN DUNKAN, a Native of Man, elected May 21. 1374. and conſecrated at Avignion Nov. 25. following. In his Return he was made Priſoner at Bolonia, and redeemed for five hundred Marks. He died 1380. ſoon after which time

ROBERT WALDBY occurs Biſhop here. He was An. 1391. made Archbiſhop of Dublin, and An. 1395. Biſhop of Chicheſter, and next

Year Archbiſhop of York, as may be ſeen pag. 39. of this Hiſtory. The next I find is

* RICHARD PULLY, who occurs Biſhop of Sodor An. 1429. after him

JOHN GRENE, called alſo Sprotton, (as I preſume, from the Place of his Birth, not far from Dunchurch, Co. Warwick; of which he became Vicar An. 1414.) occurs poſſeſſed of Dunchurch and this See An. 1448. which he likewiſe held An. 1454. and was not long after, ſucceeded by

THOMAS BURTON, who dying in March 1457. one

* THOMAS is ſaid to be elected Biſhop here June 21. 1458. on the Death of Thomas Burton. I take him to be the ſame with

THOMAS, Abbat of Vale Royal in Cheſhire, who occurs Biſhop here, in Mr. Wharton's Collections, in July 1466. and that on his Death, which no doubt happen'd at Vale Royal, and Burial there, An. 1480.

RICHARD OLDHAM, Abbat of Cheſter, was promoted to this See An. 1481. He died Sept. 19. 1486. and was buried in Cheſter Abby, as I learn, without any Monument now remaining, and ſucceeded by HUAN HESKETH, called in Sacheverell, Hugh Hesketh; and in Le Neve, Huan Blackleach; conſecrated An. 1487. In his time Tho. Stanley, King of Man, and Earl of Derby, by his Charter, dated March 28. 1505. confirmed to him and his Succeſſors the Tythes and Poſſeſſions which his Predeceſſors Kings of Man had given to former Biſhops; and particularly granted the Cathedral Church in the Iſland Holm, Sodor, or Peel, with St. Patrick's Church there, and other Churches in Man, as may be ſeen in the Charter in the Monaſticon, Vol. I. pag. 718. He died An. 1510. and was buried in his Cathedral of St. German's in Peel.

In a glaſs Window of the Chapel in his Houſe at Blackleach Hall, and alſo in other Parts of that Houſe, in Latham Lordſhip Co. Lancaſter, was this painted, as I find in a MS. Volume of Doaſworth's Collections, in the Bodleian Library in Oxford.

Heredes aulam cuncti qui cernitis iſtam

An. Domini 1509.

He was, as I find in the aforeſaid MSS. born at Blackleach-Hall, and eldeſt Brother of that Houſe, and built the Chapel at Blackleach; and that on his Death, as we are inform'd in the ſame Account,

THOMAS STANLEY, a Baſe Son of Stanley Lord Montegle, of Hornby-Caſtle Co. Lancaſter, was made Biſhop, and, on account of his Baſtardy, obtained leave from the Pope to hold his Preferments, eſpecially the Rectory of Wigan, which I ſuppoſe he had firſt given him. He was alſo Parſon of Nerth-Meales, and at length of Berwick-in-Elmer, and Badſworth Co. York. In his time, viz. 1542. as we learn in our Statute-Books, Act An. 33. Hen. VIII. Ch. 31. an Act of Parliament was made for diſſevering the new erected See of Cheſter, and Biſhoprick of the Iſle of Man from the Juriſdiction of Canterbury, and annexing them to York: which I ſuppoſe was done to prevent all future Diſputes; for I do not find that Canterbury ever laid any claim to Juriſdiction here, or even that York much intereſted it ſelf, no more than the Crown of England, in this Iſland. As to Biſhop Stanley, he was deprived for not complying with Henry VIIIth's Meaſures, as I am informed, in the Year 1546. tho' I rather judge it was in the preceding Year; for we meet with

ROBERT FERRAR ſubſcribing as Biſhop of Sodor, An. 1545. He was afterwards preferred to the antient metropolitical See of St. David, An. 1548. having I preſume ſcarce took poſſeſſion of this; for it is certain that

HENRY MAN, Dean of Cheſter, had the Royal Aſſent to his Election to this Biſhoprick Jan. 22. 1546. on the King's Nomination. He died, and was buried in St. Andrew's Underſhaft Church in London, with this Epitaph:

Henry Man, Doctor in Divinity, in the Univerſity of Oxford, and ſometime Biſhop of Man; which Henry departed this Life Oct. 17. 1556. and lyeth buried under this Stone.

On his Death,

THOMAS STANLEY, A. M. was reſtored by Queen Mary An. 1556. and dy'd 1568. being then alſo Rector of Winwick as well as Berwick. His Succeſſor was

JOHN SALISBURY, LL. B. Suffragan Biſhop of Thetford, Dean of Norwich, Chancellor of Lincoln Cathedral, and Archdeacon of Angleſea, ſea, nominated to this See March 27. 1569. Being a Native of Wales, he had a Hand in tranſlating the Bible into Welch, which, with the loſs of his Preferments (for Marriage, as it ſeems to me, in Queen Mary's Reign, he having been of a religious Order, and vowed Celibacy) probably recommended him on Queen Elizabeth's Acceſſion to the Crown. He died in Sept. 1573. and was buried in Norwich Cathedral, without any Memorial. On his Death,

JAMES STANLEY, Son to the Lord Montegle, is ſaid to have been appointed Biſhop, by ſome Accounts, An. 1573. tho' in others we are inform'd that after Salisbury's Deceaſe this See continued vacant about three Years, till

JOHN MERICK, A. M. Vicar of Hornchurch in Eſſex, became nominated hereunto by Henry Earl of Derby, and was admitted by the King April 13. and conſecrated at Lambeth April 15. 1576. the Year after which he was inſtalled Biſhop, viz. An. 1577. He died Nov. 7. 1599. in Yorkſhire, where I ſuppoſe he was beneficed, and ſo was buried no doubt in that County. His Succeſſor was

GEORGE LLOYD, S. T. P. Rector of Heſwall Co. Lancaſter, conſecrated An. 1599. On whoſe Tranſlation to Cheſter, where ſee more of him, pag. 333.

JOHN PHILIPS, A. M. Rector of Hawarden Co. Flint, Archdeacon of Cleveland and Man, and Parſon of Slingsby and Thorp Co. York, was nominated by the King to this See Jan. 29. 1604. and conſecrated Feb. 10. following. He got the Common-Prayer-Book of the Church of England tranſlated into the Language of the Natives of his Dioceſe, the Original whereof is yet extant; and was, as Sacheverell ſays, famous for his Charity and Hoſpitality. He died Aug. 7. 1633. and was probably buried at St. Germans in Peel. His Succeſſor was

WILLIAM FORSTER, S. T. P. Prebendary of Cheſter, preſented by the Earl of Derby 26. Dec. who obtained the Royal Aſſent Feb. 26. and was conſecrated March 9. 1633. He held a Court at Douglas in Oct. 1634. and dying about four Months after, was buried at Barrow Co. Cheſter, Feb. 26. where he was Rector, without any Memorial, and ſucceeded by

RICHARD PARR, S. T. P. Rector of Eccleſton Co. Lancaſter, conſecrated June 10. 1635. He was an excellent Biſhop, rebuilt Ramſey Chapel, and was eminent for his preaching, and inſtructing the Natives of his Dioceſe. He died An. 1643. and was buried in the Cathedral of St. German's in Peel, in the unhappy times of the Rebellion; which gave an Occaſion to a Vacancy of about eighteen Years, till ſuch time as

* SAMUEL RUTTER, A. M. Archdeacon (who, upon Biſhop Parr's Death, as chief ſpiritual Magiſtrate, had the eccleſiaſtical Government of this Iſle) was confirmed Biſhop Oct. 8. 1661. He had An. 1660. been been collated to the Prebend of Longden, in the Church of Lichfeild, by the Title of Biſhop of Sodor; which I find became vacant by his Death An. 1663. He died, and was buried under the uncover'd Steeple of St. Germans, then in Ruins, in his own Cathedral, with this Epitaph on a Braſs Plate; the only one that has been communicated to me from hence; and I ſuppoſe, the only Memorial of any Biſhop in this Iſland; and poſſibly the only Epitaph in this Church.

On his Death, the moſt Primitive

Isaac Barrow, S. T. P. became Conſecrated Biſhop July 5. 1663. Beſides the Benefactions already hinted, he procured the Sum of 600 l. the Intereſt of which, he ſettled to maintain an Academick Maſter; as he did alſo 20 l. per Ann. for the Encouragement of ſuch Perſons as ſhould be deſign'd for the Sacred Miniſtry. He was in ſhort, as Sacheverel tells us, a Man of ſo publick a Spirit and generous Deſigns, for the good of his Church, that to him is owing, the Learning among the Natives; as is the Bread the Clergy eat, to his Charity: He was, as the ſame Author tells us, to the great loſs of the Iſland, removed to St. Aſaph, An. 1669. However, he was permitted to keep this See till 1671. when

Henry Bridgman, S. T. P. Dean of Cheſter, Prebendary of York, and Rector of Bangor, Co. Flint, and Lanwrſt Sine Cure in St. Aſaph Dioceſe, became Conſecrated at Cheſter, Oct. 1. 1671. He died May 18. 1682. and was buried in Cheſter Cathedral, without any Memorial; and ſucceeded by

John Lake, S. T. P. Archdeacon of Cleveland, Rector of Preſtwick Co. Lancaſter, and Prebendary of York, conſecrated in Dec. 1682. He was in Auguſt 1684. tranſlated to Briſtol; and ſucceeded by Baptist Levinz, S. T. P. Rector of Chriſtian Malford, Prebendary of Haſilbeare, in the Church of Wells, and at length Prebendary of Wincheſter, Conſecrated Biſhop March 15. 1684. He died Jan. 31. 1692. and was buried in Wincheſter Cathedral, with this Epitaph on a raiſed Monument.

Having thus gone through the account of the Biſhops, there remains nothing further for me to treat of in the compaſs of my Deſign, ſince there are no other Members belonging to this Cathedral; and the Series of the Archdeacons not being to be procur'd, as I learn from York and elſewhere, I can only inform my Reader, that except Laurence, made Biſhop 1249. and Gilbert, who occurs 1482. as does Gilbert de Latham, 1546. beſides Biſhops Philips and Rutter, I have only met with Archdeacons here, William Urquart, S. T. P. An. 1678, and 1682. John Lomax, on whoſe Death Archippus Kippax was made Archdeacon in July 1696. to whom, as I judge, ſucceeded Samuel Wattleworth, whoſe Succeſſor, about 1716. was the preſent Archdeacon, viz. Robert Horrobin, An. 1723.

DIOCESE OF LICHFEILD

CONTAINS the whole County of Stafford, except Brome and Clent, which belong to Worceſter; all Derbyſhire; the better Part of Warwickſhire, and near half Shropſhire: divided under theſe Archdeaconries;

I. COVENTRY, which has theſe Deanaries, all Co. Warwick; Coventry, Arden, Marten, Stoneley.

II. STAFFORD, which has theſe Deanaries, all Co. Stafford; Lapley and Treizull, Leek and Alſton, Newcaſtle and Stone, Tamworth and Tutbury.

III. DERBY, which has theſe Deanaries, all Co. Derby; Derby, Caſtillar, Cheſterfeild, Aſhborne, High-Peak, Repington.

IV. SALOP, which hastheſe Deanaries, both Co. Salop; viz. Newport and Salop.

Here is no Archdeacon denominated from Lichfeild, which is the only Cathedral, except Peterborough aud Briſtol, both which are of Henry VIIIth's Foundation, that doth not entitle an Archdeacon.

The Clergies Tenths, according to Heylin, in this great Dioceſe, amount to 590 l. 16 s. 11 d. and Number of Pariſhes are 557; tho' including cluding Chapels, here are, as in my Account, no leſs than 643. But I come now to ſpeak of the Cathedral of LICHFEILD.

That here were two Cathedrals before the Reformation, viz. one at Coventry, as well as this Place, appears yet by the Biſhop's Style, who is ſtill entitled Biſhop of Coventry as well as Lichfeild: For An. 1102. the See being removed to Coventry Monaſtery, and continuing there for ſome time, and being with great Oppoſition brought back to Lichfeild, after the Year 1185. the Difference between the Monks of Coventry and Canons of Lichfeild was thus compoſed; viz. That the Biſhop ſhould take into his Style both Places, giving the Precedency to Coventry, and that they ſhould chuſe their Biſhop by turns, and both Churches make one joint Chapter, in which the Prior of Coventry ſhould be Principal; and ſo it continued till 1541. when on the Diſſolution of the Monaſtery of Coventry, and the pulling down that moſt ſtately Cathedral very ſoon after, there paſſed An. 33. Hen. VIII. an Act to make the Dean and Chapter of Lichfeild the ſole Chapter for the Biſhop; as it now continues.

The Members of this Cathedral, viz. Lichfeild, are a Dean, Precentor, Chancellor, Treaſurer, who have all Prebends annex'd to their Dignities. Beſides theſe, there are alſo twenty ſeven other Prebends, one of which, viz. Eccleſhall, is of late annex'd to the Biſhoprick. Out of theſe thirty one Prebends, the Dean and four more are ſtyled Canons-Reſidentiary; which four are choſen indifferently out of the Prebendaries and Dignitaries. The Minor-Canons are twelve; five whereof (one of which is Subchanter) are ſtyled Prieſt-Vicars, and the other ſeven Lay-Vicars or Singing-Men. Here is alſo an Organiſt, eight Choriſters, two Virgers, a Sacriſt and Subſacriſt. The four Archdeacons, unleſs they are Prebendaries, have no Stalls in the Cathedral, as all other Archdeacons in the other Cathedrals have. Neither is here any Grammar-School belonging to the Church; tho' there is one in the City, founded by Biſhop Smith before the Reformation.

The Biſhop and Dean have good Houſes here, as have the Vicars in a Place called the College, at the Weſt End of the Cathedral, within the Cloſe, wherein are eight Prebendal Houſes, which the Biſhop diſpoſes of to ſuch of the Prebendaries as he thinks fit, in order to qualify them to be elected Canons. The Members, An. 1722. poſſeſſing theſe Houſes, were, Dr. Maynard, Precentor; Mr. Rider, Prebendary of

Pipa

Pipa Parva; Mr. Kimberley, Prebendary of Prees; Mr. Horton, of Gaia Major; who are the preſent four Reſidentiaries, and four others.

The five Prieſt-Vicars are denominated from the Dean, Precentor, Chancellor, Treaſurer, and Prebend of Offley: The firſt of which, viz. the Precentor's Vicar, is called the Succentor; the ſecond is ſtyled the Dean's Vicar; the third the Chancellor's Vicar; the fourth the Treaſurer's Vicar, or Sacriſt; as is the fifth the Subſacriſt, or Sexton, being the Prebendary of Offley's Vicar.

As to a Deſcription of this Church, an Idea of it will be beſt formed from the Ichnography and Upright here given, as well as thoſe in the Monaſticon, and what are publiſhed by Daniel King. In the College of Arms, or Heralds-Office, London, and in the Muſæum Aſhmoleanum at Oxford, and alſo in the Lord Hatton's Library, are excellent Draughts, handſomly delineated, of all the Arms, and Effigies in the Windows, and Tombs in the Church, which were in being An. 1641. before the great Rebellion. Here were then about a hundred Coats of Arms; five rais'd Tombs of Biſhops, with their Effigies lying on them; beſides Tombs of the Lord Baſſet, Lord Paget, Chancellor Maſters, Capt. Stanley, Deans Yotton and Heywood, and about five other Tombs of Canons, all neatly repreſented, tho' they are now moſtly periſhed. What Inſcriptions there were then in being, with an Account of ſome of theſe Tombs, may be ſeen in a Book printed An. 1717. in Octav. which gives a good Account of the demoliſhing this Church An. 1646. and care taken by Biſhop Hacket in re-edifying it An. 1661. with the Form uſed by him to conſecrate it again to divine Service, after it had been near twenty Years moſt miſerably profaned. The Inſcriptions even then in being, before 1600. were all gone, except theſe two, neither of which have any Dates; tho' it is plain from Hiſtory, that the laſt of theſe, tho' but a Cœnotaph, (the real Body lying at Drayton Co. Middleſex) was in Memory of the Lord Paget, who died July 9. 1563. When the firſt Perſon died, or who he was, I have no Account but in the Epitaph, which was on a a Plate of Braſs.

The Inſcriptions on Graveſtones, as already hinted, were all gone before 1641. when this Account was drawn up; and indeed the Church was ſo totally demoliſh'd An. 1646. that it may be truly ſaid there is not now remaining the leaſt Piece of Braſs, Glaſs, Iron, Arms, &c. but what appear to have been put up ſince 1661. So 'tis pity that the aforeſaid Author of the Hiſtory of this Church, which he took from Aſhmole's MSS. had not with the Monuments, which he has continued to 1717. blazon'd and deſcribed the Arms, which were near an hundred in number. And as he has given us ſome Inſcriptions put up ſince the new re-edifying it, he would have obliged the Publick to have inſerted the two following; the firſt of which is over the great South Door of the Church, and the other over the Choir-Entrance.

The

The Verſes over the great Weſt Doors being given imperfectly in this Author, I ſhall here inſert them.

Oſwyus eſt Lichfeild Fundator, ſed Reparator
Offa fuit, Regum Fama perennis erit :
Rex Stephanus, Rex Henricus, primuſque Richardus,
Rex & Johannes, plurima Dona dabant.

I have now done with that Author, who might have enumerated the Graveſtones robbed of their Braſs Inſcriptions. Theſe were no leſs than ſixty ſeven ; but as they have been divers of them remov'd from Place to Place, on new paving the Church, there is no aſcertaining to whom they belonged : Tho' it is plain four of them belonged to Biſhops, as is apparent by the Impreſſion of the Mitre and Croſier on the Stones. One of theſe was doubtleſs for Biſhop Halſe, another Biſhop Boler's, a third Biſhop Burghill's, and the fourth probably for Biſhop Cloſe. Theſe ſeem to have been all of them ſpoiled of their Braſſes about the Beginning of Queen Elizabeth's Reign, who was forced to publiſh a Proclamation to prohibit defacing Monuments.

The Dimenſions of this Church, tho' they may be ſeen by the Scale in the Ichnography, I ſhall beg leave to repeat here. It contains in Length, from Eaſt to Weſt, 411 Foot ; the Breadth of the Body and and Side-Iſles is 66 Foot ; about equal to which is the Height of the Vaulting. The Height of the Rood, or middle Spire, is 246 Foot ; of the Weſt Steeples (in the Southern of which hangs a Peal of ten Bells) 188 Foot. Here were never any Cloiſters. The Roof of the whole Fabrick is neatly vaulted with Stone ; and the Elegancy and Regularity of the Building renders it one of the moſt compleat Cathedrals in England.

The chief Builders of it were

Biſhop Clinton, Temp. Hen. I. who built good part of the Church, and encreaſed the number of Prebends, fenced the Town with a Ditch, and laid out much Money on the Caſtle.

Biſhop Langton, Temp. Edw. I. who began the Lady-Chapel, compaſſed the Cloſe with a Wall, made a ſumptuous Shrine for St. Chad, at 2000*l.* Expence, built the Gate at the Weſt End, and having beſtowed his own Palace on the Vicars, made for himſelf and Succeſſors, on the North Eaſt Part of the Church, a very fair Habitation, wherein, in a goodly Hall, he cauſed to be excellently well painted (as Erdſwick tells us) the Coronation, Marriages, Wars, and Funeral of his Patron King Edw. I.

There

There were alſo other Biſhops, Deans, and Canons who are ſaid to have contributed liberally to the building and adorning this Church; as Biſhops Cornhull, Meyland, Norburgh, Scrope, Burghill, Heyworth, Elfin; Deans Mauceter, Heywood, and Denton; Canons Chaddſden, Radnor, Hardwick, Birmingham, Radcliff, &c.

But there being an Account given in Anglia Sacra, Vol. I. of the Benefactions of the reſpective Biſhops, Deans, and Canons of this Church, before the Reformation 1541. I need not enlarge farther on this Particular; ſo ſhall conclude with an Account of Biſhop Hacket's Benefaction, who may be reckoned as the ſecond Founder of this Church.

This good Biſhop, as may be ſeen in the Antiquities of Lichfeild, already cited, and in his Life, publiſhed by Dr. Plume Archdeacon of Rochester, at his coming to this See, An. 1661. found the Church in a moſt deſolate Condition; the Roof of Stone beat down; the Timber, Lead, Iron, Glaſs, Organs, Stalls, Bells, &c. embezzled; the middle Spire entirely batter'd down, and great part of the Weſt Spires demoliſh'd: ſo that the next Morning after his Arrival he ſet his own Coach-Horſes to work, together with other Teams, to carry away the Rubbiſh. Which being cleared, he procured Artizans of all ſorts to begin the new Pile; and in eight Years, to the Admiration of all the Country, ſet up a compleat Church again; the whole Roof, from one End to the other, being by him throughout repair'd with Stone, and leaded, at the Coſt of above 20000*l.* which he accompliſh'd a great Part out of his own Bounty, with 1000*l.* Contributions of the Dean and Chapter, by inceſſant Importunity from worthy Benefactors; himſelf overſeeing all, and managing every thing with incredible Prudence and Fidelity, in contriving and bargaining with Workmen, and unſpeakable Diligence in ſolliciting for Money, by which means this rare Building became finiſhed in ſo ſhort a Space, and was conſecrated by his Lordſhip on Chriſtmas-Eve, 1669. with all fitting Solemnity, as may be ſeen in the above-mentioned Authors.

I have been the longer in deſcribing this excellent Biſhop's Benefaction, the rather to recommend his Example to ſome Cathedrals which ſeem now to ſtand in need of ſuch a Governour; eſpecially the poor deſolate Church of Landaff, where, even without any other Enemy than what the Members themſelves are ſaid to have been, by receiving all from the Church, and expending little or nothing upon it, they have left it to fall a Ruin to Time, and become a Reproach to its Enemies round about, there being none of its Sons that ſeem to commiſerate its Condition, or regard its being diveſted of all Ornaments and Ceremonies us'd in other Cathedrals, which might be reſtored ſoon again, was the the ſame Spirit and Zeal exiſting as in 1661. which raiſed this our Church of Lichfeild, and would even repair the Breaches here, was the like care taken as in Lichfeild, and the ſame Method put in practice; which I ſhall here extract from two Memorandums in Mr. Aſhmole's Collections in the Muſæum at Oxford, that the Reader may have a better Idea of Biſhop Hacket's Undertaking, and what he had to go through.

"June 16. 1660. This Morning Mr. Rawlins of Lichfeild told me, "that the Clerks Vicars of the Cathedral had enter'd the Chapter-"Houſe, and there ſaid Service; and this, with the Veſtry, was the "only Places in the Church that had a Roof to ſhelter them.

"July 18. 1660. Mr. Dugdale moved Dr. Sheldon to become an "Inſtrument for the Repair of Lichfeild Cathedral; and propoſed that "the Prebends, &c. that were admitted ſhould part with one half of "their Profits towards the Repair of the Fabrick, which would be no "great Burden to them; and by this Example the Gentry would be in-"vited to join with them in ſome conſiderable Contribution."

N. B. I find this Method ſucceeded accordingly.

In the ſaid Mr. Aſhmole's Collections is given a Draught or Proſpect of Lichfeild Cloſe, with the Repreſentation of the great Steeple beat down below the Bottom of the Spire, and the Weſt Front, as it ſtood ſhatter'd, with the Battery of the Doors and Windows of the Church.

Alienations from LICHFEILD Biſhoprick.

THAT here are entirely alienated the Manours of Beaudeſert, Longdon, Cannock, Rugeley, Heywood, Co. Stafford, and the epiſcopal Palace in London, appears in ſome meaſure from Pat. 1. Edw. VI. Aug. 20. 1547. wherein mention is made, that the King, in conſideration of the Manours of Longdon, Beaudeſert, Rugeley, Heywood, Berkſwick, and Cannock, granted to Richard [Sampſon] Biſhop of Coventry and Lichfeild, the Rectories of Wolſtanton Co. Stafford; Belgrave Co. Leiceſter; Towceſter, Pighteſley, and Buckby, Co. Northampton; Towen [Co. Merioneth] and the Deanary of Gnoſall, with the four Prebends Co. Stafford, all of the yearly Value of 183 l. 8 s. 10 d.

N. B. By this Grant, Wolſtanton, Belgrave, Towceſter, Pighteſley, and Buckby being appropriated to the Biſhoprick, ſeem from good Rectories to be reduced to mean Vcaridges, or ſtipendiary Curacies, as they now remain.

In

In Strype's Memoirs, Vol. III. p. 199. we have this Account of Biſhop Sampſon's Alienations.

" In his time two of the beſt Manours were exchanged for two Be-
" nefices, eſteemed as much in Value, but the Royalty was loſt; one of " them, viz. Beaudeſert, was conferred upon Sir Will. Paget, who An.
" 1549. being made a Baron, had his Title from thence."

In Dugdale's Warwickſhire we are informed, that this Biſhop, about the ſame time, parted with the Manours of Geydon, Chadſunt, Biſhop's-Itchington, and Tachbrook, and the Patronage of Fenny-Compton, in that County.

This See being thus miſerably ſpoiled Temp. Edw. VI. there remain'd little for Queen Elizabeth to ſtrip it of; tho' I find, An. Regni 15. a Grant made to her of Bugby Rectory and Advowſon by Biſhop Bentham for ſixty Years. And An. Regni 25. in another Patent, a Leaſe of Belgrave Rectory, with ſome Lands at Eccleſhall, to her by Biſhop Overton, for fifty Years. But I preſume they are reverted to the See again. Both theſe were married Biſhops, which I cannot diſcover Sampſon was; which I the more wonder'd at, becauſe I do not find that any other unmarried Biſhop, except Voyſy of Exeter, who was frighten'd into it, made any of theſe ſhameful Compliances.

The State of this See, as it now remains, may be judg'd in ſome meaſure from the Sale of the Lands in the great Rebellion.

The Impropriations were granted away without any formal or particular Sales, as the Demeſnes were.

In the Monaſticon Anglicanum, Vol. III. is an Account of the Statutes of this Cathedral, and Chantries founded in it, with the Values of them, which ſee alſo in the Antiquities of Lichfeild, where is inſerted the old Valor of the Livings in the Dioceſe and Prebends, from the MSS. in the Bodleian Library, taken Temp. Edw. I.

The Biſhop of Lichfeild is Patron of his four Archdeaconries, and all the Prebends in his Cathedral, eleven Livings in his Dioceſe, of Towceſter, Bugby and Pightley Vicaridges, Co. Northampton; Belgrave Co. Leiceſter; Burton, Wibunbury and Copenhall, Co. Cheſter.

Endowments of the Dean and Chapter of LICHFEILD.

THE Eſtate of the Chapter, except ſome few Demeſnes at Alrewas and King's-Bromley, conſiſteth wholly of Impropriations. The clear Value, An. 1534. was ſtated at only 275 l. 13 s. 4 d. and the Tenths at 27 l. 11 s. 4 d. Theſe aroſe from the Impropriations of Bakewell, Hope, Tiddeſwall cum Capellis, Co. Derby, the Product of which was computed at above 200 l. of the 275 l. the reſt ariſes from Arely, Cannock, Rugeley, Horborne, Fairwell, Co. Stafford; Worfield, Co. Salop; Egbaſton, Co. Warwick; and Thornton, Co. Lincoln; and ſome few Penſions paid from Churches in the reſpective Archdeaconies, with which the Vicars Choral were maintain'd. The Names of the Vicars and their Stipends, and alſo of the Lay Vicars, or Singing-Men, are printed in the old Valor Beneficiorum. The Chapter have alſo, for farther Maintenance of their Dignities, ſome Lands in Fairwell, Curborough, Charley, Homerwich, Shareſhull, and ſome Rents in Lichfeild City and Pariſh. The value of theſe Eſtates, and all the Prebendal ones, as they were eſtimated in the Time of the great Rebellion, are, with the like Particulars of the Rentals of other Cathedrals, repoſited in the Library at Lambeth.

The

The Chapter preſent to St. Mary's Church in Lichfeild, and about eleven other Churches in the Dioceſe; in moſt of which, and in their Prebendal Churches, they claim a peculiar Juriſdiction. They are alſo Patrons of their impropriated Church of Thornton juxta Horncaſtle, Co. Lincoln.

BISHOPS of LICHFEILD.

OF the Foundation of this Biſhoprick by Oſwy King of Mercia, ſee Anglia Sacra, Vol. I. and Monaſticon Anglicanum, Vol. III. p. 216. from which and other Authorities the following Accounts of the Biſhops to the Time of William I. An. 1066. have been with great Labour collected and reviſed by the Reverend Mr. Carte Prebendary of this Church, who has, as I conceive, adjuſted the Series of the Succeſſion in a more exact manner than has been yet publiſh'd.

DIUMA was conſecrated firſt Biſhop of this See between Nov. 15. An. 655. and Eaſter 656. He dy'd An. 658. and was ſucceeded by

CELLACH, An. 658. He quitted it next Year, on the Mercians revolting from King Oſwy his Patron, and return'd into the North, An. 659. whereupon TRUMHERE, Abbat of Ingetlingham, was promoted to this Biſhoprick by King Wulfere, An. 660. He dy'd 662. and was ſucceeded by

JARUMAN, An. 663. He dy'd 667. and was after two Years Vacancy ſucceeded by CEDDA or CHAD, recommended to this See by Wilfrid Archbiſhop of York (who had officiated here in the Vacancy) An. 669. He dy'd March 2. An. 672. and was bury'd in the Cathedral, which (with ſeveral other Churches in theſe Parts) became dedicated to his Honour, and had a rich Shrine erected to his Memory in it.

WINFRID ſucceeded An. 672. and was Sept. 24. preſent at the Synod at Herudford, but was depoſed An. 675. by the Archbiſhop, for not complying with the Diviſion of his Biſhoprick.

SEXULF, Abbot of Peterborough, ſucceeded 676. and ſoon after conſented to the Erection of the Biſhoprick of Hereford; as he did 679. to thoſe of Worceſter, Lindſey or Stow, and Leiceſter. He dy'd An. 691. and was ſucceeded by

HEDDA, or HEADDE, 691. He dy'd 721. and was ſucceeded by

ALDWIN,

ALDWIN or EADWIN, alias WOR, in 711. He dy'd 737. and was ſucceeded by

WICTA, or HWITA, An. 737. He dy'd An. 752. and was ſucceeded by

HEMEL, An. 752. He dy'd An. 764, or 765. and was ſucceeded by

CUTHFRITH or CUTHRED, An. 765. He dy'd about 768. and was ſucceeded by

BERTHUNUS. He dy'd An. 785. and was ſucceeded by

HIGEBERT, or SIGEBERT, elected in the Synod of Celench, An. 785. at which King Offa conſtrain'd Archbiſhop Janebert of Canterbury to reſign ſome part of his Province to him. He dy'd next Year, and was ſucceeded by

ADULF, An. 786. He was the ſame Year confirm'd by Pope Adrian in his Archiepiſcopal Authority over the Sees of Winchester, Hereford, Legeiceſter, Sidnaceſter or Stow, Helmham, and Dunwich, which he enjoy'd till 799. for thirteen Years, when Pope Leo annext them again to the Archbiſhop of Canterbury. As for Adulf, he dy'd An. 812. and was bury'd in the Cathedral, and ſucceeded by

HEREWIN, who made his Profeſſion of Obedience to Wulfride, Archbiſhop of Canterbury, An. 812. He dy'd An. 817. having ſate five Years, and was ſucceeded by

ATHELWOLD, or HERKENWALD, conſecrated An. 818. He dy'd 828. His Succeſſor was

HUNBERHT, conſecrated by Archbiſhop Wilfrid a little before his Death, which happen'd An. 829. He dy'd An. 866. and was ſucceeded by

KINEBERT, or KINEFYRH. He ſate three Years, and was ſucceeded by

TUNFRITH, or TUMBRIHT, conſecrated An. 870. He dy'd An. 900. and was ſucceeded by

ELLA or ALFWIN, An. 900. He dy'd 924. and was ſucceeded by

ELGAR, or ALFGAR, An. 924. He dy'd An. 940. and was ſucceeded by

KYNSIUS, An. 940. He dy'd about 964. and was ſucceeded by

WINSIUS, who preſided from 964. till 992. when

ÆLFAGE, or ELFETH, ſucceeded 992. and preſided fifteen Years, and dying An. 1007. was ſucceeded by

GODWIN, An. 1007. He dy'd An. 1020. and was ſucceeded by

LEOFGAR, An. 1020. He preſided ſeven Years, and dying 1027. was ſucceeded by

BRITHMAR

BRITHMAR, 1027. He dy'd An. 1039. and was ſucceeded by WILSIUS, 1039. He dy'd in Oct. 1053. and was ſucceeded by LEOFWINE, the firſt Abbat of Coventry, who became promoted to this See An. 1054. However he kept his Abbacy with his Biſhoprick, as we learn from Leland's Collectanea, Vol. VI. p. 246. He dy'd An. 1066. and was ſucceeded by PETER, conſecrated An. 1067. the Year after the Norman Invaſion, or Conqueſt. This Man remov'd his See An. 1075. to St. John's Church in Cheſter, where he ſate ten Years, and dying about the latter end of 1085. was bury'd there, and ſucceeded by ROBERT de LIMESEY, nominated on Chriſtmas-day 1085. and conſecrated at Canterbury next Year. He did not like Cheſter for a Biſhop's See; ſo on April 18. 1102. remov'd this See to Coventry, where he dy'd Aug. 30. 1117. and was bury'd there. After his Death this See continued vacant, according to Wharton, four Years, till the conſecration of his Succeſſor, whom, and the following Biſhops, we muſt ſtyle

Biſhops of Coventry and Lichfeild.

AND he was,
ROBERT PECHE, Chaplain to King Henry I. Godwin places his coming in An. 1117. and ſo makes no Vacancy; tho' other Authors tell us he was conſecrated at Abington March 13. 1121. He dy'd Aug. 22. 1127. and was bury'd at Coventry, and ſucceeded after two Years Vacancy by ROGER de Clinton, Archdeacon of Buckingham, conſecrated at Canterbury Dec. 22. 1129. and enthronized at Coventry in January following. He built great part of the Church at Lichfeild, encreaſed the number of his Prebends, or rather firſt fix'd them here; for it ſeems to me that he founded the two Gaia's, Freford, Hanſacre, Curburough, Darnford, Offley, Stotfold, and the two Ulvetons; and I doubt not but he ſettled the principal Dignitaries. He alſo fenced the Town with a Ditch, and beſtow'd much Money on the Caſtle. He dy'd in the Pilgrimage he had undertaken to Jeruſalem, at Antioch, April 16. 1148. and was bury'd there.
WALTER DURDENT, (the firſt Precentor of Lichfeild as I can find, which he ſeems to have quitted to be Prior of Canterbury) ſucceeded. He dy'd Dec. 7. 1161. and was bury'd at Coventry. While he ſate here he obtain'd from King Stephen the Privilege of coining Mony, and ſome Lands at Cannock and Brewood.
RICHARD PECHE, Archdeacon of Cheſter, ſucceeded, being conſecrated An. 1162. He took on him a religious Habit in the Priory of St. Thomas, near Stafford, where he died, Oct. 6. 1182. and was buried.

GERARD la Pucelle, Canon of Salisbury, ſucceeded, being conſecrated Sept. 25. 1183. He died Jan. 13. 1184. and was buried at Coventry, and ſucceeded by

HUGH de Novant, Archdeacon of Oxford, elected 1185. tho' not conſecrated till Jan. 31. 1188. He brought back the See to Lichfeild, and procured to his Church the Advowſon of Bakewell, &c. the Towns of Cannock and Rugeley, and ſome Houſes at London. Godwin ſays he died An 1199. in Normandy, and was buried at Caen: Tho' better Authorities place his Death and Burial April 27. 1198. at Lertherlevin in that Country. His Succeſſor was

GEOFRY de Muſchamp, Archdeacon of Cleveland, conſecrated at Canterbury, June 21. 1198. He died Oct. 6. 1208. and was buried at Lichfeild; in which Church he founded the Prebend of Wolrey, and obtained from King John ſeveral Churches; as, Wellchall, Forton, Rugeley, Canock, which were given to it, as may be ſeen in Prynn's Collectanea, Vol. III. pag. 3. by King Hen. II. and made Prebends. On his Death, the Monks of Coventry choſe Josbert, their Prior; but the Canons of Lichfeild, to pleaſe the King, elected An. 1210. Walter de Grey, who, according to Godwin, held it till his Tranſlation to Worceſter, An. 1214. But Mr. Wharton intimates, that both Elections being ſet aſide, by joint Conſent of both Chapters they agreed upon

WILLIAM de Cornhull, Archdeacon of Huntingdon, who was conſecrated and made his Profeſſion of Obedience at Reading, Jan. 25. 1215. He was a good Benefactor to his Church, and gave the Canons Power of chuſing their own Dean, which before was ſolely in the Biſhop's Election, and impropriated to them Hope, Tiddeſwall, Canock, Rugeley, &c. He died Aug. 20. 1223. and was buried at Lichfeild; where was, An. 1662. on digging a Grave, his Coffin found, with this Inſcription on it:

Anno ab Incarnatione Domini MCCXXIII. obiit Wilhelmus, Coven. & Lichfeild Epiſcopus, 13 Cal. Septemb. Regni Regis Henrici Filii Johannis XII. ſub Honorio Papa III. Stephano Cantuar. Archiepiſcopo. Rexit autem Eccleſiam iſtam VIII Annos, I Menſ.

ALEXANDER de Stavenby ſucceeded, being conſecrated April 14. 1224. He added Tervin and Wellington to the Number of Prebends in his Church, founded the Grey-Friars in Lichfeild City, and dying at Andover, Dec. 26. 1238. was buried in Lichfeild Cathedral. On his Death both Chapters elected William de Raleigh, Treaſurer of Exeter, ter, for their Biſhop; but he being made choice of by the Monks of Norwich, accepted of that See. So, on a new Diſpute, the Lichfeild Men elected William de Manceſtre, their Dean; and the Coventry Men chuſing Nicholas de Fernham, afterwards Biſhop of Durham, and he refuſing it becauſe of the Diſpute, both Parties were induc'd to come to another Election; when, by the King's Perſuaſion, they choſe

HUGH de Pateſhull, Treaſurer of England, and Canon of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, who was confirmed Biſhop 1239. conſecrated July 1. 1240. and enthronized Sept. 21. following. He died Dec. 7. 1241. and was buried near St. Stephen's Altar in this Cathedral, in which he founded the Prebend of Collwich. On his Death,

RICHARD CRASSUS, Abbat of Eveſham, was elected by the Chapter, and confirmed by the Pope; but he dying at Riola in Gaſcoigne Dec. 8. 1242. without Conſecration, one Robert de Monte Peſſulano was nominated to this See by the Pope, who finding great Oppoſition made to him by the King, reſigned his Pretenſions to the Pope, who ſubſtituted in his ſtead

ROGER de Weſeham, Archdeacon of Rocheſter, and Dean of Lincoln, and he became conſecrated accordingly, and received the Temporalities Jan. 1. 1245. He added to the number of his Prebends Ruiton and Bobenhall, and annext Bolton to the Archdeaconry of Cheſter. Growing very ſick and infirm, he reſigned his Biſhoprick Dec. 4. 1256. and dying at Brewood May 20. following, An. 1257. was buried in his own Cathedral, near Canon Radcliff's Tomb, and ſucceeded by

ROGER de Molend, alias Longſpe, elected Jan. 31. 1256. and conſecrated March 10. following. He added Flixton, Parva Pipa, and Sandiacre to the number of his Prebends; and dying Dec. 11. ſome ſay Dec. 16. 1295. was buried Jan. 3. following, under a Tomb on the South Side the high Altar, near the Biſhop's Seat, in his own Cathedral, to which he had been a conſiderable Benefactor. His Succeſſor was

WALTER de Langton, Treaſurer of Landaff, Canon of London and this Church, and Dean of Bridgnorth, elected Feb. 20. 1295. confirmed June 11. and conſecrated December 22. 1296. He was the greateſt Benefactor this Church ever had, building the Lady-Chapel, erecting a ſumptuous Shrine to the Memory of St. Chad, and encloſing his Church with a ſtrong Wall, ditching and walling it all round, and building the great Bridge at Lichfeild, the Caſtle at Eccleſhall, epiſcopal Palace at London, beſides beſtowing a great many rich Copes, Veſtments, Chalices, &c. on his Church, and procuring them many Charters and notable Privileges of his Patron King Edward I. (ſome of which ſee printed in Prynn's Collectanea, Vol. III. p. 806.) to whom he was Treaſurer. He died at London Nov. 16. 1321. and was buried under a ſumptuous Monument in his own Cathedral, defaced An. 1646. with the Church; tho' part of his broken Effigies is ſtill remaining, and lies in the South Iſle, oppoſite to Biſhop Hacket's Tomb. A certain Author, ſpeaking of this Biſhop, remarks, that our antient Biſhops that continued unremoved, atcheived great Matters every where before the Reformation; as another Author obſerves, that their unmarried Succeſſors have ſince done great Acts of Munificence, eſpecially thoſe that have been made Biſhops of the Dioceſes wherein they were born. Mr. Burton, in his Hiſtory of Leiceſterſhire, ſpeaking of this Biſhop, who was a Native of Weſt-Langton in Church-Langton Pariſh in that County, tells us he obtained there, and at Thorp-Langton, Free-Warren: And ſpeaking of his Beneſactions to Lichfeild, ſays, he built the Lady-Chapel there, a ſumptuous and ſtately Piece of Work, beſtowed an exceeding coſtly Shrine on St. Chad, at the Charge of 2000 l. made the great Gate at the Weſt End of the Cloſe, and another on the South Side, built a great Bridge, and a new Palace at the End of the Cloſe, repaired his Caſtle at Eccleſhall, his Palace at London, and Shutborough and Heywood Manour-Houſes Co. Stafford; gave Plate, Jewels, Copes, Veſtments of great Value, to the Church, and procured many Charters and great Privileges. In ſome Accounts I have ſeen of Shropſhire, I find this Return in his time of Prees Co. Salop; "Walterus Epiſcopus Ceſtrie, "tenet Manerium de Prees ut Membrum Baroniæ ſuæ de Eccleſhall de "Domino Rege in Capite, & habet ibidem Mercatum & Feriam per "Chartam Domini Hen. III." After his Death, the Monks of Coventry elected their Prior Henry Irreys; but he was ſet aſide, and

Roger de Northburgh, Archdeacon of Richmond, Canon of Lincoln and Hereford, Keeper of the Great Seal, and Treaſurer of England, had the Temporalities reſtored April 12. 1322. was conſecrated June 24. and made his Profeſſion of Obedience to the See of Canterbury Aug. 31. following. He died Dec. 13. 1359. and was buried in his own Cathedral, near his Predeceſſors, under a ſumptuous Tomb, and ſucceeded by Robert Stretton, LL. D. Canon of this Church, confirmed Biſhop Sept. 26. and conſecrated next Day, 1360. He died March 28. 1385. at Heywood, and was buried in his own Cathedral, in St. Andrew's Oratory or Chapel. His Will is in the Archives at Lambeth, in Regiſtr. Courteney, fol. 211. 'Tis dated March 19. 1384. and was proved April 10. following, 1385. In it he gives his Succeſſor his Mitre and Paſtoral Staff, and ſome Plate and Miſſals to his Cathedral.

Walter

Walter Skirlaw, LL. D. Archdeacon and Canon of York, ſucceeded, being conſecrated Jan. 14. 1385. but before Enthronization he was tranſlated to Bath and Wells, and thence to Durham; where ſee more of him.

Richard Scroope, LL. D. ſucceeded, being conſecrated Aug. 19. 1386. He was July 2. 1398. tranſlated to York; where ſee more of him.

John Burghill, a Friar-Minor, or Grey-Friar, and Biſhop of Landaff, was tranſlated hither in Sept. 1398. He was an excellent Biſhop, of eminent Loyalty to his Patron King Richard II. and a great Benefactor to his Cathedral. He died in May 1414. and was buried under a Graveſtone, which had his Effigies in Braſs on it, in the Lady-Chapel, as he had appointed in his Will, an Extract of which I met with in the Archives at Lambeth, among Mr. Wharton's MSS. His Succeſſor was

John Catterich, Archdeacon of Surry, and Prebendary of Hereford, who was An. 1414. conſecrated to the See of St. David, and by the Pope's Bull, dated Feb. 1. 1414. tranſlated hither, the Temporalities of which he had reſtored May 5. 1415. He was An. 1419. tranſlated to Exeter, tho' the Tranſlation ſcarce took effect, for he died that Year beyond Seas, as appears by the Probate of his Will, Feb. 10. 1419, in which he appointed to be buried at the White-Friars at Florence; tho' Iſaack ſays, in his Hiſtory of Exeter, he was buried in a Church at Avignion in France. On his Tranſlation, as Godwin through Miſtake tells us, James Carey became Biſhop here; but 'tis plain he was nominated to ſucceed Biſhop Catterich at Exeter, and not here, tho' he never enjoyed that See, he dying likewiſe beyond Seas at Florence, where he was buried, before he could return home; ſo that Biſhop Catterich's Succeſſor here was

William Heyworth, Abbat of St. Albans, by papal Proviſion, Bull dated Nov. 20. 1420. eight Days after which he received the Spiritualities. He died March 13. 1446. and was buried in his Abby of St. Albans, having beſtowed 100*l.* on Burton Abby in this Dioceſe. His Succeſſor was

William Booth, Archdeacon of Middleſex, Canon of St. Paul's London, and Rector of Preſcot Co. Lancaſter, by papal Proviſion, Bull dated April 26. 1447. conſecrated July 9. following. He was July 21. 1452. tranſlated to York, and ſucceeded by

Nicholas Close, S. T. P. Archdeacon of Colcheſter, and Biſhop of Carliſle, who became tranſlated hither by the Pope's Bull dated Auguſt 30. 1452. He died in October following, having not been Biſhop two Months; ſo that where he was buried I find not, unleſs I ſhould judge in this Cathedral, and that he deceaſed ſoon after his Arrival in his Dioceſe. On his Death,

Reginald Bouiers, or Bolers, who had been ſome time Abbat of Glouceſter, and having refuſed the Biſhoprick of Landaff, and afterwards accepted of Hereford, was tranſlated thence hither by the Pope's Bull dated Feb. 7. 1452. He received the Temporalities March 26. and was confirmed April 4. 1453. Godwin tells us that he was buried in Hereford Cathedral, he miſtaking Biſhop Tilleck's Graveſtone for Biſhop Boler's, whom he calls erroneouſly Butler; whereas 'tis plain he was buried at Lichfeild, and that one of the Graveſtones with a Biſhop's Effigies upon it belonged to him. In his Will, dated March 23. 1458. and proved April 10. following, 1459. he appointed his Body to be buried in this Cathedral, and gave 10*l.* for a Maſs to be ſaid for him here, and beſtowed on this Church his Chalice and Veſtments, and his Books to the Library at Glouceſter Abby. His Succeſſor was

John Halse, S. T. B. ſometime Provoſt of Oriel-College, Oxon, Archdeacon of Norfolk and Norwich, and Prebendary of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, conſecrated Nov. 25. 1459. of whom ſee an Account in Prince's Worthies of Devon, pag. 374, 375. He was a Perſon of great Learning, a good Benefactor to Oriel-College and this Church. He died, as Godwin tells us, Sept. 30. tho' in other Accounts his Death is ſaid to happen Oct. 3. 1490. in the ninetieth Year of his Age, and was buried under a Graveſtone, near the Weſt Door of this Cathedral: About which Place, in honour to him, the Canons, and other ſucceeding Members, choſe to lie interred for a conſiderable time afterwards.

William Smith, S. T. P. Archdeacon of Surry, ſucceeded, was conſecrated in April 1492. and had the Temporalities reſtored Jan. 29. 1492. He built the Hoſpital and Grammar-School at Lichfeild, and afterwards founded Brazenoſe-College in Oxford. He was An. 1495. tranſlated to Lincoln, and ſucceeded by John Arundel, Dean of Exeter, Chancellor of Hereford, and Prebendary of Sarum, York, and Windſor, conſecrated Nov. 6. 1496. He was June 29. 1502. tranſlated to Exeter, and ſucceeded by

Geffry Blith, LL. D. Dean of York, Archdeacon of Cleveland and Salisbury, Prebendary of York, London, and Sarum, who had the Temporalities reſtored Sept. 26. 1503. ſix Days after his Conſecration. This worthy Biſhop, with James Denton the Dean, and Chapter, collected all the Statutes and Orders made by his Predeceſſors Biſhops Pateſhull, Meyland alias Longſpe, Langton, Heywood, Bolers, Halſe, Halſe, out of which they formed a compleat Body of Statutes, which they procured to be confirm'd by Cardinal Wolſey by his Legantine Power An. 1526. as may be ſeen in the Monaſticon Anglicanum, Vol. III. where the ſame are exhibited, together with many other curious Charters and Grants to this Church. In his Will, dated April 28. 1530. and proved March 1. following, he appointed to be buried in this Cathedral, before the Image of St. Chad, and a Tomb to be erected for him, which was accordingly done, his Executors ſetting over his Grave, as Tradition ſays, a very noble Monument: Theſe were Geffry Blith, Archdeacon of Stafford; Nicholas Darington, Prebendary of Flixton, and William Hill, Prebendary of Wolvey, in his own Cathedral; to the adorning of which he was a very liberal Contributor.

ROLAND LEE, LL. D. Archdeacon of Cornwal, Rector of Aſhdon in Eſſex, Vicar of St. Sepulchers, London, and Prebendary of this Church, ſucceeded, being elected Jan. 10. 1533. confirmed April 16. and conſecrated April 19. 1534. His Promotion hither, as a certain Author tells us, was owing to the Services he had done to pleaſe the inſatiable Deſires of Henry VIII. one of which was the marrying him to Ann Bulleyn. But however he might be in favour with the King, yet had he not Intereſt enough to preſerve his other Cathedral Church, viz. Coventry, tho' he wrote very preſſingly to Cromwell to prevent its Ruin, telling him, "He was moved ſo to do, foraſmuch as it was his Principle "See, and Hedde Church, and that the City of Coventry ſued for the "ſame, and ſo earneſtly entreated that the Church might ſtand, and he "keep his Name, and the City have Commodity and Eaſe to their De- "ſire; or that by his Lordſhip's Goodneſs it might be brought to a Col- "legiate Church, as Lichfeild, and ſo his poor City have a perpetual "Comfort of the ſame." But all this availed nothing; for that magnificent Church, adorned, like Lichfeild, with three tall Steeples, and exceeding it for ſumptuous Ornaments, &c. fell a Sacrifice to Men of Avarice, ſeemingly before the Death of this Biſhop, which happened Jan. 24. 1542. at his Brother George Lee's Houſe in the College of St. Chad's in Shrewsbury, of which his ſaid Brother was Dean, who buried him in St. Chad's Collegiate Church, under a plain raiſed Tomb, before the Altar Steps on the South Side, which was not many Years ago taken down, and the Stone, which had no Inſcription upon it, laid even with the Ground, as I was informed by the moſt Reverend and Worthy Biſhop Ottley of St. David's, who remember'd it ſtanding. In his Will he directed to be buried in St. John's Collegiate Church at Cheſter; but I ſuppoſe at his Death he revoked it, and choſe his Brother's Church. His Succeſſor was

Richard Sampson, LL. D. of Trinity-Hall, Cambridge, Dean of this Church, London, and Windſor, Prebendary of London, Archdeacon of Cornwal, Rector of Hackney in Middleſex, Treaſurer of Sarum, Dean of the King's Chapel, and at length Biſhop of Chicheſter, from whence he was tranſlated hither Feb. 19. and confirmed March 19. 1542. He was a learned Man, but of no Steadineſs or Courage; and having ſhewed himſelf in Henry VIIIth's Time too much a Papiſt, occaſion'd his being hardly dealt with in King Edward VIth's Reign by his Courtiers, who unworthily compelled him to give up ſome Manours of his See in Exchange for Impropriations, as already mentioned. He died at Eccleſhall Sept. 25. 1554. and was buried in the Pariſh-Church there, where was erected to his Memory this Inſcription on a Braſs Plate on the Eaſt Wall of the Chancel:

Ralph Bayne, S. T. P. ſucceeded, being conſecrated Nov. 18. 1334. He was deprived An. 1559. by Queen Elizabeth for being a zealous Catholick, and dying at the End of that Year of the Stone, at London, was buried obſcurely at Iſlington. On his Deprivation

Thomas Bentham, A. M. Fellow of Magdalen-College, was nominated to this See. His Conge d' Elire bears date Dec. 26. 1559. Election Jan. 15. and Conſecration March 24. following. He died Feb. 19. 1578. and was buried in Eccleſhall Chancel, where is a Tomb with the Effigies of himſelf, Wife, and four Children, with this Inſcription on the Verge;

Hac jacet in Tumba Benthamus Epiſcopus ille
Doctor divinus largus paſcens pius Almus.

Which three laſt Words, with the Date of his Death are torn off. His Succeſſor was . William

William Overton, S. T. P. brought up by the Charity of Glaſtonbury Abby, Prebendary of Chicheſter, Sarum, and Wincheſter, and Rector of Stoke on Trent, and Rotherfeld, elected Septemb. 10. confirmed the 16th, and conſecrated the 18th, An. 1580. of whom this Character is given in Sir John Harrington, That he kept good Hoſpitality, and his Houſe in good Repair, which he commends no other married Biſhop for; and intimates, he has ſeldom heard of any that did either of theſe. He died April 9. 1609. and was buried at Eccleſhall, where a Tomb is erected to his Memory, containing his Effigies in his Epiſcopal Habit, and this Inſcription, which he put up in his own Life-time:

Hoc ſibi ſpe in Chriſto reſurgendi poſuit Wilhelmus Overton, Covent. & Lichf. Epiſcopus, 1603.
Maria Uxor ſecunda Patrem habuit Edmundum Bradſtock Arm. Elizabetham Scrimſhere, ex Anna Talbot Filia Johannis Talbot Militis, ex nobiliſſima Familia comitum Salopien. prognata.

George Abbat, S. T. P. Dean of Wincheſter, ſucceeded, being elected May 27. 1609. confirm'd Dec. 2. and conſecrated Dec. 3. following. He was a few Months after tranſlated to London, and thence to Canterbury. His Succeſſor in this See was

Richard Neil, S. T. P. Biſhop of Rocheſter, elected Oct. 12. and confirmed Dec. 6. 1610. He was 1613. tranſlated to Lincoln, and afterwards to Durham, Wincheſter, and York, in which laſt Church ſee more of him. His Succeſſor was

John Overall, S. T. P. Rector of Therfield and Clothall Co. Hertford, Vicar of Epping Co. Eſſex, Prebendary of St. Paul's Cathedral London, and at length Dean of that Church; elected March 14. 1613. confirm'd April 2. and conſecrated April 3. 1614. He was An. 1618. tranſlated to Norwich, where before he had ſat one Year he died, and was buried in the Cathedral. On his Tranſlation to Norwich

Thomas Moreton, S. T. P. Biſhop of Cheſter, was tranſlated hither March 6. 1628. Soon after his Election to this See, he obtain'd leave, on account of the Smallneſs of the Income, to hold the Rectory of Clifton-Camvil in this Dioceſe in Commendam, as his Predeceſſor Overall had done. He was An. 1632. tranſlated to Durham, and ſucceeded by

Robert Wright, S. T. P. Biſhop of Briſtol, elected to this See Oct. 30. 1632. and confirmed herein Nov. 28. following. He died at Eccleſhall about the middle of Aug. 1643. and was buried Sept 1. as I diſcover'd in Eccleſhall Regiſter in the Church there, where is not erected erected the leaſt Memorial for him, tho' he died vaſtly rich, and left above 20000 l. to a prodigal Son, who ſoon ſpent it all, as A. Wood informs us. In 1636. I find great Complaint made of him to Archbiſhop Laud about the Waſte of his Woods, and that he forbore to give an Account of his Dioceſe for that Reaſon. Before he was Biſhop he had paſſed through divers Preferments in the Church, as Treaſurerſhip and a Canonry, of Wells, Rectory of Brixton Deveral Co. Wilts, and Vicaridge of Sunning, Co. Berks, and being preferred to this See, got Leave to hold the Rectory of Clifton Camvil in Commendam. In his Will he appointed to be buried in Lichfeild Cathedral, but that not being obſerv'd, leads me to remark, that except Biſhop Hacket, there has not been one Biſhop interr'd here ſince 1531. now near two hundred Years ago. On his Death

Accepted Frewen, S. T. P. Dean of Glouceſter, Preſident of Magdalen-College Oxon, Prebendary of Canterbury, and Rector of Stanlake Co. Oxon, and Warnford Co Hants, was nominated to this See Aug. 17. 1643. but not conſecrated till April 1644. or enthroniz'd till 1660. if he ever came hither at all. For tho' he got at the Reſtoration of Church and Monarchy a great Sum of Money, as having been kept out of Poſſeſſion for Sixteen Years, yet I do not find he viſited this Cathedral, that was miſerably ruin'd in the Rebellion, or contributed towards the re-edifying it, that being entirely the Work of his generous Succeſſor Biſhop Hacket, and a miſtake of Groom's, in his Hiſtory of the Dignity of the Clergy, who falſly attributes it to this Biſhop, who being in a very little Time tranſlated to York, room was made for his moſt excellent Succeſſor, whoſe Name will never be forgotten at Lichfeild, viz.

John Hacket, S. T. P. Archdeacon of Bedford, Rector of Cheam in Surry, and St. Andrew's Holborn in London, and Canon of St. Paul's Cathedral there, of whom take this Account from Newcourt, who tells us he was born in the Strand, London, An. 1592. elected 1608. from Weſtminſter School to Trinity-College Cambrige, of which he became Fellow, and was An. 1618. made Chaplain to Biſhop Williams of Lincoln. About 1639. he obtained ſome thouſands of Pounds for repair of his Church of St. Andrew's Holborn; but the long Parliament ſeiz'd it, as they did what was collected for St. Paul's Cathedral. In the great Rebellion he was depriv'd of all; but was An. 1660. reſtored to his Preferments, and had the Biſhoprick of Glouceſter offer'd him, which he refuſed, but next Year accepted of this of Lichfeild; and being conſecrated hereto Dec. 27. 1661. he not long after repaired hither, where finding the Cathedral quite ruined in the time of the Rebellion, he ſet himſelf to the re-building thereof, and finiſhed the ſame in about Eight eight Years, making it more beautiful than it was before, at the Expence of twenty thouſand Pound, a thouſand of which he had of the Chapter and the reſt was of his own Charge and procuring from Benefactors. On Chriſtmas-Eve, 1669. the ſaid Cathedral was dedicated by him with the uſual Ceremonies; and in feaſting three ſeveral Parties of Men for three Days. He alſo laid out 1000*l.* in repairing the Houſe of his Reſidence at Lichfeild, that of his Predeceſſors having been ruined in the great Rebellion, and did much endeavour to ſettle a pious and laborious Clergy in his Dioceſe by his own Example of conſtant Preaching. He died Oct. 28. 1670. and was buried on the South Side the high Altar of this Cathedral, under a noble Tomb, with this Inſcription to his Memory:

THOMAS WOOD, S. T. P. Prebendary of Durham, Rector of Whickam in that Dioceſe, and Dean of this Church, ſucceeded, being elected June 9. confirmed June 24. and conſecrated July 2. 1671. He

He died at Aſtrup-Wells in Northamptonſhire, April 18. 1692. leaving an Eſtate to the ſenior Maſters of Chriſt-Church, Oxford, of 200 l. per Ann. and about 3000 l. in Money to the junior Maſters of that College, of which he had been ſometime a Member, and was buried at Ufford in Suffolk, in a Vault with others of his Family, without any Inſcription to his Memory. Not caring, as A. Wood informs us, to reſide at Lichfeild or Eccleſhall, his epiſcopal Houſes, he retired to Hackney, near London, and inhabited in the Houſe where he was born, in an ordinary Condition; whereupon Dr. Sancroft Archbiſhop of Canterbury cited him to repair to his Dioceſe, which he not doing, occaſioned that good Archbiſhop to ſuſpend him. On his Death,

William Lloyd, S. T. P. Biſhop of St. Aſaph, was tranſlated hither Oct. 20. 1692. and quitted it 1699. for Worceſter. On his Promotion to Worceſter,

John Hough, S. T. P. Biſhop of Oxford, was removed to this See, Aug. 5. 1699. and on September 29. 1717. he was removed, on his Predeceſſor Biſhop Lloyd's Death, to Worceſter, and had for his Succeſſor in this Biſhoprick

Edward Chandler, S. T. P. Rector of Wemm, and Vicar of Prees Co. Salop, Prebendary of Salisbury and Worceſter, confirmed Biſhop Nov. 15. and conſecrated Nov. 17. 1717. who is the preſent moſt worthy Biſhop An. 1723.

Deans of LICHFEILD.

This Dignity, with the Eſtabliſhment of the Prebends, as in other Cathedrals, was, as I preſume, fixed by Biſhop Clinton and Biſhop Richard Peche, Temp. Hen. I. The Edowment of it is the Impropriations and Advowſons of Brewood and Adbaſton Pariſhes Co. Stafford, valued for Firſt-Fruits, An. 1534. 26 Hen. VIII. at 40 l.

William occurs Dean 1140. and might poſſibly be the firſt.

Richard de Dalam held it 1165, and 1170. After him another

William enjoy'd it 1173. as did

Richard 1190. and

* Bertram 1193.

Richard de Nevill occurs poſſeſs'd of it 1214. He was 1224. made Biſhop of Chicheſter.

LUKE was Dean here 1225. according to Newcourt; but in Le Neve and other Writers

WILLIAM de Manceter, or Manceſter, came in about 1222. He died Feb. 7. 1253. and was buried in this Cathedral.

RALPH de Sempringham ſucceeded 1254. He died March 25. 1280. not in 1260. as in Le Neve by Miſtake, and was ſucceeded by JOHN de Derby, Prebendary of Wells and London, inſtituted An. 1280. He died Oct. 12. 1319. and was buried in this Cathedral, and ſucceeded by

STEPHEN de Segrave, elected Dec. 5. 1320. He was, as Le Neve tells us, made Biſhop of Armagh in Ireland, and An. 1324. ſucceeded by ROGER de Covenis, inſtalled by Proxy in November 1325. He died in 1328.

JOHN GASEY ſucceeded 1328. and enjoyed it 1328. in which Year he is ſtyled Epiſcopus Marcilienſis, probably a Suffragan Title under this See.

RICHARD FITZRALPH, S.T.P. was inſtalled Dean April 20. 1337. In 1347. he was preferred to the See of Armagh, and ſucceeded by

SIMON de Boriſley, inſtalled April 20. 1347. He was, I preſume, the ſame with Simon de Breiſley, made Dean of Lincoln 1349. for in that Year

JOHN de Bokingham was, as I find, promoted to this Dignity, viz. 1349. He held it 1356, and 1361. and was 1363. made Biſhop of Lincoln; but who ſucceeded in this Dignity I cannot aſcertain, unleſs it ſhould be

* ANTHONY ROUS, who in a Manuſcript of Mr. Aſhmole's in the Year 1370. is mentioned to have been lately Dean; but I am to ſeek whether he was Predeceſſor or Succeſſor to

LAURENCE de Ipſtock, ſaid to be elected into this Dignity Feb. 3. 1368. His Succeſſor, I judge, was

FRANCIS ST. SABINE, a Roman Cardinal, elected An. 1371. In the Year 1374. An. 48. Edw. III. in Fox's Martyrs, Vol. I. p. 561. he is ſaid to have been Dean then five Years; and that the Perquiſites of it were worth as follows, viz. the Deanary by the Year 400 Marks, the Prebendary of Brewood 80 Marks, and the Parſonage of Abbaſton 20 Pounds.

WILLIAM de Packington, Rector of Iwinghoe Co. Bucks, was admitted Dean 5. Cal. Jan. 1381. He died An. 1390. being alſo Archdeacon of Canterbury, and ſo quitted this the ſame Year to

THOMAS

THOMAS de Stretton, elected Dean May 15. 1390. on the Reſignation of Packington. He died July 16. 1426. and was ſucceeded by

ROBERT WOLVEDEN, elected Sept. 23. 1426. He died in November 1432. and was buried in York Cathedral, where he was Treaſurer, and ſucceeded by

JOHN VERNEY, elected Dec. 2. 1432. on the Death of Wolveden. He died 1457. and was buried in the Cathedral, and ſucceeded by

THOMAS HEYWOOD, LL. B. elected Dean in Aug. 1457. on the Death of Verney. He died Oct. 25. 1492. and was buried in the Cathedral, at the upper End of the South Iſle, oppoſite to the Choir, near the high Altar, and ſucceeded by JOHN YOTTON, S. T. P. inſtalled Feb. 23. 1492. He died Aug. 2. 1512. and was buried in the Cathedral, in the North Iſle, next the great Croſs-Iſle, where is yet his Monument. In Anglia Sacra, Vol. I. may be ſeen an Account of his and alſo his Predeceſſor Heywood's Benefactions to this Church.

RALPH COLLINGWOOD, S. T. P. ſucceeded, being inſtalled Sept. 26. 1512. on the Death of Yotton. He died Nov. 22. 1521. and was buried in the Cathedral, where he was remarkable for his conſtant Preaching for many Years together. In his Will, dated Nov. 10. 1521. proved Dec. 20. 1521. remaining in the Regiſters-Office in Lichfeild, he appointed to be buried in this Cathedral, near St. Chad, and gave a Legacy to Stratford upon Avon College, where he was Dean.

JAMES DENTON ſucceeded, being inſtalled Jan. 7. 1522. on the Death of Collingwood. He was a great Benefactor to this Church and Windſor, of which he was Canon, and expended on the Chantry-Prieſts and Choriſters there 489 l. 7 s. 1 d. and was indeed very generous to all Places where he had any Relation. He died Feb. 23. 1532. at Ludlow-Caſtle, and was buried in the beautiful Church of St. Laurence in that Town, to the building of which, or at leaſt adorning, he ſeems much to have contributed.

RICHARD SAMPSON, LL. D. ſucceeded, being inſtalled June 20. 1533. He was 1536. made Biſhop of Chicheſter, and afterwards of this See. On his Promotion to Chicheſter,

RICHARD WILLIAMS (called in ſome Accounts HENRY) ſucceeded, being inſtalled Nov. 23. 1536. He was deprived An. 1553. having been while he continued Dean, a great Waſter and Alienator, as 'tis ſaid, of the Poſſeſſions of this Church. On his Deprivation,

JOHN RAMRIDGE was inſtalled Dean April 2. 1554. He was ſoon after Queen Elizabeth's Acceſſion to the Crown 1558. impriſoned and hardly dealt with for his Religion, and at length eſcaping out of Cuſtody, Cuſtody, and flying beyond Seas, he was unfortunately murdered by Highwaymen. On his Deprivation,

LAURENCE NOWELL, A. M. became inſtalled Dean April 29. 1559. He was Prebendary of York and Chicheſter, and Rector of Haughton and Drayton-Baſſet in this Dioceſe. In his Will, which I have ſeen, he makes his Wife and four Sons Executors, and gives his Daughters 100 l. each. 'Tis dated Oct. 17. 1576. and was proved Auguſt 16. following, 1577. In it he names no Place of Burial; tho' probably he was interred at Weſton in Derbyſhire, where is a Monument, as 'tis ſaid, of a Dignitary of this Church, without any Date on it, and ſome Verſes Word for Word the ſame as on the Graveſtone of his Succeſſor

GEORGE BOLEYN, S. T. P. Prebendary of Canterbury and Chicheſter, inſtalled Nov. 22. 1576. on the Death of Nowell. He died in Jan. 1602. and was buried in the Cathedral, with the following Inſcription on his Graveſtone, the oldeſt of any Dignitary of Lichfeild I have met wit h in that Church.

Here lyeth Geo. Bollen, lat Deane of this Church, who made his own Epitaph, viz.

To here in Earth my Body lies
Whoſe ſinful Life deſerved the Rod
Yet I believe the ſame ſhall riſe
And praiſe the Mercies of my God
As for my Soul let none take thought
It is with him that hath it bought
For God on me doth Mercy take
For nothing elſe but Jheſus ſake.

* JAMES MOUNTAGUE ſucceeded, being inſtalled July 16. 1603. on the Death of Boleyn. He was next Year made Dean of Wincheſter, and ſucceeded in this Deanary by

* Thomas de Adderbury, collated Sept. 1. 1303. He died in 1307. and was ſucceeded by

* Raymond Diaconus Cardinalis 1307. He was, as I take it, alſo Archdeacon of York. His Succeſſor was

Peter de Columna, who occurs poſſeſs'd of it 1319. and 1333.

Michael de Northburgh, being preſented to it March 29. 1339. He was next Year made Archdeacon of Cheſter, and ſo quitted this.

Thomas de Badeby ſucceeded June 10. 1340. He ſeems to have exchanged it for Solihull Rectory Co. Warwick, An. 1378. with

* William de Newhagh; for I find Baddeby inſtituted to Solihull and Newhagh to this Dignity 1378. He was 1390. made Archdeacon of Cheſter, and ſo quitted this.

Robert de Wolveden ſucceeded, being admitted July 13. 1390. on Newhagh's being made Archdeacon of Cheſter. He was 1426. made Dean, and ſucceeded by Robert Esple, collated Feb. 8. 1426. on Wolveden's being made Dean. His Succeſſor was

Thomas

* THOMAS BARTON, admitted May 18. 1433. on Esple's being made Archdeacon of Coventry.

* CHRISTOPHER KNOTT was the next that enjoy'd this Office. He vacated it 1442. to

* THOMAS TOWE, or THOWE, collated Aug. 1442. After him I find

* WILLIAM VAUCE poſſeſs'd of it 1472. He was, as I find, Rector of Kineton Co. Warwick; but reſigned this March 12. 1483.

* ROBERT SLIMBRIDGE ſeems to have ſucceeded; for I find him poſſeſs'd of it 1488, and 1495.

* RICHARD SALTER, LL. D. was admitted to it Feb. 14. 1504. He had been Principal of New-Inn-Hall, Oxon, and Rector of Stanlake Co. Oxon, where he was a great Benefactor to the Chancel, as I find by this old Inſcription in one of the Windows:

Orate pro Anima Richardi Salter, LL. D. quondam Rectoris hujus Eccleſiae, qui iſtum Cancellum cum feneſtra reparare fecit A.D. 1503.

He died 1519. and was buried in the Cathedral, and ſucceeded by

* THOMAS FITZHERBERT, admitted May 27. 1519. He died Nov. 20. 1532. as appears by the Dean and Chapters Regiſters, and was ſucceeded by THOMAS HERITAGE, admitted Nov. 28. 1532. He died 1536. as appears by the Date of his Will that Year, mentioning no Place of Burial, being alſo Rector of Hackney near London.

* THOMAS BLEVERHASSET ſucceeded, being admitted Jan. 30. 1537. He died 1544. being alſo Rector of Solihull Co. Warwick, and was ſucceeded by HUGH PALMER, collated Feb. 5. 1544. In his Will made March 6. 1554. proved June 22. 1555. he mentions no Place of Burial; but gives a Legacy to New-College, Oxon, where he had been Fellow.

HENRY COMBERFORD ſucceeded, being admitted Dec. 19. 1555. He was 1559. deprived of all his Benefices on account of his Religion, and ordered to remain in Suffolk, at a great diſtance from his Friends. I find he was ſtill alive An. 1579. being aged eighty, and was then a Priſoner for his Religion in Hull in Yorkſhire.

EDWARD LEEDS ſucceeded, being inſtituted June 20. 1560. on Deprivation of Cumberford. He had been Monk and afterwards Prebendary of Ely, and Rector of Croxton Co. Cambridge. He died Feb. 17. 1588. and was buried at Croxton, with this Epitaph on his Graveſtone:

Edvardus Leeds, Legum Doctor, natus apud Benenden in Com. Cantii, dudum Magiſter Aulæ Claræ in Acad. Cant. & tam in eadem Aula quam in Collegio Emanuelis Benefactor cum primis, unus magiſtrorum Cancellarie & Dominus Manerii de Croxton. Obiit 17. Febr. 1589. cujus Corpus hic jacet ſepultum.

His Succeſſor was

* ZACHARY BABINGTON, inſtalled July 10. 1589. He was Rector of Coſington Co. Leiceſter, and Sedbury Co. Derby, and died about 1608. and was ſucceeded by

* JOHN FULNETBY, collated Oct. 27. 1608. He died 1636. being alſo Archdeacon of Stafford, and Rector of Honeſworth and Aldrich Co. Stafford. In his Will, dated Dec. 16. 1629. proved Nov. 11. 1636. he names no Place of Burial, but gives a Legacy of 30 l. to Aldriche and Barre Poor, making his Wife Executrix, and ſo was probably interr'd at Aldrich.

WILLIAM HIGGINS, A. M. ſucceeded, being inſtalled Sept. 9. 1636. He died inteſtate 1666. being alſo Archdeacon of Derby, and Rector of Stoke on Trent, and was buried at Stoke, and ſucceeded by

HENRY GRESWOLD, A. M. collated Aug. 3. 1[illegible]. He died in 1700. and was buried at Solihull Co. Warwick, where he was Rector, and ſucceeded by EDWARD MAYNARD, S. T. P. inſtalled Nov. 15. 1700. He is ſtill living 1723. and Rector of Bodington Co. Northampton.

CHANCELLORS of LICHFEILD.

THE Corps of this Dignity is the impropriate Rectory or Prebend of Alrewas Co. Stafford, valued 1534. at 26 l. 13 s. 4 d. It is alſo veſted with the Advowſon of that Vicaridge, and the Patronage of the Benefices of Kings-Bromley, Edinghall, and Pipe Ridware, all Co. Stafford.

* JOHN de Kirney is the firſt I met with. He held it 1254. as did

PETER de Radnor 1270. He was a good Benefactor to the Cathedral, where he was buried An. 1276. and ſucceeded by

ADAM

ADAM de Waleton, admitted An. 1276, or 1277. He quitted it 1292. for the Precentorſhip.

LUKE de Ely ſucceeded An. 1292. and died in 1310.

WILLIAM de Boſco was elected Nov. 26. 1310. and died in March 1328.

JOHN de Deping ſucceeded in March 1328. as did

ROGER de Naſſington, Oct. 22. 1329. and held it 1360.

JOHN de Shepey enjoy'd it 1368. and was 1376. made Dean of Lincoln.

* CARDINALIS de Ravenna died poſſeſs'd of it 1380. and was ſucceeded by

* RICHARD de Toppecliff, admitted March 9. on Ravenna's Death.

* JOHN de Feltwell was admitted to it Dec. 4. 1386. as was

* JOHN MAUREWARD, May 17. 1393. He died in 1400. and was ſucceeded by

WALTER BULLOCK, admitted July 15. 1400. He exchanged it 1403. with

WILLIAM NEWPORT, admitted Oct. 15. 1403. He exchanged it with

ROBERT GOWE, admitted Dec. 18. 1409. He died about 1421. being alſo Canon of Windſor.

* THOMAS GRESHAM was collated March 31. 1535.

* ALBAN LANGDALE ſucceeded, being admitted Feb. 3. 1558. He was deprived of this and his Archdeaconry of Chicheſter, and ſucceeded here by

THOMAS BICKLEY, collated July 11. 1560. on the Deprivation of Langdale. He was alſo Archdeacon of Stafford, and being made Biſhop of Chicheſter, was ſucceeded by

HUMPHRY TINDALE, inſtalled April 14. 1586. on the Promotion of Bickley to the See of Chicheſter. He died 1614. and was buried at Ely, where he was Dean, with this Inſcription:

Umphrid. Tindale, nobili Norfolcenſium Tyndallorum Fam. oriundus, Decanus 4tus Eccl. Obiit 12. Octobris, An. Salutis 1614. An. Ætatis ſuæ 65.

At the Bottom, at his Feet,

Uſequequo Domine, uſquequo?

The Body of the Worthy and Reverend Prelate Umphrey Tindale D. D. the fourth Dean of this Church, and Maſter of Queen's-College, Cambridge, doth here expect the coming of our Saviour.

In Preſence, Government, good Actions, and in Birth,
Grave, wiſe, couragious, noble, was this Earth.
The Poor, the Church, the College ſay, Here lies
A Friend, a Dean, a Maſter true, good, wiſe.

* JOHN HAYWARD, Rector of Draycott Co. Stafford, and Eyam Co. Derby, ſucceeded, being collated March 16. 1614. He held it 1621. and had for his Succeſſor

WILLIAM JEFFRYS, Vicar of Sheriff-Hales Co. Salop, who quitted the Prebend of Offley about 1630. as I judge, for this. As to Dr.

Dr. Twiſden, mention'd in Le Neve, he was only Chancellor of the Dioceſe, and not of the Church. His Succeſſor was

ROBERT HARRISON, A. M. inſtalled Sept. 6. 1660. on Jeffrys his Death. He died 1676. and was buried in St. Mary's Church in Lichfeild, without any Memorial, and ſucceeded by

GRIFFITH VAUGHAN, A. M. was inſtalled Feb. 22 1689. He is ſtill living 1723. and alſo Archdeacon of Salop, and Rector of Hinſtock in that Archdeaconry, and of Barthomley Co. Cheſter.

TREASURERS of LICHFEILD.

THE Endowment of this Dignity is the Impropriation and Advowſon of Sallow Co. Derby, rated at 56*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* An. 1534.

ODO held this Office 1140. as did

RICHARD 1190. and

WILLIAM de Clarel or Clarevil, 1193.

SIMON de Sawell, or Southwell, enjoy'd it about 1205. as did

ROBERT de Novell about 1214. and

RALPH de Maydeſton about 1220. He was 1224. made Archdeacon of Cheſter.

RICHARD de Stavensby held it 1228. as did

RICHARD de Gloſter 1232, and 1248.

RALPH de Chadeſton, or Chaddeſton. He died about 1276. and was no doubt buried in the Cathedral, to which he had been a good Benefactor.

ALAN de Breton ſucceeded 1276, or 1277. He died at Lichfeild in June 1306.

* THOMAS de Nevill ſucceeded, being admitted Novembr. 12. 1306.

JOHN

JOHN de Sandale was admitted Jan. 12. 1311. and in 1316. made Bishop of Winchester.

* THOMAS de ——— succeeded, being admitted Aug. 13. 1316.

GAUCELINUS Cardinalis held it 1318. and 1324. as did

HUGH Pelegrinus, another of the Pope's Friends, 1346, and 1370.

* RICHARD VOYTER enjoy'd it 1373.

* JOHN de Oudeby was admitted July 31. 1380. and changed it no doubt for some other Preferment with

JOHN CARPENTER, admitted Aug. 24. 1380. He changed it with

* RICHARD BEVERLEY, admitted Aug. 12. 1387.

* NICOLAS HANK was admitted to it October 18. 1390.

THOMAS BARTON was admitted March 18. 1417. and quitted it 1433. for the Precentorship.

* JOHN HEYWORTH succeeded May 28. 1433. and was, as I judge, 1436. made Vicar of Newcastle upon Tine.

* GEORGE RADCLIFFE succeeded in 1436. and was 1449. made Archdeacon of Chester.

* WILLIAM RADCLIFFE, LL. D. succeeded April 29. 1449. and died 1458. being also Prebendary of St. Paul's Cathedral.

* VINCENT CLEMENT, S.T.P. succeeded 1458. and died 1474. being also Archdeacon of Huntington and Winchester.

* JOHN BOTHE, made Prebendary of York 1459. succeeded, but when he was collated I do not find. He died in July 1496. and willed to be buried at his prebendal Church of Sallow, which he had in part rebuilt, and made there a handsom raised Monument for his Father and Mother, on the North Side the Chancel, which bears this Inscription:

Hic jacent Rogerus Bothe Armiger, Frater Wilhelmi Episcopi Dunelmensis, & Katherin. Uxor ejus, Pater & Mater Johannis Bothe Thesaurarii Lichf. Quiquidem Rogerus obiit 18. Die Mensis Augusti, A. D. 1467. & Katherina Uxor ejus obiit An. præeunte, & hoc erat An. Dom. 1466. Quorum Animabus propitietur Deus. Amen.

In the Window, above the Tomb, are his Arms. About six Years before his Death he resigned this Dignity to his Nephew, whom he made his Executor, viz.

CHARLES BOTHE, and he was accordingly admitted Nov. 16. 1490. In 1516. he was made Bishop of Hereford, and succeeded by

RICHARD

* RICHARD PACE inſtituted An. 1516. On whoſe being made Dean of Exeter, An. 1522.

After his Death this Prebend being by Act of Parliament annex'd to the new Church of St. Philip at Birmingham, Co. Warwick,

WILLIAM HIGGS, A.M. Rector thereof, became collated to it Oct. 6. 1719.

ARCHDEACONS of CHESTER.

THIS Dignity was, with the Prebend of Bolton le Moor Co. Lancaſter annex'd to it, valued 1534. at 65*l.* 10*s.*

RICHARD PECHE, afterwards Biſhop of this See, held it about 1135. as did

WILLIAM de Villars, An. 1140. He was 1145. made Precentor.

HUGH held it about 1160. as did

ROBERT GROSTHEAD (afterwards Biſhop of Lincoln) 1178, and 1210. and

RALPH MAIDSTONE 1221. He was 1234. made Biſhop of Hereford.

SILVESTER de Everdon enjoy'd it 1244. and was 1247. made Biſhop of Carliſle.

JOHN BASING ſucceeded 1247. and held it 1252.

ADAM STANFORD, or STAFFORD, held it 1271, and 1280. In his Time Biſhop Meiland annex'd the Prebend of Bolton to it, and ſo made this Archdeaconry Prebendal.

JORDAN de Wirburn ſucceeded 1281.

ROBERT de Raddeſwill, LL.D. held it 1289. and died poſſeſs'd of it at Lichfeild, June 13. 1314.

RICHARD HAVERING enjoy'd it 1321. and 1323.

RICHARD FITZRALPH was from this Dignity made Dean 1337.

MICHAEL de Northburgh, afterwards Biſhop of London, was admitted to it Feb. 5. 1340.

PETER SABIN Epiſcopus Cardinalis Romanus, was admitted by Proxy Auguſt 8. 1342. on the Reſig ation of Northburg. He held it 1345. as did

WILLIAM de Navesby 1348. and having quitted it a little before his Death for a Penſion, was buried in Drayton Church Co. Salop, with this Inſcription on his Graveſtone :

Hic jacet Magiſter William Navesby, quondam Archidiaconus Ceſtrie, qui obiit A. D. 1386. Cujus Anime propitietur Deus. 11 Die Menſis ——

NICHOLAS SLAKE was admitted Oct. 30. 1385. (on Navesby's Reſignation no doubt) and exchanged it, as I preſume, with

* JOHN de Herlaſton, admitted March 11. 1386. His Succeſſor was

WILLIAM de Newhagh, admitted July 10. 1390. He reſigned it it 1413.

* HENRY de Halſale was collated May 15. 1413. on Newhagh's Reſignation. He held it 1421.

* DAVID PRICE was collated March 7. 1422. and reſigned it 1426. and was ſucceeded by

* RICHARD STANLEY, admitted July 6. 1426. on Price's Reſignation ; to whom ſucceeded

* JOHN BURDET, admitted March 24. 1432. on Stanley's Death.

* GEORGE RADCLIFF was collated April 26. 1449. on Burdet's Death. He died about 1453. and was buried in the Cathedral.

EDWARD STANLEY ſucceeded 1453. and held it 1461.

* THOMAS SAINT JUST ſucceeded 1462. and dy'd 1467.

* HENRY INCE ſucceeded 1467. The next I find was

* JOHN MORETON, collated May 9. 1474. In 1478. he was made Biſhop of Ely.

JAMES STANLEY ſucceeded 1478. and died 1486.

CHRIST. TALBOT ſucceeded 1486. being admitted June 7. 1486. on Stanley's Death. After, as in ſome Accounts ſent me from Cheſter,

* JOHN BIRKENHEAD is ſaid to occur Archdeacon An. 1490. The next was

* EDMUND CHADERTON, admitted Feb. 27. 1492. In his Will, dated April 6. and proved Oct. 12. 1499. he appointed to be buried at

St. Stephen's College, Weſtminſter, if he died there; or at Southwell, if he died near it, by the two Archbiſhops Bothe. His Succeſſor was

John Voysy, admitted Aug. 27. 1499. In 1515. he was made Biſhop of Exeter, and ſucceeded by

Cuthbert Tonstall, admitted Nov. 17. 1515. In 1522. he was made Biſhop of Durham, and ſucceeded by William Knight, admitted Nov. 11. 1522. He was the laſt Archdeacon, while it remained Part of this Dioceſe, and ſo continued when Cheſter became a diſtinct See An. 1541. where ſee the farther Account of the Succeſſion.

Archdeacons of COVENTRY.

This Archdeaconry, with the three other in this Dioceſe, viz. Stafford, Derby, and Salop, have only Penſions, Procurations, and Synodals, and no other Endowments belonging to them. It is rated at 45 l. 9 s. for Firſt-Fruits, which ariſe in the following manner: In Coventry Deanary 9 l. 12 s. 4 d. in Arden 14 l. 5 s. 6 d. Marten 10 l. 12 s. Stoneley 11 l. 0 s. 2 d.

* Richard Peche, as Godwin ſays, was made Archdeacon of Coventry before 1127. He was, as I preſume, removed hence about 1135. to that of Cheſter.

Robert held it about 1145. as did

Richard about 1155. and

Edmond about 1160.

Nicholas, Rector of Clifton, was poſſeſs'd of it 1176. as was

* Richard Brite, 1185. and

* Richard de Leghes, 1210.

* Robert de Boſco ſucceeded, and held it about 1220.

Richard de Gloceſter held it 1225. and was 1231. made Treaſurer of Lichfeild.

Alexander de Hales held it about 1231. He died 1245. and was buried at the Church of the Cordeliers in Paris, as Dugdale tells us, and had this Epitaph beſtowed upon him:

Clauditur hoc ſaxo famam ſortitus abunde
Gloria doctorum decus & flos philoſophorum
Autor ſcriptorum vir Alexander variorum
Norma modernorum fons veri lux aliorum

Juelitus

Obiit An. Domini 1245. Calend. Septembris 12.

Si quis honos meritis si quis virtute coluntur
Hunc Anno prefer, hunc venerare patrem.

* ADAM de Hoo seems have succeeded on Hales his taking a Friar's Habit; for he occurs possess'd of it 1242.

* LUKE de St. Martin held it 1246. as did

WILLIAM de Kilkenny 1248. In 1255. he was made Bishop of Ely.

JOHN de Kirkeby held it 1272, and 1283. as did

* ROBERT STAFFORD 1293. and

* PETER de Insula 1299. He died 1315.

RICHARD de Ambaldis, or Ambelers, held it 1315. and exchanged it with

JOHN GAYTANNI, a Roman Cardinal, An. 1320. for some other Preferment. I find him possess'd of it 1332.

HUMPHRY de Hastang came into it 1339. and died 1349.

HUGH de Marisis succeeded July 11. 1349. on the Death of Hastang.

WILLIAM CROSSE was admitted Oct 5. 1351. as was

* RICHARD BOULE, admitted July 30. 1534. He exchang'd it, I presume, with

* WILLIAM DRIFFEILD, to whom succeeded

JOHN de Pipe, admitted Sept. 21. 1358. He died 1361. being Prebendary of Leighton-Bosard in the Church of Lincoln.

RICHARD de Birmingham succeeded Dec. 9. 1361. and resigned it 1369. to

WILLIAM LAMB, admitted Dec. 1. 1369. He exchanged it the same Month with

ROBERT STRATTON, Dec. 28. 1369. He died 1408. and was succeeded by ROBERT OXTON, admitted June 10. 1408. on Stratton's Death.

JOHN HEYWORTH was admitted July 18. 1422. on Oxton's Resignation. He was 1433. made Treasurer, and so quitted this.

ROBERT ESPLE was admitted May 12. 1433. on Heyworth's Resignation. His Successor was

ROGER.

ROGER WALI, collated May 30. 1442. on Esple's Resignation. He died 1488. being Rector of Fenny-Compton, and was succeeded by THOMAS MYLLS, admitted Dec. 1. 1488. on Wall's Death. He died Jan. 30. 1504. and was buried in the Cathedral. In his Will, dated Dec. 5. 1504. he appointed to be buried in the Cathedral, at Bishop Halse's Feet.

RALPH COLLINGWOOD succeeded 1504. He was Prebendary of York, Dean of Warwick, and afterwards of this Cathedral. His Successor was

JOHN BLITHE, admitted Oct. 2. 1510. on Collingwood's Resignation. He died about November 1558. possess'd of this Dignity, and the Prebend of Wellington in the Church of Hereford, and Prebend of Ferring in Chichester.

THOMAS LEVER, B. D. I presume succeeded, for I find him possess'd of it 1560. in which Year he compounded for First-Fruits. He died in July 1577. and was buried at Sherborne Co. Durham, being Master of the Hospital there, with this Epitaph:

Thomas Lever, Preacher to King Edw. VI. died in July 1577.

His Successor was

WILLIAM JAMES, S. T. P. admitted Aug. 27. 1577. He was afterwards Bishop of Durham.

WILLIAM HINTON, S.T. P. made 1596. Precentor of St. David's, succeeded, being admitted Nov. 4. 1584. on Dr. James's Resignation. He died An. 1631. and was buried in St. Michael's Church at Coventry, where he was Vicar, without any Memorial, and succeeded by

SAMUEL BROOK, S. T. P. collated May 13. 1631. He died the same Year, and was succeeded by

RALPH BROWNRIGG, collated Sept. 19. 1631. He was 1642. made Bishop of Exeter, and succeeded by

JOHN ARNWAY, S. T. P. Rector of Hodnet Co. Salop, admitted 1642. He died An. 1653. in Virginia, and was at the Restauration of Church and Monarchy succeeded by

JOHN RILAND, A. M. Dec. 6. 1661. He died March 3. 1672. and was buried at Bromingham, or Birmingham, Co. Warwick, where he was Rector, with this Inscription on his Monument:

M. S. Johannis Riland (necnon charissimi conjugis Ciciliæ, & filiolæ unicæ Mariæ) Coventriæ Archidiaconi, & Parochiæ hujus Ministri simul & ornamenti. Qui Atheos pariter & Fanaticos & quicquid

GEORGE DOWNING, A. M. was collated March 10. 1672. on the Death of Riland. He died 1684. being alſo Chancellor of Lichfeild ; where ſee more of him.

LANCELOT ADDISON, A. M. was collated Dec. 8. 1684. He died 1703. being alſo Dean of Lichfeild, with which he held this Archdeaconry in Commendam.

RICHARD DAVIES, A. M. was collated June 26. 1703. on the Death of Addiſon. He died 1708. and was buried at Saperton Co. Gloceſter, where he was Rector, and ſucceeded by WILLIAM WILSON, A. M. collated Aug. 9. 1708. living 1723. Rector of Morley near Derby.

ARCHDEACONS of STAFFORD.

THIS Archdeaconry, which is endow'd with only Penſions, Procurations, and Synodals, is rated for Firſt-Fruits at 30 l. 16 s. 10 d.

* ROBERT held this Dignity about 1140.

WILLIAM held it about 1146. as did

HELIAS 1149. in Madox's Formulare.

ALAN enjoyed it about 1165. as did.

RALPH de Thamewood 1175.

HENRY de Marſhall, as Godwin tells us, was from this Dignity made Biſhop of Exeter 1191.

ALEXANDER was Archdeacon here 1191. as was

PETER de Rupibus 1205. In 1213. he was made Biſhop of Winchester.

HELIAS held it about 1214. as did

ROBERT de Gloceſter about 1215. He died 1229.

WILLIAM de York came in about 1230.

R. de Langdon enjoy'd it 1239. as did

ROBERT

ROBERT de Stafford 1244. He founded a Chauntry at Bocking in Eſſex, where he was alſo Dean, and no doubt lies buried.

RICHARD de Mepham held it 1259. and 1264. as did

THOMAS CANTELUPE 1265. and was from it 1275. made Biſhop of Hereford.

ADAM PAINE enjoy'd it 1290. as did

JOHN de Bromford 1321. and

ROBERT PACCA, called alſo Patrick, 1322.

JOHN CLAREL was admitted to it Aug. 24. 1323. and died poſſeſs'd of it 1337.

WILLIAM APPLETON ſucceeded 1338.

* ROGER DEPYNG came in 1349. and was ſucceeded the ſame Year by

* RICHARD de Birmingham, viz. 1349. He was afterwards Archdeacon of Coventry.

* JOHN de Mariſco ſucceeded about 1353. on Birmingham's Reſignation.

* WILLIAM de Greenborough held it 1355. as did

* JOHN de Sulgrave 1358. and

JOHN de Oudeby 1374. He reſigned it 1381. for Derby Archdeaconry.

* RICHARD de Torpecliff, Chancellor of this Church, ſucceeded 1381. on Oudeby's Reſignation. The next I find is

HENRY DAVY, collated Sept. 1. 1400. He died 1415. and was, I preſume, ſucceeded by JOHN FYTON 1415. He was 1421. made Chancellor of Sarum Cathedral.

WILLIAM ALMONDESTON was collated March 1. 1421. on Fyton's Reſignation.

* RALPH PRESBURY was collated July 4. 1432. on Almondeſton's Death. As was

* ROGER WALLE, collated Jan. 1442. on Presbury's Death. He quitted it the ſame Year for Coventry Archdeaconry.

* JOHN WENSLEY, collated Jan. 30. 1442. on Walle's Reſignation.

* THOMAS HAWKINS ſucceded Wenſley in the Year 1459. He was made Precentor of Sarum about 1468.

* WILLIAM MOGYS ſucceeded 1468. The next I find is

* JOHN COWPER, he held it 1494, and 1496. as did

* WILLIAM DUFFEILD 1497. and

EDWARD

* EDWARD WILLOUGHBY 1499. In 1501. he was made Dean of Exeter.

* JOHN WARDROP ſucceeded 1501. and died 1514.

* ADAM GRAFTON ſucceeded 1514. and dying An. 1530. was buried at Withington Chapel in Great Upton Pariſh, Co. Salop, with this memorable Epitaph on his Graveſtone:

Here lyeth buried Maſter Adam Grafton, the moſt worſhipful Prieſt living in his Dayes, ſometime Chaplayne to the famous Princes Edward the Vth, and Prince Arthure, Archdeacon of Stafford, Warden of the Battellfield, Deane of Seynte Mary College in Salop, and Parſon of this Church, which deaceaſed on XXVII Day of Juli, A. Dom. MVCXXX. Whoſe Soul God pardon.

* JEFFRY BLITHE ſeems to have been nominated, and to have quitted it immediately, An. 1530. upon being made Treaſurer.

* JOHN BLITHE was collated Oct. 3. 1530. on Jeffry Blithe's Reſignation.

NICHOLAS HETH held it 1534. and was An. 1540. made Biſhop of Rocheſter.

JOHN REDMAN was collated to it Nov. 3. 1540. and reſigned it 1547.

* RICHARD WALKER, Dean of Cheſter Cathedral, was collated to it Aug. 5. 1547. He died An. 1567. as I find by his Will, dated that Year, in which he appointed to be buried in Lichfeild Cathedral.

THOMAS BICKLEY ſucceeded 1567. He was An. 1586. made Biſhop of Chicheſter, and ſucceeded in this Dignity, and the Chancellorſhip of this Church, by

* HUMPHRY TINDAL 1586. He died 1614. being Dean of Ely, and was ſucceeded by JOHN FULNETBY, who paid Firſt-Fruits for this Dignity May 19. 1614. He was alſo Precentor, where ſee more of him. He died 1636. and was ſucceeded by

MARTIN TINLEY, collated Dec. 27. 1636. He died after 1642. and had for his Succeſſor

FRANCIS COKE, or COOK, A. M. for I find him poſſeſs'd of it 1660. He died, and was buried at Yoxall May 6. 1682. where he was Rector, without any Memorial, and ſucceeded by

NATHANIEL ELLISON, A. M. collated July 4. 1682. He died in June 1721. and was buried at Newcaſtle on Tine, where he was Vicar, and ſucceeded by THOMAS ALLEN, LL. B. collated May 29. 1722. who is the preſent Archdeacon, Rector of Stoke on Trent, An. 1723. and alſo Dean of Cheſter.

ARCHDEACONS of DERBY.

THIS Dignity, like the two preceding ones, conſiſts only of the Perquiſites of its Office, valued 1534. for Firſt-Fruits, at 26 l. 13 s. 4 d.

* G—— was Archdeacon here about 1140. as was
RICHARD about 1146. and
FROGERUS about 1155. and 1167.
N. I ſuppoſe NICHOLAS, came in about 1170. as did
GODFREY de Lucy 1182. He was 1189. made Biſhop of Winchester.
IVO held it 1191. as did
VIVIAN de Stayno 1199.
WILLIAM de Muſchamp died poſſeſs'd of it 1231. After him
WILLIAM de Luteby occurs poſſeſs'd of it 1238, and 1254.
DAVID de Sancta Frideſwide ſucceeded next Year, viz. 1255. and held it 1261. as did
* WILLIAM de Weſton 1263. and
* SIMON 1278, and 1279.
JORDAN de Winborne enjoy'd it 1280. and quitted it next Year for Cheſter Archdeaconry.
ELIAS de Napton ſucceeded An. 1281. He died at Eccleſhall in July 1311. where he was Prebendary.
JEFFRY de Blaſton ſucceeded 1311. and died in Feb. 1327.
* ANTONIUS Pelliałogi ſucceeded An. 1327.
* JOHN de Askeby held it 1338. as did
* JOHN de Mariſco 1351. In 1353. he was made Archdeacon of Stafford.
* HUGH de Mariſco ſucceeded 1353.
* ROBERT de Stretton held it 1360. and quitted it for that of Coventry, 1369.
* JOHN de Brinbrook ſucceeded 1369.
JOHN de Outeby came in about 1381. and dying Feb. 1. 1417. was buried in the Cathedral.
WALTER de Bullock ſucceeded 1417. on Outeby's Death.
* JOHN BRIDE ſucceeded, being collated Sept. 30. 1431. on Bullock's Reſignation.

WILLIAM

* WILLIAM CHAUNTRIE ſucceeded 1473. on Bride's Reſignation, and died 1485. being alſo Dean of Leiceſter College. His Succeſſor, as I judge, was

NICHOLAS WEST, admitted, as I ſuppoſe, 1486. 'Tis certain he enjoy'd it 1501. and was from thence made Biſhop of Ely 1515.

JOHN TAYLOR ſucceeded 1515. and died 1534. being Archdeacon of Bucks, and alſo Rector of Sutton Cofeild, having, as I judge, long before his Death quitted it to

RICHARD STREET, or STRETE, for I find him poſſeſs'd of it 1528. He died Jan. 7. 1542. and was ſucceeded by

DAVID POLE, collated Jan. 8. 1542. In 1557. he was made Biſhop of Peterborough, and ſucceeded by

* JOHN RAMRIDGE, collated Nov. 23. 1558. He was alſo Dean, but deprived of both Dignities by Queen Elizabeth, and

LAURENCE NOWEL, who was by her preſented to the Deanary 1559. is ſaid alſo to be preſented to this Archdeaconry. However Mr. Strype mentions that Richard Walker held this as well as Stafford Archdeaconry, tho' I preſume the contrary; for it is plain, that very ſoon after Nowel's Death,

* LUKE GILPIN became collated to this Dignity, viz. July 29. 1577. and held it at his Death 1586. In his Will, dated Sept. 21. 1586. (which ſeems a very odd one) he leaves to his Wife, who adminiſter'd to him Oct. 27. 1587. his Parſonage at Longford Co. Salop, and Advowſon of Bigleſworth Prebend.

* WALTER MARSH ſucceeded him about 1588. and vacated it 1590.

JOHN WALTON ſucceeded 1590. and dying June 1. 1603. was buried in All Saints Church in Derby, with this Inſcription on his Monument:

Hoc lapide marmoreo tegitur corpus Johannis Walton, S. T. B. quondam Archid. Derbien. Prebend. Preb. de Wellington in Eccl. Cath. Lichfeild. & Rect. Eccl. de Bradſall & Gedling; qui teſtamento ſuo dedit c l. ad augendum hujus Eccleſiæ Miniſtri ſtipendium, & xx l. ad emendum duos inauratos crateras in uſum Pallivorum hujus Burgi Derbien. atque c l. mutuo dandas eſſe annorum quatuor in quatuor annos in perpetuum; x l. hujus Burgi artificibus inopia laborantibus; ac xx l. eodem modo dandas eſſe mutuo quatuor egenis artificibus in uberiorem ſuſtentationem pauperum de Bradſall & Gedling predictis. Obiit 1 Die Junii, A. D. 1603. Ætatis ſuæ 57.

VALENTINE OVERTON, Rector of Beaworth Co Warwick, ſucceeded about Sept. 8. 1603.

* CHRISTOPHER HELME, Rector of Bredon Co. Worceſter, paid Firſt-Fruits for it April 7. 1609. on the Death or Ceſſion of Overton. The next was

SAMUEL CLERK, S. T. P. collated Dec. 4. 1617. He held it 1640. and was ſucceeded by

WILLIAM HIGGINS, A. M. Precentor of this Church, who paid Firſt-Fruits for it Dec. 7. 1641. He died 1666. and was ſucceeded by

THOMAS BROWNE, A. M. collated Aug. 3. 1666. He was deprived of this Dignity, and his Prebend of this Church, and Vicaridge of Wirkſworth, 1689. for not taking the Oaths to King William and Queen Mary, and was ſucceeded by

FRANCIS ASHENHURST, A. M. Rector of King Swinford, and Maſter of St. John Baptiſt's Hoſpital in Lichfeild, collated in Aug. 1689. He died 1704. and was ſucceeded by THOMAS GOODWYN, S. T. P. collated Dec. 14. 1704. He died 1719. being Canon of Lichfeild, and Maſter of the Hoſpital there, and was buried at Launton Co. Oxon, where he was Rector.

HENRY RIDER, A. M. ſucceeded, being collated Sept. 4. 1719. on Dr. Goodwin's Death. He is living An. 1723. Rector of St. Michael's Worceſter, and Vicar of Hallow and Grimley in that County.

ARCHDEACONS of SALOP.

THIS Dignity, valued at 19 l. An. 1434. has no other Endowment beſides its Perquiſites.

HERBERT was Archdeacon here 1087. as was GILBERT about 1105. and
ROGER about 1140. He held it alſo 1170. as did
RICHARD PECHE 1180, and 1190. and
* ROBERT about 1197.
THOMAS NEVILL was poſſeſs'd of it 1212. as was
RALPH MAIDSTONE 1219. He quitted it about 1221. for that of Cheſter.

ALEXANDER de Swerford ſucceeded about 1122. and dying 1246. was buried in St. Paul's Cathedral, London, where he was Treaſurer, and had founded an Altar to the Honour of St. Chad.

PETER

PETER RADNOR ſucceeded, for I find he held it 1247. and quitted it 1269, or 1270. for the Treaſurerſhip of this Church.

ROGER was Archdeacon here about 1275. as was

WILLIAM de Montford, Dean of St. Paul's, London, 1283. He died 1294.

* RICHARD de Bernard, as I judge, ſucceeded 1294. His Succeſſor was

PHILIP de Cornwal, An. 1303. As to Roger Cantuar. and William Roſſe, given us by Le Neve, they were Archdeacons of Salop in Hereford Cathedral, and not in this; as was alſo Hugh Foliot and William Gilbert. The next Archdeacon of Salop, in this Church, I find is

* RALPH de Normanvill. He held it 1332. as did

* WILLIAM de Preſton 1339. and

WILLIAM de Shrewsbury 1360. His Succeſſor ſeems to be

* JOHN KNODE, An 1379. placed erroneouſly by Le Neve among the Archdeacons of Salop in the Church of Hereford.

* PHILIP LEE was collated to this Dignity May 5. 1398. The next is

WILLIAM NEWPORT, he exchanged it for ſome other Preferment, with

JOHN HOWBELL, An. 1502. After him I meet with

* THOMAS CHESTERFEILD, collated to it Oct. 31. 1425. He is called alſo Worſhop, or Wurſop. He died 1452. having long before reſigned this Dignity to

* GREGORY NEWPORT, collated Aug. 17. 1433. He died 1459. being alſo Prebendary of Flixton, having long before his Death alſo quitted it to

* JOHN WEBERNE, An. 1436. to whom ſucceeded

* THOMAS SALISBURY, An. 1437. He quitted it 1450. for better Preferment.

THOMAS LYE ſucceeded May 22. 1450. and held it 1462. and quitted it 1464.

* JOHN FOX ſucceeded 1464. and died 1482. being Chancellor of the Dioceſe, and Prebendary of Lincoln.

* EDMUND HALES, or HALSE, ſeems to have ſucceeded, for he held it 1483. and reſigned it to

* RICHAD SHERBOURNE, An. 1485. He died An. 1500. being alſo Prebendary of Prees.

* ADAM GRAFTON, as I judge, ſucceeded, for he held it 1504. and quitted it 1514. on being collated to Stafford Archdeaconry.

JOACHIM

* JOACHIM BRETUNNER ſucceeded, being collated July 20. 1515. on Grafton's Reſignation. He died 1523. being alſo Prebendary of Freford in this Cathedral.

RICHARD STRETE, as I judge, ſucceeded, for he held it 1527. He was alſo Archdeacon of Derby, and held for ſome time both theſe Archdeaconries together.

DAVID POLE ſucceeded, being collated April 2. 1536. on Strete's Reſignation. In 1542. he was made Archdeacon of Derby, but held both together till 1557. when, upon his being made Biſhop of Peterborough,

* WILLIAM HILL became collated Jan. 15. 1557. He was alſo Prebendary of Freford, which he vacated about 1561. as he did this Dignity, when I find

THOMAS BOLT, Rector of Rolſton Co. Stafford, poſſeſs'd of it 1562. ſo that I am ſatisfy'd Nicholas Smith, placed by Le Neve among theſe Archdeacons, muſt be a Miſtake. As to Tho. Bolt, he died 1579. and was ſucceeded by

* GODFREY GOLDSBOROUGH, Rector of Stockton Co. Salop, An. 1580. In 1589. he was made Biſhop of Glocester. His Succeſſor was

* ROGER DOD, An. 1589. In 1607. he was made Biſhop of Meath in Ireland, and ſucceeded by

* VALENTINE CAREY, who paid Firſt-Fruits for it in October 1606. He was 1613. made Dean of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, and ſucceeded by

THOMAS MASTER, who paid Firſt-Fruits for it May 14. 1614. His Succeſſor was

WILLIAM JEFFRY, collated Sept. 10. 1628. of whom ſee an Account among the Chancellors of this Cathedral. His Succeſſor was

ROBERT POWELL, A. M. inſtituted 1660. He died 1683. and was buried at Llanymynech Co. Salop, where he was Rector, without any Memorial, and ſucceeded by

GRIFFITH VAUGHAN, A. M. collated 1683, or 1684. He is ſtill living, 1723. being the preſent Archdeacon, and Chancellor of this Cathedral, and Rector of Hinſtock in this Archdeaconry, and of Barthomley Co. Cheſter.

PREBEN-

Prebendaries of LICHFEILD.

TOUCHING the original Inſtitution or Introduction of Dignitaries into Cathedrals, I have already diſcourſed in York, pag. 64. &c. As to Prebendaries being ſettled here in the Saxon Times, while Ethelwold was Biſhop here, An. 822. I very much queſtion, tho' it is mentioned in Anglia Sacra, Vol. I. pag. 444, and 465. at which time Huita is ſaid to be Principal, or Provoſt of them. And notwithſtanding we have the Names of theſe twenty one Prebends given us, ſaid to be here founded, viz. Berkiſwiche, Weeford, Sallow, Hondeſum or Hints, Tachebrocke, Freeford, Eccleſhall, Biſhopſhull, Ologhton, Itchinton, Curburgh, Burton in Wirhall, which was alter'd to Terwin, Gaia major, & minor, Longdon, Stotford, Prees, Colwich, Brewode, Alrewas, Wolveye; yet I ſee no manner of Authority for it, and cannot therefore ſuppoſe any fix'd Prebends in this Church till after the Conqueſt. And as we are told in other Places in Anglia Sacra, that Biſhop Clinton founded ſeveral of the abovementioned Prebends, and have an Account of ſome of the Prebends being founded by his Succeſſor; ſo I am apt to conclude they were moſt of them ſettled in his time, and his Predeceſſor's, Biſhop Peche's, as I ſhall account in the following Series of the Incumbents of the ſeveral Stalls in this Church, which I ſhall place in an Alphabetical Order, and ſo begin with BISHOPSHILL.

THIS Prebend is denominated from an Hamlet of its Name in Hints Pariſh, and was, I preſume, founded by Biſhop Clinton, who is ſaid to have made at firſt Hinuton, or Hints, prebendal, which was afterwards divided or ſplit into ſeveral Prebends. It was valued 1534. for Firſt-Fruits, at 2 l.

Peter de Leiceſter held it about 1300. and was ſucceeded by Jeffry de Blaſton, collated 5. Cal. April. 1304.
Richard Abel was collated to it 4. Cal. Jan. 1311. and held it 1321.
Peter de Northburgh exchanged it 2. Cal. Martii 1327. for Flixton with Thomas de Clopton, inſtall'd 2 Cal. Martii 1327. aforeſaid.

Baldwin

BALDWIN de Whitney ſucceeded, being collated 15. Cal. Aug. 1349. on Clopton's Death.

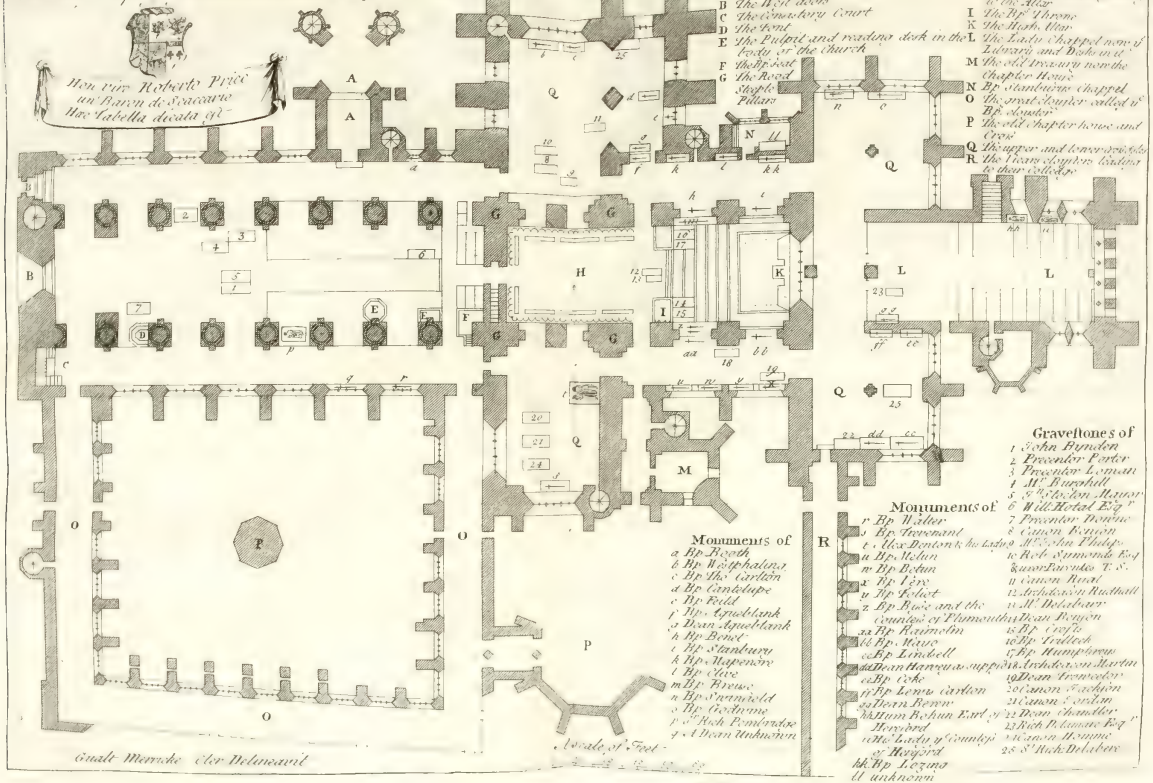
DIOCESE

The Topography of the Cathedral Church of HEREFORD.



DIOCESE OF HEREFORD

CONTAINS the whole County of Hereford, except Ewias-Harold, Walterſton, Dulas, Michaelchurch-Eskle, St. Margarets, Rolſton, Llandilo, Clodock, cum Capellis Craſwell, Longtown, and Llanwenno, which belong to St. David. It has alſo the better half of Shropſhire; four Pariſhes Co. Monmouth; ſix Churches and Chapels Co Montgomery; eight Co. Radnor; and twenty one Co. Worceſter: Under theſe two Archdeaconries

Firſt, HEREFORD, which has theſe Deanaries, Hereford and Frome Co. Hereford; Irchingfeild Co. Hereford and Monmouth; Lempſter Co. Hereford and Radnor; Roſſe, Weobly and Weſton; all three Co. Hereford.

Second, SALOP, which has theſe Deanaries, Burford Co. Hereford, Salop and Worceſter; Clun Co. Hereford, Salop and Radnor; Ludlow

Co. Hereford and Salop; Pontesbury Co. Salop and Montgomery; Stottesden, Wenlock, both Co. Salop. The Number of Parishes is reckon'd by our Authors 313, though in my Accounts here are 379 Churches and Chappels; the Impropriations are as Heylin tells us 166, and the Clergies Tenths amount to 340*l.* 2*s.* 2*d*

Cathedral of HEREFORD

Has a Dean, two Archdeacons, viz. of Hereford and Salop; a Precentor, Chancellor, Treasurer; twenty eight Prebendaries, twelve Priests-Vicars, four Lay Vicars or Singing Men, seven Choristers, an Organist, a Virger, two Sextons, a Master of the Grammar School, and Usher: The Number of Residentiaries are five, besides the Dean, all chosen out of twenty seven Prebendaries; the Precentor, Chancellor, Treasurer, and two Archdeacons, and Prebendary of Moreton cum Whaddon being excluded, except they are entitled by having one of the twenty seven other Prebends: Here are Houses for the Bishop, Dean, Precentor, Treasurer, and Prebendarius-Episcopi, and also four other Prebendal Houses, which the Bishop commonly gives to the Residentiaries.

Before I enter into any farther Account of this Church, it is necessary for me to take Notice, that there was An. 1717, publish'd in an Octavo of about 400 Pages, an History of the Antiquities of it by an anonymous Author; whoever this Person was, I am under no Obligation of defending his Performance, which was, in a most ungenerous Manner some Years after the Publication, attack'd by a Reverend Member of this Cathedral, in a very warm and angry Preface, introductory to a Sermon preach'd in Landaff Cathedral, and father'd on me with some uncharitable Reflections. What Occasion there was for this Gentleman's thus venting his Resentments, unless to acquaint the World he had preach'd in Landaff Cathedral, and vouchsafed once to visit it during his many Years Residence in the Neighbourhood, the World will best judge: He will perhaps be offended, if I tell him he has got no Credit with my Brethren the Layity, by prefixing such a Discourse to a Religious Subject, which seems entirely new and unprecidented to them, to usher in a Sermon in this Manner, which his own Brethren say might have been spared; forasmuch as he has but borrow'd it, for the most part, out of the excellent Mr. Mede's Discourses on the same Subject. But as I design to consider it in a more proper Place, so I shall only intimate here, that as it has been my known constant Method to set my Name to what I publish, so that Gentleman might have supposed I had no Occaſion to conceal it here. And I can alſo aſſure him, that to my Remembrance, I never took one Inſcription in Hereford Cathedral, during the frequent Viſits I made in theſe Parts to my Relations and Friends, and other Gentlemen in Hereford, from whom I have been inform'd, and alſo from ſome Members of this Church, that the aforeſaid reverend Gentleman was ſufficiently apprized, that I was not the Author: Though one would think that an Undertaking of this Sort, publiſh'd without giving any Perſon belonging to this Church the leaſt Charge or Trouble, ſhould have met with better Treatment from one who has ſo conſiderable a Share in the Honours and Profits of it; and that he ſhould rather have been pleaſed to ſee the Arms and Inſcriptions preſerv'd, and References given to the publick Records in the Tower, &c. which certainly will be of great Uſe to any judicious Collector who ſhall attempt a compleat Hiſtory of it. A Work more fitting the Function and Conſideration of the Publiſher of the aforeſaid Sermon, than to ſet forth ſuch a Preface.

As to a Deſcription of this Church, I may refer to the Draughts of it in the third Volume of the Monaſticon, though they being not ſo exactly taken, there has been lately printed a very like Weſt Proſpect of it, by a Gentleman who has engraven ſeveral of the Monuments, and promiſed to give us Draughts of all the Tombs, Arms, and every Thing curious in it; which if he had already perform'd, might have rendered this ſhort Account from me unneceſſary.

Here are indeed the moſt antient and numerous Tombs of Dignitaries, viz. Biſhops, Deans, &c. remaining of any Cathedral in England; qut theſe being deſcrib'd in the following Hiſtory or Series of them; I ſhall only here enumerate the Tombs and Inſcriptions of Lay-Perſons before 1600. which are only theſe fourteen.

1. } Under two Arches in the Lady Chapel, on the North ſide, lie
2. } the Effigies of Humphrey Bohun, Earl of Hereford and his Counteſs.

3. Between two Pillars in the Body of the Church, is a rais'd Alabaſter Monument of Sir Richard Pembridge, one of the Knights of the Garter in Edward IIId's Reign. His Effigies lies on the Tomb in Armour.

4. In the great South Tranſcept is a very handſome rais'd Tomb of Alexander Denton, of Hilleſden Co. Bucks, Eſq; and his Lady, their Effigies curiouſly wrought in white Marble or Alablaſter, lying on the Tomb in full Proportion, round the Verge of which, is this Inſcription;

Here lieth Alexander Denton, of Hilleſden, in the County of Buckingham, and Anne his Wife, Dowghter and Heyr of Richard Willyſon of Suggerweſh in the Countie of Hereford; which Anne deceaſed the 29*th of* October, A. D. 1566. the 18*th Yere of her Age, the* 23*d of his Age.*

But this was but a Cœnotaph, for Alexander Denton, the Husband, who lived ſome Years after, and marry'd another Lady, was bury'd with her at Hilleſden Co. Bucks; where he died January the 18th 1576.

Having done with the raiſed Tombs, I come to the Inſcriptions on the Graveſtones, which may be ſeen where they lie for the moſt part in the Ichnography, moſt accurately taken by the Reverend Mr. Walter Meyrick, Curate of Madeley, Native of this City, whoſe natural Genius to exact Drawing and fine Writing, as well as other Accompliſhments, will deſervedly recommend him to all Lovers of Learning.

5. Of your Charitee pray for the Soul of Sir Richard Delabere, Knight, late of the Countie of Hereford; Anne Daughter of the Lord Audley, and Elizabeth, Daughter of William Mores, late Serjeant of the Hall to King Henry VIIth, Wyfes of the ſaid Sir Richard, whyche deceſſed the 20th Day of July, A.D. 1513. on whoſe Soules Jeſu have Mercye, Amen.

6. Hic jacet Johannes Stockton quondam major iſtius Civitatis, qui obiit 25. Die Aprilis, A D. 1480. Cujus anime propitietur Deus. Amen.

7. Hic jacet Johannes Byndden civis civitatis Herefordie, cujus anime propitietur Deus. Amen.

8. Hic jacet Richardus Delamere, armiger qui obiit primo Die Menſis Februarii, A. D. 1435. & Iſabella, Uxor Ricardi Delamere que obiit 14. Die Februarii, A. D. 1421. Quorum animabus propitietur Deus. Amen.

9. Hic jacet magiſter Richardus Burghill, quondam Inſtructor Grammatice iſtius civitatis, qui obiit 8. Die Menſis Novembris, A. D. 1492. Cujus anime propitietur Deus. Amen.

10. Hic jacet Willhelmus Hotale armiger qui obiit 25, Die Menſis Januarii, A. D. 1402. Cujus anime propitietur Deus. Amen.

Over

11. Over the Entrance of the great West Door, was on an antient Marble, the Pourtraytures of John Foster, Mayor of this City, and his Wife, who died Temp. Henry VI, in the Year 1455. but they are stolen off, as is the whole Inscription, except what follows.

——— ——— ——— His Wyffe
That att this Lyffe have ended her Pilgrimage
That 14 Childzen hadden with peyble Lyffe
8 Sonnes, 6 Doutres in Marriage withouten Stryffe
And 5 times was Meyr of this Citie
That as a Marchaunt leden a wozthie Lyff
And honourably ruled hit with Prosperity
That hence decessid as all we shall in the Yer of Grace
Of Chzists Incarnation A. M.CCCC. with fyve and fiftee
The 11 Day of September made here Mutacyon
From Earthe to Heyvn have changed Habitacyon.
With a Pater-Noster and an Ave prayeth hit may be so restenge all weys
——— ——— For her endless Salvacion eternaly to preyse.

12. In the vaulted Room under the Lady Chapel, called the Golgotha, is an antient Tomb, with the Pourtraytures of a Man and Woman in praying Postures.

Out of the Man's Mouth is a Label with this on it.

Butt and the Leve then will to by me is Ever and ye have it is but a Depur.

And out of the Woman's this.

Remember thy Leave may not indure
That thow dost thy self thereof thou are the Sowere.

Round the Verge is this Inscription ——— ———

Hic jacet Andreas Jones, quondam Mercator hujus Civitatis, & Elizabeth. Uxor ejus, qui hanc domum carnanam diu desolate de novo redificavit & reparavit erga festum omnium sanctorum A. D. 1497. Etiam ad tunc bene & laudabiliter ordinavit Cap.-futuris Temporibus in eadem celebrat. pro animabus Benefactorum & omnium Fidelium defunctorum quorum animabus propitietur Deus, Amen.

The

The Length of this Golgotha, which has two Rows of Pillars in it, consists of a Nave and two Isles, is fifty Foot, Breadth thirty; it is said this was formerly St. John's Church, tho' that is now remov'd into the Body of the Cathedral.

13. There was near the West Part of the Cathedral this Inscription, on antient Brass, affix'd to a Gravestone, which being taken off, was kept in the City Tolsey or Hall, for some time, till it has lately been fastened to a Freestone on the West Side the Bishops Cloysters.

Good Christeyn People of your Charite
That here abide in this transitorye Life for the Souls of Richard Philips pray ye
And also of Anne his dere beloued Wife
Which here togeder continued without Stryfe
In this Worshipful City called Hereford by Name
He being 7 Times Mayer and Ruler of the same
Further to declare of his Port and Fame
His Pitie and Compassion of them that were in Woe
To do Works of Charitie his Hands were nothing lame.
Throughe him all People here may freely come and goe
Without paying of Custom Toll or other Moe
The which Things to redeme he left both House and Land
For that Intent perpetually to remain and stand
Anne also that Godlye Woman hath put to her Hand
Approving her Husbands Acte and enlarging the same
Whyche Benefits considered all this Contry is band
Entirely to pray for them or ellis it were to blame
Now Christe that suffered for us all Passion Payne and Shame
Grant them their Reward in Heyvn among that glorious Company
There to reigne in Joy and Blys with them eternally. Amen.

The last Inscription before 1600. is this on an ordinary Gravestone.

The

The Pariſh Churches in this City, viz. St. Peters, St. Nicholas and All Saints, having no Cœmiterys belonging to them, and the Cathedral or Mother Church (in the Body of which is the Parochial Church of St. John) having the ſole Right of Sepulture, occaſioned many Braſſes to be erected here in Memory of Citizens as well as the Dignitaries of this Church; and ſo there is no Cathedral whatſoever more filled with antient Graveſtones; and notwithſtanding it has eſcaped better than moſt, yet beſides theſe Inſcriptions here preſerved, there have been no leſs than 150 others now to be ſeen that have been robb'd of their Braſſes. Before the Rebellion begun An. 1641. there were in the Suburbs of the City two more Pariſhes, viz. St. Martin and St. Owen, but both theſe Churches were pulled down, and have been united to other Pariſhes, particularly St. Martins to All Saints, in the City, which was originally but a Chapel to it: As to St. Martins, it ſtood without Wye-Bridge, againſt the Biſhop's Garden, and had a Spire Steeple, and as I was told, three Bells.

The whole Cathedral is vaulted throughout with good Stone, and has been within theſe laſt ten Years or leſs, eſpecially the Cho r Part moſt ſumptuouſly adorn'd by Contributions begun and carry'd on by Biſhop Biſſe, who cauſed the Choir to be beautified throughout, and a moſt magnificent Altar-Piece to be erected, one of the ſtatelieſt and loftieſt in England; and expended ſome thouſand Pounds on the Epiſcopal Palace, and would, had he liv'd, have repaired the Cloyſters which lie on the South Side between the Biſhops Palace and the Cathedral, into which they open by two Doors into the South Iſle, and are in Length 115 Foot every way, and about 16 Foot in Breadth; on the Eaſt Side adjoined to them a very neat Chapter Houſe, reputed the beſt Piece of Architecture about the whole Church; this was of a circular Form, and had a fine Pillar in the Middle, on which the arch'd Roof centered; but being beat down in the Rebellion, has lay in Ruins ever ſince, and the Stone carried away and uſed in other Buildings about the Church, ſo that little remains of it. The Length of the whole Fabrick from out to out including the Walls, is 370 Foot, whereof from the Weſt Door to the Choir Entrance, is 144 Foot withinſide, the Length of the Choir to the high Altar 105 Foot, Length from thence to the Entrance of the Lady Chapel about 20 Foot, and thence to the End of the Lady Chapel (which is 30 Foot broad, and 28 Foot high) 73 Foot, the Length of the lower croſs Iſle from North to South, is 140 Foot, and of the upper one 111 Foot, Breadth of the Body and SideIſles is 68 Foot, equal to which is the vaulting of the Body and Side Iſles, tho' in the Choir it is only 64 Foot

Foot high, Height of the Weſt Front Tower is 130 Foot, and Breadth of that Front 80 Foot.

Height of the Rood or middle Steeple, wherein hang ten large Bells, is 240 Foot.

The Builders of this noble Pile, were, as Speed tells us, Biſhop Robert Loſing, who began Temp. Will. I. The new Foundation after the Faſhion of Aeth Church in Germany, which was carried on by Biſhop Reinelm, Temp. Henry I. who founded the College of Prieſts (or Prebendaries.) Biſhop Breoſe built the Weſt Tower, as the ſame Author informs us in King John's Reign: Biſhop Audley Temp. Henry VII. was a great Benefactor to the Lady Chapel, and built a neat Chapel on the South Side it, near which ſtands the College of Vicars, founded, as I take it, in Richard II's time. This is a regular Building, and has pretty ſmall Cloyſters, with Chambers over them, and a convenient Hall, and other Offices in the moſt regular Manner of any Cathedral in England.

There was an excellent Body of Statutes given to this Church by A. Biſhop Laud, which, was it to be remark'd how well they have been obſerved, and if Inſtances were to be given in ſome particular Practices of the aforeſaid Reverend Gentleman; he might perhaps think he had ſome Reaſon to be offended with me; but I have ſo much Charity as to believe him convinc'd of former Errors, and heartily ſorry for them.

more, &c. before recited in Biſhop Scory's Patent, granted to him 1562. An. 4. Elizabeth, which may be diſtinguiſh'd by the Biſhops preſenting to the Vicaridges.

The Biſhop of Hereford is Patron of his two Archdeaconries, and all other Dignities in his Cathedral, except the Deanary, and of thirty four Livings in his Dioceſe, and St. Mary Monthaw Rectory, in the City of London; and in conſiderarion of Biſhop Scory's granting away ſo many Manors, pays no annual Tenths to the Crown, and receives the Tenths of two of his beſt Prebends, viz. Moreton-magna, and Church Withington.

Endowment of the DEAN and CHAPTER.

THE Chapter Lands valued in the firſt Fruits Office, for which they pay yearly Tenths, amounted to 375*l.* 13*s.* 11*d* ½. clear Value. Theſe were divided into ſeven Canonries, An. 1534. but I ſuppoſe, have been ſince reduced to ſix, by the Dean's having a double Canonry allotted him. They conſiſt of the Impropriations of Lidney, cum Capellis Co. Gloſter, Dodelbury, or Diddlebury, and Long Staunton Co. Salop, Lugwarden, cum Capellis, and Shunningfeild, alias Shinfeild, cum Swallowfeild, Capella Co. Berks. Their other Demeſnes or Temporal Eſtates lie in the Pariſhes of Pæon, Norton, Madeley and Woolhope. The Dean and Chapter preſent to twenty one Livings, all in the Dioceſe, except the Vicaridges of Lidney and Kempley Co. Gloſter, and Shunningfeild Co. Berks.

Here were An. 1554. given in a Valor of ſeveral Chantries in this Cathedral, particularly thirteen whoſe Values are in Ecton, and ſeem to have been proportioned to the Number of Vicars Choral, each of whom probably had aſſigned him a different Chantry to officiate in: One of theſe dedicated to St. Anne, valued at 3*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* was founded by Biſhop Thomas Spofford: A ſecond dedicated alſo to St. Anne, rated at 1*l.* 10*s.* o*d.* was founded by Canon Roger Breinton: As was a third valued at 40*s.* called Handley or Cradley's Chantry, as I ſuppoſe from Handley the Founder, and by the Lands lying at Cradley, received that Addition to the Name: The other Chantries with the Founders, were Holyrood, firſt Chantry founded by Dean John Middleton: Holyrood ſecond and third Chantry founded by Canons William and Simon Radnor: St. Gracious's Chantry, in the Lady Chapel, founded by Biſhop Stanbury.

Greenhouſe Chantry, founded by one Greenhouſe, in the upper Lady Chapel.
Andrew's Chantry founded at St. Margaret's Altar.
St. Nicholas Chantry founded by Robert Goldbinger.
Ruff's Chantry founded by Canon Philip Ruff.
St. Stephen's Chantry founded by John Baniſter.
Trinity Chantry founded by Thomas Abſolon Clerk.

Here were alſo Chantries as I learn of Biſhop Aquablanca, Dean Hugh Breeſe, Roger Cankbridge and Ann Bohun; but I ſuppoſe ſome of them may be included in the abovementioned, for I conceive Anne Bohun's Chantry to have been the ſame as Greenhouſe's Chantry.

The Kalendarium Obituarium, printed in the deſpiſed Hiſtory of Hereford Cathedral, will give ſome light into theſe Chantries and other Matters relating to this Church; and furniſh the Names of ſeveral of the Canons of it before the Biſhops and Chapter Regiſters begin, Tempore Edward I. which time, I have carefully examin'd, and with the Aſſiſtance and Permiſſion of the worthy Regiſter Mr. Pyle, compoſed the following Series of Deans, Precentors, Chancellors, Treaſurers, Archdeacons and Prebendaries, in each Stall, which I ſhould have attempted before, if I had been engaged then in drawing up any Hiſtory of this Church ſeven Years ago.

Biſhops of HEREFORD.

PUTTA was appointed firſt Biſhop of this See, on the Founding hereof, An. 680. at which Time it was taken out of Lichfeild, as may be ſeen in Vol. III. of the Monaſticon, Pag. 217. where are printed ſeveral valuable Charters and curious Records, relating to it from Pag. 180. to Pag. 188.

TIRKTELL or TIRKTILL was the ſecond Biſhop; he preſided An. 691.

TORTERAS was the next; his Succeſſor was

WALSTOD, An. 718. to whom ſucceeded

CUTHBERT, conſecrated An. 736. He beſtowed on his three Predeceſſors, King Milfred and his Queen, and Offrith, who had, I ſuppoſe, been a Benefactor to this Biſhoprick as well as Milfrith, an handſome Monument bearing this Inſcription.

As to Cuthbert, he was An. 740. tranſlated to Canterbury, and ſucceeded by

PODDA, An. 741. to whom ſucceeded

ECCA, An. 746. or 747. and then

CEDDA, An. 752. He died An. 757. as Godwin ſays, and was ſucceeded by

ALBERT, An. 758. according to Iſaacſon, and he by

ESNA, An. 769. He died An. 775. according to Iſaacſon, and was ſucceeded by

CELMUND, An. 775. and he by

UTELL, An. 783. His Succeſſor was

WILFEARD, An. 788. called alſo Wilfhard, to whom ſucceeded

BENNA, An. 809. And then

EDULF, An. 829. and after him

CUTWULF ſucceeded, An. 849. As did

MUCELL, An. 868. And to him

DEORLAF, An. 888. To whom, according to my Authorities

CUNEMUND or CINEMUND ſucceeded An. 908. His Succeſſor was

EDGAR, An. 928. And then I meet with

TIDHELM or TITHELM, An. 949. To whom ſucceeded

WLFELM, An. 966. And to him

ALFRICK, about 990. He occurs An. 996. as Witneſs to a Deed of Croyland Abby next Year; after which, as in my Authors,

ATHULF ſucceeded, An. 997. His Succeſſor was ATHELSTAN, An. 1012. He was a Perſon of great Sanctity, and while he ſate Biſhop he built a new Cathedral from the Ground, as Leland remarks. He died at Bosbury, a Mannor of this See, Feb. 10. 1055. (having been blind thirteen Years before his Death, during which Time

Tramerin,

Tramerin, Archbiſhop of St. David's, govern'd this See) and was buried in his own Church, and ſucceeded by

LEOFEGAR, An. 1056. He ſate but twelve Weeks and four Days, being ſlain at Glaſebury (a Pariſh Co. Radnor and Brecknock) June 16. 1056. by Griffith King of Wales, together with Earl Agelnoth and others, who burn'd this City and Cathedral, and laid all waſte; ſo that for four Years the See continued void, being under the Government of Aldred, Biſhop of Worceſter, till ſuch time as

WALTER became conſecrated at Rome by the Pope, An. 1060. He died An. 1079. and was buried in the Cathedral, where in the South Iſle, between the Cloyſter Doors, is yet ſhewn the Effigies of a Biſhop cut in Freeſtone, lying in a Tomb under an Arch, ſaid to be for him.

ROBERT LOSING, a Native of Lorraine ſucceeded, being conſecrated Dec. 29. 1079. He is reported to have begun building his Cathedral a-new, following the Model of Aix le Chapel in Germany. He died June 26. 1095. and was buried on the South Side the high Altar, where lies his Effigies under an Arch, by Miſtake of the Painter attributed to Biſhop Rainelm. On his Death

GERARD, who had been Chancellor to King William the Conqueror, was nominated to this See, An. 1095. but in 1100. he became tranſlated to York, where ſee more of him. On his Tranſlation

ROGER the King's Larderer was nominated by King Henry Iſt, but died within twelve Days after his Nomination at London, An. 1100. or 1101. Whereupon

RAINELM, the Queen's Chancellor, had this Biſhoprick conferred upon him, An. 1101. and held it ſome Years without Conſecration, viz. till Aug. 10. 1107. When Matters being made up between him and Archbiſhop Anſelme of Canterbury, he received Conſecration. He died Oct. 28. 1115. and lies buried under an Arch on the outſide the South Iſle, oppoſite to the Choir, which is by Miſtake thus painted: Robertus Losing Epiſcopus Herefordenſis, obiit 1115. whereas it ſhould be inſtead of Robert Losing. Remelmus. This Biſhop built good part of the preſent Cathedral now in being, which his Succeſſors enlarged and brought to Perfection; and as I find from Leland, he began the ſettling of Prebendaries in it. His Succeſſor was

GEFFRY de Clyve, Chaplain to King Henry I. conſecrated Dec. 26. 1115. He died Feb. 3. 1119. and was buried under an Arch, where is this painted to his Memory,

Dom. Godfridus de Clyve Epiſcopus Herefordenſis obiit.

RICHARD de Capella ſucceeded, being conſecrated at Lambeth, Jan. 16. 1120. He died at Ledbury, Aug. 15. 1127. and was buried in his own Cathedral, having been a Benefactor to Hereford City, by promoting the building the Bridge over the River Wye.

in

ROBERT de Betun, Prior of Lanthony ſucceeded, of whom ſee an Account of his Life in Anglia Sacra, Vol. II. Pag. 299. &c. being conſecrated June 19. 1131. He died April 22. 1148. and was buried in his Cathedral, to which he had been a great Benefactor. Under an Arch where is painted this over him:

Dominus Robert. de Betune Epiſcopus Herefordenſis obiit 1148.

I preſume he founded the Deanary, and ſettled the Prebendaries which Biſhop Rainelm ſeems to me to have firſt introduced. On his Death

GILBERT FOLIOT, Abbot of Glouceſter, became conſecrated Biſhop Sept. 5. 1148. He founded ſome Prebends in this Cathedral, and was on March 24. 1163. tranſlated to London; and ſucceeded by

ROBERT de Melun, Prior of Lanthony, conſecrated May 22. 1164. He died Feb. 27. 1166-7. and was buried in his own Cathedral, under an Arch, where is this painted over his Effigies:

Dom. Robert. de Melun Epiſcopus Hereford. obiit An. 1167.

The Annals of Worceſter intimate that Godfrey, Archdeacon of Worceſter, was nominated to ſucceed him, but other Authors make a Vacancy of ſeven Years after Biſhop Melun's Death; after which time.

ROBERT FOLIOT, Archdeacon of Oxford, in the Church of Lincoln became conſecrated Oct. 6. 1174. He died May 9. 1186. and was buried in his own Cathedral under an Arch, with this Inſcription painted over it:

Dominus Robertus Foliot Epiſcopus Hereford. Obiit An. 1186.

WILLIAM VERE, of the Family of the Veres, Earls of Oxford, Prebendary of London, ſucceeded, being conſecrated at Lambeth Aug. 10. 1186. having been elected at Eynſham Abby in May preceding: He died Dec. 24. 1199. and was buried under an Arch, bearing this Inſcription:

Dominus Gulielmus le Vere Epiſcopus Hereford. obiit 1199.

GILES de Bruſe, Son of the Lord Bruſe, or Breoſe, ſucceeded, being conſecrated Sep. 24. 1200 He died Nov. 17. 1215. and was buried under an Arch in the South Iſle, where is repreſented his Effigies, holding in his left Hand the Model of a Tower, by which it is univerſally conjectur'd that he built the Tower at the Weſt End. His Succeſſor was

HUGH de Mapenore, Dean of this Church, conſecrated Dec. 6. 1216. He died about Eaſter 1219. and was buried in the Cathedral in the North Wall, on one Side the Choir, under an Arch, over which is this painted:

Dom. Hugo de Mapenore Epiſcopus Hereford. obiit An. 1219.

HUGH

HUGH FOLIOT, Archdeacon of Salop, ſucceeded, being elected in June, and conſecrated Nov. 1. 1219. He died July 26. 1234. in the Hoſpital at Lidbury, which he had founded, according to ſome Accounts, though I rather gueſs it was Aug. 7. and was, as it ſeems to me, buried in this Cathedral, where his Obiit was celebrated Aug. 7. by the Canons, to whom he gave two Marks Yearly for that Purpoſe, as he had beſtowed ſeveral Ornaments and Books on his Church. His Succeſſor was

RALPH de Maydenſtune, or Maidſton, Canon of Lichfeild, Archdeacon of Cheſter, and Dean of this Church; conſecrated Nov. 12. 1234. He gave to this See, Mountholt-Houſe in London, and the Patronage of St. Mary Mountholt-Church in that City; appropriated Sullach Rectory to the Canons, and Diddleburgh Co. Salop to the Vicars Choral. Being at length weary of his Epiſcopal Charge, he reſigned the ſame An. 1239. and retiring to the Abby Church of Glouceſter, there ended his Days, Jan. 8. 1245. taking on him a Monaſtical Habit; and was buried in that Church without any Memorial: On his Reſignation, which he made Dec. 17. 1239: After ſome Months Vacancy

PETER de Equeblank, a Native of Savoy was elected Biſhop, Aug. 24. and conſecrated Dec. 23. 1240. and preſided 28 Years: How this Foreigner governed, and into what a low and diſſolute State Spirituals were reduced, by his not reſiding in his Dioceſe, and filling the Canons Stalls with Foreigners his Countrymen, may be collected from the following Letter. Were we to digreſs here, and ſeek a Parallel in our Days, a neighbouring See might furniſh us with an Inſtance of a late Prelate's preſiding about the like Number of Years, and like a Stranger to the Mother Tongue and Clergy of his Dioceſe, alike non reſident: And how far theſe Circumſtances conduced to the diſcontinuance of Choral Service in one of our moſt antient Cathedrals, and to almoſt the Diſſolution of the Fabrick it ſelf, I need not determine; and ſo ſhall enter into no farther Particulars, then to produce from Hiſtory, the Opinion the Age had ſo many hundred Years ago, of the Dignity of Cathedrals, and exhibit the above cited Letter as it ſtands printed in Fox's Martyrs, Vol. I. Pag. 435. In this Letter, directed to our Biſhop, which bears Date at Hereford June 5. An. 48. Hen. III. 1263. The King tells him, after prefacing in the moſt ſolemn Manner, about the Duty of a Paſtor "That coming to Hereford to take Order for diſpoſing of "the Garriſons in the Marches of Wales, he found in the Church of "Hereford, neither Biſhop, Official, or Dean, to exerciſe any Spiritual "Function and Duty in the ſame; but that the Church, which was "wont to have Canons tending Days and Nights Services, and that ought

" ought to exerciſe Works of Charity, had forſook it, and led their " Lives in Countries far hence; and ſo the Church had put off her Robe " or Stole of Pleaſure, and was fallen to the Ground; there being none " of her Friends or Lovers there would comfort her. — Wherefore he " commanded this Biſhop, all Excuſes ſet aſide, forthwith to repair to " his Church; and that if he did not do ſo, he willed him to know for " a Certainty, that he would take into his Hands all the temporal Goods " belonging to the Barony of the ſame, which his Progenitors gave and " beſtowed for ſpiritual Exerciſe therein of a godly Devotion; and as " ſuch Goods and Duties were not turned to the Profit and Commodity " of the Church, he would ſeize upon them, and ſuffer no longer, he " ſhould reap temporal Things, that fear'd not to withdraw and keep " back ſpiritual, and refuſed to undergo and bear the Burthen of the " ſame.

The good Effect this Letter had, is apparent from our Hiſtories, for we find in them, that the Biſhop immediately reſorted to his Church; they telling us that he was that Year ſeiz'd in the Cathedral by the rebellious Barons; and in the Kalendarium Obituarium, we learn that he became at laſt a good Benefactor to it, by ſettling on it the Manor of Homme, and appropriating Bodinton to the Treaſurer for Reſidence, and giving ſeven Marks and an half to the Canons and Vicars to keep his Anniverſary.

He died Nov. 27. 1268. at one of his Epiſcopal Houſes, which he alſo well repair'd before his Death, and was buried under a moſt ſtately Monument in this Cathedral, ſupported on each Side by ſix Pillars of curious Workmanſhip, encloſed on the South Side with Iron Rails, having his Effigies lying on it neatly cut in Freeſtone and painted. His Succeſſor was

JOHN de Breton LL. D. Conge de Lire, dated Dec. 6. 1268. conſecrated June 3. 1269. He died May 12. 1275. and was buried in the Nave of this Cathedral without any Monument; and ſucceeded by

THOMAS de Cantelupe, Archdeacon of Stafford, Canon of Hereford, and Chancellor of the Univerſity of Oxford, and alſo of England; who had the Royal Aſſent to his Election June 20. 1275. and was conſecrated Sep. 8. following. He died at Civita Vecchia in Italy, as Godwin ſays, Aug. 25. 1282. and his Heart was buried in the Monaſtery of Aſhridge Co. Bucks, on the North Side the high Altar, and his Body in this Cathedral, in the great croſs North Iſle, or Tranſcept, where is yet his Monument remaining, conſiſting of an Altar Tomb, which had his Effigies in Braſs on the Top of it, with an Inſcription round the Verge, which is torn off. He was after his Death canonized for a Saint, and many Miracles are reported to have been wrought at his Tomb, as is deſcrib'd in his printed Life. His Succeſſors, in Honour to him, are ſaid to have aſſumed his Paternal Coat for the Arms of their See; they before bearing Azure three Crowns Or, which were pretended to be King Ethelbert's Arms; whereas they now give Gules three Leopards Faces, revers'd each Jeſſant a Flower de Lis In the Bull of his Canonization, dated at Avignon An. 1310. (not thirty Years after his Death) his Feſtival is commanded to be obſerv'd Oct. 2. though I rather conceive it ſhould be Oct. 9. on which Day is the celebrated Fair at Hereford, granted, as I preſume, in Honour to him: The Eve of which may henceforward be remembred for being the Day of the Nativity of another Thomas, from whoſe rare Accompliſhments, an Epiſcopal Palace may derive no ſmall Luſtre, and be poſſibly as much remembred from his reſiding there, as from the firſt Thomas's. On his Death

RICHARD de Swinfeild, S. T. P. was elected Dec. 1. 1282. and became conſecrated March 7. following. He died March 15. 1316. and was buried in his own Cathedral, in the North Side, with this Inſcription painted over his Monument above the Arch.

Hic requieſcit Richardus dictus de Swinfeild Cantuarienſis Dioceſis; quondam Epiſcopus Herefordenſis.

ADAM de Orleton LL. D. ſucceeded, being conſecrated Sep. 22. 1317. He gave Shenningfeild Co. Berks, to the Fabrick of Hereford Cathedral; and having ſat here ten Years, and render'd himſelf infamous in Hiſtory by his baſe Uſage of his Patron King Edward II. he was tranſlated firſt to Worceſter, and afterwards to Wincheſter An. 1333. where dying July 18. 1345. he was buried in Wincheſter Cathedral without any Monument. His Succeſſor on his Tranſlation to Worceſter, was

THOMAS CHARLTON, LL. D. Archdeacon of Wells and Northumberland, and Canon of York, conſecrated Oct. 18. 1327. He died Jan. 11. 1343. and was buried in his own Cathedral, under an handſome Tomb, containing his Effigies in the North Tranſcept, under the great Window. His Succeſſor was

JOHN TRILLECK, S. T. P. elected Feb. 23. 1343. conſecrated June 24. and enthronized Oct. 24. 1344. He died Nov. 30. 1360. and was buried in the Presbytery in his own Cathedral, under a very handſome Graveſtone, containing his Effigies on it curiouſly wrought in Braſs, with his Arms on it, Bendy of ſix, in Chief three Flower de Lis's, miſtaken by Godwin to belong to Biſhop Reginald Bolers, on Suppoſition

of

of the Arms, rather than the Epitaph, which is all gone except these Words.

Andree Festo preventus morte recessi
Christe favens.———

Whereas Bishop Bolars, who lies buried at Lichfeild, did not die, as may be seen Pag. 390. of this Book, till near an 100 Years afterwards. On Bishop Trilleck's Death

LEWIS de Charleton, S. T. P. Canon of this Church, Chancellor of Oxford, became consecrated Oct. 25. 1361. He died May 23. 1369. and was buried in the Cathedral under an Arch, over which is this Inscription painted:

Dominus Lewis de Sherlton alias Charlton Episcopus Herefordensis, obiit An. 1369.

In his Will in Registro Whittlesey, at Lambeth, Fol. 102. he gives his Mitre, Crosier, Ring, and several Vestments to Hereford Cathedral, where he appoints to be buried, and also several Books, as his Glossary, Bible, Concordance, and Lira, and five Books of Moses, which he appoints to be chain'd in his Cathedral; to the Fabrick of which he bequeaths 40 l. His Successor was

WILLIAM COURTENEY, LL. D. Prebendary of Wells, Exeter, and York, by Papal Provision, Bull dated Aug. 17. 1369. He was An. 1375. translated to London, and thence afterwards to Canterbury. On his Translation to London,

JOHN GILBERT, a Friar, Preacher, Bishop of Bangor, was preferred to this See, Sep. 12. 1375. He was, An. 1389. translated to the antient Metropolitical See of St. David; in which he died July 28. 1397. and was buried in the White-Friars Church of Haverford West Co. Pembroke, where his Tomb, if any, has long since been destroyed. On his Translation

JOHN TREVENANT LL. D. Canon of St. Asaph and Lincoln, was provided to this See by the Pope's Bull, dated May 6. 1389. became consecrated, and receiv'd the Temporalities Oct. 16. following. In his Will, dated March 21. 1403. and proved 23 following 1404. he appointed to be buried in this Cathedral in St. Anne's Chapel, in the South Part, where is yet to be seen his Tomb, under the great South Window in the cross Isle, containing his Effigies of Freestone under a Canopy. His Successor was

ROBERT MASCALL, a white Fryar of Ludlow, the King's Confessor, by Papal Provision, Bull dated July 2. 1404. who had the Temporalities restored Sep. 25. following. He died Dec. 22. 1416. and was buried under a stately Tomb of Alablaster, containing his Effigies in the Church of the White-Friars or Carmelites at London; the Choir, Presbytery, and Steeple of which, he new built, and gave many Ornaments thereto: In his Will in Regiſtro Chicheley, Fol. 300. he appointed to be buried ſub Arcu, and gave to the Religious of his own Order very liberally, but nothing to his Cathedral. On his Death

EDMUND LACY, S. T. P. Mr. of University College, Oxon, Dean of the King's Chapel, Canon of Windſor, became consecrated April 18. 1417. and was 1420. translated to Exeter, and succeeded by THOMAS POLTON LL. B. Prebendary of Sarum, Rector of Hatfeild Co. Hertford, Archdeacon of Taunton, and Dean of York by Papal Provision; Bull dated July 15. 1420. He was 1422. translated to Chicheſter, and thence to Worceſter.

THOMAS SPOFFORD, Abbot of St. Mary's York, Elect. Bishop of Rocheſter; was promoted to this See by the Pope's Bull, dated Nov. 17. 1422. While he sate Bishop here, he bestow'd much in building at his Palace at Sugwas; where are yet remaining the initial Letters of his Name in the Chapel Windows, answering also the initial Letters of the Name of the present worthy Possessor of that antient Episcopal Seat; who has likewise been a good Benefactor to the Chapel, where his Memory will be better remembred then this our Thomas; who being grown weary of his Episcopal Charge, voluntarily resigned it An. 1448. as may be seen in Rymer's Fœdera, Vol. 10. Pag. 215. where is printed a long Instrument of his Abdication of his Bishoprick. After his Resignation he retired into his Native Country of York, where ending his Days at St. Mary's Abby, he was there buried: In Catterick Church, in that County, was this in a Window in Memory of him, he having, as I suppose, built the Chancel there Orate pro anima Domini Thome Spofford, Abbatis Monaſterii Beate Marie Ebor. iſtius, Eccl. Rectoris, i. e. Impropriator.

RICHARD BEAUCHAMP, LL. D. Archdeacon of Suffolk, was provided to this See by the Pope's Bull, dated Dec. 4. 1448. and received Consecration Feb. 9. following. He was An. 1450. translated to Salisbury; and succeeded by

REGINALD BOLERS, S. T. P. Abbot of Glouceſter, who had the Temporalities restor'd Dec. 23. 1450. was consecrated Feb. 24. following, and enthronized Aug. 2. 1451. He was April 3. 1452. translated to Lichfeild, feild, where he died after he had ſate ſix Years, and was buried, and not in this Church, as Godwin has by Miſtake inſerted; he imagining Biſhop Trilleck's Graveſtone to be this Biſhop's. On his quitting this See

JOHN STANBURY, S. T. P. (deſigned the firſt Provoſt of Eaton College) Biſhop of Bangor, was tranſlated hither by the Pope's Bull, dated Feb. 7. 1452. had the Temporalities reſtored March 26. 1453. and was enthronized April 25. 1453. He died May 11. 1474. at the White-Friars at London, and was buried in his own Cathedral, under a curious Monument of white Marble, containing his Effigies which is encloſed with Iron Rails, having this Inſcription faſten'd to it, engraven on a Plate of Braſs.

In Princes Worthies of Devonſhire, is ſome Account of his Life, and in the Survey of Bangor Cathedral, ſee an Account of his Will and Charities, &c. relating to him. His Succeſſor was

THOMAS MILLING, S. T. P. Abbot of Weſtminſter, who had the Temporalities reſtored Aug. 15. 1474. He died An. 1492. and was buried in Weſtminſter Abby, in St. John Baptiſt's Chapel, without any Inſcription on his Monument; and ſucceeded by

EDMUND AUDLEY, S. T. P. Prebendary of this Cathedral, Lincoln, and Wells; Archdeacon of Eaſtriding, tranſlated hither from the See of Rocheſter June 22. 1492. He was a great Benefactor to Lincoln College in Oxford, where he was educated, and alſo to the Lady Chapel in this Cathedral; and laſtly to Salisbury Cathedral, whence he was tranſlated, after he had ſate here ten Years, and lies buried.

ADRIAN de Caſtello, Prebendary of St. Paul's, London, Rector of St. Dunſtan's in the Eaſt, and Vicar of Luton Co. Bedford, ſucceeded An. 1502. and was in two Years tranſlated to the See of Bath and Wells,

Wells: In the former of which Churches, viz. Bath, he beſtow'd much Money in Vaulting the Choir, as may be ſeen by his Arms under the Cardinal's Hat, on the Roof on each Side the Choir. On his Tranſlation to Bath and Wells,

RICHARD MAYHEW or MAYO, S. T. P. Preſident of Magdalen College Oxon, and Archdeacon of Oxford in the Church of Lincoln, and Eaſt-riding in York Cathedral; was provided to this See, by Bull dated Aug. 9. 1504. and conſecrated in October following: He died April 18. 1516. and was buried in the Cathedral, where is yet his Monument remaining. His Will is in Regiſtro Holder, in the Prerogative Office, London. Over his Effigies is this painted:

Dominus Richardus Mayo Epiſcopus Hereford. obiit An. 1516.

CHARLES BOOTH, LL. D. Archdeacon of Buckingham, Prebendary of Lincoln, Treaſurer of Lichfeild, ſucceeded, by Papal Proviſion, Bull dated July 21. 1516. was conſecrated Nov. 30. and had the Temporalities reſtored Feb. 19. following: He died, and was buried under a Tomb in the North Side the Porch; which he had made in his Life time, and on which was this Inſcription:

Carolus Booth Epiſcopus Herefordenſis, cum 18 Annos & 5 Menſes & totidem dies Eccleſiæ huic cum laude præfuiſſet, 5 Die Maii. A. D. 1535. defunctus ſub hoc tumulo Sepultus jacet.

In his Will proved May 28. 1535. he appointed his Body to be buried in the Veſtments, in which he was conſecrated, and 6l. 6s. 8d. to be diſtributed at his Burial, and his Books to the Library at Hereford, and gave a large Arras Cloth of the Hiſtory of David, and Naball, to the high Altar at Hereford.

EDWARD FOX, S. T. P. Provoſt of King's College in Cambridge, Archdeacon of Leiceſter and Dorſet, the King's Almoner, ſucceeded, having obtain'd the Royal Aſſent to his Election Sep. 2. 1535. and receiving Conſecration Sep. 25. and the Temporalities Oct. 4. following. In his Will dated May 8. 1538. the Day on which he died, and proved, March 20 following, he appointed to be buried in St. Mary Monthault Church in London, which was accordingly perform'd, though there was no Monument erected to his Memory. On his Death

EDMUND BONNER, LL. D. Rector of Ripple Co. Worceſter, (in which County he was legitimately born, as Mr. Strype has made it appear) and Archdeacon of Leiceſter, had the Royal Aſſent to his Election

tion Nov. 27. 1538. and the Temporalities restored March 4. following: But before Consecration, was removed to London; and succeeded by

JOHN SKYPP, S. T. P. commendatory Prior of Wigmore, Master of Gonvill Hall, Cambridge, Archdeacon of Dorset, elected Bishop in his Stead Oct. 24. 1539. and consecrated at Lambeth Nov. 23. following: In his Will dated March 18. 1551. made in his House at St. Mary Mounthault, London, and proved April 9. 1552. he names no Place of Burial, but made his Brother Robert Skypp Executor. He died March 30. 1552. at his Episcopal Palace at St. Mary Mounthault, and buried in that Church, near his Predecessor Edward Fox, without any Memorial: And was succeeded by

JOHN HARLEY, consecrated May 26. 1553. This Person, who had been Prebendary of Worcester, Rector of Upton on Severne, and Vicar of Kidderminster, two Market Towns in Worcestershire, was born at Newport-Pagnell in Buckinghamshire, where were living, till very lately, several of his Name and Family, rigid Dissenters and Puritans; to which Persuasion this Bishop was much inclin'd, having little Regard to the Habit of his Function. While he sat here, he gave up the Jurisdiction of the Forrest of Dean to the See of Gloucester, and having render'd himself obnoxious, by being married in Queen Mary's time, he was deprived of his Bishoprick; after which, as Strype tells us, he lurk'd up and down in the hard Reign of Queen Mary, and died obscurely An. 1557. But where he deceased he does not inform us; though I presume, it might be at Kidderminster, among his Wife's Relations, where the Seed of Dissention was plentifully sown, I fear too much by his Means. And at this Place the noted Presbyterian Richard Baxter, the Pillar of Non-Conformity, was born. On his Deprivation

ROBERT WARTON, alias PARFEW, S. T. B. Bishop of St. Asaph, was translated to this See, and had the Temporalities restor'd him Ap. 24. 1554. This Man, who had been Abbot of Bermondsey, which he held with his Bishoprick of St. Asaph, was in every Respect, as far as I can find, a worthy generous Man; though his Memory is traduced by Godwin, as an Alienator of the Revenues of that See: Whereas on a strict Examination into Facts, it is plain, he did not impair that Bishoprick in the least Penny; but liv'd there in his Diocese in great Hospitality and Credit, and contributed liberally to the building the fine Church of Mould in Flintshire, and as I presume, finish'd Gresford and Wrexham Churches. The Character of this Bishop is given in the Survey of Bangor, additional to the History of St. Asaph Cathedral, Pag. 341. &c. so that I need not enlarge on it here; but shall add, that in his Will prov'd Jan. 21. 1557. he gave to Hereford Cathedral, his Mitre of Silver, set with with Stone, a Croſier of Silver, and a Parcel of Plate gilt; a rich Cope of Tiſſue and Veſtments, and divers other Copes and Rubies. He died Sep. 22. 1557. and was buried in Hereford Cathedral, under an handſome Tomb in the great South Tranſcept or croſs Iſle, having his Effigies in full Proportion, but no Inſcription. On his Death

THOMAS REYNOLDS, S. T. P. Canon of Cardinal College Oxon, Dean of Exeter, was deſigned to ſucceed him, An. 1558. but Queen Mary dying that ſame Year, before his Conſecration, &c. were perfected, he, the ſaid Dr. Reynolds, as Anthony Wood tells us, was thrown into the Marſhall-Sea-Priſon, where he died about November 24. 1559. in the beginning of Queen Elizabeth's Reign; who appointed to this See

JOHN SCORY, S.T.B. Biſhop of Chicheſter (of which See he had been deprived by Queen Mary) and he accordingly became elected July 15. 1559. confirm'd Dec. 20. and had Reſtitution of the Temporalities March 23. following: This Biſhop, while he ſat here, as has already been ſhew'd, parted with the goodly Manors of Lidbury, Biſhops-Upton, Roſſe, Biſhops-Caſtle, Sevenhampton and Preſtbury, and almoſt all the antient Demeſnes belonging to his Church. He had been originally of a Religious Order, and being a forward Man in Henry VIII's Reformation, was firſt by Edward VI. made Biſhop of Rocheſter, and thence tranſlated to Chicheſter by that Prince; of which having been deprived by Queen Mary for Marriage, and being willing to get ſome other Preferment in her Time, or to atone for the Breach of his Oath, or Vow of Chaſtity, he renounc'd his Wife, and did Penance for it; and ſo had Abſolution granted him under the great Seal, July 14. 1554. Tho' I don't find he got any Thing, till Queen Elizabeth, on certain Conditions, gave him this See of Hereford, which he rather accepted of than Chicheſter, where poſſibly he had rendered himſelf obnoxious, as he did afterwards at Hereford; on which Account, as Sir John Harrington tells us, he had a Bill preferred againſt him in the Star-Chamber, for Oppreſſions, Extortions and Symony; though he found Means to ſtop the hearing of it by Bribery. That Author, farther ſpeaking of him, tells us, that though by pulling down Houſes, ſelling the Lead, and ſuch looſe Practices, he had heap'd up Wealth; yet after his Deceaſe, there was a long Suit againſt his Son for Dilapidations, who was a very looſe Fellow, and ſpent all, inſomuch that his Grandſon came to want. As to the Biſhop himſelf, he died at Whitborne Co. Hereford, June 25. 1585. and was buried in the Church there without any Memorial; having in his Will proved Aug. 23. following his Death, conſtituted his Wife and Son-in-Law, Giles Allen Executors; and given 200 Buſhels of Corn to the the Poor of Hereford, and 200 l. for a lending Stock to poor Tradeſmen in Hereford Corporation. His Succeſſor was

HERBERT WESTPHALING, S.T.P. Canon of Chriſt-Church, Oxford, Rector of Brightwell, Canon of Windſor, and Treaſurer of St. Paul's Cathedral, London; elected Dec. 16. confirmed Jan. 25. and conſecrated Jan. 26. 1585. This worthy Biſhop, in his Will dated Aug. 6. 1601. and prov'd April 10. 1602. gave 10*l.* to Hereford Poor, and 3*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* to Whitborne Poor, and his Land bought of James Walwyn, to Jeſus College Oxford, to which he was a great Benefactor: Having diſtinguiſh'd himſelf in all Reſpects a charitable Perſon; and making it his Practice to diſpend the Revenues he receiv'd from the Church, in Works of Piety and Hoſpitality, reſerving nevertheleſs his Paternal Eſtate to be tranſmitted to his Family. He died, and was buried in the great croſs North Iſle, under an handſome Tomb, having his Effigies lying on it in full Proportion, with this Inſcription lately renewed.

ROBERT BENNET, S.T.P. Maſter of St. Croſſes Hoſpital near Wincheſter, and Dean of Winaſor, ſucceeded, being nominated Jan. 7. 1602. elected Jan. 15. confirm'd Feb. 19, and conſecrated at Lambeth, Feb. 20. 1602. He died Oct. 25. 1617. and was buried in his own Cathedral Nov. 12. under an handſome Monument of white Marble, containing his Effigies under an Arch, with this Inſcription:

Multa ben' et melius feciſti plura Benette

Hunc Tumulum Reverendiſſimo in Chriſto Patri Roberto Benetto Epiſcopo Herefordenſi Leonardus Benett & Robertus Benett memoriæ poſuerunt.

On the Verge of the Tomb in Capital Letters, is this Inſcription, part of which is broken off:

——Et Epiſcopus Herefordenſis ſacræ Theologiæ Profeſſor, & fidelis Chriſti Miniſter, obiit 20 die Oct. A. D. 1617. & ætatis ſuæ 72.

And a little lower is this:

Ben' et: O quam bene luxit.
Lux vitæ & vocis ..... moris & oris erat.

On painted Boards are three Copies of Verſes, made by Leonard Bennet his Kinſman, William Saintbarbe, and George Benſon Prebendaries of this Church, in his Commendation, which ſee printed in the Antiquities of Hereford, where are Accounts given from Godwin, &c. of other Biſhops too long to be repeated here. In his Will, prov'd Dec. 8. 1617. He gave 500 l. to his Couſin Leonard Benet, and the like Sum to his Couſin Robert Benet; and his Leaſe of the Tythes of Chipping-Wycomb Co. Bucks: To Hereford Cathedral 40 l. and to Trinity College Cambridge, 20 l. And the like Sum to the finiſhing the Schools at Oxford: And 20*l.* to Baldock Poor, Co. Hartford, where he was born: And 10*l.* to the Poor of Ludlow, Lempſter, Whitborne and Bromyard. His Succeſſor was

FRANCIS GODWIN, S. T. P. Biſhop of Landaff, tranſlated to this See Nov. 10. 1617. and confirmed in it Nov. 28. This learned Biſhop was the Author of the elaborate Hiſtory of our Biſhops, which Work recommended him to Queen Elizabeth, who on that Account beſtowed on him the poor See of Landaff. The other Preferments he enjoyed, were the Rectory of Kingſton Seymour Co. Somerſet, Vicaridges of Heritree and Weſton in Zoyland, and Biſhops Lydiard, Rectory of Sam-

Samford-orcais Co. Somerſet; a Prebend of Well's Subdeanary of Exeter, and Rectory of Newtown Co. Monmouth. He died in Ap. 1633. and was buried in this Cathedral, where is yet ſhewn a Monument of a Biſhop in his Epiſcopal Habit in Freeſtone, in the upper North Tranſept aſcribed to him; though in Whitborne Pariſh Regiſter, where he deceas'd at his Palace, is this Entry:

Franciſcus Epiſcopus Herefordenſis beatæ memoriæ ſepultus fuit viceſimo nono Aprilis 1633.

But whether this is a Cœnotoph at Hereford, I cannot ſay, or whether the Entry in Whitborne Regiſter may not relate to his Burial at Hereford, where, as Tradition ſays, he was interred: As to a Character of this Biſhop, notwithſtanding the Freedom he takes with other Biſhops Reputations, he was certainly a very great Symoniak, omitted no Opportunity in diſpoſing of his Preferments, in order to provide for his Children: However, though his Iſſue is extinct in this and Landaff Dioceſe, yet will not his and their Actions be ſoon forgotten: In Biſhop Gibſon's Codex Eccleſiaſticus, is ſome Account of his ſelling the Chancellorſhip of Landaff Dioceſe, Pag. 1020. made a Law preſident. In ſhort, nothing is reported to have fell in his Gift, but what he ſold or diſpoſed of, in regard to ſome Son or Daughter: But this Practice, I preſume, had been ſo notorious in Queen Elizabeth's Time, that it occaſioned her Averſion to Biſhops Marriages, and their Endeavours to raiſe Families out of the Church Revenues, no doubt, encouraged her taking into her Hands Biſhops Eſtates in her Reign, and afterwards gave Occaſion to the excellent Statute of King James I. againſt alienating or leaſing of Church Lands except on certain Limitations. On Biſhop Godwin's Death

WILLIAM JUXON, S. T. P. Prebendary of Chicheſter, Dean of Worceſter, &c. was elected, but before Conſecration was removed to London; and

GODFREY GOODMAN, S. T. P. Biſhop of Glouceſter, nominated to this See, but he being a ſcrupulous Man, and unwilling to take a ſecond Biſhoprick, reſigned his Pretenſions. Whereupon

AUGUSTIN LINDSELL, S. T. P. Fellow of Clare-Hall, Cambridge, Rector of Bigrave Co. Hertford, and Mellſworth Co. Huntingdon, Dean of Lichfeild, and Biſhop of Peterborough, was tranſlated to this See, being elected hereto March 7. 1633. and confirmed March 24. 1633. all within a Year or leſs after Biſhop Godwin's Death: This good

Biſhop died Nov. 6. following, viz. 1634. being found dead in his Study to the great Grief of the Dioceſe, in his Palace at Hereford, and was interred in the Cathedral, under an handſome Freeſtone Altar Monument; wherein lies his Effigies in his Sacerdotal Habit, and over him the Repreſentation of a City, and this Inſcription:

D. O. M. S.
AUGUSTINUS LINDSELL.

Primo PETRIBURGENSIS mox HEREFORDENSIS *Eccleſiæ Gubernaculis admotus, tandem ex motu requiem invenit. On his Death

MATTHEW WRENN, S. T. P. Prebendary of Weſtminſter and Winchester, and Dean of Windſor, was elected Dec. 8. and conſecrated March 8. 1634. he was next Year tranſlated to Norwich, and afterwards to Ely; and ſucceeded in this See by

THEOPHILUS FEILD, S. T. P. Rector of Cotton Co. Suffolk, and Vicar of Lidde in Kent; tranſlated from the See of St. David, and elected to this Dec. 15. 1635. He had been by the Intereſt of the Duke of Bucks firſt preferred to Landaff, with which not being contented, he wrote very preſſingly to him, urging his Neceſſity, and pleading his Poverty, having a Wife and ſix Children, and alledging, that he would ſpend his Blood for him if he would get him a better Biſhoprick; and particularly names in one of his Letters this See, which he had little Enjoyment of, for he died in half a Year, and was buried in the Cathedral in the upper End of the North Tranſept, where is againſt the Eaſt Wall a Buſto of a Biſhop leaning on a Cuſhion, and this Inſcription:

NICHOLAS

NICHOLAS MONK, S. T. P. Rector of Kilhampton Co. Cornwall, Provoſt of Eaton College, elected Dec. 1. confirmed Dec. 21. and conſecrated Jan. 13. 1660. He died Dec. 17. 1661. having never been in his Dioceſe, and was buried in Weſtminſter Abby in St. Edmund's Chapel, with this Inſcription on his Monument juſt now put up: In hac Capella jacet Corpus Rev. admodùm in Chriſto Patris Nicholai Monk, S. T. P. Qui erat Collegii Etonenſis olim Præpoſitus, Epiſcopus poſteà Herefordienſis; ac nobiliſſimi Geo. His Succeſſor was

HERBERT CROFT, S. T. P. Rector of Harding Co. Oxon, Prebendary of Salisbury, Canon of Windſor, and Dean of this Cathedral; elected Jan. 21. 1661. confirmed Feb. 6. and conſecrated Feb. 9. following: He was a Man of exemplary Charity, and had ſo ſtrict a Regard to his Cathedral, that no Sollicitations could ever prevail on him to admit any Perſon whatever to be Prebendary thereof, but what liv'd within his Dioceſe; which having accompliſh'd and compleated himſelf by introducing a ſet of Prebendaries all of his Dioceſe, he hoped his Succeſſors would follow his Example; which certainly had they done, would have been of extraordinary Benefit, and beyond any thing kept up the Dignity of the Mother Church, by ſpreading the Intereſt of its Members to influence the Gentry, &c. to ſupport the Fabrick as well as encouraged the Clergy to live hoſpitably and exemplary in their Cures, to recommend themſelves to their Biſhop to prefer them. It has already been hinted the Misfortunes a neighbouring Cathedral has undergone, by reaſon of the Collation of its Prebends on mere Strangers, through the Adminiſtration of a Cotemporary Biſhop with this our good Prelate, for whoſe Character I ſhall refer to the late Edition of Athenæ Oxon Vol. II. Pag. 864. And only add here, that he died at Hereford, May 18. 1691. and was buried May 28. following, in his own Cathedral, with this Inſcription on his Graveſtone, within the Communion Rails:

Depoſitum Herberti Croft de Croft, Epiſcopi Herefordenſis, obiit 18. die Maii, A. D. 1691. Ætatis ſuæ 88. In vita conjuncti.

The laſt Words allude to his lying next Dean Beſon, at the Bottom of whoſe Graveſtone is this, In morte non diviſi: The two Graveſtones having

Having Hands engraven on them, conjoin'd, reaching from one to the other. His Successor was

Gilbert Ironside, S. T. P. Bishop of Bristol, translated hither May 27. and confirmed July 29. 1691. He died, and was buried in St. Mary Somerset Church London, within the Communion Rails, with this Inscription on his Gravestone:

Reverendus admodum in Christo Pater Gilbertus Ironside, S. T. P. Col. Wadhamensis in Academia Oxoniensis Guardianus; ejusdem Acad. Vice-Can. primo consecratus Bristol. Episcopus, postea translatus ad Episcop. Herefordens. Obiit Aug 27. 1701. ætatis suæ 69.

On his Death

Humphrey Humphreys, S. T. P. Rector of Llanfrothan, Trawsfynydd and Llanjestin, in the Diocese of Bangor, of which Church he was first Dean, and afterwards Bishop, became translated thence hither, Dec. 2. 1701. He died Nov. 20. 1712. and was buried in this Cathedral, by the Altar Steps, with this Inscription on his Gravestone:

Hic jacet Humphredus Humphreys, primo Decanus 1680. mox Episcopus Bangorensis 1689. Inde Herefordensis translatus A. D. 1701. Tandem Vitæ satur, & cœlo maturus, obiit 20 Die Novembris, A. D. 1712. Ætatis suæ 63. Cujus ad exemplum si vixeris Amice Lector Mori non timebis.

Philip Bisse, S. T. P. succeeded, being translated from St. David's hither, Feb. 6. 1712. confirmed Feb. 16. and enthronized Sep. 17. 1713. While he sate Bishop here, he was a very great Benefactor, not only to his Palace, (on which he expended near 3000*l.*) but Cathedral; the Choir of which, with his own liberal Contributions, and what he obtain'd from others, he made the neatest and most ornamental, of any Church in England, by new beautifying it throughout; and erecting one of the most stately Altar-Pieces in the Kingdom; and, indeed, caused the whole Fabrick to be repair'd, and the Parish Churches in the City to be made very beautiful and splendid. He died Sept. 6. 1721. and was buried in the Cathedral between two Pillars, above the Episcopal Throne, under a very sumptuous Monument of fine Marble, bearing this Inscription:

His Succeſſor was the preſent Biſhop An. 1723. viz.

BENJAMIN HOADLEY, Biſhop of Bangor, tranſlated hither in October 1721.

Deans of HEREFORD.

THE Deanary of Hereford, which was rated An. 1534. at 38*l.* 6*s.* 1*d.* for firſt Fruits, has the Impropriations of Alanſmore, Clehonger and Kingſton; of which Churches, the Dean is alſo Patron, as he is of Withington Vicaridge, Thurkeſton Rectory, and Breinton Curacy, in which laſt Place he has alſo Demeſnes; as he has likewiſe at Withington and Alanſmore. The Founder of the College of Seculars, by which is, without all Diſpute, meant the Prebendaries in this Church, was Biſhop Reinelm, (as Leland expreſly tells us) who liv'd Temp. Henry I. and was made Biſhop at the beginning of his Reign: Though whether he fix'd a Dean over them I have not diſcovered: For

RALPH is in ſome Accounts, I have ſeen, ſaid to have been conſtituted firſt Dean, by Biſhop Robert de Betun. He held it 1140. but was not long after, depoſed by the ſaid Biſhop Betun, as we learn from Anglia Sacra Vol. II. Pag. 312.

GEFFRY was Dean 1150 as was another

RALPH An. 1157. After him we meet with a ſecond

GEFFRY An. 1173. As we do with

RICHARD An. 1187.

HUGH de Breuſe held this Office 1202. As did

HUGH

HUGH de Mapenore 1203. (He being in that Year propoſed to be elected to the See of St. David, as Giraldus tells us in Anglia Sacra, Vol II. Pag. 607.) He was, An. 1216. elected to this Biſhoprick, and ſucceeded by HENRY, An. 1216.

THOMAS de Bosbury came in about 1218. and died poſſeſs'd of it 6 Cal. Oct. 1231. and was ſucceeded by

RALPH de Maideſton Dec. 14. 1231. He was 1234. made Biſhop, and ſucceeded by

STEPHEN de Thorne 1234. After him

ANCELINUS or ANCELIN held it 1247. and 1262. As did

GILES de Avernbury 1271. He died 13 Cal. Oct. 1277. or 1278. and was ſucceeded by JOHN de Aquablanca An. 1278. He died 1320. and was buried in the Cathedral, under a ſumptuous Monument, near Biſhop Aquablanca.

STEPHEN de Ledbury ſucceeded 1320. and died 1352. being Prebendary of Bullinghope.

THOMAS de Trilleck ſucceeded 1252. He was, 1363. made Dean of St. Paul's Cathedral, London; and next Year Biſhop of Rocheſter. His Succeſſor was

WILLIAM de Birmingham, An. 1363. He enjoy'd it 1369. as he did alſo the Prebend of Egne. His Succeſſor was

JOHN de Middleton, whom Mr. Le Neve erroneouſly makes the firſt Dean. He was deprived about 1280. and ſucceeded by JOHN HAROLD, inſtalled about 1380. He died Oct. 19. 1393. and was buried in the Cathedral, where is yet an imperfect Inſcription on a Graveſtone to his Memory; what remains is theſe Words:

De Salme Mercy MCCCCLXXXXIII.

JOHN PROPHET, ſucceeded, being inſtalled Nov. 7. 1393. In 1407. he quitted it, being promoted to the Deanary of York. His Succeſſor was

THOMAS FELDE, LL. D. inſtalled April 20. 1407. In his Will dated July 29. and proved Nov. 26. 1419. he appointed his Body to be buried in the Collegiate Church of Maidſtone; bequeathed 40 Marks to Hereford Cathedral, and 10*l.* to the Fabrick of Leighton Boſard Church Co. Bedford, in the Church of Lincoln, of which he was Prebendary, and ſeems to have been built about his Time. His Succeſſor was

JOHN STANWEY, An. 1419. for 'tis plain he occurs poſſeſs'd of it 1420. He died Aug. 9. 1434. and was ſucceeded by

HENRY SHELFORD, elected Sep. 20 and inſtalled Sept. 26. 1434. He died An. 1445. or 1446. and was ſucceeded by

JOHN BEREW, Archdeacon of Hereford, 1445. or 1446. He died April 6. 1462. and was buried under an Arch in the Lady Chapel on the South Side; and ſucceeded by

JOHN ap Richard, elected June 24. 1462. He was deprived the ſame Year, and

RICHARD PEDE, LL. D. inſtalled in his room March 8. 1462. He died 1480. and was ſucceeded by

THOMAS CHANDELER, confirmed Dean March 26. 1481. on the Death of Dr. Pede. He died Nov. 2. 1490. and was buried in the Cathedral, with this Inſcription on his Graveſtone:

Orate pro anima venerabilis Viri Magiſtri Thomas Chawndeler Sacre Theologie Profeſſoris nuper Cancellarii Univerſitatis Oxon ac hujus Eccleſie Decani qui obiit in Craſtino omnium Sanctorum Domini noſtri Chriſti horam quartam verſus mane Anno Domini millimo CCCCLXXXX. cujus anime propitietur Deus. Amen Fiat fiat.

His Succeſſor was

OLIVER KING, LL. D. inſtalled March 23. 1490. He reſigned it June 27. 1491. being about that time made Biſhop of Exeter. On his Reſignation

JOAN HARVEY became inſtalled about July 1491. In his Will dated April 10. 1500. and proved May 20. following, he appointed to be buried in the Cathedral before St. Margaret's Altar, and a Chantry to be erected to his Memory; wherefore I preſume the Effigies lying on a Tomb in the upper End of the South Iſle, near the Vicars Cloyſters, may be his. On his Death ſucceeded

REGINALD WEST, about the end of 1500. or beginning of 1501. He probably might quit it for other Preferments An. 1512. and poſſibly the Subdeanary of Wells, to make room for the famous

THOMAS WOLSEY, who came into this Dignity 1512. and quitted it Dec. 1. the ſame Year. He was ſoon after made Dean of York, Biſhop of Lincoln, afterwards Archbiſhop of York and a Cardinal: On his Reſignation.

EDMUND FROWCESTER, S T. P. became inſtalled Jan. 27. 1512. He died May 16. 1529. and was buried in the Cathedral, with this Inſcription on his Graveſtone:

Orate

Orate pro anima venerabilis viri Magistri Edmund. Frowcestowre in Sacra Theologia Doctoris ac nuper Decani Ecclesie Cathedr. Hereford ac Prebendarii de Barton Colwall in Ecclesia Cathedr. Predict qui obiit An. Dom. 1529. & An. Regis Henrici Octavi 21°. cujus anime et animabus omnium Christi Fidelium propitietur Misericors Deus, Amen.

Hunc quem facta satis, quem fama remittit ad astra,

Sed licet ille sua toto sit notus in orbe
Virtute summo notus ut ille polo:
Mox tamen ingratas capiunt oblivia mentes
Quem quod non videant nec meminisse solent.
Sed quos sancta juvat pietas, quos optima virtus,

GAMALIEL CLIFTON, LL. D. Canon of Windsor and York, Rector of West-Ildesley Co. Berks, succeeded, being elected July 5. 1529. He died April 29. 1541. and was buried in this Cathedral: In his Will dated the same Day which he died, he directed a solemn Dirge to be kept for him in the Cathedral. His Successor was

HUGH COREN, LL. D. alias CURWEN, installed June 1. 1541. In 1554. or 1555. he was made Bishop of Dublin, whereupon he resigned thisDeanary for some small time, viz. about 3 or 4 Weeks; after which, resuming it, he kept it till 1558. when on his quitting of it,

EDMUND DANIEL, A. M. Prebendary of Worcester, became installed July 2. 1558. In 1559. he was deprived by Queen Elizabeth, whereupon retiring to Rome, he died, and was buried in the English College Chapel, dedicated to St. Thomas of Becket, in that City, with this Inscription on his Monument as it was transmitted me thence:

Dom. Edmundo Danieli Presbytero Anglo Ecclesie Cathedr. Hereford. decano qui propter suam in Fide Catholica constantiam multa passus dignitatibus omnibus spoliatus p. 18 annos 15. in exilio Romæ tractatos obiit Oct. 30 1576. etatis sue 57. Mauritius Clenocus & Gulielmus Elias mesti posuerunt.

His

His Succeſſor, on his Deprivation, was

JOHN ELLIS, A.M. inſtituted Jan 1. and inſtalled Feb. 18. 1559. He was alſo Prebendary of Worceſter, which he vacated An. 1576. no doubt on Death, as he did alſo this Dignity. The ſame Year

JOHN WATKINS, A.M. Rector of Roſſe, ſucceeded; being nominated by the Queen, Jan. 9. 1576. He died in May 1594. having about 10 Months before his Death reſign'd this Dignity. In his Will dated Aug. 28. 1592. and proved May 25. 1594. he aſſigns no Place of Burial.

CHARLES LANGFORD, A.M. afterwards S. T. P. Prebendary of Briſtol, and Rector of Stokehammond Co Bucks, ſucceeded, being inſtalled April. 5. 1593. He died, being Prebendary of Pratm Minus, Vicar of Lugwarden, and Rector of Eaſtham, and was buried in this Cathedral Oct. 28. 1607. without any Memorial; and ſucceeded by

EDWARD DOUGHTIE, A.M. Rector of Houghton Co. Southampton, inſtalled Dec. 23. 1607. He died 1616. and was ſucceeded by

RICHARD MOUNTAGUE, inſtalled Dec. 9. 1616. He quitted it on exchange for the Archdeaconry of Hereford, to SILVANUS GRIFFITH, S. T. P. Rector of Kingſland and Stokeſay, inſtalled Sept. 16. 1617. In his Will nuncupative, dated in Nov. 1623. and proved in June 1624. he leaves all to his Wife, and appoints no Place of burial on his Death, which happened about the end of Nov. 1623.

DANIEL PRICE, S. T. P. became inſtalled Dec. 16. 1623. He died Sept. 23. 1631. and was buried at Worthen Co. Salop, where he was Rector, with this Epitaph on his Graveſtone:

Here lieth interred the Body of the right Worſhipful Dr. Daniel Price, Dr. in Divinity, one of the Chaplains in ordinary to our ſovereign Lord King James, and after his Deceaſe, to his dread, Sovereign Lord King Charles, that now is, and Dean of the Cathedral Church of Hereford; Canon Reſidentiary, and Prebendary of the ſame, Parſon of Worthen and Llantegloc in Cornwall, who departed this Life Sept. 23. in the Year of our Lord 1631. —— On a Plate of Braſs in the Wall theſe four Lines.

JOHN

JOHN RICHARDSON, S. T. P. ſucceeded, being inſtalled Oct. 27. 1631. In his Will dated April 1. and proved May 25. following, in the Year 1636. he ſtiles himſelf Dean of Hereford, to which Cathedral he gave 5*l.* And 6*l.* to the Poor of Hereford City, with ſome ſmall Legacies to Stretton, Strenſham and Caſtle-Frome Poor, and left his Houſe at Stretton to his Wife; where I judge he died, or rather at Hereford. On his Death ſucceeded

JONATHAN BROWNE, S. T. P. who paid firſt Fruits for it Jan. 13. 1636. having been inſtalled about May preceding. He died in Dec. 1643. and was buried at Hertingfordbury Co. Hertford, where he was Rector without any Memorial; and ſucceeded by

HERBERT CROFT, S. T. P. inſtalled 1644. In 1661. he was made Biſhop; and ſucceeded by

THOMAS HODGES, S. T. P. inſtalled Sept. 20. 1661. He died 1672. and was buried at Kenſington near London, with this Inſcription on his Graveſtone:

Here lieth the Body of Thomas Hodges, D. D. late Dean of Hereford, and Vicar of this Pariſh; who departed this Life 22 Day of Aug. 1672. Aged 72. or thereabouts.

His Succeſſor was

GEORGE BENSON S. T. P. inſtalled Sep. 10. 1672. He was alſo Prebendary of Worceſter: And dying 24. 1692. was buried in this Cathedral; with this Inſcription on his Graveſtone:

Depoſitum Georgii Benſon Decani Herefordenſis obiit die Auguſt. 24. A. D. 1692. ætatis ſuæ 78.

His Succeſſor was

JOHN TYLER, S. T. B. Vicar of St. Peter's Hereford, inſtalled Sept. 27. 1692. Living 1723. Lord Biſhop of Landaff

Precentors of HEREFORD.

THE Endowment of this Dignity, is the Impropriation of Walford Co. Hereford, cum Capella de Ruardine Co. Glouceſter, valued at 23*l.* 17*s.* 2*d.* The Precentor is Patron of Walford Vicaridge.

* GILBERT was Precentor about 1150. in the time of Biſhop Foliot; as was alſo

* REGI-

* REGINALD inter 1150. and 1163.

* RICHARD and

*WILLIAM de Kilpec, both enjoy'd this Office, as appears by their Obits in the Miſſale Hereford, Sans Date; the firſt 4Id. Jan. and the 2 Cal. Junii.

WILLIAM FOLIOT, who is the firſt in Le Neve, held this Dignity 1195. and 1213.

THOMAS FOLIOT occurs poſſeſs'd of it 1226. as does

ROBERT IWARDEBY, 1233. whoſe Obit was kept 4 Cal. June.

EMERICUS de Aquablanca occurs Precentor 1263. and 1268. His Obit was kept 13 Cal. Sept. I preſume he was buried in the Cathedral, as doubtleſs all thoſe were interred here, whoſe Obits were celebrated in the ſame. He ſeems to have quitted it 1286. for the Chancellorſhip.

HERVY de Borham, Dean of St. Paul's, London, enjoy'd this Office 1270. He died Oct. 7. 1276. and was ſucceeded by

WILLIAM de Montfort, another Dean of St. Paul's London, collated 7 Id. Jan. 4. 1276. He died 1294. and was ſucceeded by

* JOHN de Swinfeud, Treaſurer of this Church 1294. He occurs poſſeſs'd of it 1311. and probably enjoyed it till the Collation of

RICHARD HAVERING, An. 1329. whoſe Title to it the King diſputing, beſtowed it on

JOHN de Hoo, March 13. 1329. Howſoever, I find the King recalled his Grant to Hoo, and confirmed

RICHARD HAVERING in this Dignity Dec. 13. 1330.

* THOMAS de Wincheſtre or Winchester, held it 1346. and reſign'd it 1349.

* WALTER de Elveden, was collated Nov. 20. 1349. on Wincheſtre's Reſignation. He exchanged it for the Rectory of Shropſham Co. Norfolk, with

*RALPH de Cokeſhall Dec. 10. 1358.

WILLIAM de Outeby, reſigned it 1364. and was ſucceeded by

* WILLIAM de Borſtall An. 1364. He ſeems to have quitted it 1381. for the Prebend of Bartonſham.

WALTER RAMMESBURY, S. T. B. (called by Miſtake, Richard, in Le Neve) occurs poſſeſs'd of it 1385. He gave An. 1394. 10 Marks towards making the Choir Stalls, and 10*l.* for the Desks in the Library; and died poſſeſs'd of it 1406.

* HENRY MILES, was collated Nov. 28. 1406. on the Death of Walter Rammesbury.

* RICHARD

* RICHARD TALBOT, ſucceeded, being collated June 9. 1407. On the Reſignation of Miles, he was 1417. made Archbiſhop of Dublin; where dying Aug. 15. 1449. he was buried in the Cathedral Church of St. Patrick in that City, with this Inſcription on his Graveſtone on a Plate of Braſs, under his Effigies in his Epiſcopal Habit.

Talbot Richardus latet hic ſub marmore preſſus
Archi fuit Preſul hujus ſedis Reverende
Parvos Canonicos qui fundavitque Chorиſtas
Anno Milleno C quater quatur x quoque nono
Quindeno Auguſti Menſis mundo valedixit
Omnipotens Dominus cui propitietur in Eoum.

His Succeſſor in this Stall was

FOVLK STAFFORD, LL. B. collated Nov. 30. 1412. on the Reſignation of Talbot, who was that Year made Prebendary of Friday-Thorp in York Cathedral.

* NICHOLAS COLNET, was collated March 3. 1412. on the Death of Stafford, as was

* ROBERT FELTON, collated Dec. 12. 1413. on the Reſignation of Colnet, and JOHN BRIDBROOK, LL. B. collated July 21. 1416. on the Reſignation of Felton. In 1431. he was made Canon of Windſor.

* JOHN ARUNDEL, was collated Aug. 9. 1432. on the Reſignation of Bridbrook. He was afterwards Biſhop of Chicheſter: He reſigned this about 1434.

* WILLIAM LOCHARD, ſucceeded 1434. or 1435. for I find him poſſeſs'd of it 1435. He died Sept. 24. 1438. and was buried in the Cathedral, as he had appointed in his Will, dated April 11. 1438. and proved April 29. 1439. wherein he bequeathed an 100 l. to be laid out in erecting a Chantry for him: He was, in his Life time, a good Benefactor to the Weſt Tower, as I gueſs, by the Inſcription on his Graveſtone, in the Nave of the Cathedral, near the ſaid Tower, which is as follows, what remains of it:

Hic jacet Dominus William Lochard quondam hujus Eccleſie Canonicus ac Reſidentiarius et Precentor ejuſdem Eccleſie inſuper Decanus ſancte Beziane in Cornubia qui inter alia bona que huic contulit Eccleſie magnam ſtructuram in occidentali parte ejuſdem Eccleſie —— xxiiii. Sept.

WILLIAM MIDDLEHAM, succeeded, no doubt on his Death, An. 1438. for he occurs poſſeſs'd of it Oct. 6. 1441. and died December 1463.

JOHN BAILY, LL. B. was collated Dec. 23. 1463. on the Death of Middleham. He died 1479. and was ſucceeded by

* THOMAS DOWNE, Rector of Kingſland, collated Sept. 8. 1479. on the Death of Baily. He died March 26. 1489. and was buried in the Cathedral with an Inſcription, which was, when it was entire, as follows:

Hic jacet venerabilis vir Thomas Downe quondam Precent. & Canonicus Reſident. hujus Eccleſie Cathedr. Hereford qui obut 26. die menſis Martii A. D. 1489. cujus &c.

His Succeſſor was

* JOHN HARVEY, collated April 3. 1489. He was 1491. made Dean.

ROBERT KENT, S. T. P. ſucceeded 1491. In his Will dated Auguſt 24. 1514. and prov'd October 15. 1515. he appointed to be buried in the Cathedral, near the Rood Loft, by his Mother. His Succeſſor was

WILLIAM PORTER, S. T. B. collated Oct. 21. 1515. on the Death of Kent. He died 1524. and was buried in the Cathedral with this Epitaph:

Hic jacet venerabilis vir Magiſter Will. Porter, S. T. Baccalaureus quondam Collegii Beate Marie Virginis in Oxon, Guardianus & hujus Eccleſie Precentor, meritiſſimus ac in eadem Canon. Reſident. qui 3. Die Novembris inter Horas 3. & 4. verſus mane obut A. D. 1524. cujus &c.

ROLAND PHILIPS, ſucceeded, being collated Nov. 26. 1524. and reſigned it 1531.

THOMAS PARKER, LL. D. ſucceeded, being collated Apr. 15. 1531. on the Reſignation of Philips. He died 1538. being Rector of Eſtham Co. Eſſex.

RICHARD BENYSE, ſucceeded, being inſtalled Nov. 11. 1538. He was alſo Prebendary of Lincoln, and, as I conceive, Rector of Long Ditton Co. Surrey, and willed to be buried in that Church-Yard. On his Death, which happened 1546.

* JOHN

* JOHN BARLOW, became collated Jan. 7. 1546. He was alſo Dean of Worceſter, but deprived 1554. of that and his other Preferments.

WILLIAM CHELL, M. B. ſucceeded, being inſtituted Aug. 20. 1554. He was, as I preſume, deprived 1559. of all his Preferments, by Queen Elizabeth, who promoted to this Dignity

WALTER JONES, A. M. Jan. 1. 1560. in his Will dated Feb. 14. 1572. and proved Sept. 8. 1573. He ſtiles himſelf Chanter and Canon Reſidentiary of Hereford, and appoints to be buried in this Cathedral, where his Friends ſhall appoint; and makes Executor his Son Theophilus. His Succeſſor was

THOMAS THORNTON, S. T. P. Prebendary of Worceſter and Oxford, collated May 28. 1573. He died April 15. 1629. and was buried at Lidbury.

MATHEW BUST, A. M. ſucceeded, being inſtituted Ap. 28. 1629. at the Preſentation of the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, who made it his Option, and inſtalled May 22. 1629. he was Maſter of Eaton School, and had been Fellow of King's College Cambridge. In his Will dated June 17. and proved July 21. 1638. he ſtiles himſelf of Lockerly in Motisfont Pariſh Co. Southampton, where he had a great Eſtate, which he gave his Son Matthew, as he did to his Daughters 400*l.* a-piece. He died July 17. 1638. and was buried at Motisfont aforeſaid, with this Inſcription on his Monument in that Chancel:

Expectat Reſurrectionem juſtorum doctiſſimus vir Mattheus Buſt Eccleſiæ Cathedr. Hereford. Precentor, qui placide obdormivit in Domino 17. Die Julii ætatis ſuæ climaterico 1638.

FRANCIS COKE or COOK, A. M. ſucceeded 1638. on Buſt's Death. He was alſo Archdeacon of Stafford, and Rector of Yoxall in that County, where he died, and was buried May 6. 1682. without any Memorial; and ſucceeded by

WILLIAM BRABOURN, S. T. P. inſtalled Oct. 28. 1682. He died March 10. 1684. and was buried at Northall Co. Middleſex, where he was Vicar, without any Memorial; and ſucceeded by

THOMAS SEDDON, S. T. P. collated March 16. 1684. He died Feb. 12. 1684. and was buried Feb. 15. at Worthen Co. Salop, where he was Rector, without any Memorial; and ſucceeded by

WILLIAM WATTS, S. T. B. collated Feb. 15. 1684. He died Oct. 15. 1722. and was buried at Dour Abby, where he was Rector; as he was alſo Archedeacon of Landaff: His Succeſſor was

THOMAS WISHAW, A.M. collated Oct. 29. 1722. Rector of great Munden Co. Hartford, Brother in Law to Biſhop Hoadley.

Chancellors of HEREFORD.

THE Chancellorſhip is endow'd with the Impropriation and Advowſon of little Hereford, cum Capella de Aſhford Carbonnell, valued at 14 l. 3 s. 4 d.

* HENRY de Vere ſeems to have held this Dignity about 1200. having been, as I judge, put in by Biſhop Vere, who died 1199. His Obiit was celebrated here July Cal. 2. as was that of

* RANULPH, Cancell. Hereford. Eccleſie, 2. Non. Feb. tho' when he or Vere died, I cannot aſcertain; tho' in all probability they were Predeceſſors to

ALBINUS de Cave, who held this Office 1215. and 1226. as did

* THOMAS, An. 1214.

* EMERICUS de Aquablanca, 1268. and 1286.

* GILBERT de Swinfend enjoyed it 1288. and died 1299.

* ROBERT de Glouceſter, was collated Oct. 16. 1299. On the Death of Swinfend,

* THOMAS de Orlton was admitted Feb. 6. 1321.

* ROBERT de Winferthing held it 1336.

* JOHN de Charneles had this Dignity given to him by the King, Sept. 15. 1341.

* JOHN de Ambresbury enjoyed it 1344. and died poſſeſs'd of it 1349.

* THOMAS HAKELUIT, ſucceeded, being collated June 23. 1349.

* ROGER de Okey held it 1364. As did

* CARDINALIS GLANDACENSIS, mention'd in Rimer's Fœdera, Vol. VII. Pag. 284. An. 1380. He was An. 1381. deprived by the Pope, who gave it to

* CARDINALIS PERUSINUS, An. 1381. After him I find

* JOHN NOTTINGHAM poſſeſs'd of it 1384. he was An. 1397. made Archdeacon of Nottingham, and afterwards Treaſurer of York; and ſo quitted this.

* NICHO-

NICHOLAS HEREFORD, S. T. P. ſucceeded, by the King's Gift Feb. 16. 1397. He quitted it next Month for the Treaſurerſhip.

* THOMAS HANLY was poſſeſs'd of it An. 1399. and reſigned it 1417.

* RICHARD PROCTOR, ſucceeded, being admitted Oct. 10. 1417. on Hanley's Reſignation. He reſigned it 1425. and was ſucceeded by JOHN CASTEL, LL. B. admitted July 7. 1425. He reſigned about 1435. being then made Prebendary of Wetwang, in the Church of York.

RICHARD ROTHERAM ſucceeded about 1435. he occurs poſſeſs'd of it 1438. and 1444. and died 1455. being Chancellor of Exeter; having, as I judge, quitted this An. 1448. on taking that Dignity, to

* JOHN DILEWE, for I meet with him poſſeſs'd of it 1451. He died 1460.

* JOHN ASHBY, Treaſurer of this Church, ſucceeded, being admitted July 6. 1460. on the Death of Dilewe. He died 1464. and was ſucceeded by

* ROBERT JEFRYS, collated Aug. 16. 1464. on the Death of Aſhby. He was, 1469. made Archdeacon of Salop. His Succeſſor was

* THOMAS YEON or YON, admitted March 21. 1471. on the Reſignation of Robert Jeffrys. He died next Year, and was ſucceeded by SIMON TAWE or TAWRE, admitted Nov. 14. 1472. on the Death of Yeon.

* JOHN ARUNDEL, was collated Oct. 18. 1476. He was 1479. made Canon of Windſor, when I preſume he quitted this; for I find

* RALPH HEITCOTE poſſeſſed of it 1481. He quitted it, or died 1487. for I find

* SAMPSON ALEYN, collated to it Dec. 12. 1487. on the Death, as 'tis expreſt in my Acount, of Heitcote. He died 1494. being alſo Prebendary of Lichfeild; but who ſucceeded I find not, unleſs it ſhould be

WALTER STONE, LL. D. who in the Regiſters at Lambeth, An. 1507. is ſtiled Chancellor of Hereford, though whether of the Church, or Dioceſe, I am to ſeek. He died 1518. being Vicar of Stepney Co. Middleſex; though before his Death, I find

* WILLIAM BURGHILL, ſaid to be admitted Chancellor 1516. He quitted it 1518. for the Treaſurerſhip, to JAMES BROMWICH, An. 1518. In his Will dated Aug. 31. 1523. and prov'd May 10. 1524. he willed to be buried in Salisbury Cathedral (whereof he was Archdeacon) or Hereford, and made John Vyal, Canon of Hereford, his Executor.

WILLIAM HULL, A. M. ſucceeded, being collated Ap. 13. 1524. In his Will dated Aug. 9. 1448. he appoints to be buried in the Cathedral, between Biſhop Bothe's Tomb, and St. James's Altar; and a like Inſcription to be on his Graveſtone, as on Archdeacon Robert Jeffrys's Graveſtone.

JOHN ELTON, alias BAKER, LL. B. ſucceeded, being collated Aug. 13. 1543. In his Will dated Ap. 17. 1547. proved Oct. 8. 1547. he appointed to be buried in Salisbury Cathedral, where he was Canon, near Mr. Robert Audeley.

JOHN COMPTON, alias THEALE, S. T. B. Prebendary of Worceſter, ſucceeded, beeing collated Jan. 8. 1547. He died 1555. and was ſucceeded by EDWARD BASKERVILLE, S. T. P. collated May 8. 1555. He died about Jan. 1566 and was, as I preſume, buried in this Cathedral, as he directed in his Will dated Jan. 11 1566. in which he made Edward Cowper, Archdeacon of Hereford, his Executor.

WILLIAM PENSON, A. M. Rector of Cradley, ſucceeded, being inſtalled June 23. 1566. In his Will dated June 27. 1587 he names no Place of Burial, but gives his Eſtate to his Wife and eldeſt Son Silvanus.

MORGAN POWEL, S. T. B. ſucceeded, being inſtituted June 5. 1587. He died 1621. and was buried at Cradley, where he was Rector, with this Inſcription:

Here lieth the Body of Morgan Powel, B. of Divinity, brought up in Braſen-Noſe College in Oxford, and afterwards Chaplain in Houſhold to the right Reverend Herbert, Lord Biſhop of Hereford, and for a long time Parſon of this Pariſh; in all which Places he left extraordinary Note of his ſingular Integrity and Love of all.

Whom City, Shire, and all that knew commended,
There need no Tomb or Virtues not befrinded;
Whom all Men loved he cannot be forgot,
Tho' I his Tombſtone him reported not;
Yet let me take my Pride that cloſe him in
That was of all Men fartheſt from the Sin
The meekeſt Man alive, his Houſe and Board
Were ever Sidans, and a Deed his Word
Among the Virtues all there is not one,
Which in his Heart had not her Manſion. A. D. 1621.

* THOMAS

THOMAS GODWIN, S. T. B. Son to Biſhop Godwin, ſucceeded, being inſtalled June 8. 1621. He died 1644. being Rector of Whitborne, and alſo, as I take it, Vicar of Newland, and Prebendary of Landaff.

RICHARD COKE, A. M. Son to Biſhop Coke, ſucceeded, being collated Nov. 8. 1644. In his Will dated March 9. 1680. and proved May 9. 1682. he appointed to be buried in Eſtnor Church Co. Hereford, of which he was Rector.

JOSEPH HARVEY, A. M. Rector of Weſton juxta Roſs, ſucceeded, being collated Feb. 27. 1681. He quitted all his Preferments An. 1716. on Account of not taking the Abjuration Oath. And dying afterwards An. 1720. was buried at Weſton, with this Inſcription on his Monument:

Subtus jacet, Joſephus Harvey, apud Newport in agro Salopienſi Natus,
Et primis inibi Bonarum Artium rudimentis inſtructus:
Indeque ad ædem Chriſti tranſmiſſus gradu Magiſtrali ornatus eſt
Ad Scholam deinde Grammaticalem Hereford evocatus
Ejuſdem Inſtaurator & Gymnaſiarcha emicuit.
Cumque Theologus eſſet omnibus numeris abſolutus,
Eccleſiæ Cathedralis Ibidem Prebendarius, mox & Cancellarius
Et hujuſce inſuper Parochiæ Rector primus evaſit;
Ubi & ædificium quolibet Monumento præſtantius
Ex lapide quadrato extruxit.
Poſtquam cum morbo inveterato per multos annos colluctaſſet:
Spectatum & magnum exemplum Patientiæ;
Placide e vitâ ſeptuagenarius emigravit,
Pridie Idus April. A. D. 1720.

Sub hoc etiam marmore conduntur cineres Annæ Harvey ejuſdem filiæ
Primogenitæ in ipſo juventutis flore decerptæ A. D. 1707.
Oliva Harvey optimo marito Filiæque Chariſſimæ poſuit.

THOMAS BISSE, S. T. P. ſucceeded, being collated Aug. 1. 1716. on the Incapacity of Harvey. He is living 1723. Rector of Cradley and Weſton; Portioniſt of Ledbury, and Prebendary of Hereford.

Treaſurers of HEREFORD.

THE Corps of this Dignity is the Impropriation and Advowſon of Bockleton Co. Worceſter, rated at 15*l.* 8*s.* for firſt Fruits.

* ELIAS

* ELIAS de Briſtol, held this Office 1145. As did

* REGINALD, about 1150. in Biſhop Foliot's time.

* THOMAS FOLIOT, as I preſume, poſſeſs'd it 1160. As did

IVO, 1173. whoſe Obit was kept here 15 Cal. Aug.

GILBERT, as I judge, held it about 1200. His Obit was 3 Non. May.

ELIAS de Radnor enjoy'd it about 1217. In 1230. he was made Biſhop of Landaff.

RICHARD de Graveſend was preferred from this Dignity 1258. to the See of Lincoln.

GILES de Avernbiry held it 1262. In his time, viz. about 1264. Biſhop Aquablanca appropriated and annex'd the Church of Bockleton to it.

* WILLIAM de Rous ſeems to have ſucceeded 1271. on Avernbiry's being made Dean that Year; for it is plain, he held it 1272. and dying 1277. was ſucceeded by

LUKE de Brett, or Brecc, collated 8 Id. April 1277. On the Death of Rous he enjoyed it 1288. and, as I ſuppoſe, till the Collation of

* JOHN de Swinfend, who was collated 12 Cal. April 1292. He was An. 1294. made Precentor, and

* ROGER de Sevenock, placed in his Stead 1294. He died 1299. and was ſucceeded by

* ROGER de Cantuaria, collated 8 Cal. Feb. 1299.

* WILLIAM de la Barre, was collated Cal. June 1303. on the death of Cantuaria.

* NICHOLAS de Reygs, or Reygate, was collated 9 Cal. April 1304. on the Death of Barre. He died 1307. and was ſucceeded by

THOMAS de Pembridge 1307. He died 1328. and was ſucceeded by

* JOHN de Ewe, collated Oct. 23. 1328. To whom ſucceeded

* THOMAS de Bolere, or Boleye, collated March 17. 1330. He held it not long, for I find

* JOHN de Chaumbre poſſeſſed of it 1331. He reſigned it 1333. and was ſucceeded by

* HENRY de Shipton, collated Dec. 22. 1333. He exchanged it, as I judge, with RICHARD de Sidenhall about 1341. for the Archdeaconry of Salop.

* JOHN BOLER was collated Dec. 2. 1348. on the Reſignation of Sidenhall.

* ROGER MEY was collated 1367. on the Reſignation of Boler; as was

* ROBERT

* ROBERT de Upcote, June 29. 1368. on the Reſignation of Mey. The next was

* ROBERT JONES, collated March 31. 1377. on the Reſignation of Upcote.

* NICHOLAS HEREFORD was collated March 20. 1397. but how it became vacant is not ſaid. In 1417. he reſign'd it, taking on him the Habit of a Monk at Coventry.

* RICHARD NORTHOP, ſucceeded, being collated Nov. 6. 1417. The next I find is

* RICHARD ROTHERAM, he occurs 1430. and quitted it 1434. for the Chancellorſhip.

* WILLIAM MIDDLETON, ſucceeded, being collated June 27. 1434. He quitted it about 1440. for the Precentorſhip.

* THOMAS WASSAYLE held it about 1440. and reſigned it about 1443.

* RICHARD RUDHALL, ſucceeded, being collated Nov. 18. 1443. In 1446. he was made Archdeacon of Hereford; and ſucceeded by

JOHN ASHBY, collated Aug. 5. 1446. In 1460. he was made Chancellor, and ſucceeded by

* RICHARD PEDE, collated Aug. 6. 1460. In 1462. he was elected Dean, and ſucceeded by JOHN ap Richard, 1462. He was alſo elected Dean the ſame Year.

* ROBERT JEFFRY, ſucceeded, being collated March 19. 1462. on the Reſignation of John ap Richard. He quitted it 1464. for the Chancellorſhip, and was ſucceeded by

* JOHN ARUNDEL, collated Aug. 22. 1464. on the Reſignation of Jeffry. In 1476. he was made Chancellor, and ſucceeded by

* SIMON MASSINGHAM, alias STALLWORTH, for I find him poſſeſs'd of it 1476. And 1477. he reſigned it, being Prebendary of Lincoln, and was ſucceeded by

ADRIAN de Bardis, collated Jan. 27. 1477. He was alſo made Prebendary of Lincoln, and reſigned this, and was ſucceeded by

ROBERT SHERBORNE, collated Dec. 14. 1486. on the Reſignation of Bardis. He was 1505. preferred to the See of St. David, and, as I preſume, ſucceeded by OWEN POLE, for he occurs poſſeſs'd of it 1506. In his Will dated Dec. 10. 1509. and proved March 8. following, he ſtiles himſelf Treaſurer, and wills to be buried at Hereford.

JOHN WARDROPER, I preſume, ſucceeded, for he occurs poſseis'd of it 1510. and quitted it 1511. on being made Archdeacon of Salop.

RICHARD JUDDE, Rector of Ross, succeeded, being collated June 22. 1511. In his Will dated May 11. 1512. and proved June 15 following; he stiles himself Canon of Hereford, and wills to be buried in the Cathedral in St. Anne's Isle.

EDMUND FROWCESTER, S.T.P. succeeded, being collated July 1. 1512. He was the same Year made Dean, and succeeded by

WILLIAM GOBARD or GILBERT, afterwards Archdeacon of Salop, collated Feb. 22. 1512. He held it not long, for I find

HENRY MARTIN possess'd of it 1514. He quitted it next Year, being made Archdeacon of Salop; and was succeeded by

HUGH POLE, A.M. collated April 15. 1515. He resigned 1518. and was succeeded by WILLIAM BURGHILL, LL.D. collated Jan. 5. 1518. on the Resignation of Hugh Pole. In his Will dated Aug. 3. 1525. in which Month he died, he appointed to be buried in the Cathedral, with this Epitaph on his Gravestone, which if ever placed there, has long since been defaced.

Hic jacet Magister Will. THE Profits of this Dignity valued at 41*l*. 17*s*. 11*d*. ariſe out of Penſions, Procurations, &c. having no other Endowments except the Perquiſites of its Office.

* WILLIAM held this Dignity 1111. as did

GEFFRY, about 1118. and died poſſeſs'd of it 1120.

* ALEX. WALTUNE enjoy'd it about 1135. His Obit was celebrated here 16 Cal. June.

PETER occurs poſſeſs'd of it 1149. His Obit was kept here 17 Cal. April.

WALTER held it about 1154. as did

RAIPH about 1163. and

ROBERT de Oxenford 1173.

RALPH FOLIOT occurs Archdeacon 1176. and 1192. and died much about 1195.

WILLIAM enjoy'd it about 1200. As did

* WALTER FITZWALTER, 1214. as we learn in Prynn's Collectanea, Vol. III. Pag. 40.

* WILLIAM was Archdeacon in 1220, and 1234. As was

HENRY BUSTARD, 1240. And

WILLIAM de Conſtens 1255. and 1287:

RICHARD de Hertford ſucceeded about 1290. and held it 1296.

HENRY SCHORNE or SHORNE, LL. D. was collated May 27. 1303.

THOMAS de Chandos was collated 1317. on the Reſignation of Shorne.

* JOHN de Barton was admitted March 5. 1332. on the Death of Chandos. The next I find is JOHN de Bedwardeyn, alias Smithes, collated Sep. 24. 1369. He reſigned it 1379.

JOHN KINGSTON, ſucceeded, being collated April 3. 1379. on the Reſignation of Bedwardeyn. He quitted it 1404. being made Prebendary of Laughton, in the Church of York, which he died poſſeſſed of 1415. and was buried at Southwell.

An. Dom. MDCXXXVII. Ætat. ſuæ LXXII.

Anagram. { Joannes Beſt / es at ne nobis. } Maria conjux fideliſſima amoris et Virtutis ergo M. L. Q. P.

Sat tibi non nobis, Eccleſia, Patria, Conjux,
Vivis, ait, moriens optime vive Deo.

All that was Mortal of him here doth lye,
His Name no more than his bleſt Soul can dye,
On whom the Baptiſt's impreſs we may ſtamp,
He was a burning and a ſhining Lampe.
On Earth, of Knowledge he had got ſuch ſtore,
That only Heaven it ſelf could make it more.
He tooke Death on him as a new Degree,
And did proceed to Immortalitie.
The ſilent Marble will too weakly praiſe
This Paradox of worth to future days,
Each Heart of him will be a living Roome,
Unles't be One more Marble than his Tombe.
